GRAYS YEARS OF WAITING

Expects Railroad Coin to Boost Gage in Sacramento.

Herrin's Visit Emboldens the Bosses and Their Satellites.

Republican Club Resents the Interference of the Political Manager and He is Bitterly Denounced.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 4.—This week will see one of the hottest campaigns conducted in this city in many years. Both sides are prepared for a stubborn battle and an extremely warm time is expected. The Gage forces, emboldened by the appearance of Herrin on the scene, are making the fight of their lives for the Governor. They think that the railroad sack will be here in a few days and predict that it will be the means of winning many votes for the State executive.

WOMEN OPPOSE GAGE.

The women of this city seem to take as much interest in the campaign against Gage as do the men. At every meeting of the anti-Gage people hundreds of women crowded into the large tent and vigorously applied any criticism of the State executive. They are openly opposed to him on account of his evident desire to injure the city by vetoing appropriations which were intended to benefit it, and, furthermore, because his aristocratic tendencies will not permit him to give consideration to the needs of the poor.

BIG ANTI-GAGE MEETING.

One of the largest anti-Gage meetings of the campaign was held to-night at Fourteenth and E streets, in the very heart of the railroad district. Mayor Clark, in opening the meeting, said that it was not the purpose of the Republican Club to fight the railroad company, but to make a battle for decency and honesty in politics.
