

THE PONIES FOR THE PONIES Leaders Slip Back in Their Race for the Pennant. Schmidt and McCree die Sign to Play in Brooklyn Next Year.

Oakland slipped back another notch yesterday on the field across the bay in the race for the California Baseball League pennant. The score, in favor of the Ponies, was 1 to 0. The lone tally was made by Meany in the third inning. After that neither team could send a man across the rubber. The Ponies played an errorless game with the exception of Phyle at shortstop. He let three chances get away from him.

Oakland had only one less hit than the team from this city. They were spread over five innings, and thus proved valuable. Meany for the Ponies did the heaviest stick work, cracking out a three-bagger and a couple of singles.

Manager Edward Hanlon of the Brooklyn team has secured the signature of Danny Schmidt, the popular Oakland pitcher, and of "Judge" W. H. McCree, the equally popular fielder of the same team. The contract for Schmidt is for $2,000 to receive $2,000 for a season of six months, while McCree will receive $2,000. Danny Long carried on the negotiations in this city.

The Giant Right Tackle Fails to Register as Required by Intercollegiate Agreement.

ALBERTSON, captain of the University of California football eleven, has been dropped from the team because he failed to register at the university within twenty-five days after the opening of college. This action was taken last night by the executive committee of the Associated Students, in accordance with the terms of the intercollegiate football agreement between Berkeley and Stanford.
