

SENATORS PLAY WINNING BALL

Fisher's Panama Brings Good Luck to the Tailenders.

Josh Reilly Regains His Celebrated Old Time Bating Eye.

Mike Fisher, baseball magnate, copper and philosopher, has purchased one Panama lid, which actually cost nearly seven pieces of good money. The Senators made the Panama take second money and now Mike will insist that every man on his team wear a high grade bonnet. "For," said the magnate, "if one Panama can top out a game, what will be the result if fifteen of us should sport a fancy bonnet?"

Fisher's philosophy sounds good. The Senators played like Barney Dreyfus' tossers yesterday afternoon and the Panes never really had a chance. Not a single visitor made the slightest kind of a mistake when the leather went its rounds over the lot. The strenuous base hit always floated along when it counted like money.

Young Thomas pitched the same swell article of ball which he has been handling all season. The only difference this time was he received the support due him for his clever stunts. Meredith was also much in evidence with mystic twisters and steady control, but no pitcher can with a close fight when four bad miscues are delivered to present the other fellows with runs.

The Senators circled the paths in the second without the aid of a base hit. Unglaub walked and Hogan shot a simple one into Nordyke's mitt. Dyke, in his hurry to complete the play, struck the ball out to center and Unglaub registered. The next two came in the sixth and seventh. Both were the result of good clean hitting when men were awaiting a chance on the pillows.

Reilly was the only Pony who nosed under the wire. In the fifth, he created a mild sensation by swatting the leather out to deep center for three stations. Glendon immediately scored him with a line drive over second.

The way old Josh Reilly punished Thomas' offerings grandly today out as the stellar attraction of the day. Josh wore a wicked expression and landed squarely for a double and a triple. Nordyke fell over backwards a poor cripple in the ninth and stabbed hot from Hogan's stick. It was a spectacular catch and came with two on bases and two gone.

Shay injured his noble right in Wednesday's game and had to shine on the bench, while Deimas groped around the short field paths. Deimas was not so bad, but it is easily seen he was never constructed for an infielder. The score:

MORLEY'S BALL TOSSEES DEFEAT EWING'S STARS

Mohler Has an Off Day and Is Responsible for Two Bad Errors.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—The Seraphs played all around the leaders to-day and won with many runs to spare. Cristall had his bad inning in the fifth, when a base on balls, four hits and an error netted the locals five runs. Jones pitched a steady, clever game. In only two innings did he allow more than one hit. In the fourth and eighth innings Oakland made three hits, but clever and fast fielding by the home team prevented more.

BOXER BERGER DEFEATS JOYCE

The Olympian Proves Too Clever for His Big Opponent.

Wolfe Gets the Best of the Decision in Fight With Fincke.

Sam Berger, the Olympic Club's heavy-weight boxer, proved too clever for Jack Joyce in their last night before the Ariel Club in Mechanics' Pavilion Annex. Berger is tall and thin, while his opponent is built on the lines of a Japanese wrestler. Joyce tried repeatedly to land a left swing, while Berger contented himself with a left jab to the head. In the third round Joyce wrestled Berger to the floor and was warned by Referee Hayes. The last round was all in Berger's favor. He knocked Joyce down three times with body punches. The last time he stayed down.

Teddy Wolfe was given the decision over H. W. Fincke after four rounds of hard fighting. Dave Supplee, one of the judges, decided in favor of Fincke, while M. J. Short voted for Wolfe. Referee Milton Hayes called the deciding vote in favor of Wolfe. The latter was trying all the time, but Fincke smothered all his blows. Fincke was heavier and had a decided advantage in reach. He should have had the decision, as all Wolfe had was his aggressiveness.

Otto Knoch defeated Jack Grant after the most remarkable amateur bouts ever seen here. For three rounds they fought and wrestled all over the ring. There was never a moment when they were not in action. At the beginning of the fourth round Grant's vitality was all gone and he stopped from sheer exhaustion.

Tommy Snailham and Kid Parker went four fast rounds, the decision going to the latter. Parker had all the better of the fight after the first round.

Low Powell stopped Frank Fletcher in the first round. The latter was untrained and made no stand against his opponent. He was down nine seconds after a lot of body punches and went down again to stay.

Monte Attel wore down Mike Maher in four rounds. Attel had a slight lead from the start. Maher's superior strength carried him through. Attel knocked Maher down early in the fourth round. He was not out, but was in such a condition he could not continue.

But Riordan won a desperate fight from George Murray on points. The men are middleweights and can hit like heavyweights. It was anybody's fight until the fourth round, when Riordan outgamed and outpointed his opponent.

Lincoln Club Boxing Bout.

The Lincoln Athletic Club will give its amateur boxing exhibition on Tuesday evening next in Teutonia Hall, Howard street, between Ninth and Tenth. The following card will be presented: Dick Ott vs. Pat Joyce, 120 pounds; Jack Young vs. Frank Fletcher, 120 pounds; Chick Callahan vs. Ed Knoch, 130 pounds; Tommy Snailham vs. Dan Smith, 120 pounds; Pete McDee vs. Fred Bell, 140 pounds; Monte Attel vs. Al Meglia, 105 pounds; and Joe Angell vs. Jack Cordell, 135 pounds.

than one run to the inning. Lawler for Los Angeles and Dunleavy for Oakland were the bright particular stars of the game. Lawler's fielding, batting and base-running made a big hit with the crowd. Mohler had an off day and was responsible for two bad errors. Score:

RATHBONE SISTERS PLAN A GRAND RECEPTION TO VISITING PYTHIANS

Two Local Temples Making Extensive Preparations to Welcome Distinguished Visitors During the Coming Convention, to Be Held in San Francisco Next Month

The Rathbone Sisters, a valuable auxiliary to the famous order of the Knights of Pythias, will entertain the visiting Knights in a lavish manner during the convention in this city next August. A committee of arrangements has already been appointed to complete the plans for the coming event and no pains will be spared to make this particular branch of the celebration one of the most important of the big fete.

The Rathbone Sisters is the feminine branch of the Knights of Pythias and derives its name from Justus Rathbone, its founder. To become a member it is necessary for the lady to be either a wife, mother, sister or daughter of a Knight of Pythias in good standing. The order has been established for a number of years and has steadily prospered until at the present time it ranks among the leading woman societies of the world. There are two temples of Rathbone Sisters in this city, San Francisco Temple No. 11 and Golden Gate Temple No. 70.

The Supreme Temple, the head of the order of Rathbone Sisters, always meets at the same time and place as the Knights of Pythias, and consequently the convalescence this year will be held in San Francisco from August 9 to 20.

It is the intention of the sisters to entertain the visiting knights and ladies in a worthy manner. While the Knights are engaged in transacting the business of the order, the two local temples of the Rathbone Sisters will act as hosts to the visiting ladies. They will be shown the principal points of interest in and about the city and nothing will be left undone to make their stay in the city of the Golden Gate a most memorable one.

The Rathbone Sisters have established their headquarters at Golden Gate Hill, on Sutter street. The hall will be beautifully decorated with California's choicest flowers. Flags and bunting bearing the inscription of the order, "P. L. E. and T." will also form a part of the adornment of the hall.

The ladies have not yet given out the order of the programme, nor the plans they intend to pursue during the convention. They prefer to keep all arrangements secret until a few days before the opening of the fete. The committee in charge has already begun to make collections in order to raise funds. Their efforts so far have been highly successful and everything points to a great event.

Following is the joint committee from the two local temples of Rathbone Sisters: Mrs. Ida M. Brook, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Blumberg, Mrs. Grace Gray, Mrs. Julia F. Day, Mrs. S. P. Dargatz, Mrs. John M. Keenan, Mrs. J. McCall, Mrs. C. Holsby, Mrs. D. Robertson, Mrs. Emma Scholfield, Mrs. J. Secor, Mrs. Harry Simi, Mrs. Agnes Thavonai, Mrs. Clara Thompson, Mrs. Clara Tusk, Mrs. Etta Welch, W. H.
