BURGULARY

New York Officials Investigate the Lattimer Killing.

Introduce Testimony to Show That Shooting Was Not Work of Thief.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The official inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of Albert C. Lattimer of Brooklyn, who is supposed to have been shot by a burglar early in the morning of July 2, was begun today in Brooklyn, and late in the afternoon the hearing went over until Monday. Mrs. Sadie Lattimer, widow of the murdered man, was a witness to-day. Her story of the shooting developed nothing new. She stated that her husband was shot by a burglar. District Attorney Clark asked Mrs. Lattimer if she had ever been in the company of W. H. Tutthill, a traveling upholstery salesman, outside of her home. She replied that she had not. On the occasion in New York, that he accompanied her to her home, and that she told her husband about it. In reply to other questions asked by the District Attorney, she said she had never entertained a Mr. Elwell, whose home it is in the rear of the Lattimer house, in the absence of her husband. C. R. Rich, who lives near the Lattimers, said that when he went to the house on the night of the shooting Mrs. Lattimer introduced him to Tutthill. Lattimer was placed on the bed, and Rich helping in the work, and then, according to the witness, Tutthill said to Mrs. Lattimer: "Don't worry; he is all right." Dr. Menzies, house surgeon at the hospital where Lattimer died, created a sensation when he said on the stand that the dying man exclaimed as he lay on the bed on the third day: "The coward shot me in bed." Miss Christine Russell, a nurse, testified that Lattimer said: "A coward shot me in cold blood." Once, when Lattimer's brother spoke about the search for the burglar, the wounded man said: "No burglar ever shot me." Mary L. Cauffman, another nurse, said she heard Lattimer say he knew the man who shot him, and would tell his name when he got well. Miss Fannie Lattimer, a sister, swore that on one occasion she had seen Lattimer and Tutthill meet on a street corner, and had telegraphed this fact to Lattimer. She said that when he had reached home he found Tutthill there. There were words between the two men, and then a lengthy correspondence, which gradually ceased. Police Captain Reynolds testified that after a minute examination of the doors, windows and shutters of the Lattimer house he could not find the slightest evidence of a forced entrance.

ALLEGED WIFE MURDERER IS LYNCHED BY A MOB

Masked Men Take Him From Jail and Hang Him on the City Scales. OWENSBORO, Ky., July 17.—John Anderson, a farmer, who was in jail here, charged with the murder of his wife on the night of July 8, was taken from prison by a masked mob of about forty men and hanged to a beam over the city scales on one of the principal streets of Owensboro at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The lynchers, who are supposed to have come from the scene of Anderson's alleged crime, about three miles west of Owensboro, made their entrance into the city quietly and going to the jail demanded Anderson's release. The woman's father, then battered down the prison door and while some went to the prisoner's cell to lead him out, others of the mob surrounded the jail and his family to prevent them giving the alarm. Anderson was soon secured and in a few moments a rope was placed about his neck and he was hanged to a beam over a pair of scales. The mob then dispersed quietly. No arrests have been made. Anderson was the first white man ever lynched in Daviess County. At the time the murder with which he was charged was committed, Anderson and his wife had been separated for about seven weeks and Mrs. Anderson was living at her father's house, whither Anderson went for the alleged purpose of effecting a reconciliation. The woman's father, it is said, entered some objection and the irate husband then dragged his wife into the yard and shot her to death. He was arrested shortly after the crime and was in the Owensboro jail when he was lynched.

JUMPS FROM THE CLIFF TO ESCAPE PURSUERS

Man Suspected of Attempted Fraud Makes Remarkable Escape in Washington. PASCO, Wash., July 17.—Closely pressed by two pursuers who intended his capture and jailing for a suspected attempt at fraud, James Wade, a desperado, eight foot bluff into the swift, deep Yakima River above here, successfully swam to the other shore and escaped unharméd. Wade's desperate act was a bit of Tracy sensationalism. He presented a time check to Miss Ida Carlson, cashier of the Washington Irrigation Company at Zillah, Yakima County, and Miss Carlson said it was raised. Wade said he would wait while the cashier telephoned to the foreman who issued the check, but just before an answer was received Wade took to his heels. Willis Douglas and Charles Bailey, bystanders, chased him a quarter of a mile to the high banks of the Yakima, where Wade was cornered by Douglas. With a mighty leap he plunged far down into the river, a sheer jump of nearly seventy feet. His pursuers watched the fugitive swim the river and escape.

The different districts, as the reduction of the troops in the islands and the changes incident to the return of General Child, in this country make this change advisable.

ESCAPE TRIAL BY RESIGNING. School Trustees in San Jose Step Down and Out. Special Dispatch to The Call. SAN JOSE, July 17.—Rather than face a trial on charges of conspiracy and malfeasance, School Trustees Jones, Ryan and Wheeler tendered their resignations to Mayor Worswick this evening. This action was hastened by the refusal of the Supreme Court to-day to grant a writ of prohibition restraining the Mayor and Council from trying the accused. In this Mayor Worswick has scored a telling point over the Mackenzieites and secured control of the Board of Education. These trustees were appointed by former Mayor Martin to take the places of members of the old board who resigned in the last days of the Mackenzie administration to escape being ousted as their successors were. In the face of over $500 delinquent Trustees Jones, Ryan and Wheeler, so the Mayor charged, conspired with the old board and committed malfeasance in electing E. S. Worswick City Superintendent of Schools at an increased salary of $500 per year. To-night's Council meeting promised to be a lively one, but the big audience was disappointed, for aside from reading the resignations of the three Trustees, which they all once accepted, no other business of the charges, nothing was done. When Jones, Ryan and Wheeler learned that the Mayor had denied their writ, they went to the Mayor's office and tendered their resignations. The accused men gave as a reason for resigning that they did not wish to embarrass the present administration and tie up the school department in a legal contest. Mayor Worswick declined to accept the School Department, which for the first time in years has been wrested from the hands of the Mackenzieites. Three vacancies he will have four of the five members of the board. The Supreme Court yesterday refused to grant a writ of prohibition to School Trustees Jones, Ryan and Wheeler to restrain Mayor Nicholas Bowden from trying the Mayor and Council. The latter argued that as the Board of Education was a creature of the city charter, it defined its powers, it also had the right to remove them for the offenses charged and that the charge of malfeasance made could be sustained. The court, in support of the argument the Supreme Court returned the writ, and held that the Council was not proceeding in excess of its jurisdiction to try and determine the charges against the accused. The result of the decision is reaching in excess of $500,000, as it establishes the right of the Mayor to appoint and remove the members of the Board of Education, who may violate the charter.

MINERS FIND A GIANT TUSK. Trinity County Furnishes Another Mastodon Remnant. Special Dispatch to The Call. REDDING, July 17.—That one of the great prehistoric mastodons once roamed the mountains of Trinity County is now proven beyond a doubt. A month ago in the old Nash mine, at Carrville, in the famous Coffee Creek mining district, the tusk of a gigantic prehistoric animal was unearthed. It was eight feet in length and nine inches through at the big end. As soon as the tusk was exposed to the air it crumbled. Word has been received in Redding that the mate to the big tusk has just been unearthed in the same mine. The tusk just dug out is the same size as the first, but unlike its mate it is intact and apparently as solid as it was when attached to the big animal to which it belonged. These discoveries are creating considerable excitement and it is confidently hoped that a complete skeleton of the big animal will be dug out before the investigations now being conducted are finished. Various bones and skeletons of smaller but now extinct animals have been found, but as yet only the tusks of the mastodon have been dug out.

YOUNG WOMAN'S DEATH PUZZLES THE CORONER. Mysterious Case at Oroville Requires Disinterment of a Body and Investigation. MARYSVILLE, July 17.—Considerable mystery shrouds the death of a young woman who died at the Union Hotel in Oroville last Monday morning. Her name was Angelina Thorpe. She is said to have gone from Palermo to Oroville to seek entrance to the County Hospital, but died in the hotel before she could reach that institution. The circumstances surrounding her death and the hasty interment caused much talk, and in consequence the District Attorney ordered the body exhumed and an autopsy was held. It was determined that her death was due to blood poisoning. Coroner Bullington has summoned a jury to consider the case.

CONTEST MAY BEGIN OVER MEADOWS' ESTATE. Will of the Pacific Grove Rancher Gives Eldest Son a Small Sum. SALINAS, July 17.—The will of the late James Meadows, a pioneer rancher of Pacific Grove, was filed for probate in Salinas yesterday. The deceased left an estate consisting of 4500 acres in Carmel Valley valued at $100,000, notes and mortgages aggregating $20,000, $5000 in cash and other property, making a total of $120,000. The property is divided among six children. Two-fifths goes to an unmarried daughter, one-fifth each to three sons, and the eldest son, Frank, gets only $2000, which is to be given him in such sums as the executor may deem best. C. F. Bailey of San Jose is the executor. A legal contest over the will is probable.

UNRULY BALL PLAYERS ARE FINED BY COURT. Manager McKibben and Pitcher McFadden of the St. Joseph Team Are Mulcted. COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 17.—As a result of the row on the baseball diamond here yesterday afternoon, in which Manager McKibben and Pitcher McFadden of the St. Joseph team and Umpire Cole were mixed up, the manager and the player were to-day taken to the Justice court and each fined $50 and costs for disturbance, the case being pushed by Assistant District Attorney T. J. Black, who declared he would have cost baseball in this city or break up the Western League. McKibben and McFadden were both suspended for 30 days. The suspension of the Western League, pending an investigation, the suspension having been asked for by President Burns of the local team.

Injured by a Runaway Team. MONTEREY, July 17.—While trying to stop a runaway team at Pacific Grove this morning Henry French of San Jose, once a prominent Prohibition candidate for Governor, and trustee of the San Jose Normal School, was thrown down and trampled under the horse feet. His left leg was broken about three inches above the ankle and his body was severely bruised. The injuries are not dangerous.
