THE last week has been one succession of teas. Everybody has received, assisted in receiving or given by Miss Norma Castle, which with the largest and most elaborate affair of the season—the Towne and Worden tea. The debutantes have been especially feted.

Miss Gladys Merrill was guest of honor on Thursday afternoon at a tea especially given by Miss Norma Castle, although Miss Merrill is not to make her official debut quite yet. More than 100 people were present and seemed delighted with the charming simplicity of the affair. The young ladies who assisted in receiving were: Miss Mabel Toy, Miss Laura Taylor, Miss Nora Smiley, Miss Azalea Keys, Miss Dutton and Miss Ninety de Pine.

Miss Gertrude Jack of San Luis Obispo had a tea given for her by Linda Bryant. It was a most informal affair and the more delightful on this account. Those present were:

Mr. E. G. Rodolph, Miss Marie Wells, Miss Mrs. Ore, Mrs. Daniel Callaghan, Mrs. Mrs. George E. Edwards, R. Hamilton, Miss Susie McEwen, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Eleanor Eckart, Miss Florence Ives, Mrs. Elizabeth Herrick, Mrs. William Weir, Mrs. Mrs. George Carr, Miss Julia Man, Miss Ida and Genevieve Callaghan, Miss Letta Gallatin, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Miss Jessie Fillmore, Miss Clara Underhill, Miss Georgia Spicker, Miss Mabel Toy, Mrs. William Scott, Miss Ethel McCormick, Mrs. Sturtevant, Miss Ella Cook, Miss Kathryn Robinson, Mrs. Mrs. Fred Hood, Mrs. Charles Sharpe, Mrs. Letta Gallatin, the Misses Reis, Miss Louise Hoffman, Mrs. Ruby Bond, Mrs. William Morrow, Mrs. W. O'Kane, the Misses McMillan, Miss Tillie Feldman.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Elkus, when their niece, Etanthe L. Heiss, was joined in wedlock to Arthur B. Sanborn, Wednesday, December 11. Judge Carroll Cook officiated and Professor C. Keller played at the wedding march from "Lohengrin". After the ceremony the guests were shown to the dining-room and partook of supper, when the health of the newly wedded couple was drunk. Other toasts were given. Dancing followed and then the happy pair departed amid the customary shower of rice.

Home Parties.

On Thursday evening, December 5, a farewell party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Munitz, 3711 Clay street, in honor of Messrs. Bass and Muehlmann, respectively. Bass and barytone of the Maurice Grau Opera Company. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and palms. In erecting all necessary arrangements Mrs. Munitz was ably assisted by her sister, Mrs. William G. Jones. A select musical programme, participated in by the host, hostess and the distinguished guests, and recitations by Alexander Vincent, the painter, consumed the greater part of the evening. At 10:30 supper was served and at midnight the artists departed to take a special train for the East.

Mr. and Mrs. August Koehnke of 2808 Greenview street celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding Saturday evening, December 7, with a reception and supper. The reception-room was beautifully decorated in silver, evergreens and holly berries. The presents received were many and costly. After supper the remainder of the evening was spent in music, songs and dancing. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. A. Koehnke, Mr. and Mrs.

Wedded at Home.

They Are Engaged.

The marriage of Miss Mollie Davis, daughter of Mrs. Minna Davis, and Fred Kalksky will take place Sunday, December 22. The wedding will be private, only relatives and most intimate friends being invited.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jessie Gross of this city and Charles Schwartz of Minneapolis.

The engagement is announced of Max Schiller of this city to Birdie E. Fisher on Sunday, January 5, 1902, at 945 McAllister street, from 2 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Lucy Levy announces the engagement of her daughter Jeanne to Daniel Ruff, at 1123 Post street, near Webster.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Reinecke D. Wilson to John P. Lockwood of Portland, Oregon.

They're Married.

Henry G. Westcott and Rosa M. Ellis, of San Francisco, were married in Oakland, November 20, by Rev. E. R. Dille. Henry Ehlers of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Carrie Merrill of San Francisco were married in Oakland December 3, by Rev. E. R. Dille.

Rev. E. R. Dille of Oakland united William A. Ede and Adelaide Dohs of San Francisco December 2.

One of the prettiest weddings of the winter season was that of Miss Helena T. Block, youngest daughter of Professor Block, to Charles M. Gilligan of Visitation Valley, November 23. The ceremony was celebrated at St. John's Catholic Church on Mission street by the Rev. Father P. D. Brady. The bride wore an exquisite combination of white mousseline de soie, chiffon, lace and white tulle veil and orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. Miss M. Leona Gilligan, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her bouquet was composed of American Beauty roses. The best man was John J. Ferrassa, a schoolmate and friend of the groom. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to Eintracht Hall, on Twelfth street, where a reception was held and the young couple received the well wishes and congratulations of their friends. The hall was prettily decorated with flowers, palms and autumn foliage from the home of the groom's grandmother in Visitation Valley. At midnight a banquet was partaken of, at which many toasts were given and responded to. Hon. Frank M. Burnett acted as toastmaster. The young couple departed on a wedding trip to Los Gatos, where they were the guests of the groom's uncle, P. J. Mullen. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gilligan upon their return reside at 222 Shotwell street, this city.

Wrinkles.

In San Francisco, at the parlors of the New York Institute of Dermatology, a woman is on exhibition with the wrinkles removed from one side of her face and left on the other side as a sample, to show what their remedy will do. It permanently eradicates the very worst cases of deep wrinkles when all other remedies fail. It makes women of 50 look 25. You are invited to call and see her—seeing is believing. By a simple painless operation Dr. Benjamin L. Fowler, our surgeon from New York, specially trained and experienced in this work, corrects ill-shaped noses, outstanding ears, double chin, baby throat, sagging cheeks, drooping mouth, puffy, baggy eyelids, positively without pain or scarring, and removes all marks and blemishes from the skin by the latest scientific methods. A lady is in reception at the parlors to explain methods to callers. Consultation free, person or by letter is free and strictly confidential. Call or address N. Y. Institute of Dermatology, Columbia building, 918 Market st. (opposite Emporium), San Francisco. Take elevator to fifth floor.
