the legislature Receive Signatures

SACRAMENTO, March 28.—When the Legislature adjourned 212 bills were left in the hands of the Governor for his approval or rejection. On the 25th of March he filed Assembly bills 221 and 222 with his approval. To-night just before 12 o'clock he handed in to the Secretary of State 111 more, making a total of 113, or more than half the number left in his hands by the adjourning Legislature.

Following is the list of Senate and Assembly bills approved to-night, including the two Assembly measures filed a few days ago:

Union-made clothing means well-made clothing

It is not only a matter of sentiment that every man should wear union-made clothes, but it is to his personal advantage. Union-made clothing is made in clean, light, airy workshops, where sanitary regulations are strict and the workmen are the most expert in the world. Their skill and ability figures in the making of the clothes—the cutting, sewing and finishing are excellent in every way.

Our ready-to-wear clothing is the only union-made garments on the Pacific Coast. We have our own workshops and employ union labor. When you buy here you buy union-made clothes and buy direct from the makers. We save you all the middlemen's profits. This saving alone more than pays for the extra amount in wages that union men demand over poor labor.

Although our clothing is union-made our prices are the lowest, as any one can demonstrate who buys here.

Our spring stock is all in and awaits the inspection of any man who wants good clothes at the lowest prices at which it is possible to sell them. The assortment represents every style of garment in suits or overcoats in almost every pattern that has been brought out this season. We mention below a few of our most popular values.

Among our most popular sack suits are some indigo blue serges at $7.50. The blue is the newest shade and is absolutely fast color; first-class farmer satin trimmings are used; every seam is stoutly sewed with silk; coat comes in single-breasted and the vest in the high-cut, six-button style, all sizes; price

$7.50 $10.00

At this price we also have some all-wool tweeds in the latest shades of checks and stripes. The styles are single and double breasted square-cut and round-cornered sack suits.

Values in our children's clothing

This department abounds in values in children's, boys' and youths' clothing, hats and furnishings. We are making special efforts to have this store recognized as a store for boys as well as men. Mothers will find the prices low, service good and the department thoroughly up to date.

Boys' two-piece suits made of all-wool material, ages 7 to 15 years, pants have double seat and knees and the coat is well made, having good linings and trimmings; buttons are well sewed on; the whole suit made to withstand rough wear; price

$5.00

Boys' wash suits in the Russian blouse and Cossack styles, ages from 3 to 6; suits come in different patterns and the colors are absolutely fast; price

45c, 70c, 95c and upwards

Boys' negligee shirts in spring patterns of all colors, 50c.

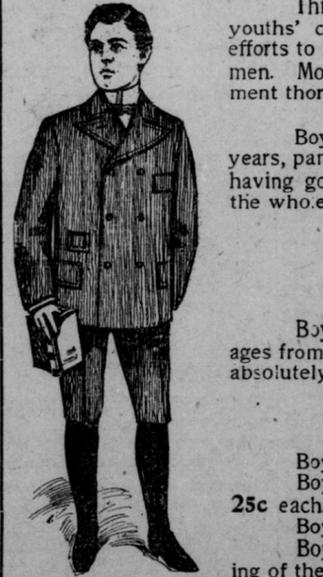

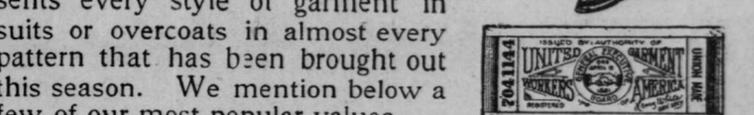

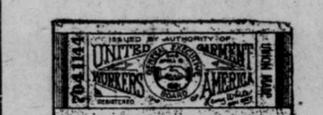

Boys' neckties in bows, tecks, four-in-hands and imperia's, 25c each.

Boys' straw hats, all shapes and styles, 25c, 45c, 75c.

Boys' washable sailors, with separable bands to allow washing of the hat, all colors, 45c.

See our windows. You will always find them interesting. Note particularly the exceptional prices.

Immense Nugget in Washington. ELLENSBURG, Wash., March 28.—A gold nugget worth $110 has been found in the Heron McCauley mine in Swauk district. The nugget will probably be exhibited at the Buffalo Exhibition.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE HEALTH HABIT.

Just as Easy to Form as Any Other.

We do not deliberately form our pet habits, but they are unconsciously acquired and grow as we grow, and by the time we learn they are hurting us we find them too strong to be easily broken.

Then why not form a good habit, a habit which will counteract the many bad ones? In other words, contract the unfashionable habit of being unhealthy.

The best health habit to get into is to have and keep a vigorous stomach; if you have a healthy stomach you get the best of your beloved coffee, smoke your favorite brand of tobacco, with little or no harm; the mischief begins when these things are forced upon the faithful stomach without any assistance.

Learn the habit of taking after meals some harmless but efficient digestive which will relieve the stomach of so much extra work.

Nature furnishes us with such digestives and when they are combined in such a pleasant preparation as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets they give the overworked stomach just the necessary assistance to secure perfect digestion of all the natural effects of cathartics and similar drugs.

The habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is as necessary to the weak stomach as food itself, and indeed to get the benefit from food eaten nothing better and certainly nothing safer can be used.

Take into account your bad habits and the expense they entail and then invest fifty cents in a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if your digestion for the next month is not vastly improved.

Ask the clerk in any drug store the name of the most successful and popular stomach remedy and he will say Stuart's.

Many families consider Stuart's Tablets as essential in the house as knives and forks.

They consist entirely of natural digestive principles without any effect or character of drugs; they have no cathartic action, but simply go to work on the food eaten and digest it.
