VERDICT OF BURDICK INQUEST PRACTICALLY ACCUSES PENNELL

BUFFALO, March 31.—The verdict in the Burdick inquest handed down by Justice Murphy to-day, while stating that the identity of the murderer of Edward T. Burdick has not been proved, practically charges Arthur R. Pennell, the dead lawyer, with the crime.

Pennell had a stronger motive than any one else for putting Burdick out of the way, Judge Murphy says, and all the facts brought out by the inquest constituted just grounds for the issuance of a warrant against Pennell if he were alive. The verdict is softened somewhat, so far as it relates to Pennell, by the statement that if Pennell were alive he would be given the presumption of innocence until proved guilty.

BURDICK MURDER SUSPECT, NOW DEAD, AND ACCUSING JUDGE.

Falls on the morning of the discovery of the murderer of his message to his wife to bring the papers and of their failure to return for dinner that evening. Continuing the judge says that in one of Pennell's letters to Mrs. Burdick there was a threat that he would kill her husband. The cashier and bartender of a New York hotel also testified that he said he would kill a certain man, and Mrs. Pennell had written Burdick a warning letter. Pennell had complete knowledge of the Burdick home, and considering his relations with the family, it would have been an easy matter for him to obtain a key thereto.

BURDICK'S UPRIGHT LIFE.

The finding of this court is that the evidence does not sustain the theory that Burdick had a woman in his den that night, nor has it disclosed a single immoral act on his part. It portrays him as a loving father and more than magnanimous and forgiving husband. Mrs. Payne and Miss Hutchinson, whose names have been unfortunately brought into this case, are so far as this inquest was able to determine, completely exonerated.

MOTIVE FOR THE MURDER.

"Where is the motive for this crime?" asked Judge Murphy, and then he takes up the relations of Mrs. Burdick and Pennell and says that it seems that five years ago, on the occasion of a visit to New Haven by the Burdicks and the Pennells, Mrs. Burdick gave the love which she longed to her husband to another. She loved Pennell, and he apparently became infatuated with her. Burdick learned the truth and a separation followed, but because of love for his children he took his wife back and forgave the author of his wrong on his promise to leave Buffalo.

INDICATES PENNELL'S GUILT.

"So far as appears from the evidence," continues the judge, "Pennell had not succeeded in compromising Burdick in any way. Burdick, however, had a lot of evidence, consisting of letters written by Mr. Pennell to Mrs. Burdick of such a gushing, love-sick, importuning nature that their publication meant complete humiliation and social ruin to their author. This, of all others," says the justice, "was the motive strong enough to incite a desperate mind, already steeped in wrongdoing, to do so foul and cruel a murder. Did he do it? Was he responsible for it? He had returned from the dead man's wife the day before the murder. It was here that night. He was very much excited the next morning and went and purchased a revolver. The clerks present at the sale state that he did not appear at all like himself."

Contest Over Will of the Famous Horatio Hartley.

Discoverer of New Zealand Gold Leaves Wealth to Schools. Special Dispatch to The Call.

TACOMA, Wash., March 31.—A spirited contest is in progress at Olympia over the will of the late Horatio Hartley, who was prominent on the coast years ago as the discoverer of gold in New Zealand. After accumulating a small fortune Hartley settled at Olympia and invested his money in property. He died in January after signing the will, which cut Mary Anne Hartley, his widow, off with a legacy of $200 and his inheritance is conditioned upon her not remarrying. The balance of his estate, valued at $50,000, was left to the Olympia school district.
