TRADE

For Keeps

Not for a day, not for a week, not for a month, not for a year; the trade we make is for keeps. The kind of merchandise we build makes trade for keeps.

A few specials for Monday, and all timely ones, winter garments, made up of the smartest winter fashions.

A Stunning Winter Garment

Is the one we picture opposite. It's cute, cunning, bright, winter-like, made just as it's pictured, in a pretty shade of red, in an Oxford and in blue, with its patent leather belt, and for it we're going to quote an awfully ridiculous price. We believe you'll rub your eyes to see if it's right.

This coat is going to cost you Monday, if you have a little chap between the years of 2½ and 6.

$1.98

Nothing's So Smart as a Yoke Coat

For your chap if he's between the ages of 7 and 15 years, in several beautiful shades, and made and built as only artist tailors build their garments; a coat that you can't touch under $7.50 anywhere else, and you know the yoke coat is the smart coat for this winter, and this coat reaches down to the little fellow's ankles.

For it Monday we say

$4.45

Nothing touches the little fellow so much as to appear manly yet not sacrifice his youthful appearance, and that is the kind of a suit we picture opposite, made from high-grade Scotches, in a pretty winter shade, all-wool fabrics, a suit that you can't buy ordinarily under $6.50, for chaps between the ages of 9 and 16 years; the coat is built with broad military shoulders, which gives it that smart air.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD BOY CRUSHED BY A DRAY

Little Forrest Lindsay Loses His Life While Stealing a Ride With Playmates.

Forrest Lindsay, a four-year-old boy whose parents live at 1223 Montgomery street, on Telegraph Hill, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon by being run over by a dray belonging to Levi & Schussler, the team being driven by J. M. Gough, Special Policeman E. M. Cummings being on the seat with him.

The accident happened at the intersection of Lombard and Vallejo streets, the little fellow and Eddie and Charles Fogeto having got upon the back end of the dray unseen by Gough and Cummings. While walking to the middle of the vehicle Forrest lost his balance and fell immediately in front of a hind wheel, which passed over his head, crushing the skull and causing instant death. Both men were arrested on a charge of manslaughter and released on $50 bail.

Brownies in Fairylan

A production of Palmer Cox's "The Brownies in Fairylan" under the management of Mrs. Mary Wilkins, was given at the Alhambra Theater yesterday afternoon. The popular juvenile operetta was well staged and well rendered. The children who presented the piece were for the most part local talent, many of them also having been members of the Friedlander-Brownie combination. Little Melville Conkley as Cholly Boutoniere and Ben Lerner in the role of Tutti, the organ grinder, were exceptionally clever and popular with the large audience of women and children that patronized the show.

The production has been improved upon. The stage effects are gorgeous. The grand finale, a transformation scene, is well worth seeing. The production will, again, be given this afternoon, to-night, Monday night and Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday night.

Fall Shoes

our new shipments, have a trim effect that has never been excelled, and cannot be approached elsewhere. The latest materials are admirably adapted to autumn sports and outdoor wear, and, in the dressier models, to the fashionable tone of social functions. An unusually smart style pervades this season's types of shoes. If you will pay us a call we will show you a shoe in just the shapes and material you prefer, and a little better in quality than you have ever seen in San Francisco before.

REPORTS BOARD OF STATE ENGINEERS

Secretary of War Orders Survey of Pearl Harbor.

Further Defense of Ports in Philippines Is Considered.

News was received at army headquarters yesterday that the Secretary of War had appointed a board of officers to consider and report upon the feasibility of the much-mooted project of fortifying Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Since the acquisition of the Philippines the leading strategists of the country have constantly been calling attention to the need of a proper naval station at some point in the Hawaiian Islands, which could be a place of rendezvous for fleet in case of war. Honolulu can easily be defended, but cannot be made invulnerable. A thorough investigation of the harbors of the different islands in the group has disclosed the fact that Pearl Harbor is possessed of every advantage as a rallying point for men-of-war that would be impossible for a hostile fleet to force an entrance.

Pearl Harbor has, however, at its entrance great reefs of coral which are a serious menace to shipping and which could be removed only at enormous cost. On this account there has been considerable debate in official circles as to the practicability of the proposed improvements. The naval authorities, however, have been almost unanimous in favoring the scheme and should the report of the recently appointed board be favorable the necessary Government appropriations will be made and Pearl Harbor will be, with the possible exception of Hongkong, the strongest strategic point in Pacific waters.

The board is made up of four of the leading engineering experts of the United States. They are to meet at Honolulu as soon as possible and proceed with the work of investigation. Before their return to Washington they will also be called upon to make an inspection of Honolulu harbor. Several months at least will be required before the report will be returned. The personnel of the board is William H. Heuer and Charles E. B. Davis, lieutenant colonels of the Corps of Engineers, Major William E. Birkhimer and Captain Adam Slaker of the Artillery Corps.

Simultaneously the Secretary of War has appointed another board to meet at Manila and report upon the subject of the defense of the important harbors in the Philippines. With the batteries that have recently been established on Corregidor Island and covering every inch of the narrow channel by which ships enter Manila harbor Southern Luzon is safe, but Aparri, Iigan, Dagupan, Iba and Olampo have still to be fortified. On the principal island, On the other islands, Iloilo, Panay and Zamboanga, Mindanao, should according to the strategists be defended also.

The officers named to serve on this board are Major Clinton B. Sears and Captain Henry C. Wood of the Corps of Engineers and Captain Albert Todd and Captain William S. McNair of the Artillery Corps. General Young issued a general order for the department yesterday that all subordinate posts be gathered together in military signaling twice weekly. In foreign service, particularly in the Philippines, it has been found that members of the Signal Corps are not sufficiently numerous to accompany all troops on minor expeditions. Necessity for knowledge of wireless telegraphy among the men and officers often arises and the War Department has officially advised all department commanders to order drills in the rudiments of signaling.

General Young directs that the practice shall be maintained until every troop, battery and company in his command shall have one officer and at least four enlisted men proficient in that branch of military science.

LIVINGSTON BROS.

The Post-Street Merchants, Announce an Important Sale.

Ever enterprising and to the front with commercial values, Livingston Bros. began months ago the gathering together of a wonderfully rare and complete assortment of house furnishings. In this sale will be found the choicest linens from Germany and Ireland, while the blankets, covers and bedspreads are among the largest of American manufacturers. This merchandise, although sold under regular price, is of a high grade—not less over than the finest goods, but new goods, expressly for this sale. Livingston Bros. have secured the liberal patronage of the housewives of San Francisco, because they advertise goods for sale which they have on their shelves, and do not advertise goods they have not got. Their business is conducted in a manner calculated to win and retain the confidence of the trading public, and the large audience of women and children that patronized the show, which commences Monday, October 7.

Lange-Chiles Wedding.
J. Lange of the firm of Levin, Ellis & Co., jewelers, was united in marriage Wednesday evening, October 2, to Miss Zona Chiles, a charming Sonoma County belle. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 906 Devisadero street. The home was elegantly decorated with flowers and bunting on the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Mitchell of St. Helena, Napa County. Rosso Westover of the Sonoma Lumber Company was best man, while Miss Freda Forkwitz, daughter of the groom, attended the bride. The bride, who is well known throughout Sonoma County, and especially in Santa Rosa, where she received her education and passed the greater part of her life, was gowned in white and presented a beautiful appearance. The groom is the son of N. P. Lange, a retired capitalist. After the ceremony the happy couple took their departure for the southern part of the State, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Alleged Merchants' Wives Arrested.
Four Chinese women, Lum Ha, Quay Yip Lan, Chung Loy Ho and Lee Loy Lung, who were arrested at 8½ Ross alley last Friday evening by United States Marshal Shine and posse on a charge of being illegally in the country, appeared yesterday morning before United States Court Commissioner Heacock and their bonds were fixed at $200 each. October 25th they were fixed as the date for the preliminary examinations. The women claim to be wives of reputable merchants.

DECIDES TO BAR NEW JOURNAL

Action by Merchants' Exchange Against Examiner.

Secretary Ordered to Keep It Off the Files for All Time.

Following in the footsteps of the other commercial bodies of this city, the Merchants' Exchange yesterday passed a resolution condemning the Examiner, ordering it excluded from its files and instructing employees not to give that paper any items of news. This action had been contemplated for the last week. On Thursday last, when the directors of the exchange met, the matter was discussed and change met. Action was deferred, however, until yesterday, when the secretary was ordered to see that the Examiner was not kept on file and that the representatives of that paper be given no information.

The resolution adopted is similar to those passed by the various commercial bodies of San Francisco. It is as follows: Whereas, the daily Examiner of San Francisco, through its columns, for a long time past been inciting class against class, sowing seeds of discord among our people, tending eventually to create discontent, disorders and finally leading to anarchy, all of which are inimical to the best interests of the city and State; and Whereas, the fomenting of such disorders and strikes encourages the depraved and lawless classes to stop short of no crime, even to the assassination of the President of the United States; therefore be it resolved, that the Examiner be and it be so strongly condemned the attitude of the said Examiner, and that the said newspaper be henceforth excluded from its files and that it will not give any information to the representatives thereof.

The directors of the Merchants' Exchange are: G. W. McNear, president; H. Sherwood, vice president; A. Gerberding, E. F. Allen, E. W. Ferguson, E. E. Kahn and George A. Sewell. The commercial bodies adopting the scathing resolutions in condemnation of the Examiner are: the Chamber of Commerce, representing the entire vast commercial, industrial and shipping interests of this city and State; together with the allied lumber companies and the forest industries; the Merchants' Association are nearly all the business houses of this city, wholesale and retail. The Chamber of Commerce Association, the banks, the insurance companies and the foreign and coastwise commerce of the port. The Manufacturers' and Producers' Association includes the representatives of the factories and the largest and most important in California agricultural and horticultural enterprises. The Merchants' Exchange is the body organized by the representatives of the great exchanges of the commercial cities of the East, having for its purpose the unification of the interests of all engaged in the exchange of goods and representing them all. The Produce Exchange trades in agricultural products of the State and the Board of Trade are all the wholesale houses of the city and many of the larger retail houses. Collectively they represent about all the active invested capital in San Francisco.

FORGER COOPER IS GIVEN LIMIT

Sentenced to Serve Ten Years in San Quentin.

"Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, alias Ernest Moore Chadwick, who was convicted by a jury in Judge Lawlor's court some months ago of forgery for sending a forged telegram to Miss Norine Schneider, the young girl he married, appeared for sentence yesterday and the Judge gave him the extreme penalty, ten years in San Quentin.

When the case was called, Attorney Murphy made the usual motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment, but the judge denied. The Judge then asked the arch swindler, bigamist, forger and ex-convict if he had anything to say and he had the effrontery to ask the Judge should spare his feelings in referring to his prior conviction and begged to be sent to Polson Penitentiary instead of San Quentin. After sentence was pronounced Attorney Murphy asked for a stay of execution for sixty days to enable him to prepare a bill of exceptions for an appeal to the Supreme Court, and it was granted. Cooper will be indicted for perjury in falsely swearing at the trial before Judge Lawlor. It is not now proposed to indict him on the charge of bigamy.

Joseph Hill Disappears.

Captain Seymour has been asked to elucidate the mystery of the disappearance of Joseph Hill, who came here from Ohio recently with his invalid daughter Cora for her health. They were stopping at the Shasta House, 24½ Third street, and Thursday afternoon last the Quinns, and has not been seen since. He is 54 years of age, six feet tall and has light hair, gray eyes and sandy mustache. Detective Coleman has been detailed on the case.

Dimmick's Counsel Fighting.

George D. Collins, attorney for Walter N. Dimmick, filed an affidavit yesterday in the United States District Court in support of his motion to quash the indictment against his client. The chief ground for the motion is that the Grand Jurors before finding the new indictment which is virtually a correction of the old one, did not take any evidence, thereby showing that they were biased against the defendant.

MARRIED CHINESE SHOT TO DEATH

Yee Kitt Murdered by a Pair of Hired Assassins.

With the killing of Yee Kitt last night the three leading members of the Suey Sing Society, on whose heads a heavy price was set, have been put out of the way. Kitt was shot shortly after 7 o'clock last evening while walking along Washington street, near Spofford alley. He died a short time afterward. How Ling, present of the Suey Don Tong, was subsequently arrested and charged with the crime.

Several months ago Kitt, who was a cook, and two other Chinamen, named Yee Chung and Yo Sing, were marked by the Suey Don Tong and a price of $300 each was set on their heads. Chung, a few days later, was found dead in Ross alley, his body riddled with bullets. Ling was arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime, but was afterward discharged for lack of evidence.

Kill Their Second Victim.

About a week later Yo Sing was shot and killed while walking along Jackson street. An eye witness declared to the police that he recognized the murderers as two gun-fighters of the Suey Don Tong. Determined to turn the blood money for putting all three of the doomed men out of the way the desperate highlanders last evening lay in wait for Kitt and shot him twice, once through the stomach and the other time in the chest, the bullet that made the latter wound penetrating the left lung.

Ling was pointed out to Detectives Dinan and Ed Gibson as being one of the men who shot the cook, and they placed him under arrest. He was taken to the
