

SECOND LARGE

Complaints Against Field Officers Are Made by Some Companies.

Need of Instruction in the Manual of Arms and in Drills Made Apparent—Delayed Commissions.

This is the month in the year when members of the different organizations of the National Guard are dissolved from drill, consequently there will not be anything doing in the armories, but there is a promise of unusual work with the beginning of the new year.

Little by little the rules and regulations of the Guard are being amended at superior headquarters. The latest has been an amendment as to the manner in which commissions are to be issued.

Major Margo, inspector of the Second Brigade, completed the work of inspection yesterday with company H of the fifth infantry, at Napa and Livermore, last week.

The muster at Napa was not what was expected, but a large number of men made a good showing as to numerical strength. As a whole, the inspection of the fifth infantry showed that physically the men in the different companies are all very acceptable, and as to uniform and adjustment of belts but very little could be discovered.

The inspection developed in a marked degree, in both the first and the fifth regiments, the apparent lack of interest on the part of the officers of the several battalions, in connection with the company of the line officers, the non-commissioned officers and on the men themselves.

It is apparent to this department that field officers do not do their whole duty. The visits are too perfunctory. Companies have been found in some instances where the officers were not present, and should have been reported by the visiting officers.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

It is also noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should. It is noted that some of the companies are not showing up as well as they should.

WHEELS AT THE WHEELS

Body of Colonel Liscum Is Escorted by Cavalry From Transport.

Casket Draped in National Colors Placed on a Caisson and Taken to Reservation Chapel.

The remains of Colonel Liscum, the hero of Tientsin, were removed from the Thomas yesterday afternoon and taken to the Presidio to await transportation East.

Two troops of the Sixth Cavalry, under command of Major Rucker, rode in from the Presidio to serve as an escort to the remains of the gallant soldier. The detachment drove to the entrance of the transport dock awaiting the appearance of the caisson, drawn by eight cool black mules, and proceeded to the chapel where the casket containing the remains. A carriage in which rode the hero's widow and a few friends followed the caisson.

The caisson was taken along Market street to Van Ness avenue, thence to the Presidio, and all along the route every soldier in the city followed the gallant soldier and of sympathy for the bereaved wife was shown.

On reaching the entrance the caisson proceeded to the chapel, where the remains were placed awaiting further instructions from Washington.

THOMAS' SOLDIER SICK SENT TO THE HOSPITAL Taken From the Transport on the McDowell and Landed at Presidio Wharf.

The transport Thomas' load of sick and convalescent soldiers was landed yesterday at the Presidio wharf and taken from there to the general hospital. Power ambulances were needed for these soldiers, as most of them were able to walk.

On reaching the hospital the men were formed in squads and examined preparatory to being assigned to the wards or convalescent camp.

Out of the total number received 106 were sent to the wards and the remainder were sent to the convalescent camp. They will receive their final discharge and be discharged from the service. The others were sent to the hospital to receive medical attention.

COMES FROM VALLEJO TO IDENTIFY A SUICIDE The Man Who Shot Himself in the Dewey House May Be an ex-Soldier.

Frank Lennon of Vallejo called at the morgue yesterday morning with the object of seeing the body of the man who committed suicide Monday in the Dewey House by shooting himself. He thought the man might be a friend of his.

Lennon was told that the body had been sent to the city undertaker, Joseph Hagan, 177 Sacramento street, who is preparing for interment in the potter's field. He called there, but was informed that the body had been interred Saturday.

Lennon was told that the body had been sent to the city undertaker, Joseph Hagan, 177 Sacramento street, who is preparing for interment in the potter's field. He called there, but was informed that the body had been interred Saturday.

Lennon was told that the body had been sent to the city undertaker, Joseph Hagan, 177 Sacramento street, who is preparing for interment in the potter's field. He called there, but was informed that the body had been interred Saturday.

Lennon was told that the body had been sent to the city undertaker, Joseph Hagan, 177 Sacramento street, who is preparing for interment in the potter's field. He called there, but was informed that the body had been interred Saturday.

HIGH BREED DOGS AND BIRDS TO BE EXHIBITED

ROXY SAVAGE TAYLOR JR., THE HANDSOME YOUNG ST. BERNARD DOG, SON OF A FAMOUS SIRE AND DAME, WHO WILL BE EXHIBITED FOR THE FIRST TIME AT THE BIG SHOW TO BE HELD IN OAKLAND.

AKLAND, Dec. 2.—The most ambitious exhibit of well-bred birds and four-legged animals ever undertaken on this coast will be the exhibition of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor Jr. and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

The dog, a handsome young St. Bernard, is the offspring of the famous dog Roxy Savage Taylor and the prize bitch To-morrow morning and running until Saturday.

CONVULSION OF GOLD AT LOCAL MINT

All Prior Records Broken in the Month of November This Year.

The branch United States Mint of San Francisco broke all previous monthly records of gold coinage in November, 1900, when gold dust, nuggets, bars and golden coins of foreign stamp aggregating in value $13,390,000 were converted into United States gold coin.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

The sum of $13,390,000 would have been attained in orders and not been received in coin $900,000 in half-eagles. Double eagles—the twenty-dollar pieces—are as readily produced as are the half-eagles.

SHAKESPEARE'S PLAY WITH TWO HEROINES

THIRTY SHAKESPEARE EVENINGS. Copyright, 1900, by Seymour Eaton.

Heroina of "The Winter's Tale." It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

It is not often that a novel or a drama has two heroines, and this happens nowhere but in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." But "The Winter's Tale" is unique among the plays of Shakespeare for other reasons, all of them more important and remarkable than this.

Need of Instruction in the Manual of Arms and in Drills Made Apparent—Delayed Commissions.

WHEELS AT THE WHEELS

HIGH BREED DOGS AND BIRDS TO BE EXHIBITED

SHAKESPEARE'S PLAY WITH TWO HEROINES