

CZAR'S MOVE SIGNIFICANT OF PEACE

Diplomats Think He Has Reached Agreement With Japan.

Say That the Immediate Possibility of War Is Now Averted.

Declare That Russia's Evacuation of Yonampoh, on the Yalu River, Points to an Understanding With the Mikado.

Special Dispatch to the Call.

CALL BUREAU, 1406 G STREET, N. W. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Russia's evacuation of Yonampoh, on the Yalu River, is considered extremely significant by the officials of the State Department and the diplomats of Washington. No official advance has been received, but it is generally considered that Russia would not evacuate such a valuable strategic point unless she had come to an agreement with Japan which avoided the immediate possibility of war. There has been considerable talk here about a tripartite agreement by Russia, Japan and Germany whereby Russia promises not to interfere on Japanese influence in Manchuria, Japan agrees to evacuate Manchuria without Russian occupation, while Germany agrees to remain neutral, having possibly gained promises which will rebound profitably to her in Shantung.

The announcement that Secretary Hay refused to aid China in forcing Russia to evacuate, as requested by Chinese Minister Shi Chen Tung Liang Cheng, occasioned little surprise here to-day, as it has been generally known that the American States will take no steps until the American-Chinese commercial treaty is ratified and American treaty rights are infringed.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, called on Secretary Hay to-day. The administration desires a speedy ratification of the treaty at an extra session of the Senate. For the United States to protest against the Russian occupation of Moukden, one of the open ports provided by the treaty, would be ill advised.

PEKING, Nov. 3.—Prince Ching, president of the Chinese Foreign Office, and Wang Wen Shao of the Foreign Office, the two officials who conducted the recent familiar talks with the Japanese, were absent from yesterday's conference at the summer palace with the Dowager Empress, concerning the reoccupation of Moukden by the Russian troops. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—The optimistic feeling on the subject of the Russo-Japanese situation which has continuously prevailed here, has now become a distinct conviction that the crisis is past and a rupture is now regarded as extremely remote. The negotiations in Tokyo are proceeding toward adjustment without a hitch.

EXCITEMENT IN VANCOUVER.

Loyal Japanese Propose to Raise a Regiment for War.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 3.—The Japanese here are preparing for war with Russia. Letters they have received from their countrymen at home, have convinced them that a conflict is imminent that they have begun active preparations for the formation and equipment of a regiment of at least 800 men from British Columbia. In Japan the laws of conscription are very strict. Japanese now resident in British Columbia do not return to the country's aid in case of war they would be liable to arrest and imprisonment if they returned to Japan at any later time. The 5000 Japanese are not wanting in patriotic enthusiasm, however, and are anxious to go and send representatives to fight the Russians. To-day speeches were made to the Vancouver Japanese on the war question and the Japanese are simply itching for a fight, individually the Japanese are very brave and have no fear of encountering death in battle. Nearly one-half of the number in British Columbia now formerly were in the army and were allowed to emigrate as a reward for volunteer service.

HEAVY TRAFFIC ON "KEY" ROUTE

Earnings for First Three Days of Operation Aggregate $1191.40.

New System Taxed to the Utmost by Increase of Business.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Nov. 3. The traffic on the new "Key" route ferry system during the first three days of operation has been larger than the managers of the new ferry expected.

The earnings for the first day of operation were $325.40, for the second day $442.30 and for the third day $423.70, making a total of $1191.40 for three days. The estimated expense of operation is $75 a day.

The company is erecting a temporary waiting-room on the south side of the right of way between Adeline street and East Tenth avenue. The structure will be 25 feet in length and open on the side facing the track. This will serve to shelter the patrons from the weather until a permanent depot is erected.

Work on the new rolling stock of the company is being pushed as rapidly as possible and it is likely that next Sunday will witness the inauguration of the regular thirty-minute service on the new route.

It is understood that a contract has been placed for another ferry-boat of the same pattern as the two now in use.

FINDS PTOMAINE CAUSED DEMISE

James A. Fariser's Death Due to Poison in Meat.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—Ptomaine poison contained in meat which he ate in a San Francisco restaurant yesterday noon was found to be the cause of the death of James A. Fariser, who passed away at his home here last evening. An autopsy performed by Dr. Charles L. Tisdale disclosed the presence of the deadly ptomaines in the stomach of the deceased. The physician so testified at the inquest held this evening by Coroner H. B. Mehrmann, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the postmortem findings.

J. A. Hinterman, the waiter who served Fariser in the restaurant, testified that the dish of meat of which Fariser partook was a favorite one with the deceased and that Fariser, after eating heartily of it, recommended it to several acquaintances who were dining at the same table. Hinterman stated that the meat was fresh, having been received in the restaurant yesterday morning. He asserted that he always waited upon Fariser and informed him as to the best dishes on the bill of fare.

Dr. P. Tisdale, who attended Fariser prior to his demise, said that the patient was unable to account for the terrible pains in his stomach, but remarked that they might have been caused by something he ate. The physician diagnosed Fariser's trouble as ptomaine poisoning, and treated him for it, but was unable to stay its deadly progress. A. D. Fariser, a son of the deceased, told of his father's plight when the latter reached home. After hearing the evidence, the jury returned a verdict that the patient died of ptomaine poisoning, and viewed the remains. Composing the jury were William Hammond, Frank Kallis, Peter Simmons, C. D. Postel, Henry Wichman, Frank P. Furey, Walter Weeks and David W. Martin.

CLAIMS CONSCIENCE CAUSED CONFESSION

Man Who Says He is a Burglar Surrenders to the Police.

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—A man giving the name of James Daly surrendered himself into custody at the police station this afternoon, declaring that he had ransacked a residence on Hawthorne street, between Folsom and Harrison, San Francisco. Daly insisted that he had stolen a number of household articles, besides a bottle filled with gold nuggets, which he had thrown overboard while crossing the bay. The police notified the San Francisco detective bureau and Daly was taken back to San Francisco this evening by Detective Ed Gibson.

Daly said his conscience bothered him after the crime had been committed, hence his voluntary surrender.

SCHOOL TEACHER IS HURT BY BAD FALL

Miss Elizabeth Arlett Is Thrown From Bicycle by Collapse of Wheel.

OAKLAND, Oct. 3.—Miss Elizabeth Arlett, a teacher in the Franklin School, was seriously injured this noon while riding a wheel to her residence, 1112 Second avenue, from school. Shortly after Miss Arlett started on the bicycle the front wheel collapsed, throwing the rider with such force as to knock her senseless. Pedestrians passing who witnessed the accident went to Miss Arlett's assistance. A carriage was called and as soon as she had revived slightly the injured teacher was removed to her residence. The family refused to light to make public any details concerning Miss Arlett's condition.

CONTINUE FIGHTING OVER SESSIONS BASIN PROPERTY

Oakland Harbor Development Company Claims $50,000 Is Still Due.

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—A demurrer and cross complaint have been filed in the suit of Edward C. Sessions vs. the Oakland Harbor Development Company over what is known as the Sessions Basin in East Oakland. From the pleadings it appears that E. C. Sessions entered into a contract with Horace W. Carpenter in 1855 to purchase a tract of land. Sessions paid $22,210.10 and the taxes for property valued at $75,000. The land was afterward transferred to the development company and it is alleged that Sessions has never paid the remaining balance of approximately $25,000.

A Night With the Bears.

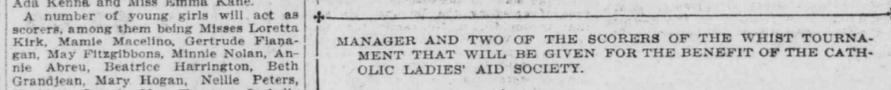

Geneva.—A Bernese has had an unpleasant experience which he is likely to remember all his life. While returning home late in the night the worse for drink, he fell into the bear's pit at Bern. Fortunately he was in the part reserved for young bears, and he went to sleep surrounded by the animals. On discovering his plight next morning he shouted for help, and with the aid of ropes and a ladder he was drawn up into the street, apparently none the worse for the adventure.

His sleep might have been of a longer duration if he had fallen a few yards to the left, where the full-grown animals are confined.—London Daily Chronicle.

SAY FACILITIES ARE INADEQUATE

Expressmen Claim That Freight Is Delayed at a Depot.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Nov. 3. Owing to the ever increasing volume of Eastern freight which is being shipped to this city, the facilities for handling a freight at Sixteenth street depot are becoming absolutely inadequate, and the Express and Dray Men's Association has appointed to the Board of Trade requesting that body to take some action that will result in the betterment of existing conditions.

Following is the communication: Oakland Board of Trade, Edwin Stearns, Secretary, 22 Twelfth street, Oakland.—Dear Sir: The Express and Dray Men's Association wish to call your honorable body's attention to the present conditions existing at the Sixteenth street depot. Many of the merchants have been complaining to the express and dray men of the delay in receiving Eastern freight. The accommodations at Sixteenth street depot for the handling of freight are not commensurate with the volume of business to be handled. Carload lots have lain for thirty days on sidetrack; the trackage is limited and altogether inadequate for the accommodation of the freight to be handled. Two hours' time is consumed each morning and one hour each afternoon waiting. Said time is a loss to the draymen, as no work can be done while cars are being switched. Cars with Eastern freight enclosed have lain three weeks on sidetrack, causing loss of thirty-day dating for cash to merchants, which causes considerable financial trouble. We are powerless to remedy the same. We think if this matter was brought to the attention of Mr. Palmer of the Southern Pacific Company by your honorable body we certainly believe the matter would receive prompt attention. Any action you may see fit to take to better the conditions above mentioned, thereby benefiting the merchants will be greatly appreciated. We are, Sir, very respectfully, yours, S. A. WILLIARD, Secretary.

COLD KILLS THE GERM.

Lieut. Perry Says There Are No Bald Heads in the Arctic Region.

The people who come back from Klondike testify to the fact that no native bald heads are there. The evidence is that the cold climate kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root. Lieut. Perry, who went to the Arctic Regions, gives the same evidence. Newbro's Herpicide has the same effect as the cold climate. It kills the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, and the hair grows again. Herpicide is the first hair restorer built upon the principle of destroying the germ that eats the hair off. Its phenomenal sale demonstrates the correctness of the scalp germ theory. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MONTANA MINING TOWN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Bonfire Started Between Two Buildings by Children at Play Causes Big Blaze.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 3.—A Miner special from Basin, Mont., says the town has been practically destroyed by a conflagration which started at 2 o'clock this afternoon from a bonfire built between two buildings by some children at play. All the business section has been wiped out and the fire is still burning. The large concentrator of the Montana Ore Purchasing Company was saved after heroic work by the firemen. A special train carried the Boulder Fire Department about ten miles to Basin. The loss is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $80,000.

THEY WILL HAVE NO HONEYMOON

Jeannie Bamber Marries John Desoza in the County Jail.

She Will Endeavor to Save Him From Serving Sentence.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Nov. 3. There was a marriage in the County Jail here this afternoon. Jeannie Bamber was the bride and John Desoza the groom. There will be no honeymoon for the present, but the couple say it will be just as enjoyable when freedom comes to the groom.

Desoza, caught under one of the many definitions of vagrant known to the law, is walled up in jail under a six months' sentence which will not expire until next February. Believing that if she married Desoza she could aid him in securing a pardon, Miss Bamber went to the County Jail to-day and secured a marriage license. Justice of the Peace Geary was then retained to perform the ceremony and thus reinforced the bride proceeded to the County Jail.

The civil law marriage service is not an extended one and Jailer Harry Clark and a chance visitor acted as the witnesses. Desoza was taken from his cell and the ceremony quickly performed. After a short visit with her husband the bride departed. She stated that she would go to Governor Fardon with a petition for her husband's pardon.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Nov. 3. The City Council has passed to print an ordinance which calls for bids for the installation of new switchboard apparatus in the fire alarm headquarters, at a cost of $5500. This is the first step toward the establishing of a modern electrical system of handling the delicate mechanism of the department, along lines suggested by Superintendent George Babcock. The next move will be to do away with the chemical battery system, an expensive method, and to supplant it with direct electrical current for the operation of the alarm circuits.

Superintendent Babcock has made a complete investigation of the department's needs and has offered many ideas for valuable improvements. The rapid growth of the city has outstripped facilities in this important branch of the municipal service. It is the purpose of the City Council to renovate the system thoroughly as rapidly as the department can handle the improvements.

The City Council has also initiated legislation for general fire department requirements. Ordinances authorizing the expenditure of $3000 on steamers Nos. 2 and 4 have been passed. The Board of Public Works has been authorized to use $1500 in purchase of horses and $1800 for the erection of a chemical fire engine-house on the lot in Linda Vista district, Piedmont, given to the city by residents of that section, has been passed.

CHICKEN EXPERTS SAVE THE FOWLS

Stamp Out the Cholera From the Poultry Ranches.

Berkeley Office San Francisco Call, 2148 Center Street, Nov. 3. Within a month the chicken experts of the Agricultural Department of the University of California have benefited the State the $2500 worth that its Legislature appropriated last year for the establishment of a poultry station. In other words, the poultry station has paid for itself, even before it has been built.

A Marin County rancher, whose name is not given out at the university, had 2700 chickens a month ago. To-day he has none. They were all destroyed within a week by the disease that chicken experts call "cholera," though this is not the technical name for it. The chickens were worth $1 apiece, so the raiser lost $2700. Another rancher had a poultry ranch right next and he has 2500 chickens. His chickens did not escape the scourge and he "stood to lose" $2500. The fowls began to drop off at the rate of forty and fifty a day and in a little while they would have all been dead, as the death rate increased every day. In his desperation, however, he thought of the university experts and he communicated with Professor A. R. Ward, the chief. Dr. Ward, assisted by H. W. Woodworth, looked into the trouble then and after a hard fight succeeded in getting the disease under control. Dr. Ward received word from the second ranch to-day that the "cholera" has been almost entirely wiped out, thus showing how nearly 2500 fowls and the many dollars were saved.

The "cholera" is the terror of the poultry raisers. It is a germ disease that spreads rapidly and kills the chickens off in the night. It is spread by the live chickens eating the dead ones and the contamination of the water. The chicken preventives are spraying with disinfectants, sanitary feeding troughs and medicated drinking water.

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—The following marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk to-day: John Desoza, aged 24 years, and Jeannie Bamber, 18, both of Oakland; Ignacio Rodriguez, 31, and Maria Oliveira, 27, both of San Lorenzo; Antonio Silva, 24, and Mary Pastano, 17, both of Oakland; William G. Demarint, 27, and Alice MacKenzie, 23, both of San Francisco.

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—R. E. Rowland, an Orinda Park ranchman, narrowly escaped death to-day on his ranch through the slipping of the saddle on the horse he was riding. His foot caught in the stirrup as he fell over and he was dragged a long distance before the horse was finally brought to a standstill.

RANCHMAN DRAGGED BY FRIGHTENED HORSE

Saddle Slips Under R. E. Rowland of Orinda Park and He Has Narrow Escape.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—R. E. Rowland, an Orinda Park ranchman, narrowly escaped death to-day on his ranch through the slipping of the saddle on the horse he was riding. His foot caught in the stirrup as he fell over and he was dragged a long distance before the horse was finally brought to a standstill.

The accident occurred while Rowland was herding some cattle down the steep ranges at his place. As soon as the saddle slipped and the rider fell the horse became frightened and started to run down the hillside. The helpless rider was dragged over the rocky ground until his entire body was bruised. His exhaustion prevented him from stopping the career of the horse. The only thing that saved him was the thick brush, which impeded the animal somewhat and finally brought it to a standstill.

Upon examination at his ranch, to which he managed to crawl, it was discovered that Rowland had, besides his bruises, a severe contusion on the head.

FIRE FIGHTERS GET ATTENTION

City Council Initiates Moves for Needed Improvements.

Modern Apparatus in Alarm Signal System Soon to Be Installed.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1115 Broadway, Nov. 3. The City Council has passed to print an ordinance which calls for bids for the installation of new switchboard apparatus in the fire alarm headquarters, at a cost of $5500. This is the first step toward the
