

Do you know anything about everything that happened last year? Do you want to know everything about anything that took place in the year just gone? Do you know in what month the most things happen all over the world every year and why? Do you know on what particular day of the year all these strange things take place as they do? Do you know, for instance, that every nation on the globe must now make war according to fixed rules, and that those rules were only made last year? Do you know what those rules are? Do you know how many airships really worked last year, or the remarkable things that were accomplished by North Pole explorers? When some one asks you what was the most stupendous accident last year of course you think of the 35,000 lives lost at Mont Pelée, but was that the biggest accident? Do you know when and where and how the biggest disaster occurred? Do you know what was the strangest crime on record? Do you want to know the latest records for everything in love and war, politics, finance, science, art, crime, in short, everything about everything under the sun for the past year? You will find all of these points enumerated below. The three pages of this issue of the Sunday Call Magazine Section devoted to this matter should be preserved for future reference. Cut them out and paste them in your scrapbook and keep them in your home or office, for you will find them very handy for reference in the year to come. It is just what you want to keep all these news events readily at hand without taxing your memory.
