

CHARNEL SHIP GIVES UP DEAD

Two More Bodies Are Recovered From the Progreso.

Diver Will Endeavor to Ascertain Extent of Damage to Vessel.

Two more bodies were recovered from the wreck of the Progreso yesterday morning.

The remains recovered yesterday were those of Daniel Gallagher, a riveter, who resided in the Potrero, and James McGuire, another riveter, who lived at 910 Illinois street.

What will become of the steamer is still a matter of conjecture. Little can be done by Manager James Spiers of the Fulton Iron Works until the insurance adjusters have completed their labors and the investigation has been made.

Just when the Federal investigation will be held cannot be told. No report from the captain of the ill-fated vessel has yet been received, and until it has been filed no date can be set.

The work of searching for bodies was resumed early yesterday morning. Boats dived up alongside the Progreso and drag irons tried to locate the body of Edward Nelson.

John McGuire, a brother of James McGuire, who was lost, visited the works early yesterday morning with James O'Grady.

O'Grady commenced dragging and after short time informed Manager Spiers that he had found a body. It was badly charred and the head and one leg were missing.

The hope of recovering the bodies of the men who were in the fireroom has been abandoned until the wreckage is removed.

William Labelle, who was reported missing, has been found, according to a story told by the men at the works. This reduces the list of dead and missing to thirteen.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 5.—William Ohmsen, 38 years of age, was killed by a recently setting fire to two residences and four barns. He is the victim of a mania.

MUTINEERS ON THE LEICESTER CASTLE MURDER MATE AND WOUND SKIPPER

Captain Peattie Recovers and at Queenstown Tells How Three American Sailors Shot Up the Ship, Injured Him, Killed an Officer and Then Escaped on Rude Raft

WELL KNOWN SEA CAPTAIN AND HIS SHIP ON WHICH A MUTINY OCCURRED ON SEPTEMBER 20, WHEN THREE SAILORS, SHIPPED IN THIS CITY, SHOT THE SKIPPER, KILLED THE FIRST OFFICER AND ESCAPED ON A HASTILY CONSTRUCTED RAFT.

A CABLEGRAM received here yesterday from Queenstown gave to San Francisco the first news of a sea tragedy enacted in the South Pacific during the homeward voyage of the British ship Leicester Castle, which left here in July for the old world and yesterday reached her destination.

The tragedy was the outcome of a mutiny inspired and carried out by three men shipped at this port and said to be Americans. The skipper, Captain R. D. Peattie, who is well known here, was shot twice and dangerously wounded.

The attack came at night. Peattie was shot and Second Mate Nixon, who was in charge of the deck, received a bullet through the heart as he ran to the skipper's assistance.

The latter, who had withdrawn to the forward part of the ship, took advantage of the darkness to construct a rude raft which they launched, loaded with provisions.

LINCOLN HOTEL MEN ARRAIGNED IN COURT. Preliminary Proceedings on the Manslaughter Charge in the Chicago Fire Case.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Fred A. Smith, proprietor of the Lincoln Hotel in which fourteen men were smothered to death yesterday, and Night Clerk E. C. Weber, were arraigned in the Harrison street police court this morning on the charge of being accessories to manslaughter before the fact.

The men were arrested last evening at the instigation of Coroner Traeger and Chief of Police O'Neil. Alderman John J. Brennan signed bail bonds for their appearance and they were in custody but a short time.

Drummers Will Dance. The Dolores Drum Corps, composed of members of Dolores Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, will give a ball in Mission Turn Verein Hall on Eighteenth street this evening.

Shipwrecked folks as are cast up on their shores are placed on board the first passing vessel.

Three men such as left the Leicester Castle would be thorns in the flesh of that peaceful community and Captain Martin thinks it more than likely that it was the Leicester Castle mutineers and the descendants of the Bounty mutineer wanted to get rid of when they signaled him.

Nothing could be learned here to-day with reference to the reported efforts at a settlement outside the commission. None of the attorneys for either side professed to know anything about any contemplated move in that direction.

MacVeagh before leaving stated that a majority of the operators thought it better to adjourn all efforts to reach by amicable conference a basis for the award of the commission until both sides had presented all the testimony they wished to offer.

MacVeagh added that he personally thought, in view of the extraordinary conditions existing in the anthracite region, that this was a mistaken attitude for the operators to assume.

The departure of MacVeagh and Parker for New York gave rise to a rumor that the distinguished attorney was going there to consult with the operators on the settlement scheme.

Half a dozen witnesses, all of them mine workers, were called to the stand in rapid succession to-day to testify to the alleged blacklisting of themselves by the companies.

Darrow for the miners then presented two witnesses who had been injured in the mines. Both were blind and had to be led to the stand.

OBSESSION TO WITNESSES. After they left the stand the attorneys for the operators protested against bringing those unfortunate men to the witness stand.

OPERATORS WANT SEARMEN SINK WITH A WRECK THE TESTIMONY

Settlement of Mine Difficulties May Be Delayed.

Fear Exists That Procrastination Will Breed Bitterness.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 5.—The lawyers for the mine workers continued to call witnesses to-day before the Strike Commission to testify to the alleged blacklisting methods pursued by several coal companies in refusing to re-employ strikers who took a more or less prominent part in the strike.

Nothing could be learned here to-day with reference to the reported efforts at a settlement outside the commission. None of the attorneys for either side professed to know anything about any contemplated move in that direction.
