

COLOMBIA ADDS ISLANDS

Special Agent Carries Canal Proposal to Washington.

Republic Wants $25,000,000 Cash and Sovereignty Over Waterway.

Special Dispatch to The Call. NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Ignacio Arias...

KAISER AT THE UNVEILING OF FREDERICK STATUES

Sculptors' Tributes to Former Emperor and Empress Are Dedicated in Berlin.

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The statues of the Emperor and Empress Frederick...

In spite of the wet and cold weather, a large crowd gathered to witness the ceremony.

After the repeat Emperor William delivered an address, in which he said that he would best perpetuate the memory of his parent's activity...

Next Sunday the concession "The Birth of Christ," which, point of excellence, cannot be rivaled in America...

NEW CONEY ISLAND DRAWS BIG CROWDS

Benefit Next Sunday for Wife and Babies of Aeronaut Who Was Killed.

Of the thousands of people who were attracted to the park and beach yesterday afternoon, a large proportion visited the attractions at Coney Island.

FRIENDS OF DEAD PRELATE GATHER AROUND HIS BIER

Funeral of the Late Archbishop Kain Will Take Place Next Wednesday Morning.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—Members of religious communities and those who had been close personal friends to-day viewed the body of the late Archbishop J. J. Kain.

Upon the order of Archbishop Glennon the bells of all Catholic churches in the city will be tolled from 7 to 7 o'clock tomorrow evening and just at dusk the body of the deceased prelate will be conveyed to the old cathedral, where it will lie in state until the funeral on Wednesday morning.

SANTA CLARA COUNTY PIONEER DEAD

SAN JOSE, Oct. 18.—Abram King, a prominent citizen and pioneer resident, died here to-day after several weeks' illness.

He was a native of Cayuga County, N. Y., aged 78 years. He was formerly vice president of the First National Bank and president of the Santa Clara Valley Agricultural Society.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hunyadi Janos

THE NATURAL LAXATIVE WATER.

MY NAME IS NOT HUNYADI ONLY, BUT, HUNYADI JANOS, THE ORIGINAL, ONLY GENUINE AND RELIABLE HUNGARIAN NATURAL LAXATIVE WATER.

Is Always Reliable for CONSTIPATION

For Sores, Burns, Scalds, Etc., Hunyadi Janos is the only remedy that will cure them.

HEISKELL'S Ointment

They all yield to its magical influence. Bathe the affected part, using Heiskell's Soap, night and morning, applying the ointment only once following the bath.

BAJA CALIFORNIA Damiana Bitters

A GREAT RESTORATIVE, INVIGORATING AND NUTRITIVE.

The most wonderful aphrodisiac and Special Tonic for the Sexual Organs, for both sexes.

LONG, THIN LINE OF HIGHWAY ENGINEERS

From Point Richmond to Heart of Oakland Masked Thugs Ply Their Trade, Lone Pedestrian, Train Crew and Freight-Quarters of Saloons Paying Tribute to Their Daring

Two-guns on me I quit. I am frank to say that those guns looked as big as cannons to me, and when I realized that they meant what they said I quit.

They turned me so I faced the wall, and one of them kept his revolver on me while the other man took all the money there was in the saloon.

Both of medium size. They were of medium size, both dressed in dark clothes. One wore a black handkerchief over his face and the other a white one.

You can just bet that if they were seeking—but they were not. They were just looking for a lot of people who came down to the saloon to see where the holdup occurred, and they all spent money about anything.

The holdup of S. G. Spignola's saloon in Point Richmond was just as exciting as the Oakland incident of similar character.

Spignola runs the Manhattan Hotel, in Point Richmond, and he is known as the Old Town, and has a saloon in the building.

The men at the table thought that it was a joke and one man remarked: "I've got a hand light here I'd like to show you."

These jokes did not please the man behind the mask, who was looking for money and not for fun.

THEORY OF POLICE

The only theory that is advanced is that the men who held up the saloon at Point Richmond caught a freight train at Oakland and decided to rob the engineer and freeman just before the train reached the end of its run.

The first robbery reported was that of the Kley saloon. This crime occurred a few minutes before 7 o'clock and it was reported by the party who saw the holdup.

The robbery of Kley's saloon was daring, particularly because of the time of the evening in which it was done.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Moltoza was notified in about half an hour, and he secured a buggy and began to follow the men.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Moltoza was notified in about half an hour, and he secured a buggy and began to follow the men.

LOOKS DOWN REVOLVER

I was behind the bar in the act of drawing a glass of beer when one stepped out of the little door that leads into the front of the store.

He also had a revolver ready, and aiming it at me he said: "Throw up your hands and quit that or I'll put some lead into you."

I saw that they meant business, and with a gasp I threw up my hands and knocked the gun of the first man aside the second man stepped in through the door from the street.

ENDS HER LIFE

Mother Takes Poison After Bidding Them Good-By.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 18.—After carrying luncheon to her three little children who were gathered fruit in the apple orchard near their home, Mrs. Jacob Munn of Waverly tenderly bade them good-by, walked a few hundred yards to a corner of the orchard and took strychnine to end her life.

She occurred early yesterday afternoon and for several hours the little ones, ignorant of the terrible agonies the dying parent was enduring, continued to pick the apples. They then went to the house and were alarmed to find their mother dead.

Mrs. Munn's home life was most pleasant and neither the husband or children can offer any theory for the suicide. They say the woman acted as usual yesterday and was a good wife and loving mother.

On the extra prize shooting the following members won prizes: A. von Wyl, 68; G. E. Hauser, 67; S. Simon, 66; A. Studer, 65; L. Hauser, 64; E. Defflips, 64.

Chauffeur Booked for Battery. B. B. Stanley, a reckless chauffeur, ran down Captain W. W. Barrett at Hayes and Larkin streets last night and was arrested and charged with battery.

Yale professors will hereafter be retired from service, except in special cases, at 65 years of age.

Engineer Robert H. Ede tells an interesting story of how it feels to be held up and robbed on a train at midnight.

We pulled into the stockyards slowly, as we had to stop there and set out six cars of stock. Just as I shut the engine off and turned the water into the boiler I saw three fellows come in from the track, the engine being an oil burner, and come toward the cab.

When the robbers got up on the tank two of them stopped and one came on to the cab. He got to the end of the tank he turned his back to us and started to climb down onto the deck of the engine, but he slipped and fell into the cab and in some way got his foot caught in the box that we use to carry sand in, and I noticed that he had on high lace shoes.

DRAWS HIS REVOLVER

The fireman and I were laughing at him because he was so clumsy, and as he got on his feet he said to me: "Who gave you the right to ride on that tank?"

In answer he shoved his hand into his shirt and waving his revolver and turned me around. He said: "I'll show you what right I've got to ride. Throw up your hands."

As he said this he made a grab for my watch chain, which showed inside of my jumper, but I got away from him and I made up my mind to get away if I could, and I said: "Well, if that I went head first out of the window."

While the fellow in the cab was talking the other two fellows came forward and covered us, so I knew it was no use making a fight.

BRACKENMANN MAKES A RUN

I told him to go over and shut off the water, but he said: "What do you think I am, a fool?"

While we were talking the men got down from the engine and started to run. I saw the head brakeman come along with a lamp and I heard him say: "What are you fellows doing here? Get out of here."

OBEDY THE ROBBERS

The appearance of the second man setting the engine back and four other men who went over four heads. One man kept the crowd covered with his revolver while the other took $12.95 from the money drawer.

"I suppose that you want my gold watch," said Spignola, who expected to lose everything.

The men in the saloon were then warned not to leave the saloon upon penalty of being shot as they emerged, and the robbery was over.

THE TRAIN ROBBERY

The robbery of the engineer and fireman of a special freight train at the stockyards was a little out of the run of train robbery and even took some of the clothes of their victims.

It is possible that this robbery may have been committed by the men from Point Richmond. The trail of these men was cut when they were arrested at the stockyards and the train robbery took place shortly after they dropped out of sight in the darkness of West Berkeley.

Engineer Robert H. Ede tells an interesting story of how it feels to be held up and robbed on a train at midnight.

We pulled into the stockyards slowly, as we had to stop there and set out six cars of stock. Just as I shut the engine off and turned the water into the boiler I saw three fellows come in from the track, the engine being an oil burner, and come toward the cab.

When the robbers got up on the tank two of them stopped and one came on to the cab. He got to the end of the tank he turned his back to us and started to climb down onto the deck of the engine, but he slipped and fell into the cab and in some way got his foot caught in the box that we use to carry sand in, and I noticed that he had on high lace shoes.

DRAWS HIS REVOLVER

The fireman and I were laughing at him because he was so clumsy, and as he got on his feet he said to me: "Who gave you the right to ride on that tank?"

In answer he shoved his hand into his shirt and waving his revolver and turned me around. He said: "I'll show you what right I've got to ride. Throw up your hands."

As he said this he made a grab for my watch chain, which showed inside of my jumper, but I got away from him and I made up my mind to get away if I could, and I said: "Well, if that I went head first out of the window."

While the fellow in the cab was talking the other two fellows came forward and covered us, so I knew it was no use making a fight.

BRACKENMANN MAKES A RUN

I told him to go over and shut off the water, but he said: "What do you think I am, a fool?"

While we were talking the men got down from the engine and started to run. I saw the head brakeman come along with a lamp and I heard him say: "What are you fellows doing here? Get out of here."

OBEDY THE ROBBERS

The appearance of the second man setting the engine back and four other men who went over four heads. One man kept the crowd covered with his revolver while the other took $12.95 from the money drawer.

"I suppose that you want my gold watch," said Spignola, who expected to lose everything.

The men in the saloon were then warned not to leave the saloon upon penalty of being shot as they emerged, and the robbery was over.

THE TRAIN ROBBERY

The robbery of the engineer and fireman of a special freight train at the stockyards was a little out of the run of train robbery and even took some of the clothes of their victims.

It is possible that this robbery may have been committed by the men from Point Richmond. The trail of these men was cut when they were arrested at the stockyards and the train robbery took place shortly after they dropped out of sight in the darkness of West Berkeley.

Engineer Robert H. Ede tells an interesting story of how it feels to be held up and robbed on a train at midnight.

We pulled into the stockyards slowly, as we had to stop there and set out six cars of stock. Just as I shut the engine off and turned the water into the boiler I saw three fellows come in from the track, the engine being an oil burner, and come toward the cab.

When the robbers got up on the tank two of them stopped and one came on to the cab. He got to the end of the tank he turned his back to us and started to climb down onto the deck of the engine, but he slipped and fell into the cab and in some way got his foot caught in the box that we use to carry sand in, and I noticed that he had on high lace shoes.

DRAWS HIS REVOLVER

The fireman and I were laughing at him because he was so clumsy, and as he got on his feet he said to me: "Who gave you the right to ride on that tank?"

In answer he shoved his hand into his shirt and waving his revolver and turned me around. He said: "I'll show you what right I've got to ride. Throw up your hands."

As he said this he made a grab for my watch chain, which showed inside of my jumper, but I got away from him and I made up my mind to get away if I could, and I said: "Well, if that I went head first out of the window."

While the fellow in the cab was talking the other two fellows came forward and covered us, so I knew it was no use making a fight.

BRACKENMANN MAKES A RUN

I told him to go over and shut off the water, but he said: "What do you think I am, a fool?"

While we were talking the men got down from the engine and started to run. I saw the head brakeman come along with a lamp and I heard him say: "What are you fellows doing here? Get out of here."

OBEDY THE ROBBERS

The appearance of the second man setting the engine back and four other men who went over four heads. One man kept the crowd covered with his revolver while the other took $12.95 from the money drawer.

"I suppose that you want my gold watch," said Spignola, who expected to lose everything.

The men in the saloon were then warned not to leave the saloon upon penalty of being shot as they emerged, and the robbery was over.

THE TRAIN ROBBERY

The robbery of the engineer and fireman of a special freight train at the stockyards was a little out of the run of train robbery and even took some of the clothes of their victims.

It is possible that this robbery may have been committed by the men from Point Richmond. The trail of these men was cut when they were arrested at the stockyards and the train robbery took place shortly after they dropped out of sight in the darkness of West Berkeley.

HONOR MEMORY OF COLUMBUS

Gathering of Italian Colony at Glen Park.

Anniversary of Discovery of America Fittingly Observed.

If the shade of Christopher Columbus had visited Glen Park yesterday it would have been overcome by emotion at the splendid manner in which the great discoverer's countrymen of the present day united to do honor to his memory on the 414th anniversary of his discovery of America.

The Garibaldi Guard members, in their handsome scarlet uniforms and under command of Captain Delucchi, assembled at Garibaldi Hall on Broadway at 3 o'clock, and headed by a brass band followed by the members of the society, paraded on Broadway.

An excellent programme had been arranged, consisting of a tombola, dancing and an oration by Florenzo Cavagnaro. Mr. Cavagnaro's address was most forcible and he was vociferously applauded.

The speaker dwelt upon trials that had beset Columbus in his voyage to the new land and the difficulty that he had encountered in convincing the skeptics so as to secure sufficient funds to make the attempt.

The committees in charge of the celebration were as follows: Gate—A. Scacci, P. Fontana, S. Ciancone, A. L. Bacigalupo, G. Sbarboro, F. Anello, G. Cordano, M. Casazza and F. Bigonoli.

FAMOUS BALLETT MASTER DIES IN AN INSANE RAGE

Curtain Rings Down for Aime Charles Beatrand, Well-Known Here and in Europe.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Aime Charles Beatrand, a famous ballet master who had charge of the ballets for a number of years in the Alhambra Music Hall in London, and in the Auditorium Theater in Chicago, and also of the ballets of the "Black Crook," "Babes in the Wood," and other well-known productions, died to-night in the psychiatric ward in Bellevue Hospital.

Beatrand's mind had become weakened and he took to playing incessantly on his old violin, when his neighbors complained and had him taken to the hospital last Tuesday. He refused to go until he was deluded into believing that he was needed at the Metropolitan Opera House, but even then he insisted on having a violin, and he would only go into the pavilion when he was given a violin by one of the doctors.

CHARGES ARE PREFERRED AGAINST INDIAN AGENT

Reservist Said to Be Due to His Neglect.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 18.—A Miner special from Great Falls says that as a result of the massacre of seven Indians on the Blackfoot reservation a week ago by "Black Mike" Miss Helen P. Clarke, former Superintendent of Schools for Lewis and Clark county, has preferred charges of maladministration against Major J. H. Montague, agent of the Blackfoot (Peigan) reservation.

Miss Clarke is a daughter of Malcolm Clarke, the pioneer friend of the Peigan, who married one of the tribe and was later murdered.

Miss Clarke, in affidavits, charges that Peigan is being freely sold on the reservation and that gambling is common. Miss Clarke attributes the recent massacre to Little Plume being crazed by liquor.

DEATH CALLS PROMINENT MEXICAN.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18.—Don Jose Antonio Altamirano, a pioneer of this part of the State and at one time an extensive landowner, died at 2 o'clock this morning at his home in Old Town, surrounded by his family. He was a native of Mexico, where he was born sixty-eight years ago, but he had been a resident of Old Town since 1849.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

BRINGS PASTOR BEFORE THE LAW

Member of Portland Congregation Sues a Clergyman.

Wheat Broker Says Defamatory Words Were Uttered About Him.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 18.—The Rev. J. John A. Gibson, pastor of the Grand-avenue Presbyterian Church, is defendant in a damage suit for $1000 filed in the State Circuit Court by W. E. Spicer, a local wheat broker and member of the congregation, who alleges that the minister has made numerous defamatory utterances regarding him and has wrongfully attempted to expel him and his wife from the church society.

The complaint recites that Gibson recently said to a prominent member of the congregation, "Mr. Miller, don't you know that Spicer is a bad man and if he had his just deserts he would be behind the bars at the penitentiary at Salem?"

The complaint proceeds to say that at a meeting of the church later Mr. Gibson asked the congregation to grant certification of dismissal from the church to Spicer and his wife who were members in good standing. It is averred that this action on the part of the pastor was intended to convey the meaning that Spicer was a bad man and an unfit person to be a member of the church and that he should be expelled therefrom.

A number of years ago Spicer went from Portland to Wardner, Idaho, where he engaged in the wheat business. He eventually lost money and turned over the business of the bank and other securities to one of the banks. The officers of the bank afterward had Spicer arrested for disposing of certain wheat in a warehouse. Spicer was tried and acquitted in the State Circuit Court. His brief dismissal of the church and that he should be expelled therefrom.

A number of years ago Spicer went from Portland to Wardner, Idaho, where he engaged in the wheat business. He eventually lost money and turned over the business of the bank and other securities to one of the banks. The officers of the bank afterward had Spicer arrested for disposing of certain wheat in a warehouse. Spicer was tried and acquitted in the State Circuit Court. His brief dismissal of the church and that he should be expelled therefrom.

LONDON STOCK MARKET IS BECOMING STEADIER

Disposal of Alarmist Rumors of War Between Russia and Japan Has Quieting Effect.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—After having surmounted a most difficult settlement without disaster the tone of the Stock Exchange, under the influence of easier money conditions in New York and Paris, has become much healthier and the general impression prevails that the worst is over.

Japanese and Russian securities, after a rapid decline in New York and Paris, Americans and Kafirs participated fully in the general recovery of prices, steel shares being in demand. After a troublesome week on adverse rumors from Montreal conditions closed much better. The price of the week were hardly maintained on Saturday, when Japanese securities had another relapse.

NEW CENTURY WHEELMEN WIN INTERCITY RACE

Rival Relay Teams Are Made Up of Five Men Each Riding Ten Miles.

The New Century Wheelmen of this city defeated the Eden Cyclers of Hayward in a fifty-mile relay race yesterday over the Hayward triangle. D. Mainland of the New Century Wheelmen made the fastest time, riding ten miles in 22 minutes and 25 seconds. The total time for the five riders representing the New Century Wheelmen was 2 hours 5 minutes 56 seconds.

The time of each rider for the ten miles follows: New Century Wheelmen—L. Habler, 27:40-1:5; E. E. Bergman, 23:29-4:5; F. Heuer, 23:50; A. Greeninger, 23:09; D. Mainland, 22:25-5; Eden Cyclers—D. Borree, 27:40; C. Toyne, 29:14-4:5; A. Smith, 23:35; J. Borree, 23:45; O. Eversett, 22:28-1:5.

DEATH CALLS PROMINENT MEXICAN.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18.—Don Jose Antonio Altamirano, a pioneer of this part of the State and at one time an extensive landowner, died at 2 o'clock this morning at his home in Old Town, surrounded by his family. He was a native of Mexico, where he was born sixty-eight years ago, but he had been a resident of Old Town since 1849.

He was a native of Mexico, where he was born sixty-eight years ago, but he had been a resident of Old Town since 1849. He was a native of Mexico, where he was born sixty-eight years ago, but he had been a resident of Old Town since 1849.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

PRESS OF DOMINION BITTER OVER DECISION

"Chamberlain Has Given It to Us in the Neck" the Comment of One Journal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—Commenting upon the decision of the Alaskan Boundary Commission, the Gazette of tomorrow will say:

Canadians generally did not expect much from the arbitration commission. The commission was expected to decide on the weight of evidence, no matter which side suffered. The representatives of the United States were hardly open to conviction.

Under the heading, "Canada Is Sacrificed," Le Journal will say in part: "This result had been seen from the beginning. The decision of a commission named equally by the two parties to the case England plainly indicated a disposition to sacrifice them in the hope of securing the disappearance of a cause of continual friction with the United States."

Le Canada, which is the personal organ of the Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, will say: "Through the treaty Mr. Chamberlain signed with the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie Bowden, the decision of the majority. In a word, Chamberlain has given it to us in the neck."

FIRE IS DESTROYING TOWN IN INDIANA

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 18.—The town of Kokomo is burning. At 1 o'clock the station agent there wired news of the blaze, which was of incendiary origin, then broke off the message with the words: "Can't send any more; the station is already half burned."

Galveston is a town of 190 inhabitants. The Kokomo Fire Department has been sent thither on a special train.

Banker Loses Drafts and Money.

William Crowell of Paola, Kan., a delegate to the Bankers' convention, lost $100 in bills and two $200 drafts on a New York bank at the Oakland mole last night. He took his ticket out of his pocketbook and when he opened the book on this side of the bay the money was missing. He thinks that he dropped the bills when replacing his ticket. The police are investigating the case.

CASE OF GENERAL JOHN CHASE WILL BE TAKEN UP FIRST

DENVER, Oct. 18.—Everything is in readiness for the general court martial that is expected to probe the National Guard scandal. Governor Peabody declares that the investigation will be rigorously pushed.

The court will be convened tomorrow in the Senate Chamber and unless some change is made in the present plan it will be open to the public. The case of General John Chase will be taken up first, against whom charges have been officially filed with the court. He is charged with failure to obey orders of the Governor, conduct unbecoming to an officer and perjury.

There was some talk of compromising the whole affair without a trial, under an agreement with Chase to resign shortly after matters had quieted down. In reply to this rumor, General Chase said: "I shall not resign from the National Guard. All reports to the effect that I had ever considered offering my resignation are entirely false. There will be no compromise from my end of the line if such compromise calls for my retirement."

So far General Chase has been officially filed with the court. He is charged with failure to obey orders of the Governor, conduct unbecoming to an officer and perjury.

There was some talk of compromising the whole affair without a trial, under an agreement with Chase to resign shortly after matters had quieted down. In reply to this rumor, General Chase said: "I shall not resign from the National Guard. All reports to the effect that I had ever considered offering my resignation are entirely false. There will be no compromise from my end of the line if such compromise calls for my retirement."

Major Williams is accused of conduct unbecoming an officer and conduct in violation of military discipline. Colonel Kimball and Colonel Gross are accused of alleged irregularities in connection with the payroll and commissary contracts.

Leather waste is no longer wasted. Manufacturers use it in a compressed form, instead of iron, to make compressed.

CASE OF GENERAL JOHN CHASE WILL BE TAKEN UP FIRST

DENVER, Oct. 18.—Everything is in readiness for the general court martial that is expected to probe the National Guard scandal. Governor Peabody declares that the investigation will be rigorously pushed.

The court will be convened tomorrow in the Senate Chamber and unless some change is made in the present plan it will be open to the public. The case of General John Chase will be taken up first, against whom charges have been officially filed with the court. He is charged with failure to obey orders of the Governor, conduct unbecoming to an officer and perjury.

There was some talk of compromising the whole affair without a trial, under an agreement with Chase to resign shortly after matters had quieted down. In reply to this rumor, General Chase said: "I shall not resign from the National Guard. All reports to the effect that I had ever considered offering my resignation are entirely false. There will be no compromise from my end of the line if such compromise calls for my retirement."

So far General Chase has been officially filed with the court. He is charged with failure to obey orders of the Governor, conduct unbecoming to an officer and perjury.

There was some talk of compromising the whole affair without a trial, under an agreement with Chase to resign shortly after matters had quieted down. In reply to this rumor, General Chase said: "I shall not resign from the National Guard. All reports to the effect that I had ever considered offering my resignation are entirely false. There will be no compromise from my end of the line if such compromise calls for my retirement."

Major Williams is accused of conduct unbecoming an officer and conduct in violation of military discipline. Colonel Kimball and Colonel Gross are accused of alleged irregularities in connection with the payroll and commissary contracts.