CAPTAIN SEYMOUR RESIGNS AFTER LONG SERVICE IN POLICE DEPARTMENT

MUCH to the surprise of the Police Department and the public at large, Captain of Detectives John P. Seymour resigned his position yesterday morning. The resignation, couched in the following words, was handed to Secretary Cadwalader of the Police Commission:

To the Honorable the Board of Police Commissioners of the City and County of San Francisco: I hereby tender to you my resignation as captain of detectives and as a member of the Police Department of the city and county of San Francisco, said resignation to take effect June 1. In severing my connection with the department I desire to offer my sincere thanks to each and every member of the board for the uniform kindness and courtesy shown me. After half an hour's conference with Chief of Police Wittman he came into his office and greeted the newspaper men, saying: I have been considering this step for three months and my only reason for resigning is that I can better myself. I have had an offer from the Fair estate which I think will be pleasanter and more lucrative than my present position, and for that reason solely I have been led to sever my connection with the department. Long association with police methods and policemen lends considerable regret to an otherwise pleasant prospect. I am sorry to leave my old comrades, and I am happy to have the opportunity to express my regard and appreciation of the men who have worked with me and under me during my career as a police officer.

SEYMOUR'S NEW POSITION. Captain Seymour refused to disclose what his position with the Fair estate will be, but from other sources it was learned that his duties will be made more pleasant and more lucrative than his present position. In addition to this his family will receive a pension in case of his death to compensate for the loss of the police pension which Captain Seymour forfeits by reason of his summary resignation.

The former chief of detectives was born in New York in 1853, and is a brass polisher by trade. He was appointed to the police force in May, 1884, and was made a corporal in 1891. He acted as a detective for several years and his work in many notable cases gave him fame long before his appointment as chief of detectives in 1898. He acted as a detective for several years and his work in many notable cases gave him fame long before his appointment as chief of detectives in 1898. He acted as a detective for several years and his work in many notable cases gave him fame long before his appointment as chief of detectives in 1898.

WILL BANQUET SEYMOUR.

Chief of Police Wittman is the only man in the department who was made a confidant by Captain Seymour of his intended resignation, and although the Chief regretted losing a tried and trusted subordinate, with whom he had always maintained the most pleasant relations, he agreed with the captain that to refuse the offer of the Fair estate would be the height of foolishness. Chief Wittman will tender a banquet to Captain Seymour to-night at a downtown restaurant, at which the higher officers of the department and many prominent citizens will wish the detective success in his new field of labor.

As soon as the resignation of Captain Seymour was filed Chief Wittman detailed Captain John B. Martin to assume the duties of the vacant office. Captain Martin was only raised to his present rank last Tuesday night and this second elevation, while totally unexpected, meets with the enthusiastic approval of the department and the public. Although mostly engaged during his police career in line work, Captain Martin has made a reputation as a keen and intelligent investigator of special duty, which guarantees that the same success will attend him in his new position which he has met with throughout his eighteen years of police duty.

Owing to the resignation of Captain Seymour, a vacancy exists among the captains which will be filled at the meeting of the Police Commission. Lieutenant George Birdsell of the City Hall station is the eligible man for the post, and undoubtedly will receive the appointment. He probably will be assigned to the Central station as he is familiar with the district.

PERPETUAL CUP RACE.

Harpoon and The Challenger Meet To-day in an Important Contest. The most interesting yacht race ever held on the bay of San Francisco will take place to-day, the prize being the right of possession for one year of the San Francisco perpetual challenge cup.

The competitors will be the Harpoon, representing Corinthian Yacht Club, the holders and defenders of the trophy. W. G. Morrow is captain of The Challenger, and will handle the boat. Fred Russ Cook, captain of the Harpoon, will take charge of her wheel.

The two yachts were placed in the water yesterday after being cleaned and their racing lengths determined by Measurer A. L. Denison of San Francisco Yacht Club and Measurer George W. Harrod of Corinthian Yacht Club.

The contest is exciting an unusual amount of interest, not only because the perpetual challenge cup is the blue ribbon of local yachting, and the boats represent those old-time rivals, the San Francisco and the Corinthian Yacht clubs, but also because The Challenger was designed by the architect who designed the yacht club building, Crownshield, of Boston, while Harpoon was designed and constructed here. When The Challenger was built in the water, yachtsmen were much struck by her clean, racy appearance. They thought she would carry the cup, but it was found she heeled over too much in a strong breeze to do her best work. Her mast has been cut down a few feet, of course, to get her on an even keel.

The referee of the race will be Sydney S. Marshall, commodore of California Yacht Club, while the judges and timekeepers are the members of the regatta committee of the two clubs, E. B. Borleng, T. J. Kavanagh and P. J. Martenstein of the Corinthians, and Dr. T. L. Hill, W. G. Morrow and J. S. Savory of the San Franciscans.

The committee will follow the race on the steam tug which will take passengers on board at the Powell-street wharf from 12:30 up to 1:30 p. m., when the contending yachts will be sent across the line to a tug start.

Brutally Kicks a Woman.

Frank H. Clayton was arrested last night by Sergeant Burnett and lodged in the city prison, charged with assault to do great bodily harm. He knocked down a woman named Ethel Hall in the doorway of the premises at 5 1/2 Grant avenue, and kicked her on the face and head, inflicting shocking injuries. The woman was an inmate of a respectable house, and Clayton, who was known to her as Crowthers, was insanely jealous of her. He decamped from the house by a false telephone message and waited for her return, when he assaulted her.

Detention Saves Her Wealth.

When searched at the Central police station yesterday morning, $70 in gold coin and valuables to the amount of $200 were found in the possession of Mathias Steigelschmidt, a discharged soldier. The police marvel at the soldier's possession of the treasure, as he had been drunk for two days and had spent his time in some of the most disreputable portions of the city. Edward H. Davis, another soldier, was arrested Thursday night on Barbary Coast and when searched had about $400 in coin in one of his pockets.

WOUNDED TAKEN AWAY.

A search was made in Chinatown under the direction of Sergeant Helms, who was in charge of the Central police station, two other men, Ah Louie, Wong Sen Chen and Wong Slick had been placed in prison, and seven more participants were rounded up before 8 o'clock in the morning. Their names, as placed on the detinue book, are: Lee Gow, Don Hun, Wong Ah Kee, Wong Ah Gim, Wing Yee, Wing Don and Gee Gong. Yesterday afternoon Sergeant Shaw of the Chinatown squad and Detective Gibson arrested another man, Ah Louie, and placed him behind the bars with the others.

Detective Ed. Gibson took Wong Kee to the emergency hospital last night where Wong Sen Chung readily identified him as the man who had done the shooting. When the highbinder was brought from his cell a letter was found on his person which he had written in prison. It was addressed to his brother, and stated that if his friends did not rally to his support he would commit suicide. To the detective he admitted that he had done the shooting and said he would plead guilty if guaranteed a sentence no greater than ten years.

Such action as may be taken will be submitted to the district council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, which the recommendation that it be indorsed.
