Each of These Ten Pictures Represents the Name of a European City---The Ninth Is Munich---Guess the Rest and Win a Valuable Prize.

A CHILDREN, how well do you know your geography? Each of the ten pictures in this, the TENTH SET in the THIRD SERIES of THE SUNDAY CALL'S great puzzle contests, represents the name of a European city. If you cannot solve the pictures at first glance, just get out the biggest map you can find of Europe and look at all the names of the big cities printed thereon.

You will quickly find, therefore, that picture No. 5, which shows a leg of beef hanging from a hook and a small boy blowing a very large horn as its most prominent features, is just what those most prominent features make in conjunction--LEGHORN. You will find it very interesting to discover just where LEGHORN is.

Then there is picture No. 3. Can you tell what city is represented by a picture that shows a building on fire and a big, stout man watching it in consternation? Of course, the stout man has nothing whatever to do with the fire. At any rate, he seems to be doing nothing but watch it burn. Ah, there you have the name of the city--BERNE!

Picture No. 9 is quite easy. Both the cat and the woman are telling you what it is, even spelling it out for you. It is MUNICH. Now see if you can guess the rest and win a valuable prize.

REMEMBER--You may send in as many answers in your name as you wish, provided only that you have a coupon to accompany each answer, and--REMEMBER--there is no age limit and young and old may compete.

THE NAMES OF THE LUCKY WINNERS WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE SUNDAY CALL TWO WEEKS FROM TO-DAY, May 3. And as for the reward, there are TWENTY PRIZES every week, as usual, for the successful ones. You cannot fail to win one of them if you get to work early, send in your answers promptly and--get them right.

Now here are the important points for you to remember: The First Ten Boys and the First Ten Girls who send in correct solutions to these ten pictures before noon next Friday will win a prize. Don't forget that point, because it is very important. ALL ANSWERS MUST REACH THIS OFFICE BY FRIDAY NOON. This gives all those in the country an equal chance to compete. Read everything on this page to be sure that you overlook nothing that will help you to win a prize.

This is what you must do to win a prize: Find the name of a European City represented in each of the ten puzzle pictures and write it out in full in the space opposite the proper corresponding number provided for the purpose in the coupon on this page as per its directions--fill in your name and address and the prize you desire--if you win--and mail the coupon to the Puzzle Editor, Sunday Call, San Francisco.

FOLLOW THE RULES OR YOU WILL BE DEBARRED.

This puzzle contest of the THIRD SERIES will close THREE WEEKS from to-day, and as a further reward of industry and cleverness a special prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 will be awarded for the highest percentage of correct answers in the whole series of thirteen weeks.

Now is your chance. Don't miss it. Every picture is as easy as those three that have been revealed to you.

THESE ARE THE PRIZES FROM WHICH YOU MAY SELECT IF YOU SOLVE ALL TEN PUZZLES CORRECTLY: Magic Lantern, Paint Box, Spalding's Tennis Racquet, King Air Gun, Game of Parchesi, Silver Shirt Waist Set, Baseball Glove, Football, Pearl Handled Knife, Extension Skates, Silver Locket, Work Box for Girls, Ping-Pong Set, Nickel Watch for Boys.

Those who won prizes in the eighth set--the Actors' Names Set--published in The Sunday Call of April 5, will find their names in the announcement printed in another column. The names of those who, though they did not win prizes, are yet deserving of honorable mention for their good work, are also published on this page.

BELOW is given the list of prize winners in the puzzle contest of April 5. This was the Eighth set--the names of Actors--in the new Name Series begun on February 15. See if you are one of the lucky winners:
