EXCLUSION OF CHINESE DEMANDED

San Francisco Labor Council Addresses Epworth League Convention on This Topic

Request Is Made That Chinese Exclusion Law be Considered--Re-enactment Urged

The San Francisco Labor Council has addressed the following communication to the Epworth League Convention, which will be read at one of the sessions of that body during the week:

To the Fifth International Convention of the Epworth League--Friends: The San Francisco Labor Council, in the name of its 40,000 members engaged in the industrial affairs of the city, begs most respectfully to tender to your distinguished gathering its kindest greetings and sincerest wishes for the success of your work.

We bid you welcome in the name of the workmen and workwomen, organized for progress in the material affairs of life by improvement in the conditions under which we earn our daily bread. We bid you welcome in the name of the workmen and workwomen, organized for progress in the moral and intellectual phases of our being by the study and establishment of the principles of dealing between man and man. We bid you welcome in the name of the workmen and workwomen, organized to clarify the truth by the application of the virtues of the subjects life on earth.

We bid you welcome in the name of the workmen and workwomen, organized to clarify the truth by the application of the virtues of the subjects life on earth.

Looking to the Future. In the hours of relaxation that will diversify and lighten the more serious labors of the convention you will traverse our city, noting with an impartial, yet friendly, eye that which you may commend, as well as that which you must deplore, in our civic surroundings. You will note the thoroughness that extend with regal sweep from the bay to the hills, and the ways that lie between, where dwell the sons and daughters of toil; the towering dome and the glowing towers of the great cathedral, where wealth accumulates, and the haunts of idleness, where men decay. You will mark, on every side, the splendid mansions that were upon its bosom a world-wide commerce, hardly exceeded by that of any port in our country, and the growing tenements of the poor, where the swells break upon our shores in the never-ending, never-ending anthem of the city.

Friends, we ask you in all gravity, "What is the reason for this?" We ask you to look at the Chinese exclusion act, which we have already discussed with it we submit your candid and discerning judgment. We ask you to mark the progress of the Chinese exclusion act, which we have already discussed with it we submit your candid and discerning judgment. We ask you to mark the progress of the Chinese exclusion act, which we have already discussed with it we submit your candid and discerning judgment.

Coast People Oppressive. At the present moment the working people of San Francisco are in the Pacific, and are foundly apprehensive by reason of the approaching expiry of the Chinese exclusion act, the provisions of which have a term of five years, which will expire on the 1st day of July, 1902. We feel certain from all experienced eyes, and from the fact that the Chinese are now dependent for a livelihood, for that reason we have taken all possible steps to insure the re-enactment of the Chinese exclusion act at the coming session of Congress.

We may say here that the sense of the masses in the West is now, as it always has been, practically unanimous for the maintenance of Chinese exclusion. We recognize, however, that we must depend upon the sentiment of the citizens of other sections of the country for the support necessary to carry out this measure. We address you, and, furthermore, for the reason that, as we are given to believe, a large public opinion in the East, and a more restricted admission of Chinese. We cannot believe that these representations correctly express the attitude of the people of other localities. At any rate, we are convinced that in so far as such sentiment may prevail, it is based upon a knowledge of the facts. With your understanding of the facts, we would like to see you particularly to bring to the attention of the Epworth League, and to the attention of the workmen and workwomen, the fact that the Chinese in the Sunday schools and missions; we would, if need be, show them in the gambles and opium joints, and in the midst of the part taken by the Chinese as domestics in the American family; we would show the part taken by them as slave masters in their own families.

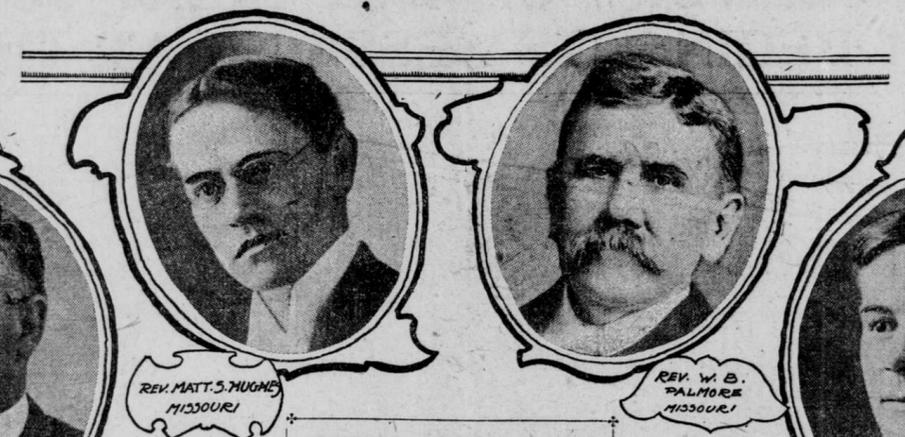

Bring Questions and Diseases. With the question of Chinese exclusion is primarily a question of preserving pure and unadulterated the ideals of American citizenship. It is a question of protecting ourselves, our wives, daughters and sons from the contamination by the degrading, repulsive and immoral characteristics of the lower class Asiatic. In its social aspect the question of Chinese immigration presents a number of well-defined and generally understood phases that are deeply interesting to the general public, and of which American people. We find that the Chinese bring with them, cultivate and hand down from generation to generation, a host of diseases, and even diseases peculiarly their own and yet entirely innocuous in their effect upon the Chinese, and that these diseases are a menace to our communities a social organism based upon the principle of race preservation and the right of self-defense.

LEAGUERS MUST PAY DOUBLE

Pool of Transfer Companies Causes Increase of Rates for Hauling of Baggage

It Now Costs Fifty Cents to Have Trunk Moved, Instead of Twenty-Five, as Before

HERE is trouble brewing among the transfer men now operating at the ferry building, and a free fight may be looked for any day. One faction calls the other "kick-ers and squealers" and the "kick-ers and squealers" respond with names that are certainly not parliamentary.

The situation is about as follows: When the Epworth League Convention was nearly due some one in authority went to the "outside" transfer men and asked them to take hold of the handling of the leaguers' baggage. An agreement was almost reached, the basis being the regular charge of 25 cents a trunk, when another factor appeared on the scene. This was a syndicate composed of the Oceanic Transfer Company, San Francisco Transfer Company, California Transfer Company, Signal Transfer Company, Commercial Transfer Company and Golden Gate Transfer Company. With the exception of the Oceanic Transfer Company, whose rate has always been 50 cents a trunk, all the others are what is known as "25-cent companies"; that is, their regular rate has hitherto been 25 cents for moving a trunk to any part of the city.

With the advent of the syndicate the Convention Transfer Bureau dropped its negotiations with the "outside" transfer men--those not connected with a syndicate. Soon after an agreement was reached by which the syndicate companies took hold of the handling of the baggage, and one and all made a flat rate of 50 cents. The California, Signal and Golden Gate companies never before took in the water front, but the chance to make 50 cents where before they were glad to get 25 cents brought them around to the ferry building.

Since the Epworth Leaguers began arriving the syndicate has had its men coming and going about the ferry building at will. The drummers wear the league cap and the police do not molest them. Should an unfortunate "outside" man show his nose inside one of the arches that span the front of the depot, however, he is greeted with a "Get outside, you run you in." The Pacific Transfer Company has always charged 50 cents to move a trunk, and is still maintaining its rate. Morton's charge of the convention was 35 cents. These concerns have secured a great deal of the business, and the syndicate has not done as well as expected, but that does not make any difference with the "outside" men, who think they have been unfairly dealt with in the matter.

On the other hand, the "syndicate" asserts that none of the outside men are responsible, and that a trunk lost means "lost without recourse." In regard to the doubling of the rates they have little to say, but claim that the companies are all alike in their expense in order to make prompt and careful delivery, and that 50 cents is a fair charge. The "outside" men say they have done business at the ferries and always made a living, paid their debts and never got into trouble over lost baggage. The end is not yet.
