

READY TO SURRENDER
WHEN THE BOSSSES
Attitude of Independents in Forty-Second District.

Andrew Louderback Rated as a Regular Machine Politician.

The Independent Republican Club of the Forty-second district, George R. Wells, president, will hold a meeting at Saratoga Hall this evening. Republican citizens of this district entertain the belief that Andrew Louderback, who was recently appointed county commissioner at large, is a machine politician, who will look to the bosses for orders. He is not regarded as a fit representative of the independent Republican citizenship of the Forty-second district. State Senator Jack Tyrrell on the committee on the machine politicians who is always ready and willing to carry out the boss programme. It is the impression that Thomas D. Riordan, Andrew Louderback and James Tyrrell are planning to send a boss delegation from this district to the Republican State Convention. The republican citizens of the district desire that their representatives shall go to the convention free and unpledged.

War in Boss Councils.

Under the operation of the primary election law the County Committee may not be able to render material service to the bosses in the coming campaign, yet the Republicans of the district are not inclined to submit without protest to such representation on the committee as the bosses may see fit to give them. The independents are not going into the struggle with the belief that victory can be easily won. They know that the politicians are working day and night to capture district delegations. At the present time there is war in the boss councils over the distribution of municipal spoils. Burns threatens to drive Crimmins out of the Republican party, and Herrin extends his sympathy and support to Crimmins. Martin Kelly, the boldest, if not the shrewdest, of the bosses supporting Burns, is making efforts to punish Crimmins. A Ruff's not conspicuous, but is lending passive support to Burns. Kelly and Ruff's are waiting to hear what tune will be played on Mayor Schmitz's dome. Independent Republicans are not losing heart, but they are sure that the bosses now at war can easily come together and the delegates to the State Convention have been chosen.

Delegates Should Be Free.

The war in the boss camp should divert the attention of the anti-boss Republicans from the real issue of the campaign. The people who are the minds of the people that the delegates to the Republican State Convention should not be tied hard and fast to any sort of programme. It is as clear as the light of day that the Herrin-Crimmins programme is in the interest of Gage's re-election. There are no indications that Burns, Kelly and Ruff will put forward the slightest resistance to such a scheme. Moreover, it is obvious that Gage is placing his chief reliance for renomination on the support of delegations representing San Francisco Assembly districts. The bosses will be pleased to see the delegates before the convention meets. The people would rather have the battle fought out in the primary election than Republican voters who want to score a party triumph at the polls and keep the State in the hands of the bosses. It is strongly favored the proposition of electing delegates who will not take orders from any of the bosses.

Postmaster Palmer

of So. Glen Falls, N. Y., describes a condition which thousands of men and women find identical with theirs. Read what he says, and note the similarity of your own case. Write to him, enclosing stamped addressed envelope for reply, and get a personal corroboration of what is here given. He says regarding Dr. Miles' Heart Cure: "I suffered agonizing pain in the left breast and between my shoulders from heart trouble. My heart would palpitate, flutter, then skip beats, until I could no longer lie in bed. Night after night I walked the floor, for the downward would have meant sudden death. My condition seemed almost hopeless when I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, but it helped me from the first. Later I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with the Heart Cure and the effect was astonishing. I earnestly implore similar sufferers to give these remedies a trial."

REJECT PICTURES, THEN DECIDE THEY SHOULD BE HUNG.

Art Exhibition Is to Open Wide Its Doors on Thursday.

The jury selected to pass upon the pictures for the art exhibition which will be opened on Thursday evening at the Hopkins Art Institute has had troubles of its own and little bickerings with others, and the whole made up a composite group to be pitched into the midst of the directorate of the institute. The jury intends to kick with Rugby vigor against any interference with its decisions in the future, which is a somewhat strong intimation that some one in the office is not approved of the findings of the artist-jurors. Certain it is that the jury, after accepting Matthews' two pictures sent by Matteo Sandona, suddenly recalled the rejected canvases and suddenly agreed to have them "hung."

Could Not Commend Drapery.

The feeling among the jurors has been that Sandona could do better work, and they were not pleased to see the effect of the painting to the ex-Mayor, nor could they commend the drapery as painted by Sandona in the Jeffrey picture, though the likeness in the case was admitted to be excellent. The draperies are the snag which entangled the jury, and which the directors, in the folds and frills of dissension. But Matteo Sandona has a talk also. He is very young man, a pupil of the Academy of Verona, where he has taken four prizes in as many years at the Royal Academy. Sandona's speciality is figure and portrait painting, and one of his studies was "hung" by the Hopkins Art Institute at its last exhibition of water colors, which acceptance made him eligible for membership. It was his portrait painting that won him the coveted prizes at Verona of which he is justly proud.

KANSAS CITY SUSPECT
Dispatches Indicate That Captain Seymour Is on the Wrong Scant.

According to telegraphic dispatches received here last night, Chief of Detectives John Seymour is now on his way back from Kansas City, Mo. The much-wanted murderer of Nora Fuller is not with him, and the police are just as far off as they were on the night the body of the girl was discovered in the house on Sutter street. Everything in connection with the case seems to indicate that Captain Seymour's mission has been in vain. Chief Wittman last night on the subject of Seymour or what success he met in the undertaking. Chief Wittman even went so far as to deny that he had received word from Captain Seymour since he made his sudden appearance in this city. When seen last night Chief Wittman said: "The absence of a personal telegram from Captain Seymour I am inclined to disbelieve all the newspaper reports in connection with the case. It is understood that he should telegraph me, and as he has not done so I refrain from giving any affirmative newspaper dispatches received from Kansas City or anywhere else. The dispatches received last night are as follows: KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 10.—A man arrested here last week on suspicion of Nora Fuller, a San Francisco girl, proved to be a well-known Kansas City man, a good character, and he was discharged. Captain Seymour of San Francisco arrived here last night on the subject of the case. Chief Hayes returned West to-day, declaring the suspect was not the man wanted. Chief Hayes, returning after the arrest, that a mistake had been made, failed to make the matter public.

BROADHURST'S LATEST EFFORT DOES NOT ADD TO HIS FAME
Audience at Grand Sympathizes With Clever Company. "A Coat of Many Colors" at Alcazar.

SINGER WHO APPEARS HERE TO-NIGHT AND TWO POPULAR MEMBERS OF PROFESSION.

There is little use in commenting upon the show presented at the Orpheum by the Auers, who make pretty pictures out of a basket full of rags, are absolute novelties, and are heartily enjoyed upon the completion of every effort. While Bill Clifford does not sing any new songs this week, he renders the old ones in such inimitable style that he retains his old popularity. The Nelsons are beyond description. The family of nine is doing an aerobic stunt this week that will be seldom, if ever, eclipsed at the Orpheum. Eva Mudge, the "American girl who captured London," is also capturing this city with her melodiously quick changes and nice vocalists whose voices blend in a charming manner. Fred Clarke, singing that add to the performance, Frank N. Drew, J. Hay Corsar, Ruth Macatney, Kay Campbell, Ludokki Young and David Harford are responsible for the chief roles and take good care of their parts. The play should see a good success. Next Sunday evening one of the most important attractions of the season will be given at the California Theatre. Howard Kyle and a good first-class company.

District Council of Carpenters Reply to Union 483.

L. D. Gordon and J. M. Burke Accused of Making False Claims.

In connection with the strained relations existing between Union No. 483 of the Carpenters and Joiners and P. H. McCarthy of the Building Trades Council, the following communication has been received by the Call from the District Council of Carpenters and Joiners: To the Editor of The Call—Dear Sir: The District Council of Carpenters and Joiners, desirous of being at all times thoroughly and clearly understood on all matters pertaining to our craft and the general building business, request you to grant this order to place the council's reply before the public. Certain gentlemen—carpenters by trade—are now and have for some time past been engaged in an endeavor to confuse the minds of the contractors and mechanics alike engaged in the building business. In the first of these two of these gentlemen, L. D. Gordon and J. M. Burke, president and secretary respectively of Union No. 483, who with one of the old-time scoundrels and threadbare arguments which amuse the man pursuing a lost cause. In an endeavor to answer the statements of fact published in the press of Sunday last entirely in person. So completely have they been captured by prejudice, malice and hate that they have entirely lost sight of the fact that they are contented themselves with abusing Brother P. H. McCarthy, member of Union 22, president of the Building Trades Council, delegate to the District Council.

Racing Men Will Be Absent.

There will be plenty of clubs out after the mill, but I just received a telegram from Santa Anita, California, which says that the racing men will be absent from the mill before May 1. I don't suppose the northern clubs will want to offer as much, or that the mill will draw nearly as much as it did in the racing season. That was my hope. I thought we could fix it up all right, because I suppose the racing would last until May at any rate. The Southern Athletic Club of Louisville will be there with a good deal of a bid, and it may get it. They tell me that the clubs are fighting in San Francisco, but I guess they will patch up their row somehow before the racing season begins. I suppose if they do that Harry Corbett will be behind the offers.

Charges Preferred Against Minister Wu

PEKING, March 10.—A prominent Manchurian censor has memorialized the throne for the removal of Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to the United States. The censor asserts that Wu Ting Fang corruptly retained, ostensibly for repairs to the Chinese legation in Washington, $30,000 of the Tientsin silver refunded by the American Government last year. WASHINGTON, March 10.—Minister Wu said to-night that he promptly informed his Government of the matter. The United States turned over to him the Tientsin silver fund, and the money was placed at his disposal. An acknowledgment was received by telegraph. Not one cent of the fund, Wu said, could be misappropriated. He said that he would never be used for any purpose whatever this could be done only by the sanction of the Chinese Government. The Minister said he would immediately advise the presentation of the memorial for his removal, but he treats the matter very lightly.

Drunk Soldiers Fight With Police Officers

Police Officer Gruenwald and Special Officer Sam Dasset had a lively time last night with a crowd of drunken soldiers at the junction of Kearny and Pacific streets and Montgomery avenue. A large number of soldiers were paid off yesterday, and they proceeded to enjoy themselves along the Barbary Coast. The officers attempted to put two of them on a car in preference to arresting them, but their companions mistook their object. The two soldiers were called for assistance. Officers Kavanaugh and Nelson responded and got the two soldiers on a car. The other drunken soldiers came up from the Central station and the crowd was quickly dispersed.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Officials of railroads east of Chicago are preparing to wage an active campaign for through business to the Pacific Coast. In a comparatively short period six Eastern lines have appointed coast agents with jurisdiction over all territory between Chicago and the Pacific Coast. The Winter Circus. The Winter Circus at Woodward's Pavilion still continues to attract a large attendance. A new program was introduced last night, which will be continued throughout the week. More Disturbances in Italy. ROME, March 11.—Disturbances are reported among the peasants at Versell, in Piedmont, and in the province of Modena.

Champion Jeffries Arrives in Los Angeles From the East.

Talks of His Condition and Coming Combat With Fitzsimmons.

Special Dispatch to The Call. LOS ANGELES, March 10.—Big and strong, and in the pink of condition, Champion James J. Jeffries rolled into town this afternoon on the belated Ocean train, and was greeted at the station by several of his friends. The champion now weighs between 225 and 230 pounds, though he is not quite as heavy as on his previous visit, when he tipped the beam at 240 pounds. Jeffries was not at all averse to discussing his plans and his present health. Said the big fellow: "I am feeling fine now, and have been ever since I had that bad cold in New York. Jeffries was asked how he liked the prospect of meeting Fitzsimmons in Los Angeles before the Century Club, and the big man's answer was just as every one who knew him was sure it would be: "Los Angeles is my home; I like it, and I would rather fight here than anywhere else in the country. What financial inducements they can offer here I can't say yet, because I don't know for sure, but for going to fight where I have a preference to this town, that is all rot."

Talks About Fitzsimmons.

"I want to say something about Fitzsimmons," continued the champion. "He is a good fighter, and if there's anybody else that can beat him in San Francisco, I want to know it. I don't underestimate him a bit. I have fought him and I know the man. He is a dangerous man, and a hard one to beat, but I think I can put him away." Jeffries was asked what he had figured on as the probable gate receipts of the contest if the Government is soon in conjunction with the racing, and he said he supposed they would be about $45,000.

Cancerous Sores

are most frequently to be seen upon the face, neck or breast, though they are liable to appear upon other parts of the body. When they begin to spread and eat into the flesh, sharp, piercing pains are felt as the underlying tissue is destroyed, and the tender nerves exposed. Cancerous sores develop from very trifling causes; a carbuncle or boil, swollen gland, a little watery blister on the tongue or lip, a wart, mole or bruise of some kind becomes an indolent, festering sore, which in time degenerates into cancer. "Ten years ago I had a sore on my left temple, which the doctors pronounced a cancerous ulcer; it would itch, burn and bleed, then scab over, but would never heal. After taking S.S.S. awhile the sore began to discharge, and when all the poisonous matter had passed out it got well. I took in all about thirty bottles, containing it for some time after the sore had healed, to be sure all the poison was out of my system. Have seen no sign of the cancer in ten years.
