

PLACES TO OFFER CHURCHES PLAN TO GO-OPERATE SOUTH PARK Board Asks City Attorney if Compromise Is Advisable. Calls a Meeting to Discuss Geary-Street Road Acquisition.

At yesterday's meeting of the Board of Supervisors Laughery presented a resolution directing the City Attorney to compromise the action entitled Daniel Wallace vs. the City and County of San Francisco for the recovery of money alleged to be due for the use of South Park as a public square.

The ordinance providing for street work on Richmond avenue was recommitted to the Street Committee, as the Board of Works had committed an error by recommending the expediency of the work at a too early date in the proceedings.

The City Attorney was requested to give an opinion regarding the status of the franchise held by the Pacific Reduction Works for the removal of dead animals. Grades were ordered established on Florida street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second, on Birch avenue, near Buchanan street, and on De Haan, California, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets.

Permits to erect high buildings on Mason street, near Ellis, were granted to William Heiberg and William N. McCarthy. Ordinances were finally passed transferring from the Fire Department to the Police Department a lot on Fourteenth avenue south, reducing the width of sidewalk to twenty feet, between No. 10 and 12, and between No. 14 and 16.

Announcement was made that a meeting will be held next Thursday evening in the Supervisors' chamber for the purpose of conferring with civic bodies regarding the acquisition of the Geary-street road and the submission of a charter to the people.

The trial of George W. Dunster, the food inspector, who is accused of taking $5 in money from Garbino, Martini & Pisini, whose store is at 2025 Fillmore street, was commenced yesterday before the Civil Service Commissioners. It is alleged that Dunster visited the store and discovered that the proprietors were violating the law. Instead of arresting them he is said to have accepted a bribe to let them go.

Phelan Compromises Suit. Policeman John Phelan, turnkey at the prison at the City Hall, received $6000 from the United Railroads yesterday for the loss of his leg by being run over by an electric car on Fourth street. Phelan is said to have received $10,000, but compromised for $6000.

LEARNS OF PARDEE'S ELECTION AT FAR AWAY FANNING ISLAND

Steamship Ventura Gets News of California's Battle of Ballots Over New Pacific Cable, and Supplies Honolulu Newspapers With Material for Noisy Extras-Liliuokalani Is a Passenger

THE Oceanic Steamship Company's Ventura arrived yesterday from Australia and Honolulu. She brought 16 passengers and a full cargo. Among the latter were sixty boxes of English sovereigns consigned to local banks and valued at $1,500,000.

The people on board the Ventura learned of the election of Dr. Pardee to the Governorship of California on November 8 at Fanning Island through the then partly completed cable, which now connects British Columbia with the antipodes. The Ventura carried the news to Honolulu, which she reached on the morning of November 11. An hour after her arrival Honolulu's tropic calm was disturbed by the cries of the newboys vying extra editions of the Territorial newspapers.

Among the passengers from Honolulu was ex-Queen Liliuokalani. She was accompanied by Miss Heleluke, Joseph Amokua and a Cayless. Mrs. H. T. Brigham of New York, a noted spiritualist, returned on the Ventura from Australia, where she has been engaged in lecture work. She conducted services on Sunday on board the Ventura and closed an entertaining address with an impromptu poem, which is said to have been quite a finished effort.

From Fanning Island the Ventura brought J. Pinkerton and W. E. Hindze, two representatives of the British manufacturers of the new Pacific cable. They are on their way to London. J. Freeman Lloyd, an Australian journalist with a fondness for dogs, arrived on the Ventura and is going to Philadelphia, where he will act as judge at a forthcoming dog show.

The Ventura met the Sonoma on the night of November 12, but saw nothing of the Korea, which left here a day later than the Sonoma and which started out under orders to make Honolulu in five days. The Ventura came up from Honolulu in five days and thirteen hours.

Chow Yu Kwan, acting Chinese Consul at this port, returned from Honolulu on the liner. Another passenger from Hawaii was C. Aoki, fleet surgeon of the Japanese navy. The Ventura brought from Australia a kangaroo, a wallaby and two black swans. The swans are bound for Washington, D. C. The Ventura's passengers included the following named:

Narrowly Escapes Collision. The British ship Gantock Rock, which arrived Sunday night from Honolulu, narrowly escaped collision outside the heads with the electric car on Fourth street. The excitement of the situation was increased by the fact that the vessel had caused the heart collapse from which Captain Laurie died shortly before the Gantock Rock anchored in the harbor. The Gantock Rock was under way from Honolulu at 10 o'clock. The vessel was blowing a heavy fog and the breeze was blowing and a heavy fog over the water. When about half way between the Farallones and the lightship the Trafalgar suddenly came in sight. The Gantock Rock was on the starboard tack and was traveling at a rapid rate. Astern of the Trafalgar and very far away was the barkentine S. N. Castle. The bark Edward May and the French bark Amiral Haigan also showed up out of the fog, and for a few minutes intense excitement prevailed on all five vessels. Pilot Korts was the first to see the S. N. Castle. He gave the alarm and both rushed to the wheel to aid the helmsman in getting his helm over to starboard. The Trafalgar was on the starboard tack and was traveling at a rapid rate. A Bomb-Proof Whale. Somewhere in the ocean off the Japan coast is a bomb-proof whale. The crew of the whaling bark John and Winthrop found him on September 17. They filled him full of javelins and shot him. They drove harpoons into him. They used him as a towboat and for five hours he held his own.
