

ATTORNEY SAYS MARRY DAUGHTER OF ATTORNEY

Wedding of Miss Bertha Foote and Stanley Jackson to Occur at Her Father's Home Will Be Quiet One Owing to the Recent Death of Her Mother.

AKLAND, Jan. 23.—The wedding of Miss Bertha Isabel Foote, the daughter of W. W. Foote, and Stanley Jackson will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of W. W. Foote in this city. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father and of the bride's mother the wedding will be a very quiet and few relatives will be present. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William Carson Shaw, rector of the Church of the Advent of East Oakland.

MISS BERTHA ISABEL FOOTE, WHO IS TO MARRY STANLEY JACKSON. SHE IS THE DAUGHTER OF W. W. FOOTE, ATTORNEY, AND HAS JUST RETURNED FROM ABROAD.

Miss Bertha Foote has just returned from the Paris Exposition and a trip around the world. The engagement with Mr. Jackson has existed for about a year, having been entered into before the death of her father. She was a member of the county governing committee of the party of Mr. Foote's wish. A meeting was held at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. W. Foote, and he was present. He suggested $500 as the amount which he would have to pay to some persons who he declined to name, according to Mr. Foote's allegations.

Stanley Jackson is the son of the late John P. Jackson, Collector of the Port and owner of the Napa Soda Springs property. He is now engaged in the practice of law in San Francisco. Mr. Jackson graduated from the University of California with the class of 1894.

Miss Lillian Hewlett and Hamilton S. Elliott were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, 30 Rincon place, the Rev. W. B. Wilson officiating. It was a very pretty wedding. Miss Katie Well was bridesmaid and Mr. Clark groomsmen. Miss Hewlett is the daughter of Edward P. Hewlett, a capitalist, and Mr. Elliott is a member of the firm of Elliott Bros., grocers, Third and Polson streets.

The "at home" and installation of the officers of Young Ladies' Institute No. 7, which has been arranged for last evening in Loyal Hall, Tenth and Harrison streets, was postponed without date on account of the death of Margaret Della, one of the members.

At Home Postponed.

The most important theatrical attraction of the week, as it is also one of the most notable dramatic events of the year, is Mrs. Fiske's performance of Becky Sharp at the California Theater. Her impersonation is clever as the actress, the play itself is of unusual interest and the house is crowded with appreciative auditors every evening. "Becky Sharp" will continue to be the bill next week. "Tess" will be produced the third week of the engagement.

"The Fencing Master" is doing excellent business at the Tivoli Opera-house. The pretty opera, which was introduced on particularly the charming Venetian scene in the second act, and the various Tivoli favorites have all good opportunity. The play is being given over and over to better advantage than ever before here. Webb and Hartman are delightful in the comic parts. Tom Gulse, who played good songs, well sung, and Tom Gulse, Annie Myers and Julie Coates, all well cast.

"Darkest Russia" is the programme at the Central Theater and is pleasing the melodramatically inclined with its hair-raising scenes. The play opens on Sunday, which the play amounts to "A Celebrated Case," with James M. Ward, Irish comedian, will follow.

"The Star Boarder," with its bright specialties and comedians and dancers, is filling the Alhambra Theater nightly with a large and appreciative audience. The play is being given over and over to better advantage than ever before here. Webb and Hartman are delightful in the comic parts. Tom Gulse, who played good songs, well sung, and Tom Gulse, Annie Myers and Julie Coates, all well cast.

"The Orpheus" has an exceptionally good bill this week. The wonderful baby elephants, good music by the Montmartre orchestra and the "The Orpheus" Quartet; Eugene O'Rourke and others.

Fischer's present Hagen and Singer, Ida Howell, Waterman sisters, little Alma Wutrich, Hal Conlett and Ahern and Patrick, in a good bill this week.

The lady barbers and amateur night are the day's special attractions at the Chutes and Zoo.

The sale of single seats for the coming Henschel's recitals at Metropolitan Temple next month will open Monday at 5 o'clock at Sherman & Clay's music store.

Grand Mission at St. Ignace.

On next Sunday, at the 10:30 o'clock mass, the Rev. Marshall J. Boarman, S. J., of Chicago, will preach the opening of the mission of St. Ignace. The two fathers secured for this work, the Rev. Eugene Magevney, S. J., and the Rev. Marshall Boarman, S. J., of Chicago, will preach the opening of the mission of St. Ignace. The two fathers secured for this work, the Rev. Eugene Magevney, S. Sends Bullet Into His Head.

Benjamin Cohen, the proprietor of a second-hand clothing store at 157 Third street, sent a bullet into his head in the rear of the store yesterday afternoon. Cohen lived with his wife and five children at 725 1/2 Howard street, and, according to his wife, had been threatening to kill her for some time. He was shot by a bullet which was fired from a revolver which was hidden in a box of clothing.

Charged With Highway Robbery.

C. A. Berkeley and Joe Morrissey, who claim to be laborers, were jailed early this morning by Police Officer Farah and O'Connell on a charge of highway robbery. James Claffey, of 109 Jessie street, being their alleged victim. Claffey says he was riding on a street car when he was robbed. He was taken to the hospital and his wounds were treated. He is now in the hospital.

Barker Wants to Kill His Wife.

Henry Barker, who was released by the Supreme Court Tuesday on a writ of habeas corpus after having been sentenced to five years in Folsom Penitentiary for robbery and serving seven years of his sentence owing to a clerical error in the commitment, celebrated his release by getting drunk last night. During the night he was in a quarrel with his wife and she obtained a divorce from him and Captain Seymour was notified yesterday that he was searching for her Tuesday night with a knife, intending to kill her. He will probably be arrested.

Donato Blamed for Danesi's Death.

Antonio Donato, the bootblack who was charged a loaded pistol into a crowd near the corner of Green and Kearny streets, was said to be the man who shot Danesi yesterday for the death of Francisco Danesi, a shoemaker, whom one of Donato's bullets struck in the right eye.

FREDERICK BUYS KILLED IN TESLA COAL MINE

OAKLAND, Jan. 23.—Frederick Buys, a miner, was electrocuted this afternoon while he was working in a tunnel at the Tesla coal mines. No one witnessed the accident.

It was supposed that Buys was struck or that he inadvertently touched one of the heavy wires used in conducting the current in the operation of the mine machinery. His body was found by other miners and upon the spot was marked with a cross. He was taken to the hospital and died.

ROBERTSON CASE BACKLASH TO WEDDING AT BRIDE

Young Man Convicted of a Heinous Crime Gets Long Term.

Forty-Five Years in Folsom Penitentiary the Penalty for Complicity in Assault in West Oakland.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Jan. 23.—It is the judgment of the court that you be taken to the State Penitentiary at Folsom and be there imprisoned for the term of forty-five years.

In these words Judge Greene this morning pronounced the sentence upon the young man convicted of a heinous crime who had been in the State Penitentiary at Folsom for the term of forty-five years.

The assault for which Edson has received practically a life term was committed in West Oakland last spring. Miss Martha McGraw, the victim, was returning from church at a late hour when she was attacked by a man who had been drinking. She was taken to the hospital and died.

Edson was tried first, but the jury disagreed. Edson's trial followed and McGraw's case is now before the court.

Edson was charged with the murder of McGraw. He was found guilty and sentenced to forty-five years in Folsom Penitentiary.

ANGIE FOSTER, HEROINE OF SENSATIONAL ELOPEMENT TO WED L. O. HARRIS.

High Seas Ceremony Which Found Her to Albert T. Church Formally Declared Illegal by the Court.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Jan. 23.—Angie Foster, who figured as the school girl heroine of a romantic elopement and marriage to Albert T. Church, nephew of George W. McNear, the wheat king, four years ago, is to wed Leslie Carl Harris of San Francisco, her former partner having been issued a license by Deputy County Clerk David Sinclair. The young man is 23 years old and a native of New Orleans. Miss Foster is now 30 years of age. She and young Church were schoolmates about the same age when the affair of the tugboat occurred. They went to Honolulu after the runaway marriage, but upon their return the young bride and groom were separated. The boy husband was taken into charge by his mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Church, and sent East to an educational institution at Boston. During his absence Mrs. Church was appointed her son's legal guardian. In that capacity she brought a suit in the Superior Court for the annulment of the marriage, claiming that the young man was not of legal age and that the marriage on the high seas was illegal.

The decree of annulment was signed December 3, 1898.

HORACE G. PLATT CHOSEN TO DELIVER ORATION Will Eulogize Chief Justice Marshall Before the Bar Association of Oregon.

Horace G. Platt, the well known lawyer and post-prandial orator, has accepted the invitation of the Oregon State Bar Association to deliver the oration at the ceremony to be given at the headquarters of John Marshall's appointment as Chief Justice of the United States, which will be celebrated here on February 4 throughout the United States.

The Bar Association of San Francisco will celebrate the anniversary of a statesman whose chief eulogistic speeches will be made.

Chief Justice Marshall was appointed to his honorific office on January 21, 1801, but did not take his seat until February 4.
