

FAIR DEBUTANTES DANCE THEIR FIRST COTILLON AND SOCIETY PREPARES FETES FOR SWEET CHARITY

DANCE SIX FIGURES IN COTILLON

Belles and Beaux at First Ball in Palace.

The first cotillon of the season was danced last evening in the new ballroom of the Palace Hotel. It was given by the members of the Entre Nous Cotillon Club and proved a brilliant opening for the twelfth season of the fashionable organization. The new ballroom, in reality the old supper-room, is a decided improvement on the Maple room, where the dances of the Entre Nous were held in former seasons. It is such a spacious and elegant apartment that decorations are altogether unnecessary. The members of the club recognized this fact and left the room just as it is.

The nine debutantes made their initial bow to society at the cotillon. They were: Miss Pearl Haas, Miss Alma Cutler, Miss Pauline Ryder, Miss Florence McCoy, Miss Josephine D. Jones, Miss Lottie Haskell, Miss Alice Weymouth, Miss Katherine Meyer and Miss Mae D. Keefe. All of the debutantes were becomingly gowned in white. They were loaded down with flowers and received a great deal of attention.

Sanford G. Lewald led the cotillon, assisted by Miss Gladys Deitzel. Six figures, all new and extremely pretty, were danced. I thought the most effective was the "flag of all nations," and as the merry revelers moved through the measure of the dance, each waving a tiny silver banner, the effect was a most brilliant one. In the first set were the following dancers:

Misses Lillian Lubben, Elizabeth Baker, Ethel Way, Ella von Kapff, Linda Frier, Belle Herzer, Marie Ryder, Helen H. Nelson, Messrs. William Westerfeld, Acton Haven, Philip J. Eisenmann, Herman Heizer, Dr. A. W. Baker, Percy Windham, Alfred Lorber, Dr. Edmond D. Keefe, Dave Wise, Samuel O. Stanyan, Philip Heuer, Merritt D. Robi, Henry L. Fisher, Dr. Calvin Knowles, Harry T. Bailey, Henry Van Valkenburgh, Fred W. Bangs and Dr. W. A. Fillison.

After the german general dancing was in order.

The next assembly and german of the Entre Nous Club, which was held on Friday evening, November 23, at the Palace Hotel.

THERESA JONES LOSES HER SUIT FOR WAGES

Judge De Haven Decides That She Had Been Fully Paid for Services.

United States District Judge de Haven yesterday handed down an opinion dismissing the libel of Theresa Jones vs. the bark Lord Templeton and awarding costs to the respondent. Miss Jones alleged in her complaint that she shipped at Sydney, N. S. W., as second stewardess and as such member of the crew was guaranteed a return passage from San Francisco. She alleged that she acted as midwife and nurse for the captain's wife during the voyage and demanded $50 for such extra service, together with $50 for the return passage.

Judge de Haven ruled that Miss Jones had not proved that she came in any capacity other than companion to the captain's wife and nurse to his minor child. There was no proof of any agreement to pay her passage back to Sydney.

Former Governor Taylor of Tennessee has been invited to take part in a fiddling contest between the old settlers of Missouri, which is to take place at Kansas City on August 10.

MRS. DUBOCE IS BRIDE OF A SOLDIER

Intimate Friends Attend the Wedding.

Mrs. MARY DUBOCE and Colonel W. J. Fife were quietly married yesterday afternoon in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laumeister at the St. Nicholas Hotel. It was an extremely quiet wedding, none but the relatives and the most intimate friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. In spite of the fact that it was such a simple wedding elaborate preparations were first made. The rooms were handsomely decorated, smilax, palms and long-stemmed white chrysanthemums being used with artistic effect.

Rev. George Adams officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Anna Fife, eldest daughter of the groom. Colonel Fife was unattended. Captain Fife gave the bride away. Mr. Laumeister had hoped to fill that post of honor, but was detained in Trinity County and was obliged to telegraph his regrets. The bride wore a beautiful gown of pale blue satin elaborately trimmed with lace. Miss Fife, the maid of honor, was attired in a dainty gown of white mousseline over pink silk.

Mrs. Laumeister looked charming in a white satin gown, trimmed with chiffon and lace. After the ceremony a bridal breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fife left on the evening train for Tacoma, where Colonel Fife occupies the position of chief deputy in the County Treasurer's office.

BENEFIT SALE IN AID OF THE WOMAN'S HOSPITAL

Beautiful Articles From the Art Centers to Be Placed on Sale.

A beautiful and varied assortment of works of art—imported and domestic—will be sold as holiday gifts in the Maple Room of the Palace Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, October 30 and 31, for the benefit of the free ward and free clinic of the Woman's Hospital, located on Sacramento, between Baker and Lyon streets. This sale will furnish the public an opportunity to inspect and purchase new and handsome novelties, which have been imported from Paris and New York under the supervision of Mrs. Francis Carolan. The assortment includes the very newest ideas in art work from the great art centers of the world.

In addition to the costly articles there will be on sale many carefully chosen, inexpensive holiday gifts. The public is invited by the ladies in charge to attend the benefit sale. The Woman's Hospital has been doing good in a quiet and persistent way for the last thirty-three years. While it has been the recipient of several endowments from citizens of the community, the demands upon its treasury have been great, and the public is asked on occasions like this to aid the fund.

Among the rare things in this display of goods will be a large assortment of rich art brocades, including pillows, boxes, fanny bags, etc. During the two afternoons some pleasant entertainment will be offered, visitors, Miss Lillian Burkhardt of the Orpheum

CONTRIBUTIONS COME POURING INTO DOCTOR'S DAUGHTERS' NEEDY TREASURY

Understudies of the "Florodora" Society Sextet Will Be in Readiness in Case of an Accident.

BY SALLY SHARP.

The Doctor's Daughters had a happy day of it yesterday, for contributions kept pouring in. There were cash contributions, contributions for the fish pond and orders for the refreshment booth. Cash contributions were received from the following firms:

George Newhall & Co., Baker & Hamilton; Miller, Sloss & Scott; Dunham, Carrigan & Hayden; W. W. Montague & Co., Haas Bros., Southern Pacific Company, Payot, Urban & Co., Armsby & Co., George W. Gibbs & Co., Tillmann & Bendel Company; Sperry Flour Company; Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, American Steel & Wire Company and Levi Strauss & Co.

Robert Wallace sent a handsome doll, attired in the very latest fashion. The little bisque lady is dressed for the promenade and over her magnificent walking dress wears a sealskin sacque. A sealskin muff and hat complete her costume. Two new committees have been formed—the fish pond committee and the decorating committee. On the fish pond committee are Miss Emma McMillan, Mrs. Charles W. Slack, Mrs. J. Alva Watt and

Mrs. Linda H. Bryan. On the decorating committee are Mrs. J. Morris Hibbard and Miss Margo. The girls of the sextet have not yet decided upon the color of their gowns. The sextet, as it now stands, contains the names of Miss Elsa Cook, Miss Chispa Sanborn, Miss Mary Payne, the Misses Lally, Miss Bernice Landers, Walter H. Feldman, George Greenfield, Will Klink, Philip F. Paschel, Fred Poett and Frank Rodolph.

To provide against all possible accidents there will be understudies for both the ladies and the gentlemen.

Miss Alice Roosevelt is expected in Washington to-day and next week is to be devoted to gaiety and hospitality.

MINING MAN DIES AT LA PAZ

Word was received here yesterday from the American Consul at La Paz of the death of William Hinton, well known throughout the State as a mining man. Mr. Hinton dropped dead in the streets of La Paz last week. A gold watch and about $100 in cash were found on his person. When the news of Mr. Hinton's death became known about town there were many who thought the deceased was former Registrar Hinton of this city.

John D. Rockefeller is reluctant to give advice about investing money even to his intimate friends.

YOUNG TO BE CORBIN'S BEST MAN

Veteran Prepares to Visit the Capital.

The wedding cards of General Corbin and Miss Edythe Patton are out. The wedding will take place in Washington on November 3, and will be the most elaborate of the autumn nuptial events. Over 700 invitations have been issued, and the guests will include almost all the prominent people of the social and official world. Miss Patton will have no attendants. With her sister she has been in Europe for the past six months, and among her friends it is rumored that her trousseau will be one of the most elaborate seen here in recent years. General Corbin's best man will be General S. B. M. Young, who is rumored to have having matrimonial intentions which will materialize in a few months. Light brothers-in-arms of the adjutant general will act as ushers. These are Lieutenant Colonels William H. Carter, Thomas M. Barry, George Andrews, William A. Simpson, John A. Johnston, Henry P. McCain and Major Henry A. Green and James Parker. Senator John P. Jones of Nevada, at one time the partner of the bride's father, will escort her to the altar. Cardinal Gibbons will perform the ceremony.

The first lady of the land opened the season of gaiety that she has planned for the coming winter in Washington by an "at home" yesterday afternoon. The hours of the reception were from 2 to 5 o'clock, unusually early hours compared to our "at homes," where invitations call for 4 till 6 and sometimes even from 3 till 7.

Miss Alice Roosevelt is expected in Washington to-day and next week is to be devoted to gaiety and hospitality. A series of luncheons will be given each Wednesday. The guests will include the prominent young people, who will figure in society this season, with a few matrons who are friends of Mrs. Roosevelt. This programme has been prepared in order that Miss Alice may be familiar with her future associates before her formal presentation to society on January 2.

Mrs. Roosevelt will make a short trip to New York in the coming month. During the rush of events following her husband's succession to the Presidency she found no leisure to prepare her wardrobe for the coming winter. She has always been noted for the simplicity of her tastes and the preparations which she made for the season as wife of the Vice President are entirely inadequate for the first lady of the land. Mrs. Roosevelt will remain in New York about a week.

It is stated by her friends that her toilet will be in accordance with her well known taste. Mrs. Roosevelt's friends tell her that her plan has been to buy three gowns every year—a tailor made costume of the best material, one evening dress and one semi-toilet. Every fall these gowns were rebuilt according to the latest mode. As mistress of the White House she will follow a rule not quite so rigorous, but at the same time setting an example for thrift and frugality worthy of emulation. Her favorite colors are black and white and nearly all her gowns are of the one or the other or a combination of both.

Mrs. Roosevelt will revive the custom of returning calls in a certain limited circle. She will go to the Cabinet houses Wednesday afternoons, and in this way will come in contact with more of the people than at the formal receptions. She

CHARITABLE WOMEN HOLD BIG BAZAAR

Mizpah Club Has Its Annual Fair.

FROM 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon until late last evening the parlors of the Swedenborgian church at 1624 O'Farrell street were crowded with members and friends of the Mizpah Club. The occasion was the annual fair and the proceeds, which amounted to many hundred dollars, will be devoted to charity. The parlors proved an ideal place for a fair. They were decorated with palms, cut flowers and bunting. The booths were laden with handsome bric-a-brac, tapestry and useful articles, all of which was donated by members and business men of this city.

Mrs. A. C. Rulofson, president of the organization, greeted all the visitors and saw to it that they were taken care of by the attendants of the various booths. During the evening the popular president was presented with a silver medal as a token of the esteem in which she is held by her fellow members.

An excellent programme was presented. Miss Grace Marshall played a number of selections on the piano, Miss Ella Arden rendered a contralto solo, Miss Hamilton also sang and Ruth Fisher and Evelyn Chubb gave an exhibition of fancy dancing.

The art gallery proved an interesting exhibit. The printed programme announced that thirty-five pictures were on exhibition. "Those who do not sell remain to be sold," made it appear that it was a bona fide exhibition. "Something to be sold" was a door-knob. "Only a poor artist" was a door-knob. "The American commentators," by P. Patch, were a bunch of green peas. "The American commentators" were a pair of gloves and "A bride" was a pair of gloves and "A bride" was a pair of gloves.

The fair was a success socially and financially. There are fifty active members in the club and more than 100 associate. The charitable work of the club is unostentatious. Many poor families are cared for and the deserving are promptly relieved for by the organization.

will return the calls of wives of Embassadors and will extend special hospitality to the wives of all the diplomats. With the assistance of Miss Hagney, her social secretary, Mrs. Roosevelt has prepared a visiting list and has studied all precedents established by former mistresses of the White House.

As she understands it, the wife of the President is not obliged to return any one's call, at the rules of refined society suggest her appearance on the receiving days of the wives of the Vice President, the President pro tem of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chief Justice of the United States and the Embassadors accredited to this country. The Cabinet families are considered part of the President's household and the visits between them and the Executive Mansion are regulated entirely by personal feeling.
