HIS LIFE WORK HIS MOURNMENT

Rev. Dr. Voorsanger Eulogizes Character of Dead Pioneer.

Body of Louis Sloss Rests in Mausoleum at Home of Peace Cemetery.

All that was mortal of the late Louis Sloss was laid to rest in the Walter Mausoleum at the Home of Peace Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The obsequies were impressive and attended by a large concourse of people who had known and respected the deceased capitalist because of the many noble characteristics he possessed.

During the morning the friends of the family gathered at the residence at San Rafael, where the remains lay in state. Rev. Dr. Jacob Voorsanger was among those who comforted the widow in the hour of her bereavement. A few minutes before noon the casket, hidden from sight by a shroud of violets, was borne to the depot, where President Foster's private car awaited the convenience of the family. The remains were brought to this city on board the steamer Ukiah, and awaiting the funeral party at the ferry were the honorary pallbearers and friends of the family. The pallbearers were as follows:

Representing the California Society of Planners: John H. Jewett and Judge E. K. Cotton; Loyal Legion, Colonel W. K. Smedberg and W. W. Montague; University of California, A. Foster and W. Hellman; representing the commercial interests of San Francisco and friends of the deceased, W. W. Morrow, Professor George Davidson, Sylvan Wells, Nicholas, Charles Hirsch, R. P. Rithet, William Thomas, Charles Yates, L. Steinhart, W. J. Lutz, Herman Walter, Levi Strauss, Dr. Leopold Neumann, A. M. Hunt, Thomas Brown, W. H. Chickerline, Henry Heyman, Horace Travis, Charles E. Miller, M. H. Hoch, Henry T. Scott, John Berningham, Mark L. McDonald, Daniel Meyer, Max Heilbronner, F. W. Litzell, M. C. Eschke, Captain A. H. Fayson, Charles N. Felton and J. H. Hecht.

MANY GO TO CEMETERY.

The cortege proceeded to the depot at Third and Townsend streets, and at 3:30 o'clock the special train of six coaches and funeral car departed for the cemetery. Several hundred people witnessed the departure of the train, and as many as could be accommodated, nearly all friends of the deceased, accompanied the remains to the peaceful spot in San Mateo County which has aptly been termed Home of Peace. Many persons had preceded the cortege and these thronged the avenues of the cemetery long in advance of the arrival of the funeral party. The casket was borne to the chapel, and in the presence of those who had known and loved the deceased Rev. Dr. Voorsanger delivered a short prayer, followed by an address, in which he spoke of the life and works of the man whose death is sincerely mourned by the entire community.

Rev. Mr. Voorsanger spoke in part as follows: "The end of life is death. This is a thought that impresses itself at some time or other upon every thoughtful man. No man needed praise so little as him who lies here cold in death, and who has been so long in the land. It is not in discussing the issues of life and death that Mr. Sloss has made his mark. His life was his own, his life was his own, his life was his own. He wanted no eulogy spoken at his funeral. He wanted no praise spoken at the obsequies of the deceased. We have often stood in admiration before the works of the masters and in admiring the paintings which have been how nature could be so marvelously reproduced. So have the lives of some men been touched by the hand of God. It is said that he will be remembered by all who knew him as a superior man. We need the words of such lives to spur us on to better things."

HIS LIFE WAS CLEAN.

It is good to know that every page of this man's life was clean and unspotted, and the only blot on his life was a man who had a few men who dare to carry their convictions beyond the ordinary lines of mere duty, but reaching out to the principle of this man. In business in his relations with men, his religion, philanthropy, wife and children, he was in reality a man who had made his life his life truly great. That was the end of his life from the beginning to the end. The steps of the vault were strewn with affection. Honor, love and duty blended with the virtues, rendered him a noble character. The steps of the vault were strewn with affection. Honor, love and duty blended with the virtues, rendered him a noble character. The steps of the vault were strewn with affection. Honor, love and duty blended with the virtues, rendered him a noble character.

The casket was then taken to the Walter Mausoleum, where prayers were said. The steps of the vault were strewn with flowers and presented an imposing spectacle. The remains will lie there until the Sloss Mausoleum has been erected.

Children's Society Meets.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, held yesterday, Secretary White's report showed that during the last month 142 children had been received, thirteen placed in institutions and two in private families. Theodore F. Payne was elected to life membership in the society.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-out cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all anointed with it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS READY TO GREET THEIR GUESTS

Grand Parlor Will Meet Here in Annual Session Tuesday and Lively Time Is Expected.

THE Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West will meet in annual session in Native Sons' building Tuesday morning next.

The order has a membership of nearly 4000, distributed in ninety-two parlors throughout the State. It is reported that during the past year there has been a marked gain in membership and finance. Eight new parlors were instituted, one was reorganized and another surrendered its charter.

Many matters of importance will occupy the attention of the delegates and it is probable that the approaching session will be the most exciting one held since the first Grand Parlor.

GRAND SECRETARYSHIP.

Miss Laura J. Frakes of Amador Parlor, the present grand secretary, will be a candidate for re-election. Miss Elizabeth F. Douglass of Alta Parlor is spoken of as an aspirant for the same office. For the office of grand marshal, Emma G. Foley of Orinda Parlor and Emma Witte Little of Orinda Parlor are mentioned. It is said that nearly every parlor will have a candidate for the position of grand trustee.

The parlor standing highest in finance and membership this year is Alta No. 3 of this city.

The local committee has arranged a most entertaining program for the grand officers and delegates. Next Monday there will be a trolley ride and lunch at the depot. Tuesday night will be a reception in Native Sons' Hall, Wednesday, a theater party; Thursday, a ball in Native Sons' Hall; Friday, installation of the new officers and banquet; and Saturday, a trip to Mount Tamalpais.

There will be a reception Monday night in the Maple room of the Palace Hotel, tendered by Dr. A. Florence Temple of Marina Parlor, assisted by representatives from the local parlors.

PREPARES TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH OF JULY

Committee Effects Organization and Will Arrange for Combined Civic and Military Parade.

The committee appointed to arrange for the Fourth of July celebration met last night in the Mayor's office. Organization was effected by the election of Bruce Cornwall, chairman; George R. Wells, vice chairman, and Charles H. Sommerlad, secretary. A committee on electrical display, consisting of E. L. Wagner, Max Popper and C. Desborough, and one on headquarters, consisting of C. H. Sommers, Dr. A. B. Wilson and Dr. M. S. Levy, were appointed by the chair. A discussion followed as to the kind of celebration to have, it being the general opinion that a combined military and civic parade would be advisable. It was also decided to make no appeal to the public for funds. The committee adjourned to meet next Tuesday night at the same place, when more definite arrangements will be made.

Discusses Proposed Improvements.

The June edition of the Merchants' Association Review published yesterday contains discussions of many plans for municipal improvements. Andrea Sbarboro contributes an article on the recent trip of the commercial men to Bakersfield and W. S. Green describes what a similar party will see on its tour of the Sacramento valley. The projects for street improvements suggested by the association to the Board of Supervisors are fully outlined and their benefits explained.

HAYS POSSESSES VIOLENT TEMPER

His Parents Corroborate the Wife's Story of Cruelty.

Judge Troutt Grants Divorce and Monthly Alimony to Plaintiff.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hays, the parents of Will C. Hays, a prosperous Western Addition merchant, were the principal witnesses yesterday at the trial of the divorce suit brought by Carrie A. Hays against their son. They corroborated the story of cruelty told by their daughter-in-law. Judge Troutt granted her a decree of divorce, awarded her the custody of the two children and ordered Hays to pay $100 a month alimony.

It appeared from the testimony that Hays possessed an ungovernable temper and frequently vented his rage on his wife. On one occasion, she testified yesterday, Hays flew into a violent rage and gave her an unmerciful beating, blacking about the body. She was confined to her bed for a week. She further testified that her husband had lost his affection for her, and that she did not care to live with him any longer. Hays did not appear in court.

Mrs. Hays will go to New York with her children, both of whom are boys, and reside with her parents. The marriage of the Hays took place in 1888. Grace Kincaid was granted a divorce from Edwin I. Kincaid, a railroad station agent, yesterday by Judge Graham. The decree was granted on the ground of extreme cruelty. Mrs. Kincaid testified that her husband had a fondness for flourishing a revolver in her presence and cutting and abusing her. Mrs. Kincaid is the sister of former Supervisor Dr. E. L. Ferrall.

Judge Kerrigan granted Mary Bowen a divorce yesterday from John M. Bowen for desertion, and Susan M. Hostetter a divorce from August M. Hostetter for cruelty.

The suit for the annulment of the marriage of Anna Cohen to Haskell Cohen was submitted in Judge Kerrigan's court yesterday. Mrs. Cohen wanted her marriage annulled because her husband is also her father. They were married at Leavenworth, Kan., in 1886.

J. E. Francoeur was granted a divorce from George H. Francoeur by Judge Healy yesterday on the ground of failure to provide.

Sarah Delphine Bradley, who was married two years ago to Alfred Robinson Bradley, is suing for divorce on the ground of desertion. She alleges that Bradley abandoned her three months after their marriage. She asks permission to resume her maiden name, black.

NEW TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY INCORPORATES

Will Acquire the Paraphernalia of the Firm of Rouleau, Simpson & Miller.

The Title Insurance and Guaranty Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital stock of $500,000. The directors are C. S. Wheeler, J. K. Moffitt, O. A. Rouleau, Gallard Stoney, A. J. Treat, F. G. Sharratt and V. de Goo.

The company has acquired the plant of the Rouleau, Simpson & Miller Title Company, which has been in existence here more than fifty years, thereby becoming possessed of maps, records and documents acquired after years of research. The new company will move into quarters on the first floor of the Mills building on July 1.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TO BE BURIED BY FRIENDS

Kind-Hearted Ladies Take Charge of Remains of Bernice Caldwell and Mrs. Jensen.

After reading a statement in yesterday morning's issue of The Call to the effect that the bodies of Bernice Caldwell and Jennie Jensen, her mother, would be buried in the potter's field should no one claim them, the Golden Gate undertaking establishment notified Deputy Coroner McCormick that they would provide interment. The announcement came a little late, however, for Mrs. H. S. Fulton of 319 Cortland avenue and Mrs. E. Hein of 5914 Mission street took charge of the remains of mother and daughter. Mrs. Fulton had been taking care of Bernice and Mrs. Hein was the landlady of Mrs. Jensen.

Illumination of Post Street.

The Post-street Improvement Club has completed arrangements for the Illumination of Post street from Montgomery to Powell by sixteen electric arc lights. The current will be turned on for the first time to-night and the occasion will be fittingly celebrated.

Mechanics' Institute Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of the members of the Mechanics' Institute will be held to-night at the Mechanics' Institute library building.
