

CALL FOR GREYHOUND IN CLASSIC AMERICAN WATERLOO

RACING BEGINS NEXT SATURDAY

Entries and Weights for the Opening Handicap.

Barney Schreiber Will Lay Odds the First Day at Ingleside.

The racing season will open at Ingleside track on Saturday next. The weights for the day's racing are published to-day for the perusal of horsemen and public alike.

E. C. Hopper, who will preside in the stand, is due to arrive here Wednesday. Judge Hopper is secretary of the Lantonia Jockey Club, and several stables which raced at that point will be represented here.

Barney Schreiber will be here Thursday or Friday, after a highly successful season at St. Louis and in the West. He had on three and four books at the Mound City and will have a like number laying prices here.

Frank George, the jovial, round faced sheet writer for Barney Schreiber, is on the ground, a few days in advance of the St. Louis Teuton.

Al Broyer, who went East with "Belfast" last spring to book in the field on the New York tracks, is said to be more than $20,000 wiser on the season.

At one stage of the New York game Bookmaker Joe Rose was $58,000 to the good, but later they took it away from him. No wonder Joe concluded to take a short European trip before returning to California.

"English" Bill Jackman purchased a ticket for himself and dialect the other day at New York and is due here in a few days. At one time Bill was a good loser, but pulled out.

The entries and weights for the Opening Handicap at one mile are as follows:

Table with columns for horse name, jockey, and weight. Includes Cameron, Sombrero, Old England, Sunard, Watercure, Emerald, Joe Frey, Autolight, Trotter, Cortigan, Yellow Tail, Flush of Gold, Rio Shannon, Peaceful, Ethylene, Lodestar, Zonie, Constellation, Lagerton, Divina, Neehana, Frank Woods, and Illwaco.

DR. ORLOW DELIVERS LECTURE ON "SCANDAL"

Says He Who Gossips Maliciously Carries Poisoned Sting of Social Life.

A fair-sized and appreciative audience listened to Dr. O. N. Orlow's entertaining lecture at Upper Golden Gate Hall last evening. His theme was "Scandal."

The speaker discussed the physical and mental results of the habit of malicious gossip. One who maliciously gossiped, the speaker said, was his own greatest enemy and the greatest enemy of others; he carried the poisoned sting of social life and was the destroyer of peace.

Dr. Orlow said one of the worst things that one could do was to spread rumors. He said that one should be as true as steel and that one should be as kind as angels.

The musical programme consisted of a violin selection by Miss Stella Eaton and soprano solo by Miss Weston and Miss Christine La Barge, all of which were warmly received.

FORMER SOLDIER STABS MAN DURING QUARREL

James Fleming, Who Once Shot Comrade and Escaped Punishment, Is Again in Trouble.

George Sandler was stabbed last night on Pacific street by a former colored soldier named James Fleming, the men having engaged in a quarrel over a woman. The wound was cut in the abdomen, but the wound proved to be of a slight character.

After the affair Sandler was taken to his room at 1209 1/2 Stockton street, where Dr. Elliott attended him.

Fleming, when in the Philippines, shot a comrade and was tried and sentenced to a ninety-nine years imprisonment by a court martial composed of volunteer officers. He was transferred to Alcatraz, where he served but four months of his sentence. He gained his release on account of the Supreme Court of the United States deciding that a court martial composed of volunteer officers held no jurisdiction over soldiers in the regular service.

Delegates Entertained. Members of Carpenters' Union No. 482, together with those of affiliated unions, filled Scottish Hall on Saturday night to honor its delegates on their return from Atlanta, Ga., where they had attended the national convention. The delegates who were entertained were: W. A. Cole, V. E. Smith and W. H. Myers. Addresses were delivered by the delegates and by Henry Myers, J. D. Bailey and P. H. McCarthy. The management of the reception was in the hands of Guy Lathrop, J. Heymen and J. M. Burke.

Mass at Cathedral. The semi-annual reunion mass for the repose of the departed members of St. Joseph's Union will be said at St. Mary's cathedral on Wednesday at 10 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Father McGuire.

DEBATE STOPS START JOURNAL

Four Good Games Played at Olympic Club Courts.

Champion Fitzgerald Easily Beats Al Hampton in a Match.

The annual championship handball tournament in singles opened at the Olympic Club yesterday afternoon. The games were well played, but rather one-sided. A large crowd thronged the galleries and indulged in much enthusiastic shouting, with a whole lot of joking on the side.

The tournament is under the direction of the club's leader, J. J. Gleason, who also acted as scorer. Four sets were played, two by first class men and two by members of the second class. A little side issue in the shape of a match game between William Fitzgerald, champion of the world, and Al Hampton, the coast champion, proved the best game of the day. The former did all kinds of winning stunts and Hampton was never in the running.

The first match was between Tom Powers and Charles K. Melrose, both of the second class. Powers was in excellent form and played a dashing game. Melrose was in poor form and suffered from a sore hand. Powers led all the way and won by a score of 21-10 and 21-7.

Then two of the first-class performers, Louis Levy and Nat Hewson, hooked up. Both played strongly, though Levy started nervously, losing the first game. He overcame this in a twinkling and started his left wing to work. He played all around Hewson and easily won the next two games and the match. Score, 21-7, 21-3.

Big Minehan, well known as a dashing member of the city's finest, went up against W. J. Kennedy for first class honors. The cop used his straight wing and slammed the ball around the court so fast Kennedy could not get into the running. He never had a chance. Score, 21-7, 21-6.

Max Rosenfeld and John Cunningham, both of the third class, were the last of the day's stars. Rosenfeld played a good, steady game and kept his opponent hot footing all over the court. After a while the latter began to grow groggy and then Rosenfeld won in and won in a walk. Score, 21-7, 21-2.

Fitzgerald and Hampton's exhibition match was a hummer and brought forth rounds of applause from the gallery. Fitzgerald beat the local man and the way he hit the ball to all parts of the court was remarkable. Hampton played good ball, but was no match for the world's champion. Score, 21-13, 21-11.

The tournament will go on again Wednesday night, when several players from each class will meet.

CIVIL SUITS IN WAY OF CANAL TRANSFER

Panama Newspaper Calls Attention to Clouds on the Company's Title.

PANAMA, Colombia, Nov. 10.—El Mercurio, a newspaper of this city, lately has been publishing a series of interesting articles regarding the different phases of the canal question. In a recent issue, referring to the Panama Canal Company's titles, it says:

It bears our most earnest wish that the new Panama Canal Company should be able to present its titles clear and transfer to the United States its privilege, rights and property. In the hands of a receiver for legal impediments, we think it advisable that it should settle and cancel as soon as possible all pending suits here and in the local courts where the company already has been condemned in several instances by the local courts to pay amounts due based on previous judgments.

Attention is also called to the embargoed buildings in this city, the principal one of which, where the company has its local office, is in the hands of a receiver for several months past. All embargoed property here can be released only by payment by the company in full of the amounts due to local creditors.

Regarding isthmian rights, El Mercurio observes:

In view of the above considerations we would earnestly call the attention of our Government in the event of the present treaty under discussion with us for the opening of the canal being finally and ratified. It should be clearly stated that at least 10 per cent of all amounts that be advanced on account of consignments and privileges granted by Colombia should be handed to the isthmian government for the construction and maintenance of public works.

These works are urgently needed: Aqueducts, hospitals, a sanatorium for quarantine patients, public roads, etc.

The observations of El Mercurio echo the general isthmian sentiments regarding what the residents consider to be just demands and which Minister Concha's predecessor, Dr. Martinez-Silvera, strongly advocated and stipulated in the original draft of the preliminary negotiations, which appear, however, to have been eliminated in the subsequent treaty documents.

Project of Bishop Potter's Wife.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 9.—Mrs. Alfred Corning Clark Potter, wife of Bishop Henry C. Potter of New York, who is in this city with her husband, said to-day that the report from New York that she intended to erect on the lower east side a great philanthropic institution similar to the Hull House in England was greatly exaggerated. Mrs. Potter explained that she was about to have erected at a very small cost a building intended for men, where they would be provided with refreshments at a very moderate cost.

Rock Island to Extend Lines.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Chronicle will say to-morrow: In the near future the Rock Island Company will make important extensions of its lines in the Southwest which will materially shorten the distance between Chicago and the Pacific Coast and give the system another outlet for its traffic. This extension will be in New Mexico and will connect the Rock Island and El Paso main line with the projected extension which will probably run from Tucuman, nearly due west to a point on the Santa Fe main line.

Nansen Announces an Expedition.

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 9.—Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, announces that a polar expedition, under command of Captain Amundsen, will start in 1921 for King Edward Land. This expedition will be in the hands of the Norwegian government and will proceed thence for Bering Straits. Professor Schmidt of Berlin characterizes the expedition as the most important task in the domain of territorial magnetism.

Resignation Is Refused.

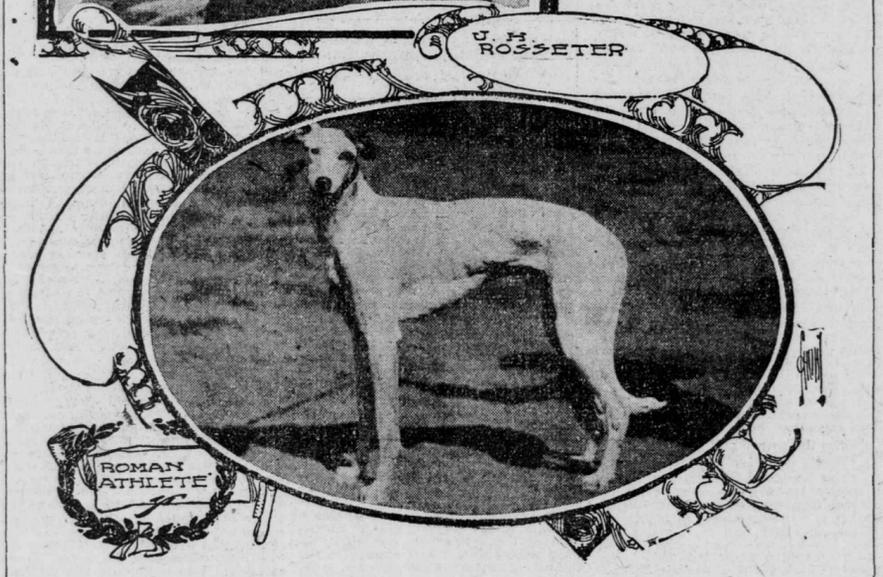

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The president has declined to accept the resignation of Passed Assistant Paymaster Charles W. Penrose, lately attached to the Michigan. The officer was convicted by court-martial of financial irregularities and sentenced to be dismissed from the service. The president has approved the sentence of dismissal.

King, Harvard's Center, Retires.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 9.—An official statement as to the status of King, the center of the Harvard varsity eleven, will be given by the Harvard Crimson to-morrow. It conveys the information that King will not play against Yale.

ROMAN ATHLETE VICTORIOUS IN CLASSIC COURSING EVENT

Reta S Carries Off the Honors at Union Park Cleverly in the Special Stake.

GREYHOUND WHICH CARRIED OFF PREMIER HONORS IN THE CLASSIC AMERICAN WATERLOO, THE EIGHTH RENEWAL OF WHICH WAS DECIDED YESTERDAY AT ST. LOUIS, AND HIS OWNER, THE MOST REPRESENTATIVE PATRON OF COURSING IN ALL AMERICA.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—Roman Athlete, a white greyhound, owned and bred by J. H. Rosseter of San Francisco, won the eighth renewal of the classic American Waterloo.

decided here to-day within the inclosure of Delmar racetrack.

It was thought by many that Sacramento Boy, another California representative, would win the stake. To the surprise of the spectators he was retired in the fourth round by Northern Express, a puppy which won the Futurity recently at Fremont, Neb.

Roman Athlete made all his courses short, winning each decisively. Tiburon, another California-bred hound, now owned here, was also fortunate in this respect.

Northern Express and Barefoot Boy had hard coursing toward the end of the stake.

The winner of the Waterloo Purse was Lord Butte, owned by L. F. Bartels of Denver. Warburton, a St. Louis hound, was second. The Waterloo Plate went to Black Coon, also owned by J. H. Rosseter, King Cashier being second. The weather was warm and the hares a strong lot.

Waterloo Cup—third round: Tiburon defeated Dora Dora, 9-4; time 0:50. Prairie Bird defeated Patricia, 16-8; time 1:45. Northern Express defeated Cloudburst, 6-3; time 0:35. Sacramento Boy defeated Sledge, 11-9; time 1:00. Barefoot Boy defeated Laughing Water, 11-9; time 0:15. Union Star defeated Lightning Lass, 6-1; time 0:12. Grace Greenwood defeated Texas Betty, 10-8; time 0:42. Roman Athlete defeated Redwood Lad, 8-4; time 0:35.

Fourth round: Tiburon defeated Prairie Bird, 6-3; time 0:17. Northern Express defeated Barefoot Boy, 5-1; time 0:20. Roman Athlete defeated Grace Greenwood, 2-0; time 0:10.

Semi-final round: Tiburon defeated Northern Express, 5-3; time 0:18. Roman Athlete defeated Barefoot Boy, 5-1; time 0:20.

Deciding course: J. H. Rosseter's Roman Athlete beat Ralph Orthwein's Tiburon, 3-1; time 0:10.

Waterloo purse—J. F. Bartels' Lord Butte beat B. F. Jackson's Warburton, 11-6; time 1:55.

Waterloo plate—J. H. Rosseter's Black Coon beat J. H. Hoskins' King Cashier, 6-0; time 0:20.

was so difficult to capture after a course. Each time she completed it meant a complete stoppage of coursing for from twenty to thirty minutes. The officials were finally compelled to refuse her entry.

Northern Express was looked upon as the best representative of the Eastern dogs in the stake.

J. H. Rosseter, owner of Roman Athlete, is interested in coursing purely as a pastime. He is the most representative man of the sport in America.

As the owner of For Freedom, the $10,000 greyhound, his name is known wherever coursing is followed. He has been represented in nearly all the American Waterloos since the stake was first run in 1895.

In that year he started Emin Pasha, the sire of yesterday's winner. Emin was beaten in a short, unsatisfactory trial by Denver, Warburton, a St. Louis hound, and Lucien Swift. The latter was a brother to Chartist, being by Genkirk, Chartist was the sire of Flying Fox and Chartist.

In 1900 Emin Pasha was again set for the cup, this time at Sherman, Tex. He worked his winning way down to the deciding course. Here he would have met May Queen, and it was conceded Emin would win. May Queen was the property of a Texas friend of Mr. Rosseter's, so instead of running off the stake Mr. Rosseter's representative offered to divide the honors in a spirit of sportsmanship. This action was taken.

Last year Mr. Rosseter was second for the cup at St. Louis with Rocker.

EASTERN BOWLERS AGAIN BEAT LOCALS

Eugenes and Crescents Roll in Good Form, but Prove No Match for the All-Americans.

The famous All-American Bowling team again went against two crack local aggregations at the Central Alley's last night. They bowled in fine form and easily took the honors from both the Eugenes and the Crescents.

The local men bowled in good form, but were outclassed by the Easterners. The Crescents were defeated in a three-man contest by $1 pins and the Eugenes, who played in a two-man match were landed a 125-pin package. Following are the scores of the two matches:

Table showing bowling scores for ALL-AMERICAN and LOCALS. Columns include Player, Game, Pins, and Total.

ALL-AMERICAN: 1st 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 2nd 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 3rd 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 4th 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total.

CRESCENTS: 1st 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 2nd 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 3rd 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total. 4th 24 34 Total 58. Game, Pins, Total.

COURSING WAS CONDUCTED AT UNION COURSING PARK YESTERDAY UNDER DEPRESSING WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Contrary to expectations, the hares ran with the speed of the wind and supplied sensational sport. The relief dogs were released at the expiration of two minutes in a number of courses. One tiny hare led five fast dogs a merry chase until it finally succumbed to superior numbers.

The special stake was won cleverly by Reta S, with Master Rocket runner-up. The winner defeated in turn Pasha Pleasant, Silver Cloud, White Hat and finally Master Rocket.

The open stake was won by default by Harvey M. He was met Presidio Boy in the all-important deciding course, but the latter hound had such severe running it was thought advisable to withdraw him.

Although the sport was conducted under such depressing conditions, it was so exciting that the work of the game hounds was frequently applauded by the spectators.

Judge F. J. Reilly was in the saddle throughout the day, while Harry Murray handled the slips. The detailed results, with Judge Reilly's official scores, follow:
