GOVERNORS MAY CHECK ROCK ISLAND REORGANIZATION PLAN

Governor of Iowa Believes There Is an Undue Inflation of Stock and a Direct Violation of the Laws of the State

GOVERNOR OF IOWA, WHO IS IN-VESTIGATING THE ROCK ISL-AND REORGANIZATION.

such corporations, and there must be something shown to the credit of the stockholders of such a company which will represent the difference in increased capitalization.
"it is my understanding that under the Rock Island plans of readjustment each holder of 100 shares of common stock is to receive a $10,000 bond secured by a collateral trust mortgage upon the present Rock Island stock. In addition to this they receive in the Rock Island Company of New Jersey seventy shares in a preferred stock, the preferred stock being preferred to the extent of 4 per cent for the earnings of each year for a period of seven years, when it becomes preferred for 5 per cent for an additional period of seven years, after which it is preferred, I believe, to the extent of 8 per cent per annum. This is as I read the plans in the newspapers.

CONCERNING CAPITALIZATION.
"Now, the capitalization of the old Rock Island Company was but $75,000,000, while the new company located in Iowa declares a capital of $125,000,000. There must be something, in my mind, to show that the increase in capitalization is not an excessive inflation, or that the stock which has been issued is not watered.
Under the Hubbard bill, which I vetoed last winter, it would have been possible for such a corporation to organize without any difficulty, but the present law there are limitations in this regard. I am not willing to sit by and allow a proposition of such enormous size to be introduced without inquiring into the method which it employs and their conformity to the State laws. I am convinced that such a centralization of capital and power is dangerous, to say the least, and cannot be encouraged without threatening business interests. Such a centralization of capital means that there may follow an explosion, which, when it comes, is likely not only to affect only one, but many interests. There is a reason, therefore, why I have felt it duty, to inquire into this present case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Regarding the dispatches from Des Moines that Governor Cummins announced today that he is investigating the reorganization of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company with a view of ascertaining whether the organization is in all respects in harmony with the laws of the State of Iowa. He will confer with the Attorney General as soon as the latter returns to the city. Governor Cummins stated that the first question he is inquiring into is as to whether the inflation of the company's stock which is contemplated by the reorganization is consistent with the Iowa law. In the second place, he desires to know just how far it is lawful for a New Jersey corporation to own and control the property of a railway owned and operated in Iowa. He has not reached a conclusion of either of these questions, and declares that he means to give them a thorough investigation before he decides what his duty toward the company may be under the premises.
"it may be," he stated, "that the Iowa laws contemplate as much latitude as this company has used, but I doubt that they do."

OUT OF HARMONY.
"it is my opinion," said Governor Cummins, in speaking of the matter, "that this reorganization is out of harmony with the Iowa law, and I believe that if I have read the press dispatches aright there has been such an inflation of capital stock here as not contemplated by the laws of this State. It is true that there is no limit placed upon the capitalization of such a company, but there is a limit upon the indebtedness."

Francis P. Hienemann was arrested yesterday by Detective Harry Reynolds and booked at the City Prison on a charge of grand larceny. Hienemann was employed as a valet by S. Prentiss Smith of the Phoenix Savings, Building and Loan Association, 533 California street, who is paralyzed on one side.

When the loss of the money was discovered the police were notified and Detective Reynolds was called to the scene.
The valet was suspected as when Reynolds was convinced that the suspicion was well founded he placed Hienemann under arrest. Hienemann at first denied any knowledge of the $300, but later admitted to the detective that he had stolen it. He said he went to the Chutes that night and spent the money lavishly. He also purchased a Tuxedo suit, a full dress suit, a gold watch and chain and other articles, exhausting the money in one night.
Hienemann says he is a son of Paul Hienemann, the head of the tea importing firm of Paul Hienemann & Co., New York. He was a member of the famous Seventy-first Regiment of New York of his father's time. He was on a voyage on a ship to Borneo and landed in Manila where he secured a position as clerk in the Quartermaster's Department. Then he came to this city and was engaged as valet by Mr. Smith.

LIQUOR CAUSES
A DIVORCE SUIT

Mrs. Smith Says Husband Has Been Drunk
for Two Years.

Claims He Was Badly Intoxicated at Funeral of a Relative.

In a complaint for divorce filed yesterday by Anna M. Smith against L. C.
Smith, a newspaper mail clerk, some remarkable allegations are made. Mrs.
Smith charges that her husband has been drunk for the last two years, and that while under the influence of liquor he has treated her in a shameful manner.
According to Mrs. Smith's complaint, her troubles commenced in September, 1900, when, she alleges, Smith came home drunk and amused himself by throwing her clothes upon the kitchen floor and waiting upon them. He threw his own clothes out into the back yard, alleges Mrs. Smith, and then opened the parlor window, thrust out his head and bellowed like mad, thereby causing her to become greatly frightened.

In November of the same year, alleges Mrs. Smith, her husband drank a great quantity of liquor and while suffering from its effects destroyed her peace of mind by throwing a rocking chair at the folding doors and scattering her sheet music around the room. On this occasion, she alleges, he put out the fire she had lighted, cursed her and demanded to know "what right she had to such luxuries as a fire and a piano." In February, 1901, according to the complaint, Smith did his greatest stunt. His wife alleges that he attended her grandmother's funeral in a badly intoxicated condition, greatly humiliating her.
In January of this year, further alleges the wife, Smith got into a drunken row and he was so badly beaten that his mother-in-law had to nurse him for three months.
The Smiths were married in this city January 23, 1896, and have no children.
Corra P. Robinson is suing P. C. Kohlmoos for divorce on the ground of cruelty. She alleges that her husband aided and abetted her in a divorce suit against beating June 23 that she was compelled to seek treatment at the Central Emergency Hospital. The couple were married in 1892 and reside at 2083 Mission street.
Lee Dorris brought a suit for divorce against Pauline Dorris yesterday, charging her with infidelity. They were married less than three months ago.
The marriage of Austin A. Pratt to Annie M. Pratt was annulled by Judge Hechberg yesterday. It was shown that in October, 1899, when the marriage was performed, Mrs. Pratt was the wife of A. F. Kings to whom she had been married in September, 1888.
Divorces were granted to Florence Leach from her husband yesterday for neglect and Eva Alvarez Belette from Albert Ballette for desertion.

GRAND JURY DISCHARGED
AND FINAL REPORT FILED

It Is Admitted to Be the Briefest Document of Its Kind on Record.

The Grand Jury appeared before Presiding Judge Cook yesterday morning and Charles Sonntag, the foreman, handed the Judge the final report of the jury, after which it was discharged. The report was very brief and is the shortest ever filed by a Grand Jury. It is as follows: The Grand Jury begs leave to present its final report and respectfully requests that it be discharged from further duty. It was paneled on December 23, 1901, by the Honorable Frank H. Dunne, at that time Presiding Judge of the Superior Court, and held forty-six meetings. It has investigated thirty-eight cases and found twenty-one indictments.
The various committees of the Grand Jury have visited all of the departments of this city and its public institutions. The accounts of some of the departments have been examined by its expert and action has been taken where necessary.

Judge Cook later issued an order for impounding a new Grand Jury. The names will be drawn from the big box today and made returnable Tuesday.

A Beautiful Work of Art.

Berlotti's very beautiful statue of Ariadne was the center of attraction at Mark Hopkins Art Institute yesterday, when a large and admiring crowd made an inspection of the marble beauty. Ariadne was purchased by Joseph B. Ber-lotti during a recent visit to Florence, and he was determined that its first exhibition in the United States should be in San Francisco. The description given in advance of its arrival was not in the least exaggerated, for the statue is beyond question one of the most perfect examples of the sculptor's conception and execution. The lines are remarkable for their accuracy. Berlotti has given to the world a fine piece of art in the bacchant

Tidal Canal Suit.

United States Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday denied the motion of the plaintiff in the suit of Emilie G. Cohen vs. the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company to remand the case to the Superior Court in Alameda County, where the suit was brought originally, to restrain the defendant from digging the tidal canal on property claimed by Mrs. Cohen.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
OVERWORKED WOMEN

Should Beware of a Serious Organic Break-down. Take Heed in Time.

The ordinary every-day life of most of our women is a ceaseless treadmill of work.
How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system all unstrung!
One day she is wretched and utterly miserable; in a day or two she is better and laughs at her fears, thinking there is nothing much the matter after all; but before night the deadly backache reappears, the limbs tremble, the lips twitch—it seems as though all the imps of Satan were clutching her vitals; she goes to pieces and is flat on her back.

No woman ought to arrive at this terrible state of misery, because these symptoms are a sure indication of womb troubles. She must remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is almost an infallible cure for all female ills, such as irregularity of periods, which cause weak stomach, sick headache, etc., displacements and inflammation of the womb, or any of the multitudes of illnesses which beset the female organism.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had.
Address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free and helpful.

Mrs. Richard Dixon wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letters are here printed.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered for four years with pain in my back, and a terrible bearing-down feeling in the lower part of my bowels, and at times the abdomen seems to swell and becomes very sore. I have terrible sharp pains in my ovaries and am very nervous, also troubled with leucorrhoea and irregular menstruation. I have started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I do not feel much better, so I thought I would write and ask you what to do. Please answer soon, as I am a great sufferer and long to get relief."—MRS. RICHARD DIXON, 11 Farewell St., Newport, R. I.
(Jan. 11, 1900.)
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to thank you for your letter of advice. Since taking your Vegetable Compound, Liver Pills, and using your Sanative Wash, as directed by you, my backache and terrible pains in ovaries have disappeared. I feel that your Vegetable Compound should be used by all weak women."—MRS. RICHARD DIXON, 11 Farewell St., Newport, R. I. (April 11, 1901.) Will not the volumes of letters from women who have been made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince others of the virtues of this great medicine?
When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?" Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick and discouraged, exhausted, with each day's work. If you have some derangement of the female organism try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will surely help you.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
