SAFECRACKER IS CAUGHT IN STORE BY POLICEMEN

Burglar Uses Nitro-Glycerin and Explosion Is Heard by Officers on the Street, Who Find the Cracksman, George Riley, Crouching in Corner, Where He Had Tried to Hide

EX-CONVICT CAPTURED IN CROCKERY STORE AFTER HE HAD BLOWN OPEN A SAFE.

Wall and Sullivan had also heard the explosion and hurried back. Wall remained on guard outside while Murphy and Sullivan broke the glass in the front door and effected an entrance. They found George Riley, a former convict, crouching in a corner near the safe and ordered him to throw up his hands, and he instantly obeyed. He was handcuffed, and then the officers made the discovery that the knob, handle and combination had been blown off the safe, in front of which a pile of books had been placed to deaden the sound. Near Riley was found a sledge hammer, brace, several drills, punches with sticks tied to them, two sticks of fuse, caps, a package of nitro-glycerin soap and cotton. Riley had made up two rolls of cutlery ready to be carried off after he had robbed the safe. He was taken to the City Prison and booked on a charge of burglary.

THE police south of Market street again distinguished themselves yesterday morning by capturing a safe-cracker. The place entered was Henry O. Wiedero's crockery and cutlery store, Fourth and Mission streets. The arresting officers were J. H. Sullivan, T. C. Murphy and Corporal Wall, and Chief Wittman expressed his commendation of the good work done by them. Shortly after 3 o'clock Corporal Wall left Murphy at Fourth and Mission streets and walked along Mission toward Fifth, when he met Sullivan and spoke to him. A minute or two later Murphy heard a sound as if an explosion had occurred. He crossed the street and examined the front door of the crockery store, and the railroad agent, who was descending to the basement and discovered that the basement door had been opened from the inside. He ran upstairs and covered both doors.

TORRENTS POUR ON RAILROADS

Passengers Are Prisoners in Trains in Washington.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 4.—There was nothing done on the Northern Pacific line today, not a train leaving the city and five washouts on the line between Castle Rock and Kelso. There are innumerable slides all the way from Cosmopolis to the terminus on the Grays Harbor branch. The Auburn cut-off is under water for one mile. Nearly a mile of track is gone in one place on Green River. Five or six other minor washouts are reported between Lester and Palmer. The big washout at Martin is followed by a succession of washouts and landslides all the way to Ellensburg. The South Bend branch is under water and covered with slides from Willapa to the terminus.

FIGHT FOR TOGA GROWS EXCITING

Senatorial Situation in Colorado Is Badly Complicated.

DENVER, Jan. 4.—The Senatorial situation in Colorado is becoming decidedly complicated and should present declared plans be carried out the contest over the selection of a successor to Senator Henry M. Teller, which will begin in earnest with the convening of the Legislature on Wednesday next, will be, to say the least, exciting and more than likely spectacular. The solid support of the Democratic wing of the Legislature for Teller is still maintained, while the Republican strength is parceled out among four candidates, of whom former Senator E. O. Wolcott is the most conspicuous. At a meeting of the Democratic State Center and Committee the matter of the treat of the Republican majority in the House to unseat the entire Arapahoe Democratic delegation was discussed and resolutions adopted to the effect that it is "the right and duty of the Senate to utilize the same constitutional right and authority and restore the equilibrium."

A sensation was created by a circular just issued from the headquarters of P. B. Stewart of Colorado Springs, who is supposed to be the spokesman of the administration at Washington. The circular charges that copies of letters, supposed to have been received from Senator Lodge saying Wolcott was the choice of the administration, have been circulated among the members of the Legislature and denounces them as forgeries. The circular declares that the wish of the administration was only that a Republican should be chosen Senator without regard to any particular candidate. One Way Rate for the Round Trip. Passengers to Kansas City over the Southern Pacific can buy tickets on January 8 and 9 for $90 for the round trip, call at the Information Bureau, 613 Market street for particulars.

POLICE ARREST SKILLED THIEF

Tapping Tills, After Sending People Outside, His Game.

Frank Maguire, Who Has Committed Several Daring Crimes, Caught.

An important capture has been made by Detectives Dinan and Wren in the taking of Frank Maguire, who is one of the two men who have been for weeks driving around in a buggy and robbing tills of their contents. While one would remain outside in the buggy the other would enter the store and say that his companion wanted something. As soon as the proprietor went out the till would be tapped and the pair would drive off before the theft was discovered. Dinan and Wren arrested Maguire Saturday afternoon. Yesterday he was positively identified by two of his victims, and more will probably follow. December 17 the pair drove up to a sub-postoffice at Castro and Eighteenth streets and one of them entered and told the young lady in charge that a man in a buggy outside wanted to purchase some stamps. She went outside, and during her absence a sack containing $50 was stolen from the stamp drawer. She positively identified Maguire yesterday as the man who went inside, and so did John O'Connor, who has a grocery on the opposite corner and who saw the two men in the buggy. Maguire was also identified by William Kruger, grocer, 21 Jackson street. About a month ago Maguire's companion entered the grocery and told Kruger that a man in a buggy outside wanted a drink. Kruger went outside, and during his absence the till was opened and $75 stolen. Both men drove away in the buggy. Maguire's companion is known and his arrest may be effected at any moment. At least two charges of grand larceny will be booked against Maguire. He has committed several times for petty offenses, and has recently completed a six months' term for vagrancy.
