IN GORE CASE
Four Physicians Confirm
Report of French Expert.

Submit the Result of Their Examination of Body to Consul Gowdy.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Consul General Gowdy has received the report of the four doctors appointed to make an examination of the remains of Mrs. Ellen Gore. The report is signed by each of the physicians. It is in harmony with and in no way differs from the report of the French expert, Dr. Socquet.

PRICE OF VEGETABLES
MATERIALLY INCREASES
The Day of Free Kitchen Products Ended With Passing of November.

In accordance with a previously published notice, the business of buying and selling legumes and vegetables took a new phase yesterday, the first of the month, the wholesale price having been materially raised at the Colombo market.

Until yesterday parsley was free, but a charge of 10 cents a dozen bunches will now be made. Cauliflower, which was formerly 40 cents a dozen, is being sold at 60 cents, and cabbages, which formerly sold at 25 and 40 cents a dozen heads, are now selling at 45 and 60 cents a dozen heads.

Lectures on Liquid Air.
Professor Patty repeated his lecture on "Liquid Air" at the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association last night. The hall was crowded, and the professor was most cordially received.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

A prominent Southern lady, Mrs. Blanchard, of Nashville, Tenn., tells how she was cured of backache, dizziness, painful and irregular periods by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Gratitude compels me to acknowledge the great merit of your Vegetable Compound. I have suffered for four years with irregular and painful menstruation, also dizziness, pains in the back and lower limbs, and fitful sleep. I dreaded the time to come which would only mean suffering to me. Six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness in a few short months, and was worth more than months under the doctor's care, which really did not benefit me at all. I feel like another person now. My aches and pains have left me. I am satisfied there is no medicine so good for sick woman as your Vegetable Compound, and I advocate it to my lady friends in need of medical help."

When women are troubled with menstrual irregularities, cramps, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Commercial Representatives
Too Busy to Attend the Exposition.

The harvest of oranges in the grand nave of the Ferry building continues to engage the attention of a legion of visitors. Yesterday afternoon 8000 children from the public schools of the city went to the fair and to-day another detachment of eight or ten thousand pupils will visit the exposition.

Among the sights not seen by the children yesterday afternoon and the adults last evening were the representatives of the commercial organizations of San Francisco. The promoters of the fair invited George Newhall, George McNear, Frank J. Symmes, A. Sbarboro and A. A. Watkins, representing the business interests of the metropolis, to visit the exposition and utter a few words of encouragement to the citrus fruit growers of Kern, Tulare, Fresno, Placer, Butte, San Joaquin, Sacramento, Yolo, Colusa, Mendocino and Tehama counties. These commercial representatives, so it is reported, did not respond to the invitation, even to the degree of expressing their inability to be present. The exposition, however, will not close earlier or the oranges ripen later on account of the enforced absence of the big men of commerce.

The president of the Chamber of Commerce at his best is not as attractive to the public eye as the big flowers of the orange tree of Tehama, bearing abundant fruit within seventeen months from the time of planting.

Today exhibitors from Kern, Placer, Tulare, Fresno, Sacramento, San Joaquin and Butte will speak for themselves. Tomorrow will be municipal day, rain or shine, and if it rains do not fall Mayor Schmitz will attend and speak.

The public schools will be represented at the fair during the remainder of the week as follows:

Tuesday—Agnes, Berger, Bernal, Buena Vista, Burnett, Cleveland, Columbia, Douglass, Dudley Stone, Edison, Everett, Fairmount and Fremont.

Wednesday—Garfield, Golden Gate, Grant, Haight, Hancock, Harrison, Hearst, Durant, Horace Mann, Humboldt, Hunters Point, Irving, Irving M. Scott, Jackson, James Lick, Jefferson, John W. Taylor.

Thursday—Jean Parker, John Sweet, Lafayette, Lincoln, Public Commercial, Lowell High, Madison, Marshall, Mission, Mission High, Monroe, Moulter, Noye Valley, Ocean House, Parkside, M. Scott, Jackson, James Lick, Jefferson, John W. Taylor.

Friday—Peabody, Polytechnic High, Rincon, Redding, Richmond, Sheridan, Sherman, South Van Ness, Starr King, Sutro, Sutter, Washington, West End, Whittier and Winfield Scott.

Will Give Another Concert.
There are many people who will be glad of the opportunity to hear again the admirable violin playing of Franz Wilczek. The Austrian violinist has been persuaded to stay for another concert to be given next Friday evening at Steinhay Hall.

Will Give Recital.
Miss Aileen McCabe, a talented young violinist, who made a very successful debut last winter, will to-night give a recital at Steinhay Hall. The little girl, who is only 14 years of age, will give thirty numbers and will be assisted by Miss Helen Colburn Heath, vocalist. Fred Maurer accompanies.

Chutes.
Francis Bryant Murphy, known as "Pat Americus," made a great hit at both performances at the Chutes yesterday. Harris and Walters, who presented "The Black Haired Widow," produced much laughter; Evelyn Ormsby, the young soprano, sang charmingly, and the three brothers Malvern, acrobats, duplicated their hit of last week.

California.
The "Belle of New York" is going with a whirl of fun and melody at the California and of course is packing that house, which is becoming immensely popular with theater goers. The musical piece goes the rest of this week. There are many amusing specialties and many good voices to please the auditors. The costuming is unique and brilliant.

"MAID MARIAN" IS NOT EQUAL OF THE POPULAR "ROBIN HOOD"
Just Scrapes the Commonplace in Spots—
Tivoli Again Takes Up Comic Opera With Success—Orpheum Has Funmakers

ALCAZAR'S NEW LEADING MAN AND ONE OF THE BOS-TONIANS.

ROBIN HOODS do not happen twice in a lifetime, and therefore last night, at the Columbia Theater, "Maid Marian," sequel opera to "Robin Hood," and given here for the first time, did not disappoint.

"Robin Hood," and given here for the first time, did not disappoint. "Maid Marian" carries on the story of the bold outlaw with considerable ingenuity and fun, though it achieves only in spots the fine flavor—almost Shakespearean—that characterizes the parent opera. Neither does the musical setting display quite the distinction, quick, fancy, spontaneity of that of "Robin Hood," just shaving the commonplace at not a few points. Still there are some taking lyrics that will doubtless find their way into many whistles, impressive ensembles, and pretty concerted bits that will win for the opera a favor independent of its associations.

Tivoli.
Ferris Hartman probably meant all of it more when he said last night at the Tivoli, in that luscious baritone of his, "God bless you all, I'm glad to get home again."

Alcazar.
The second week of "Brown's In Town" opened at the Alcazar last night with a good house, and the fun was fast and free from the opening to the finish.

Fischer's.
If flowers and applause count for anything then "The Geezer," which had its first production last night at Fischer's, has made a success.

Orpheum.
Harrigan, the tramp juggler, after an absence of several months, is again presenting a turn at the Orpheum. He has a lot of new tricks that he does in his own inimitable manner and then does a turn as a monologist that is not at all bad.

Grand Opera-House.
The military drama, "Winchester," attracted a very large audience to the Grand Opera-house last night and was received with enough applause to satisfy the most exacting of actors and managers.

Palace and Grand Hotels.
Desirable location, unsurpassed cuisine, unequalled service and modern conveniences are the attributes that have made these two hotels popular with tourists and travelers who visit San Francisco.

DECLARE TUITE WAS NOT SANE
Doctors Testify in Contest for Dollars of Old Miser.

Say That His Condition as Described Showed a Weak Intellect.

The contest over the $5000 estate of the late Patrick Tuite now being waged in Judge Troutt's court promises to furnish some interesting developments before the jury renders its verdict. Yesterday the testimony of three doctors was taken and the medical gentlemen were unanimous in their opinion that Tuite, if he died under the circumstances related by Attorney Johnson, who, with Attorney Bonestell, represents Bridget Leonard, a niece of the deceased, who is contesting the will, was of unsound mind.

Tuite was a miserly old fellow, who lived in Hinkley alley. A year before his death he asked Mrs. Roncovieri, wife of the School Director of that name, to write to his niece and tell her that he had amassed a little wealth and desired her to let him know her whereabouts, in order that he might make her a present, intimating in the same letter that he would remember her. Mrs. Roncovieri wrote the letter as dictated and requested Mrs. Leonard to mail her answer to her address. The old man received no reply and a year later died.

A few hours before his death he placed his "mark" to a document, subsequently offered for probate as his will in which he left everything he possessed to Mrs. Roncovieri, with the exception of a bequest of $50 to any person claiming relationship with him.

Attorneys Johnson & Bonestell contend that the will, if signed at all by Tuite, was signed at a time when the deceased did not know what he was doing, and say they have ample evidence that Tuite did not dispose of his property as he intended to do.

Without question. He gained the sympathies of half the audience by his extraordinary work. Antonette Walker was particularly pleasing in one of the leading parts. H. D. Byers, Herbert Farjeon and Fred J. Butler had humorous roles, which they filled advantageously. Charles Stewart, Hersche Mayall, Blanche Stoddard and Forrest Seabury also did well.

Republic.
The popular melodrama, "The Sporting Duchess," continues to attract large audiences to the Theater Republic. The piece now in the run is very successful. Charles Stewart, Hersche Mayall, Blanche Stoddard and Forrest Seabury also did well.

Alcazar.
The second week of "Brown's In Town" opened at the Alcazar last night with a good house, and the fun was fast and free from the opening to the finish.

Central.
The best revival of "Hazel Kirke" that this city has known in many years was witnessed last night at the Central by a large audience.

Fischer's.
If flowers and applause count for anything then "The Geezer," which had its first production last night at Fischer's, has made a success.

Orpheum.
Harrigan, the tramp juggler, after an absence of several months, is again presenting a turn at the Orpheum. He has a lot of new tricks that he does in his own inimitable manner and then does a turn as a monologist that is not at all bad.

NELSON ADMITS GETTING MONEY
President of Casket Company Answers Suit of R. Schrensky.

Bewails the Fact That His Cash Brought Him Only Poker Chips.

Samuel Nelson of the California Casket Company, who was sued a few weeks ago by Rudolph Schrensky for $300 which Schrensky advanced him to enable him to continue in a game of poker which had been a losing one for Nelson, filed an answer to Schrensky's complaint yesterday.

Nelson admits that he is a "weiser" and confesses to securing the money from Schrensky. He says he signed the checks which Schrensky gave to Rudolph Fishbeck as security for the funds which Fishbeck advanced. He admits also that he was playing poker at the time.

"I got nothing for my money but poker chips," says Nelson, in his answer. "Schrensky was interested in the game and he got profits out of it," he says again, and he closes his answer by asking the court to award Schrensky nothing, "because he (Nelson) had been drinking freely of intoxicants during the game."

Mexican servants are said to be almost worthless, judged by the American standard of good service.
