His Letter to John Barrett Made Public in Its Entirety.

Declares His Own Countrymen Are Responsible for the Continuation of War in the Philippines.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Sun has the following from Louisville, Ky.: Mrs. H. W. Lawton, widow of the American general killed by Filipino sharpshooters, has given out in full the letter to Hon. John Barrett, written by her husband. It is as follows:

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 6, 1899.—The Hon. John Barrett, ex-Minister to Spain, Reviewer of Reviews, New York—Dear Sir: Your letter, with proof of your able article for the Review of Reviews, duly reached me. I thank you for them. I handed them to some of the officers to read, and they have been read and they have misled them so that I am not quite sure of your address. This article, like your letter, is the best I have ever read in America on the Philippines and Asia. Things were a little slow at first, but words were put into my mouth that I never said, and you with you that mistakes have been made here, but I would to God that the whole truth of this Philippine situation could be known by every one in America. I wish the people could know it as I know it and as you know it, for I regard you as the best informed and most important authority on all these Asiatic questions, and I think the President made a mistake in not naming you as a member of the Philippine Commission.

I know that if the real facts in connection with the history, inspiration and conditions of this insurrection and hostile ruptures, local and external, such as the Katman Revolutionary Society, and the unjust that now encourage the enemy, as well as the actual position of these Philippine Islands and people and the relation to this great East, which you have set forth so ably, could be understood at home in America, that the political talk of unjust shooting of the government into the Philippines or of unjust threats of hanging down our flag in the Philippines.

You are right. Some of us have modified our views since we first came and if these so-called anti-imperialists of Boston would actually ascertain the facts of the case here, and not in distant America, they, whom I dislike to believe to be other than honest men informed, would be convinced of the error of their exaggerated statements and conclusion of the cruel and unfortunate effect of their publications here.

It is kind of you to caution me about exposure under fire, but if I am shot by a Filipino bullet it might as well come from one of my own men. These are strong words, and I know they are, but I have no other observation, confirmed by stories of captured Filipino prisoners, that the continuance of fighting is chiefly due to the unjust treatment from America and circulated among ignorant natives by leaders who know better.

This letter, which is strictly personal, does not answer all your questions, but I hope I shall see you here soon in some such way as possible, and I shall be glad to see you in person. Thanking you again for your kind words in praise of my humble efforts, I am yours very truly, H. W. LAWTON.

PRESIDENT HAS NO FEAR

theme. He exhorted his hearers to remember that a divine hand formed man and that it is the duty of the human product to strive to keep the temple worthy of the dwelling of the holy spirit. There was no reference in the sermon to the President or to political affairs. A noticeable fervor was thrown into the ritualistic portion of the pastor's prayer, in which guidance and strength were invoked for the President.

In addition to the drive taken by Mr. and Mrs. McKinley this afternoon, they received numerous callers, who wanted a handshake. The visitors were mostly fellow townspeople, though there were groups of commercial men who went from the hotels to get a grip from the President's hand.

There has been no change in the President's plans. He will probably vote early Tuesday morning and then remain at home to watch the casting of ballots throughout the land, as reported to him by lieutenants in places which are regarded as essential to victory. He has at his command private telephone and telegraphic wires and an extra force of operators.

STANCHFIELD GIVES UP FIGHT.

Convinced That Democracy Cannot Carry New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—John B. Stanchfield, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, according to an intimate political friend, is convinced that the Republicans will sweep the State on Tuesday.

Mr. Stanchfield's hopes have given way to despair, according to one of the men with whom he talked on Saturday night while in this city. He and his friends north of the Bronx estimated that they would be able to keep the Republican plurality up State down to 80,000. If the counties south of the Bronx should give the 100,000 Democratic plurality which Croker promised the Democrats would carry the State by 20,000 plurality.

While he was here Mr. Stanchfield learned enough about the local situation to become satisfied that the party plurality south of the Bronx would fall tens of thousands short of what local leaders had been promising. This fact, his friend said, convinced him that defeat was inevitable, and that the Republicans would carry the State by a large plurality.

WOOLLEY'S FINAL STATEMENT.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 4.—John G. Woolley spent the day quietly here, resting in preparation for his last day's work of the campaign to-morrow. Mr. Woolley this evening issued the following statement:

We prohibitionists do not divide our work into campaigns. It goes right on. I go East to Toronto, New York and Baltimore to make the same kind of speeches I have delivered for thirteen years. With our share in the present canvass I am well satisfied. There is such vastness in a Federal election that one cannot foretell or even tell after his effect on it, but he may know always and rejoice in knowing the quality of his message to his country at so great a time. The Democratic party has assumed an electorate of galleys slaves and preaches mutiny. The Republican party has assumed a civic monitor, half hog, half hypocrite, and preaches "prestige abroad and prosperity at home." The prohibition party has assumed manhood, liberty and independence and preaches Christ, the king and savior of the world.

THE MAN WHO STOLE $750,000 FROM THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF NEW YORK. FROM A PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN THE DAY AFTER HIS CAPTURE.

WHEN Cornelius L. Alvord Jr., former note teller of the First National Bank of New York, who fled from New York because he had embezzled nearly $750,000, was arrested in Boston a few days ago he said to the detectives: "I have played and lost; I'll take the consequences!"

He went back to New York not a heartbroken nor crestfallen man. He fully realizes the punishment which he dealt out to him, and takes his capture philosophically. He told the detectives he had no one to blame but himself. He was anxious to exonerate any clerk or official connected with the bank of blame which may have been attached to them. Alvord is credited with having stolen $500,000 from the bank. $50,000 he says he spent yearly for living.

CLAIMS OF CHAIRMEN IN VARIOUS DOUBTFUL STATES

Epitome of Estimates as Submitted to The Call by Managers of the Two Parties.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Call and the New York Herald have received telegrams from the chairman of doubtful States giving their respective estimates of the vote on Tuesday next. The Republican State Committee claims New York State will give McKinley a plurality of 100,000. This is based on a canvass in all of the counties.

Charles Herly, chairman of the Republican State Committee, says Indiana is sure and safe for McKinley and Roosevelt by over thirty thousand.

George S. Long, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, writes: "As conditions stand to-day, the Democrats are justified in asserting that Ohio will go against the administration, not on party, but on patriotic and anti-trust lines. Corruption alone can prevent."

Leslie Combs, chairman of the Republican State Committee, estimates that McKinley will carry Kentucky by 25,000 to 30,000 plurality. Former Governor J. B. McCreary, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, claims that Bryan will carry the State by 20,000.

J. Frank Ailee, chairman of the Republican State Committee, estimates that Delaware will give 1000 plurality for McKinley and Roosevelt.

T. J. Atkins, chairman of the Republican State Committee, telegraphs that Missouri will give McKinley a small majority.

M. Siebert, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says that Missouri will give Bryan a majority of from 40,000 to 60,000. It will give Mr. Deckerly the State, he says. "We will control the next General Assembly," he added, and elect thirteen, if not fifteen, Republican members to talk of carrying Missouri."

W. H. Edmondson, chairman of the Fusion State Committee, telegraphs that Missouri will give McKinley a large majority for Bryan, and will join in the great landslide that is coming to him.

P. L. Hall, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says the estimate of the committee is that the Bryan electors will have a plurality of 15,000.

W. H. Edmondson, chairman of the Republican State Committee, says: "I have no reason to change my estimate of a plurality of from 5000 to 7000 for McKinley, made several days ago."

Each party insists that it will surely carry Kansas on Tuesday. Close observers declare the outlook is uncertain. Chairman Albaugh of the Republican State Committee predicts 25,000 plurality for McKinley. Chairman Ridgeley of the Fusion Committee gives the State to Bryan by 15,000 plurality.

William O. Dawson, chairman of the Republican State Committee, says that West Virginia will give McKinley about 17,000 plurality.

W. H. Edmondson, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says if the Democratic majority is below 3000 in Delaware it should be attributed to the characteristic methods of Hanna and Adickes.

Frederick H. Rowe, chairman of the Illinois Republican State Committee, telegraphs that the outlook is uncertain. He has taken under direction of the Republican Committee, shows a Republican plurality outside of Chicago of 80,000. He figures the Republicans will carry Cook County by 25,000.

Walter Watson, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says indications point to the election of Alshuler and the delivery of the electoral vote of Illinois to Bryan. He has repeatedly said that the State, outside of Cook County, would give Bryan and Alshuler 20,000 majority.

Parker Martin, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says: "Indiana will give the Democratic national and State ticket a large plurality. The Republican claim that we will lose among farmers is preposterous. We will make out in the country districts as well as in the cities."

American Liner Sustains Very Serious Accident in Midocean.

Heavy Sea Lifts the Propellers Out of Water and the Starboard Engine Racing Is Nearly Demolished.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The steamer St. Paul of the American line, Captain Roberts in command, arrived in port today, twenty-four hours late, with her starboard propeller gone and her engine room badly damaged. The statement of the officials vary as to the cause of the accident, but the damage sustained by the steamship will probably amount to several hundred thousand dollars.

The St. Paul left Southampton and Cherbourg on October 24 with a full cargo, 316 cabin passengers and 245 in the steerage. About 8 o'clock on the evening of Monday last, while some of the saloon passengers were still at dinner and others were promenading, a sudden shock was felt all over the ship, although it was not sufficiently severe to cause a panic. The engines were stopped for a moment, but it is said that during that brief time the whirling machinery, free of the weight of the propeller, wrought havoc in the engine room. The officials of the steamship refused to allow anyone to enter the engine rooms.

One of the engineers of the St. Paul made the following statement to-night: "It will take five months to repair the damage, which is unusually big. The starboard engine is a wreck. The ship did not strike a reef, but the propeller was struck by her, throwing the stern out of the water and the propellers, having no resistance, naturally fell into the sea. The shock caused the starboard engine to race and the starboard tail shaft broke in two and with the wheel fell into the water. The damage done is not surprising when you take into consideration the sudden liberation of 1000 horsepower completely wrecked, two piston rods are bent, one connecting rod is bent and the starboard engine is sprung. The starboard engine is wrecked beyond repair."

James A. Wright, second vice-president of the International Navigation Company, which controls the American line, was a passenger on the steamship, having gone aboard to bring back his family. He said:

"I was smoking in my stateroom when I felt a tremor throughout the ship. I thought that probably my head had fallen away a few points and that she had in consequence stopped. The shock was so slight that the average passenger did not apprehend that anything unusual had occurred. I went below to find out what was the matter. I found that ship had lost her starboard propeller, together with part of her tail shaft, and had otherwise damaged her machinery."

"Captain Roberts and Chief Engineer John Hunter are making a report against that we struck a derelict. We were running at full speed at the time, but were not overtaking her engines or driving her. The derelict was a small steamer, the accident, happened to be passing through the pantry and immediately struck the boiler, causing the derelict of the steam. About the same time the assistant engineer happened to be in the vicinity of the boiler, and the propeller struck something and dropped off, carrying with it a portion of the tail shaft, which broke just inside the stern shaft. The derelict was a small steamer, worked splendidly and the engines were brought to a full stop in ten seconds."

The derelict was a small steamer, worked splendidly and the engines were brought to a full stop in ten seconds. The derelict was a small steamer, worked splendidly and the engines were brought to a full stop in ten seconds.

Samuel Bettie, acting manager of the American line, said to-day, after consultation with Chief Engineer Hunter, that the derelict was a small steamer, worked splendidly and the engines were brought to a full stop in ten seconds.

FINAL ESTIMATES MADE BY REPUBLICAN MANAGERS

National Committee Claims Electoral Votes for McKinley.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Twenty-seven States, having 294 electoral votes, are claimed for McKinley and Roosevelt in the final estimate issued to-day by the Republican National Committee from its headquarters in this city. In its statement the committee says:

"On the eve of election the Republican National Committee's forecast of the result, based on absolutely authentic and unimpeachable figures and facts, differs from its previous forecasts only in increasing the magnitude of the triumph which Tuesday will bring to the cause of national honor and prosperity. All sources of the committee's information, including those of its very 'willing witnesses,' concur in indicating the conclusion that Tuesday's election will prove a veritable landslide for McKinley and seal the doom of Bryan and Bryanism forever."

"The prime cause of this irresistible and overwhelming popular revolt against the Bryan Populist ticket is perfectly obvious. It consists in the desire of the people to maintain the prosperity which they have enjoyed and now enjoy under the policies of McKinley's administration, and in their well-grounded fears of a public calamity in case Bryan were to be elected."

"The laboring man, his wife and his children remember the poverty, the misery and despair which shrouded their lives in the black years previous to McKinley's inauguration, and they remember with gratitude the relief which has come to them since their employment and largely increased wages. They listen now to Bryan's invitations to return to the old ways, and they respectfully decline them."

"Business men of the United States remember what happened to them in those dark years, and they know that the practical result of the election of 1896 has been in reference to the rehabilitation of the country, the removal of the commercial enterprise during the last four years. They correctly regard the proposition to endorse Bryan and his free trade theories as nothing short of insanity."

"Farmers are not likely to forget the evils which were reduced to bankruptcy and almost to beggary, and now with their mortgages lifted, their farm products bringing greatly increased prices and their homes filled with comfort and joy, they do not propose to change their conditions at the behest of the false prophet of 1896 and the anarchical agitation of 1900."

All who have remunerative work to do, all who have wages paid to them, all who have business to protect and develop, all who have money deposited in savings banks, all who have invested their own money, are confronted with a threat to reduce the value of their property by one-half and have been asked to ratify this suicidal proposition by their votes. As they constitute the great mass of the American people and as they are sane, sensible and honorable men, the overwhelming majority for McKinley and against Bryan which Tuesday will record itself on the ballot is a foregone conclusion."

"The people know that the country has prospered under McKinley, that wages have risen to a higher rate than ever before, that employment is abundant for all, that the savings of labor have increased so that they naturally have decided to elect him and continue present conditions of national prosperity and safety."

"The committee's final official forecast claims at least the following States for McKinley and Roosevelt: California, 55; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Illinois, 24; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Kentucky, 12; Maine, 6; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 20; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 10; New York, 35; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 21; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 22; Rhode Island, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 4; West Virginia, 6; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3. Total, 284."

This statement is signed by Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Nathan B.

Week Devoted to Scouting on the Island of Luzon.

Native Orchestra Lures Troops From Their Quarters Near Dagupan and Two Soldiers Are Slain.

MANILA, Nov. 4.—Last week was devoted to active scouting. The insurgents, having failed to crush a single garrison, are now experiencing a reaction.

Forty-fifth Volunteer Infantry destroyed large stores of rice, four granaries and a barack near Balao.

Captain Atkinson, with thirty-four men of the Thirty-seventh Volunteer Infantry, attacked 150 insurgents under Colonel Valenciano, recovering two American prisoners and capturing a considerable quantity of ammunition and supplies.

A native orchestra lured the United States troops from their quarters near Dagupan, where the insurgents attacked the rear column, two Americans and wounding three.

To-day Senator Ruessmann, representing the principal ex-insurgents in Manila, requested Judge Taft to forward to Washington a signed expression of their loyalty.

There is considerable excitement over the approaching Presidential election, with a good deal of betting on the result.
