COURSING MEN CONSIDER THE PLAINS MEET

The Representatives of Five Cities Are Bidding for Out-of-Town Gathering

Merced, Modesto, Santa Rosa, Fresno and Petaluma All Desire the Big Affair

WITH the last of the classic stakes of the season disposed of, the coursing men will now turn their thoughts toward the open plains meeting. It is expected five interior cities will try to induce the Interstate Club to visit their respective neighborhoods. Of these Merced, Modesto and Fresno offer facilities for the old-fashioned coursing, where the dogs are taken out into the open and a hare is beaten up from its resting place in the field. Petaluma and Santa Rosa offer a modification of the present style of coursing, but the meeting is held in the open country, but the hares are provided in advance and are released as required. Each class of sport has its adherents. The relative size of the bids will undoubtedly determine the location of the meeting. The bids must be submitted on or before November 12. The coursing will be held late in November or early in December.

Coursing enthusiasts are still discussing the sensational running of Pocatello in the John Grace cup. He is pronounced the most promising young greyhound in America. In his course with Royal Prince he scored apparently impossible points, at one part of the course leaping over his opponent when he could not get around him and scoring. The Black Coat-Last Club course also delighted the enthusiasts.

M. C. Delano of Rocklin, who bred Sacramento Boy, Vandal, Rubber Ankles and many other crack greyhounds, has a five-week-old litter by Fortuna Favente-Golden Russet, which he pronounces the best looking and smartest he has ever raised. They have been playing about the kennel yard for a week or ten days, showing precocity for such young greyhounds.

Mr. Delano has decided to breed Golden Russet to Firm Friend. He is an admirer of the English dog and of his son Real Article, which he calls "the unlucky dog." Real of the Kings, a Friend out of Wildflower, she by Lord Clifton out of Rockette. Lord Clifton is by Lord Neversett, while Rockette is by Skyrocket. Golden Russet is by Skyrocket out of Lawrence Belle, she by Lord Neversett. This makes the cross almost identical. Mr. Delano has more faith in Golden Russet than in Wildflower, as she comes from a better family, with excellent pedigree for such young greyhounds.

The coursing firm of Erwin & Lyon of Sherman, Tex., has dissolved. Cecil Lyon has taken over the dogs.

H. H. Lyon has bought Firm Friend, a sister to Real Article.

George Star has bought Master Rocket from E. Silver.

A. W. McKenna has bought Valadore, by Pretender, from C. G. Whallan.

Rocket has been mated with Julius Horn's Dumble Bee; Fortuna Favente with Real Lassie; Putter Free with For Glory and John Rocket with Royal Prince. The Fresno Coursing Club has been admitted to membership in the California Coursing Committee. The park will open to-morrow for the season. Under a special ruling greyhounds whose sires and dams cannot be traced to registered stock may be coursed until February 1. Owners must pay $2 for each dog of this character.

W. J. Jones, president of the Butte City Coursing Club, will never be allowed to course dogs wherever the California Coursing Committee has jurisdiction. He is charged with having written to P. M. Clarkson, asking him to ship well-known California dogs to Butte to be run under fictitious names and then returned here. The matter was referred to the American Coursing Board with the request that if the Butte Club be elected to membership in the board that Jones be considered as having been ruled off.

The Melrose Coursing Club was dropped from the committee for non-payment of the dues. A resolution there will not be allowed to course at Park under the jurisdiction of the committee.

The action of the Interstate Coursing Club stewards in suspending the trainer of the greyhound New Home Boy for three months was approved. He was charged with using an alcoholic rubdown when whiff hazel is the only one allowed.

The sport at Union Coursing Park will commence this afternoon upon the arrival of the 1 o'clock train. It will be provided by the first round of a fifty-dog stake. A special stake, with Palo Alto, Mickey Free, Aconia, Traloe Boy, Charts, Roman Athlete and other cracks, will be the feature of the card to-morrow. The remaining rounds of the open stake will complete the programme. The likely winners look to be:

Special stake—Game Boy, Mickey Free, Traloe Boy, Charts, Aconia, Traloe Boy, American Athlete and Palo Alto.

Open stake—Full Moon, Bionza, Kittiman, Master Rocket, October Lad, Fontenoy, Regal Attire, Zenite Huebie, Golden Garter, Fannie Hight, Ellata, Tillie H, Spencer, Wedgwood, White Hat, Astoria, Dorothy M, Pasha Pleasant, Major Mason, Beta S, May Hempstead, Royal Friend, Loyal Lad, Moss, Fair Gate, Delta M, Smapper Garrison and Real Aristocrat.

DUCKS SCATTER ON APPROACH OF THE STORM

Opinions Differ as to the Sport in Store for the Army of Gunmen To-Morrow

Empire Club Members Are Enthusiastic Over Their New Monterey Preserve

THE rain of the past few days has set the ducks in motion and they are moving about in great numbers. Gunmen are divided in their opinion as to the sport in store for them to-morrow. It is expected five interior cities will try to induce the Interstate Club to visit their respective neighborhoods. Of these Merced, Modesto and Fresno offer facilities for the old-fashioned coursing, where the dogs are taken out into the open and a hare is beaten up from its resting place in the field. Petaluma and Santa Rosa offer a modification of the present style of coursing, but the meeting is held in the open country, but the hares are provided in advance and are released as required. Each class of sport has its adherents. The relative size of the bids will undoubtedly determine the location of the meeting. The bids must be submitted on or before November 12. The coursing will be held late in November or early in December.

Among the members of the Empire Gun Club are delighted with the sport supplied by their new Monterey preserve. Last Sunday night the members brought home ducks, snipe and quail, not to mention some big clams, which are secured on the beach near the clubhouse. Ducks were seen in countless thousands, but for some reason maintained a respectable distance between themselves and the gunmen. An abundance of English snipe were found. Among the members who will be on the marsh to-morrow are F. J. Duda, H. H. Mayer, Dr. George G. Gere, C. A. Bennett, J. Peltier, F. L. Houpt and H. S. Farnsworth.

Among the Field and Tule clubmen who will be out are M. E. Unger, A. M. Shields, J. A. Chanlor, W. Bay, L. W. Harpham, C. C. McMahan and A. F. Hopke. F. H. Bushnell had a fair day's sport on Wednesday.

Dr. E. N. Short will forsake the Corinthian Club jinks to-night and will join the Spooney Gun Club members at their Mount Eden preserve. In the party will be L. R. Larzriere, Phil Beckett, George Moore, A. Guyatt and Leo Will. Quail are reported plentiful about Point Reyes. Last Sunday Fred Butler secured a limit bag after being out but a short time. Frank Vernon, G. W. Crandall and others had a good day after the fast-flying birds. Frank Maskey, L. D. Owens and E. F. Preston have the privilege of shooting over several ranches, but there is said to be plenty of country open to the sportsman who seeks a day afield. Ducks are also to be found in numbers at Point Reyes.

A grain-laden ship was badly damaged recently and its cargo was soaked with salt water. This spoils it for milling purposes, but does not impair its usefulness as bait for ponds. Tons of the damaged grain are being purchased and shipped to the preserves controlled by local sportsmen.

Showing Made by the Stanford University Eleven To-Day and by That of University of California Will Point Toward the Outcome of the Big Intercollegiate Game to Be Held Two Weeks Hence

BERKELEY, Oct. 23.—The recent stormy weather has interfered greatly with the football work at the university. The squad has not appeared upon the field since Monday night, but has had to content itself with light signal practice upon dryer ground off the campus. The second eleven has not lined up against the varsity at all for the last five days.

The forced cessation from hard practice has not worked any material hardship upon the team, as it has been the policy of the coaches and trainer to ease off on the work of late. The men are nearly fit for action at present and no chances will be taken in having any of them laid up in a hard practice with the scrub eleven.

Much interest is aroused among the varsity over the coming game between Nevada and Stanford on Saturday and considerable speculation is indulged in about the chances of either team. The game against the sagebrush cardinal will make against the Nevada and the two universities will give the only reliable tip on the outcome of the big intercollegiate game on November 8, for the contest will be the best showing of the Alumni teams has afforded no possible criterion to judge by.

Last year the Nevada team made a brilliant showing on the local grids. Berkeley was startled by their whirlwind style of playing and was unable to score until the second half, when superior condition finally won out. C. Smith, Nevada's giant guard, made a monkey of Stow, Berkeley's left guard, and forced his withdrawal from the game at the end of the first half.

The general feeling at Berkeley is that the Nevada game will be the crucial test of both Stanford and California, and that the team which makes the best showing against the Reno boys will be the winner of the intercollegiate laurels. Berkeley will consequently go into the game with Nevada with the determination to win by a large score.

An impartial size-up of the present condition of the Stanford and Berkeley teams, made by V. D. Lederman, half back on the '99 Columbia team, favors Berkeley as the winner of the intercollegiate. He mentions the superior kicking and team work of California as being points strongly in her favor.

"The California varsity," said he, "is especially strong in having a quota of St. Minor second, Federal third. Time, 1:12 1/2. Fifth race, one mile and seventy yards—Callie won, Marque second, Tendin third. Time, 1:24 1/2. Sixth race, one mile and an eighth, selling—Kings Barsterson won, Jena second, Rasselias third. Time, 1:54.

The amount of practicing done by the California punters in trying place kicks and kick-offs is highly commendable and shows California's superiority in this branch of the game.

"One feature, an all important feature in the game, California excels in. They get into play with a uniform jump which goes far toward advancing the ball. Stanford has a pretty formation in receiving kicks and running them back which will both California's ends greatly. On the whole California has the superior team."

Of the men who played in last Saturday's freshman game, one stands pre-eminent as a strong candidate for varsity honors. This is Middleton, captain and right tackle of the California freshman team. He will continue training and will make a bid for the vacant right tackle on the varsity.

Weighing about 160 pounds, quick to get in the play and aggressive from start to finish, Middleton has all the qualities of a crack player. He is strong in the defense, as was shown by the futile bucks sent at him last Saturday. On the offense he is a hard man to keep from breaking through the line.

NEW HEAVYWEIGHT BOXER MAKES SUCCESSFUL START

Spider Kelly's new pugilistic discovery, "Toothpick" Kelly, made his debut last night at the Bay City Athletic Club and succeeded in rocking his opponent, George Klimke, to sleep in the first round. The bout between the two heavyweights was wildly exciting. Kelly looked bigger than Jeffrey when he stepped into the ring. Klimke, though not so large, was stockily built and well muscled. Kelly made an excellent showing for a novice.

R. E. Arrow and George Murray, two middleweights, put up a rattling good bout while it lasted. Near the end of the first round Arrow caught Murray a crushing right-hander on the jaw and he went to the floor. Jack Cordell and George Hermann, a brace of welterweights, furnished a fast bout. Hermann had the best of the bout in the first round, but Cordell was too shifty for him. In a mix-up Hermann went groggy and Cordell finished him with a smash in the stomach.

Joe Carroll knocked out Jack Summers in two rounds. Dick Higdon and Manuel Torres fought two whirlwind rounds. Torres was all over his opponent in the first round, but Summers kept plodding along in the second and Torres quit after getting a hard right in the stomach.

Dick Cullen won from Caton in the first round. Caton was no match for Cullen and the referee properly stopped the one-sided affair.

YACHT SAILS TO BE FURLED FOR THE YEAR

Last Scheduled Cruise of the Season Will Be Held To-morrow by the Clubs

Amateur Tars Have Enjoyed High-Class Sport On the Bay for Several Months

ALL the yacht clubs hold their closing entertainments to-night and to-morrow the last scheduled cruise of the season will be taken. The San Francisco Yacht Club, having recently had a jinks, a day of nautical sports and a night at the theater, will give a dance in the main hall of the clubhouse at Sausalito. To-morrow the yachts will cruise out to Fort Point and along the water front. It will be high water at 8:01 in the morning, and there will be an ebb tide until 1:56 p. m.

Already the fleet of the San Francisco Yacht Club is beginning to seek its winter quarters. The schooner Larline has left her summer moorings in front of the clubhouse and has taken up her winter moorings to the north of the ferry slip, where the schooners Virginia and Ramona and other craft are already lying. On Sunday W. M. Edgell took the launch Imp from Sausalito to Suisun, making the trip in 3 hours 55 minutes, towing no skiff. The Imp will spend the winter in the sheltered waters of Suisun Creek. The racing yacht Challenger took out a party of young people on Sunday, being navigated by Allen Miller and C. Buell in the absence of her owner, W. G. Morrow. She will spend the winter on the ways belonging to W. G. Morrow at Old Sausalito. The flagship Theis, J. R. Sany's sloop Juanita, with D. Meyer's sloop Halcyon and probably some other craft, will enter the lagoon at Tiburon on Sunday, November 2. The fleet will be assembled for next season. Dr. T. L. Hill's sloop Cygnus and Hill & Welch's sloop Queen will lie in Corte Madera Creek off the boathouse. That it is already becoming dangerous to leave boats at their summer moorings is shown by the fact that the sloop Ariel and the little sloop Fox were carried ashore by the moderate storm of last Monday morning.

The Corinthian Yacht Club will close the season to-night with a vaudeville entertainment at its Tiburon clubhouse. After the usual supper of clam chowder, pork and beans and other nautical dishes, the members will adjourn to the main hall for the jinks. The following will take part in the entertainment: J. Cathcart and George Ryan, Oscar Franks, Ben Tarbox, George McBride, "Kid" Nelson, Joe Eppinger, Harry Dimond, Sam Montserrat, Clarence Wendell, D. W. MacLaughlin, "Fats" Stoen, the California Yacht Club, Herbert Williams, Walter Crown and the Corinthian quartet, consisting of E. F. Sagar, Frank W. Thompson, "Eddie" Angelo and Walter Howe.

The morning at 11 o'clock the Corinthian fleet will cruise over to Sausalito, where it will join the San Francisco fleet, sailing thence to Fort Point and along the city front, where the California fleet will be met.

The cruise of the combined fleets of the three clubs will present a pretty sight from the shore. On Sunday, November 2, the bridge at Tiburon will be raised at about noon and the Corinthian fleet will sail into the lagoon.

The California Yacht Club will hold a closing jinks for its members at the boathouse on Oakland Creek this evening. To-morrow the last cruise of the season will be taken along the city water front in conjunction with the San Francisco and Corinthian fleets. The California Yacht Club last month adopted a device by Miss Roberta Clay for a seal. An old-time galleon stands in relief in the center of the seal and around it is the club's name and the date of its incorporation. The motto is "Remis Velisque."

Lawson's Horse Loses Blue Ribbon.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 24.—Before the largest attendance of the week at the Kansas City horse show in Convention Hall the most notable feature was the defeat of Glorious Enderling Prince, the great $5000 chestnut "high school" saddle horse, owned by Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, by Limestone Belle, the gray mare belonging to O. D. Woodward of Kansas City. Limestone Belle appeared fifty times in the spectacular performance of "Quo Vadis" at the Auditorium Theater. She has ridden there by Mr. Woodward, who took the part of Nero. At last night's performance the mare was ridden by Tom Bass, who is considered one of the best handlers of high school saddlers in the West.

Haughey and Jackson Fight a Draw.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 24.—The twenty-round bout to-night between Charley Haughey of Philadelphia and Young Peter Jackson, the colored welter-weight resulted in a draw.

MARIN GOLFERS TO MEET THOSE OF MENLO PARK

Teams Will Play Second of a Home and Home Match On the San Rafael Course

Clubs Around the Bay Are Preparing for Winter Season of Match Games

THE second half of a home-and-home golf match over thirty-six holes between teams of eleven men representing the Menlo Park Golf and Country Club and the San Rafael Golf Club will be played to-day on the links at San Rafael.

The first eighteen holes of the match were played last Saturday on the course of the Menlo Park Golf Club and resulted in a lead for the home team of 5 up. A. G. Harvey, who, as the strongest member of the San Rafael Golf Club, played No. 1 on the visitors' team, made the excellent medal play score of 33 for one round, notwithstanding the fact that the first hole cost him six strokes.

Perry Byrne of the Menlo Park team, made the good score of 41. He was only 2 down against Mr. Harvey. For the San Rafael team the largest gains were made by Carlton A. Curtis, who beat Burke Corbett 6 up, and by E. J. Hooper, captain of the visitors' side, who won 5 up from Percy Selby. For Menlo Park the best score was R. A. McConrady's 5 up against R. J. Davis.

The match to-day will begin at 11 o'clock and will be finished by the time they will be without the valuable help of A. G. Harvey, hope to wipe off the five holes against them and win the match.

R. Gilman Brown has returned to San Rafael from the East, whether he accompanied Mrs. Brown, who played in the annual contest for the women's championship of the United States. He will probably take part in to-day's match.

The place of W. E. Lester, who is in Europe, on the tournament committee of the San Francisco Golf Club has been taken by H. M. Hoyt. It is probable that the place will be arranged to take place on the Presidio links, where the tournament committee, which consists of Warren Gregory, H. C. Golcher and H. M. Hoyt, will shortly issue a schedule of events for the fall and winter.

It is doubtful whether the Sausalito Golf Club will be able to maintain its existence. For about a year the course, which is on the United States military reservation at Lime Point, has been unavailable owing to the extensive building operations carried on by the Government. So many buildings have been erected or are contemplated that it will be impossible to get a course. The country around Sausalito is so hilly and rugged that a tract suitable for a links is impossible to obtain. Golf being impossible the hill tribes of Sausalito will try to establish a lawn tennis club and to build one or two asphalt courts, which will be available for play all the year round.

Golfer Vardon Defeats Braid.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Harry Vardon of Scarborough and James Braid of Romford, both former golf champions, have met in what probably was their last match of the season at Hayling links, says a London dispatch to the Herald. Vardon secured the match by four-up and three to play.
