

CZOLGOSZ, THE ANARCHIST, MAKES A FULL CONFESSION

Some time later Marie Isaak and Emma Goldman left Chicago for Buffalo. They visited the Exposition and then went to Rochester, where they visited Mrs. H. Hochstein, at 213 Joseph avenue. A little later Emma Goldman went to Allegheny City and there consulted with Carl Noid, who was taken into custody last Monday. From Allegheny City Emma Goldman went to Cincinnati, thence to St. Louis, thence to Chicago and then back to Buffalo.

CASE AGAINST WOMAN.

The secret police know, although Emma Goldman and Isaak now attempt to deny their intimacy with Czolgosz, that when Emma Goldman started for Buffalo Czolgosz accompanied her to the railroad station. Five anarchists now under arrest in Chicago have made statements to the effect that they saw Czolgosz while he was in Chicago consulting with Emma Goldman and Abraham Isaak. This renders the case against the Free Society complete, and it is likely that on or before September 19 Governor Odell will be asked to requisition the prisoners from the Governor of Illinois. Emma Goldman will precede the Isaak faction to Buffalo and, according to present plans, she may be in the dungeon in this city before the week is over.

Another point which was settled to-day by the prosecuting officials is the fact that President McKinley need not be in Buffalo during the examination of prisoners, either before the committing magistrate or Grand Jury at the trial. There are enough witnesses and medical testimony to establish the crime without the President, who would otherwise be the chief complainant, being present.

RELEASED MEN SHADOWED.

According to the police of Buffalo, Stutz and Walter Nowak have been released from custody, no evidence having been adduced that was strong enough to warrant their being held. It is true that Stutz has been released, but on the authority of Superintendent Bull it can be said that he can be arrested again at a moment's notice. He may be of more service free than in jail. He is being closely shadowed, and may lead the police to others who are wanted. Walter Nowak is said to have gone to Chicago to take employment as a cigarmaker. He went from police headquarters direct to the railroad station, where he took a train for Chicago. A secret service agent went with him, or, at least, was in the same car with him the entire distance from Buffalo to Chicago. Nowak may accept employment as a cigarmaker in Chicago, but it is certain that he will also be made use of by secret service agents to make some identifications.

Dr. I. Saylin, who entertained Emma Goldman and her mother when the two women were in Buffalo, is being sought by the police. It cannot be learned that a warrant for his arrest has been issued, but his explanations are earnestly desired. He left Buffalo suddenly last Friday night a few hours after the attempted assassination of President McKinley. His wife, who denies all knowledge of Emma Goldman, says that the doctor has gone in search of health, but that she knows nothing more of his present whereabouts than that he is far away from Buffalo.

WOUND REOPENED BY THE SURGEONS

Slight Irritation Causes New Operation, but Medical Men Are Not Apprehensive.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, Sept. 10.—Late to-night there was a slight scare at the Milburn residence, caused by the protracted visit of the consulting physicians, who remained almost two hours, and this was increased by the announcement in the official bulletin issued just before midnight that a slight irritation of the wound, discovered only to-night, had necessitated the opening of a few of the stitches.

As stated in the bulletin, which all the doctors signed, this irritation was attributed to the fact that a small portion of the President's coat had been carried into the body by the bullet, and although this foreign substance was removed a slight disturbance developed which made it necessary to open the wound.

The doctors seek to allay all apprehension by the positive statement that this incident cannot give rise to other complications, and their frankness in giving the news to the public leaves no reason to question their good faith. Further facts communicated in the bulletin, and the President is now well enough to begin taking nourishment in the mouth in the form of pure beef juice, was of course gratifying, but to the laymen the mere mention of a complication, however slight it might be, naturally created alarm. But the positive assurances were given that the only effect might be to delay slightly the healing of the wound. It was not in any way the result of a suggestion of blood poisoning. The physicians declared over their own signatures that it could not result in complications.

The opening of the wound was in no sense an operation. Several of the stitches were simply taken out, and after a thorough washing of the tissue the wound was again sewed up. Considerable delay was caused by the fact that a certain dressing desired by the surgeons was not in the house, and it was necessary to send to the city for it. The first time the messenger returned he did not have what was wanted and he had to make another trip.

After the bulletin was issued Secretary Cortelyou and Mr. Milburn came to the press tent to dispel any alarm that might have arisen with positive assurance of the unimportance of the incident. Secretary Cortelyou announced that there would not be another consultation until morning.

After all this it was quiet at the Milburn house, Dr. Rixey and Dr. Wasdin remaining on duty throughout the night.

GREATLY REJOICE AT HAPPY TIDINGS

Delegates to the Union Labor Convention Adopt Resolutions About the President.

Resolutions relating to the attempted assassination of President McKinley were presented to the convention of the Union Labor party last night. The first set, known as the Bowlin resolutions, were adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes. They read as follows:

Whereas, This convention of the Union Labor party has heard with grief on Friday last on account of the dastardly deed of the life of the beloved President of the republic, William McKinley; and whereas, the glad tidings have since come to us that there is good reason to believe that the President will recover from the cruel wounds inflicted by the fanatical wretch who so cowardly assaulted him; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Union Labor party halls with heartfelt gladness the improved condition of the President and expresses the earnest hope that many years of health and happiness may compensate him for the suffering and horror of the ordeal through which he is so bravely passing.

Resolved, That while rejoicing over the recovery of President McKinley, and recognizing the foul attempt upon his life as a crime against free government for which no punishment could be too severe, we condemn and denounce as shameful and unmanly all efforts to make political capital out of the agony and sorrow of the President, and we urge the party to speak to men who work for their daily bread: that we are our protection and the foul deed done on the afternoon of Friday will only make you the more vigorous in your protection of the lives of those whom you elect to office. Such men as you can work with the ballot the salvation of the country without resort to violence.

MINERS ABROAD FAIL TO GET FACTS ABOUT THE STATE FREE.

Difference Arises Between Board of Trade and Mineralogist.

A difference of opinion has developed between the State Mineralogist and the State Board of Trade concerning the method of distributing the publication of the State Mining Bureau. The latter recently the bulletins and other reports prepared under the direction of the State Mineralogist have been given gratuitously to any one who sought them. Out of this practice grew several abuses, one of which was the circulation of a valuable edition of any sort by second-hand book men, who then sold the copies at a round price when there was a demand for them. From this it resulted that a certain oil bulletin prepared by Professor Watt in the administration of State Mineralogist Cooper was soon exhausted. Copies were for sale for $1.50 in the second-hand book stores, and a speculator made hay while the sun shone by having it understood that he had a limited number of copies that he would sell at the price named, viz., $1.50 per copy.

When State Mineralogist Aubrey entered into office he found that several standard bulletins were out of print and there were not sufficient funds available to reprint them. He therefore concluded that all publications of the State Mining Bureau should hereafter have a price, and he took pains to have that fact advertised.

The State Board of Trade makes a business of disseminating information abroad concerning the resources of California for the purpose of encouraging immigration. The requests for such information cover a wide range of topics. The fame of California as a mining State has established the fact that there would be demands for mining literature from persons who might come here from abroad to seek employment. It has been made to quite a large number annually ever since the State Board of Trade was organized, and the demand has been answered until within the last few weeks by forwarding, free of charge, some bulletin of the State Mining Bureau. Now inquiries are being received that they can get the information they desire only by paying a specified price, and they receive in answer the request for information a printed slip, issued by the State Mineralogist, in which that announcement is set forth clearly. The State Board of Trade cannot give the information that is sought, and there is an obstacle that there is no seeming way of surmounting which is a price for the Mining Bureau publications.

FULL EQUIPMENT FOR ARTILLERY

The Eighteenth Company Will Soon Be in Field Array.

The equipment of the artillery stationed at the Presidio is being gradually completed. The California post is resuming its position in fact as well as reputation as the chief artillery depot of the United States. The equipment for the Eighteenth Company of field artillery, Captain D. J. Rumbold commanding, has arrived and as soon as the necessary horses have been purchased the company will be ready to take the field in regular maneuvers. Captain Rumbold has been appointed president of a board to go to Amedee to purchase the necessary horses. One hundred and twenty-five will be required.

The Eighteenth Infantry is expected to leave Manila on September 15, and transport Kilpatrick. The headquarters has been ordered to Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. The transport Thomas left Manila September 5 with thirty-six sick and eight insane patients aboard.

Thirty funerals were held yesterday at the Presidio Cemetery.

There will be a concert given this evening at the General Hospital for the benefit of the sick and wounded. It will be under the auspices of Mrs. Marriner Campbell.

Lieutenant Kimball, Third Cavalry, has reported here on route to the Presidio. The transport Sumner is expected to sail next Thursday and will take eighty-two passengers, including thirty school children and the following named army people:

Mrs. Gose, wife of Captain E. B. Gose, Twenty-fourth Infantry; Mrs. Jones, wife of Captain X. Jones, Third Cavalry; Mrs. Jernigan, wife of Lieutenant Frank Jernigan; Lieutenant E. A. Agnew, Twenty-sixth Infantry; and wife Mrs. Brown, wife of Captain Surgeon H. D. Brown; Mrs. West, wife of Lieutenant E. S. West, Second Cavalry; Mrs. Kerwin, Thirtieth Infantry; Mrs. Dentler, wife of Captain Charles Dentler, Thirtieth Infantry; Mrs. McCullough, wife of Captain C. C. McCullough, assistant surgeon; Lieutenant W. A. Glender, Seventeenth Infantry; Lieutenant H. C. Bennett, Nineteenth Infantry, who is in command of the recruits, and Major Philip Heade, Fourth Infantry.

STRIKERS ARE WAITING FOR THE SETTLEMENT

President Shaffer Has Authority to Make Peace, but Proceedings Are Delayed.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 10.—President Shaffer and his advisers in the general office of the Amalgamated Association hold the power by authority of the general executive board of the organization to settle the steel strike. Shaffer and his advisers apparently allowed to-day to lapse, after apparently being vested in them, without coming to any settlement. On Monday, it is said, the executive board directed President Shaffer to confer with Secretary-treasurer Williams, Assistant Secretary Tighe and Ben L. Davis of the advisory board to settle without delay on the terms of the settlement.

The strike to-day in this section was full of exciting incidents, unless a speedy settlement of the troubles is effected. Indications point to exceedingly lively times from now on. That both sides are determined on a desperate fight seems evident. The first evidence of this was shown in the early hours of the day, when a gang of bricklayers attempted to enter the National Tube plant at McKeesport and were turned back. No actual violence resulted, but had the workmen insisted on their right to enter some persons would surely have been hurt.

The tub workers who were turned back yesterday did not venture a second attempt to-day, and the plant to-night is dark and idle.

It was reported that the management of the plant had attempted to enter the National Tube plant to secure the protection of Sheriff McKinley, but to-night the Sheriff said no call had been made upon him. The Demmeler plant was in partial operation to-day.

The first violence of the strike at McKeesport, it is reported, took place to-night, when three workmen were set upon by strikers or strike sympathizers and badly beaten. The strikers insisted on their right to enter some persons would surely have been hurt.

FLOWERS RAINED ON COLLAMARINI

Spell of Old Madrid Hangs Over "Carmen" Performance.

Neill Company Shows Splendidly in "The Jilt" at California.

Surely the little Tivoli was transported for a brief season by some modern Aladdin to mercurial Mexico or old Madrid last night while "Carmen" was being sung. The audience of the season greeted Collamarini in her great part, laughed with her, rained flowers on her and applauded her with heel and hand in a truly Latin enthusiasm that is usually far from us. It was a foreign performance all about, and on the stage, for it was from the untraditional brigand of Cortesi, who usually acts his part even when the audience may reasonably be supposed to have both eyes on the heroine, to the delicious unconventionalism of said heroine who, as she rushes the stage after Micaela's solo in the third act, and impetuously thrusts a huge basket of La France roses into her astonished hand, meant to kiss her enthusiastically—it was all of another land than this. The Tivoli has put on the piece with commendable care, and all around the opera shows that unusual effort has been expended on its production. Not that it is a masterpiece, but it is a well-rough indeed in places, though going all through with much spirit. But the varied excitement of the evening was quite sufficient to account for the roughness of the performance, and to-morrow evening will doubtless see it quilted and fined down, to its great advantage.

The cast is all familiar as far as the principals go and little remains to be said thereupon. Collamarini is the same willfully fascinating Carmen, with her rich, warm voice, and characteristic sins in its use. She drops so quaintly from Carmen into the role of Micaela, and she is as easily back again. The only change—one not for the better—is her added avoirdupois, and one rather resents some slight loss of prettiness in consequence. But it remains that her Carmen is the favorite role of the season, and she was welcomed last night with a most loyal and laudable enthusiasm by her hosts of admirers. Russo does some of his best work as Don Jose, singing with the roughness of the usual outward and visible signs of jealousy or even impatience. It is good of Repetto to sing the part of Micaela, if by no means grateful to her. Gertrude Hopkins and Sannie Kruger undertake the minor roles of Mercedes and Frasquita, and one rather resents some slight loss of the best brigands the Tivoli has had. It was a most grateful change from the usual custom of the house, by the way, to have the brigand scene given without the amazing spoken interpolations that have frequently shocked the listener at the Tivoli. "Carmen" will probably be continued next week, and "Faust" is to-night's bill.

OPPOSES INCREASE OF LICENSE ON STRETCARS

Richmond District Improvement Association Urges the Taxing of Railways in Districts.

The Richmond District Improvement Association has forwarded to the Board of Supervisors a resolution concerning the proposed ordinance to increase the license tax on streetcars. After calling attention to the facts that the streetcar road compelled the market street road to lower the fare from 10 to 5 cents to the Cliff House; that the San Mateo road compelled the same company to extend its lines, and that the Suto, San Mateo and Presidio roads are operated at a loss, the resolution says:

Resolved, While we heartily concur in the purpose of your board, we believe that the tax should be so levied that no additional burden shall be imposed upon roads that deal honestly with the people, and which have not been a source of profit to their owners, but that it should be levied upon the monopoly which maintains tracks upon all of the streets in the business part of the city for the purpose of preventing opposition lines from gaining access to the travel, while at the same time it has an efficient accommodation for the people on only a few streets. We believe that this can be best obtained by taxing streetcar roads in districts, the taxing their profits; and be it further resolved, That it behooves your board to now take such steps as will enable the city to immediately operate the Geary-street road upon the expiration of its franchise in April—seven months hence.

Public ownership is the only solution of the question.

Health for Housewives

Akron, Ind., April 15, 1900.

I am taking the third bottle of Wine of Cardui and it has done me lots of good. At times I could not stand on my feet, my limbs and feet were so badly swollen and black. I had to sit on a chair and put my feet on another and set the dish pan in my lap to wash dishes. My husband got me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and it did me much good. I do not have to sit down to work now. It helped me in many other ways also. I can truthfully recommend it.

MRS. L. E. PERRY.

A housewife needs rugged health and great physical endurance to meet the demands made upon her. But there are women in nearly every home whose monthly periods make them virtual invalids. And we want to tell them to-day they need not be invalids. Mrs. Perry was freed from all this suffering. A healthy wife is a blessing to the home in which she is found. She sings about her house work and can do four times as much as her sick sisters.

BOND ON BASIN LANDS EXPIRES

Redwood Commissioners Free to Deal With Owners.

The State Redwood Park Commissioners are now free to deal independently with the matter of acquiring a park in the Big Basin in Santa Cruz County. The lands that were supposed to be the most desirable for park purposes in the Big Basin, being traversed by the picturesque creek of the Waddell Creek, were all under bond to the extent of about 2500 acres to the Sempervirens Club, which has its headquarters in San Jose, with membership in several counties. The Commissioners have declared the situation to be anomalous and have decided that they would not have any dealings that contemplated the intervention of a third party in the Big Basin. Certain of the Commission members have backed up the contention of the Call that the price asked for the land is high, being at the rate of $100 per acre.

The bond that the Sempervirens Club had on the land has expired and the State may now deal directly with the Big Basin lands that may be suitable for a park, without considering any third party in the matter. The Commissioners have an advisory committee that is composed of members who are all familiar with the values of timber lands in different parts of the State. In addition to their advice the Commissioners have expressed a determination to have every forty-acre tract that they may consider eligible for a park make a report independently by a timber expert, who will visit the Big Basin and side influences. The bond that the Sempervirens Club had expired last week.

WANTS PROPOSALS FOR A BOND SALE

Secretary of the Treasury Sends Telegram to New York Clearing-House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Secretary of the Treasury Gage to-day sent the following telegram to F. D. Tappan, chairman of the Clearing House Association, New York City:

Respecting the unavoidable influence upon general business affairs of a continued absorption into the public treasury of revenue beyond expenditure I have directed that coming internal revenue receipts be placed with national bank depositories until a balance with each is reached equal to the par value of the bonds held in security from such depositories. This will divert about $5,000,000 from the treasury vaults.

The Secretary will to-day invite proposals for the sale to the Government of $2,000,000 of United States bonds other than the new 2's. It is believed these steps will relieve the otherwise possible embarrassments mentioned in your telegram of yesterday.
