

THE NATIONAL GUARDSMEN MARCH INTO SANTA CRUZ TODAY. Troops From All Parts of the State Start for the Camp.

Special Dispatch to The Call. SANTA CRUZ, June 14.—Already the white tents of Camp Gage are dotting the hills and among the camp grounds and around the mountains the troops are practically ready for occupancy. Tomorrow, from the middle of the forenoon until well along into the evening, the troops will be arriving. They will come from the north and south and out of the east, for this will be the greatest camp of the State militia.

Major General Dickinson arrived yesterday and with him came the greater part of his staff. They have been working like beavers directing the men on the ground, arranging headquarters, receiving stores and preparing for the details upon which the success of the camp will depend.

This afternoon's train from San Francisco brought Brigadier General Warfield, the first of the brigadiers to arrive, followed by J. F. Burgin, his assistant adjutant general, with him, and he brought also a squad of cooks and stewards, for the second time, and they had already established themselves in camp at once.

Colonel D. E. Miles, adjutant general on the division staff, has been at the camp all day directing the details of the officers' accommodations, headquarters, furniture, mess arrangements, horses, stables, and other things, besides the comfort and accommodation of his own branch of the service. Major Schmitt and Major C. L. Hewes, General Dickinson's aids, are wearing out horseflesh on the camp road and Colonel Huber, the division commissary, is sitting in a barbed wire enclosure, surrounded by great piles of commissary stores that he is dealing out to brigade and regimental quartermasters and commissaries.

Of quartermasters and commissaries there are at least a score in the camp. Each brigade quartermaster and commissary upon the ground is getting his department in shape, and many of the regimental quartermasters have arranged. Lieutenant Colonel Hayes, adjutant general of the Third Brigade, rode into town today after the train from San Francisco. He was accompanied by several of the officers of the staff of the Third Brigade. Major Perkins, commissary of the Second Brigade, has been here since yesterday and he has brought his department to a state of readiness. He has been advancing his headquarters and is now nearly all in position.

This evening's train brought Colonel Beck and Colonel Runyon of the Government and Lieutenant T. S. Harloe and Gunner Richard Schmale of the naval militia with a detachment of eight men. They are in the care of the guns of the naval militia that will be used in the camp. There are four Hotchkiss ones belonging to the camp and they are waiting in the boxcar which brought them down. To-morrow morning the men from the naval militia will get them ready for use and they will be in position to which they will be assigned.

Santa Cruz is furnishing light, water and straw for the camp and it has built a road from the town to the reservation and during the encampment it is prepared to fill the road from end to end with buses and conveyances. The city has also provided a seventy-five foot staff that will fly the flag in front of division headquarters.

To-night a band concert is being given by the town band from the porch of the Hotel. The concert will be for the benefit of the city of Santa Cruz and the people and uniformed officers and soldiers and the city of Santa Cruz is preparing for a week of excitement and incident. To-morrow afternoon the division headquarters will be raised, a salute will be fired by the gun detachment from the naval militia and the city of Santa Cruz will take formal command of Camp Gage.

REPRODUCE BALLOTS FOR USE IN A VOTING CONTEST. Attempt Will Be Made to Prosecute Printer on Charge of Forgery.

BITTE, Mont., June 14.—The question as to whether it is forgery to reproduce coupons from a newspaper in a voting contest will probably be decided in a case that has just arisen here. The Butte Inter-Mountain has been carrying on a voting contest, the winners to get free trips to the Buffalo exposition. To-day D. L. Walton, an employe of the Peoria Publishing Company, was arrested, charged with forging coupons and selling them to voters. The Peoria Publishing Company does not deny making the plates and printing the coupons, but it denies any forgery in reproducing such a thing from the newspaper. Thousands of the bogus coupons have been voted, and the Inter-Mountain scheme is a forgery or not.

the progress of negotiations. His suspicion was increased by the actions of Barton, who was the "trader for the week" and who kept bobbing up and waiting for developments. He decided to communicate with Captain Seymour and an arrangement was made with the detectives to meet Gordon at Taylor and Turk streets, as he had telephoned to America that he was confined to bed and could not call at the office. Gordon was quickly placed under arrest and Crosby and Barton were found at 11 Taylor street. Crosby's eyes were painted black and his head bandaged. Gibson made him wash his face and the apparent indignation of his eyes disappeared. There was nothing the matter with him. The police are searching for the fourth man who called at America's office Thursday and who telephoned to Captain Seymour yesterday afternoon.

When the men were searched there were found, besides the Ward Consolidated certificate, a certificate for 5000 shares in the Clear Gold Mining Company of Denver, 10,000 shares in the Doctor Gold Mining and Milling Company of Colorado Springs and 20,000 shares in the Rockford Gold Mining and Milling Company of Cripple Creek. How the certificates came into the possession of the three men will be a matter for the court to decide. If possible, the certificate of the Ward Consolidated Company is said to be genuine, but the stock is worthless and not in the market.

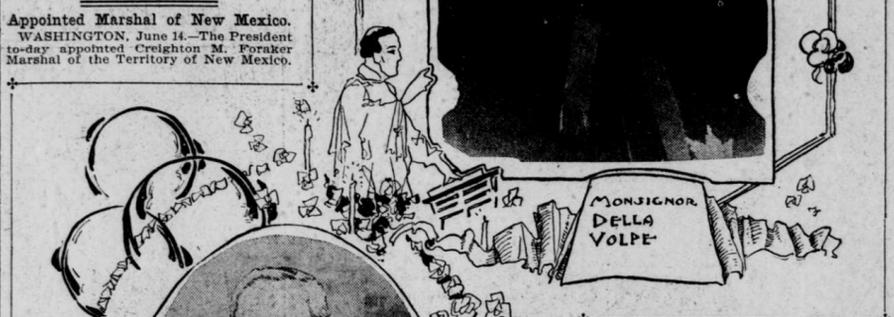

Nothing is known of the men here. In connection with their mining deals they evidently collected subscriptions for the "New Werner Edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica," as orders and other papers were found in their room at 11 Taylor street.

Lewis claims that after Gordon called at his office a certificate for 20,000 shares of oil stock, but as it was not endorsed it was worthless and he did not care to bother about it.

The three men refused to make any statement, saying they wanted to consult an attorney first.

MGR. OTTAVIO CAGIANO DE AVEZEDO TO BE MAJORDOMO OF THE VATICAN Present Chamberlain in the Pope's Household Will Be the Successor of Cardinal Della Volpe in the Most Important Position in the Service of the Pontifical Family

MGR. OTTAVIO CAGIANO DE AVEZEDO, the present Chamberlain in the Pope's household, will be the successor of Cardinal Della Volpe in the most important of the positions in the service of the pontifical family. Before 1870 the majordomo of the Pope was also the Prefect of the Apostolic Palaces, and thus united in himself all administrative and judicial power over the household. The events of September 20 caused many changes in this jurisdiction, and modifications were carried out which restricted the powers of the majordomo. Of all the sights once exercised by that functionary he now retains only that of always accompanying the Pope, and succeeds eventually to the governorship of the conclave. He is the chief of the singers of the papal chapel, and has the direction of religious ceremonies.

MONSIGNOR DE AZEVEDO. NARROW ESCAPES FOR THE GUESTS No Lives Lost in Burning Mineral Springs Hotel.

WEST BADEN, Ind., June 14.—Nearly 300 lives were imperiled by the fire which destroyed the celebrated Mineral Springs Hotel at this place early to-day. The alarm of fire came at 1 o'clock in the morning. To add to the terrors of the panic-stricken guests the electric light plant of the hotel failed a few minutes after the alarm was given, and the guests who did not face the flames were left to grope their way out of the darkness in the dark clothing and in the confusion of the night. The hotel was burned, but during the day the management accounted for 268 guests who were in the hotel, and was confident that there were no others who were in the hotel. The loss on the building is $250,000, with an insurance of $110,000. Most of the guests lost all the clothing and many of them their diamonds and jewelry. Aggregate of these losses it is believed is fully $50,000. In the hotel safe, which lies in the rear of the building, there is $10,000 which had been deposited by guests for safe keeping.

Many of the guests have hurried to their homes, and those remaining have found shelter at French Lick. The conflagration had its origin in the kitchen, which was on the ground floor of the hotel, immediately under two rows of sleeping rooms, all of which were occupied. The night watchman attempted to extinguish the blaze with hand grenades, but seeing that his attempts were unavailing, he called the fire department, and together they ran rapidly through the halls, kicking open the doors and arousing the sleeping guests.

COURT DECLARES STOCK LEGALLY TRANSFERRED. Dr. Fowler of San Jose Loses His Suit Against Another Medical Man.

SAN JOSE, June 14.—A suit brought by Dr. George W. Fowler against Dr. George W. Seifert, which involves the transfer of 50 shares of the defunct Union Savings Bank, was decided by Judge Rhodes to-day in favor of Seifert. An important side issue is the fact that the owner of the stock will be compelled to pay some $3000 to the bank for the transfer of the stock to the depositor.

Seifert had been made the defendant in a damage suit by J. P. Burke for alleged malpractice, and after this was settled he decided to go to Europe for a visit. Fowler claims that before the European visit, Seifert had been apparently in a prosperous condition, Seifert turned the stock over to him, so he could attend to it while his friend was away.

When Seifert returned from Europe the bank had failed, and he refused to take the stock. Fowler then charged Seifert with the loss of the stock, and the court decided in favor of Seifert, as a presumptively bona-fide transaction.

CITIZENS ARE ARRESTED AFTER THE ELECTION. School Contest in Cotati Is Fraught With Much Excitement and Promises Sensations.

PETALUMA, June 14.—An exciting election for Directors of the district school at Cotati, north of here a few days ago has led to the arrest of three prominent citizens of the district on charges of violating the election laws by intimidating voters with threats and otherwise forcing them to vote a certain ticket.

The three men arrested are Edward Tobin, the successful candidate in the election; E. P. Hamilton, the defeated candidate; and Anthony Stevens, a judge on the election board. Hamilton swore to the complaint against Tobin and the latter, knowing the shaky condition of the others, all have been arraigned and each one pleaded not guilty. The trial next Tuesday is awaited with interest, as perhaps a majority of the voters of the district will be on the witness stand. For years there has been a factional fight in the district.

SHASTA COUNTY MINES TO HAVE A RAILROAD. Company Is Incorporated to Make a Connection With the Southern Pacific.

REDDING, June 14.—There will be a railroad connecting the mines of the Trinity Copper Company, in Flat Creek district, with the Southern Pacific line at either Copley or Kennett. One of the first moves in the project was made Friday by the filing with the County Clerk of articles of incorporation of the Trinity Railway Company. In this State a mining corporation cannot carry on the business of a railroad company, so the Trinity Copper Company, which owns the Shasta-Klamath and Trinity copper properties and is preparing to install smelting plant, was forced to form what is in reality a branch company to conduct the railroad, over which ore, matte and coke will be hauled.

MONTEREY, June 14.—W. V. McGarvey, Horticultural Commissioner for Monterey County, has completed a tour of inspection through the county and reports excellent prospects for a fine yield of fruit in almost all the districts. In the Carmel Valley, the largest fruit growing section of the county, Commissioner McGarvey found the orchards in the Carmel valley in healthy condition and the only pest he found in any of them which seemed liable to give trouble was black scale, which he says will be controlled by the use of kerosene emulsion. Apples, peaches and cherries will yield about half a crop.

SANTA CRUZ CITIZENS ENTERTAIN DISPATCHERS. Mayor Welcomes the Visitors and They Spend Time in Inspection of Camp Gage.

SANTA CRUZ, June 14.—The train dispatchers who had been in convention in San Francisco were the guests of the Santa Cruz Dispatchers Association and the citizens of this city to-day. They arrived in four special cars over the broad gauge line at 2 o'clock. They were greeted by Mayor Parker, President of the Santa Cruz Chamber of Trade, and other prominent citizens. A short stop was made so they could enjoy the view of the stock raising in San Luis Obispo County and later removed here.
