"SMOKER BILL," A NOTED GAMBLER, PASSES AWAY

William Eggert, once a prosperous gambler, was found dead last Sunday morning in his room at 417 Kearny street.

Eggert was known in every gambling room on the west side of the Rocky Mountains as "Smoker Bill," and the news of his death will recall old times to those who knew him in his palmy days.

He was born in Germany and came to America thirty years ago. He quickly drifted into the life of a gambler and earned the reputation of being an expert card dealer.

He ran a faro bank in this city with Jesse Massey and accumulated a good-sized fortune. In the early morning was killed one night near the corner of Kearny and Morton streets, and from that time luck seemed to desert Eggert. He took to drinking and soon found himself without funds.

For some time he worked as a porter in the saloons where he formerly had spent money freely, and when sickness overtook him he was cared for by friends of his prosperous days, who will give his body burial.

FOR MANY A PREPARING FOR ANNUAL BALL

Forty-Third Social Function of the Oldest Guard Organization of the State to Be Held in Maple Hall on Thanksgiving Eve

OAKLAND, Nov. 23.—Every year for forty-two years the warriors of Company A of the Fifth Regiment of the National Guard have given a ball on Thanksgiving eve. They have laid their musket and sword, the military bugle call has been superseded by the strains of the waltz and the game of war has given way to social amusement on these glad occasions.

The forty-third of these events will be given Wednesday evening, and instead of the great, barklike army, the soldiers of the State will dance in Maple Hall, Particular efforts will be made this year to have the decorations of unusual merit. Electric lights to more than 1500 lamps will be used to the walls. There will be special music, and the indications are that the ball will exceed in brilliancy and previous efforts. In fact there has been so much interest in the affair that it was found necessary to hold it in Maple Hall, the army being entirely too small.

Company A of the Fifth Regiment is the oldest National Guard organization in the State, having been in existence since 1861 without being disbanded.

PUTS UNIVERSITY Cadet Regiment Comes Up to Military Requirement.

Berkeley Office San Francisco Call, 2148 Center Street, Nov. 23. Captain Henry De H. Waite, commander of the cadet regiment of the University of California, was informed to-day through the United States army regulations for 1904 that the University of California is among the few colleges of the country that have come up to the governmental requirements in the matter of drill.

Of the forty-five military colleges in the United States but twenty-two are accredited at Washington, indicating that the authorities have been watching the development of the various organizations rather closely.

Two are Pacific Coast colleges—California, Nevada and New Mexico. The acceptance of the University of California is more significant than would appear at first sight. It was only a short time ago that the university fought hard against the proposal that the cadets drill three times a week instead of two, besides imposing other military duties. Besides this the reports of the inspecting officers in the last two years have not been very kindly. All of which made people think that the position of the university was a bit shaky at Washington.

But now, even in the face of the report of Captain J. A. Johnston, the last inspecting officer, the War Department has seen fit to put the University of California on the list of colleges that are fully equipped and equipped. It is taken as an interest in military affairs as a change of heart in the administration at Washington, at the very least, and by some is considered not flattering to the inspecting officer.

The men eligible to appointment as commissioned officers in the army, through having achieved the highest rank in the regiment last year, are Robert Shibley, Henry Bronson Dewing and Alan P. Matthews.

TRAINS TWENTY MINUTES APART

New Ferry System Will Give People Fast Service.

Negotiating for the Purchase of Land for Terminal Depot.

Berkeley Office San Francisco Call, 2148 Center Street, Nov. 23. The San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway will begin running twenty-minute trains and boats over its new ferry system next Saturday.

The announcement was made to-day by General Manager Kelly, who has given orders for a new schedule.

In order to be fully prepared for the new schedule the new company's ferry boat Yerba Buena, Capt. and Mrs. Jose have been on the dry dock in turns during the last forty-eight hours undergoing some alterations to assist them in getting up more speed.

The boats will have to go a little faster than they do now, for after coasting seventeen minutes out of every twenty-minute trip, there will be only three minutes left in which to load and unload. The twenty-minute service will be in use between the hours of 6 a. m. and 7 p. m. each day.

The new company is negotiating with Mrs. A. L. Acheson for the purchase of a strip of land at University avenue and Stanford place, with the idea of building a depot there. A depot for the new system is demanded, as there is no accommodation now for passengers at the terminal.

ENTERTAINS HER RELATIVES AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Grayson Dutton entertained at luncheon yesterday in the Palm room of the Palace Hotel. Covers were laid for twenty-four. The guests of honor were Miss Gertrude Dutton and Mrs. Charles Kindeberger, relatives of the hostess.

The table was made artistic with violets and pink roses, while corsage bouquets of violets were provided for each guest. Everything was perfectly arranged and those present were delightfully entertained. The guests were:

Mrs. Kindeberger, Miss Dutton, Mrs. Harry Mendel, Mrs. Thomas Benton Durrage, Miss Leontine Hakeman, Miss Emily Wilson, Miss Charles Dutton, Miss Katharine Dillon, Miss Patricia Congrave, Miss Elizabeth Cole, Miss Bernice Brown, Miss Ardella Mills, Miss Gertrude Dutton, Mrs. George W. Dutton, Stafford Parker, Mrs. Malcolm Henry, Mrs. George Beardsley Jr., Miss Edna Robinson, Mrs. George Toland Cameron, Mrs. John Rodgers Clark, Miss Lottie Woods, Miss Huntsman and Miss Maye Colburn.

A delightfully informal card party was given by Mrs. Charles Farquharson yesterday afternoon at her home. Seven-handed euchre was the game and the prizes were handsome and well worth "the rapture of pursuing." White chrysanthemums comprised the artistic decoration. The guests were:

Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Frank Bates, Mrs. Henry Crocker, Mrs. Frank Granger, Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. Frank Granger, Mrs. Charles L. Pierce, Mrs. W. Wakefield Baker, Mrs. Henry Charles, Mrs. George W. Dutton, Mrs. Cary Friedlander, Mrs. Gertrude, Mrs. Daniel Drysdale, Mrs. Eugene Lent, Mrs. Douglas Watson, Mrs. George W. Dutton, Mrs. Charles Welsh, Mrs. George Boardman, Mrs. Willard Wasman, Mrs. Fredrick Kilmbe, Mrs. H. Alston Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Foster, Miss Holton.

Captain Emerson Warfield gave a jolly little dinner at the California Hotel on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Wesley Burnett, both of whom were school friends at Stanford University. The table was decorated with pink carnations and asparagus fern. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, Miss Jennie Dunphy, Mrs. Lucie M. Hayes, Dr. Arnold Genthe, Richard M. Hotaling and General and Mrs. Warfield.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell H. Cool will give a house party over Thanksgiving in the home of Richard Hotaling, birthday. The guests will be entertained at their home, "Dotswood," at Los Gatos.

A wedding of interest will occur tomorrow at high noon at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The principals will be Miss Rene Farjeon and Dr. Robert Thomas Legge of McCloud. After the marriage a breakfast will be served to the bride party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dutton, 121 Duane street. A large number of friends have been invited to the reception from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Pacific Coast Women's Press Association held its regular monthly meeting at the Hotel Hamilton, 121 Duane street, and a very enjoyable time was spent by the members. The programme presented was a varied one and was artistic in every number.

Madame Anna Frances Briggs entertained the gathering with a delightful recital of her wanderings in the studios of Holland and her word pictures of the quaint surroundings of the people of that country were enjoyed to a marked degree.

Miss Louise Grossett rendered a number of songs, accompanied by Edward Strickland, the composer, and her superb vocal talents were a source of pleasure to her auditors.

Madame Emilia Tojetti entertained with an explanation of harmony of song, music and words, by singing a number of charming ballads that won the hearts of all present. The gifted singer was forced to repeat some of the harmonies and she made clear to all the artistic skill of the composers who brought out the ideas of the writers of the poems set to music.

Miss Genevieve Gleason skillfully rendered some charming compositions and a letter was read from the poet Edmund Clarence Steadman, congratulating Miss Ina D. Coolbrith, a member of the association, on her poetical writings.

At the close of the programme the members spent a pleasant half hour in social chat and tea was served.

Mrs. Laura Young Finney presided at the meeting and was ably assisted by Mrs. Charles J. Newman.

The California Women's Whist League held a reception to all its members last Thursday afternoon, and awarded the prizes won in duplicate whist series just finished. Straight whist was played for a special prize, which was won by Mrs. J. Costello, who carried off all the honors of the series by making the highest score, for which she received the handsome gold bracelet donated by Mrs. E. B. Grace.

The Arts and Crafts Club held its opening cotillon last evening at its home on Central avenue. The evening was pleasantly passed.

BLAMES CUPID

Martin Noone Hints That Love Turned Him Robber.

Footpad Tells Officers About Jewelry He Intended to Buy.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 1118 Broadway, Nov. 23. After making a confession of guilt to the men who captured him, Martin Noone, son of M. J. Noone, a pioneer and highly respected citizen of West Oakland, was formally accused to-day on two charges of highway robbery as the result of his midnight expedition early this morning and subsequent capture.

Harry Orbell and Frank H. Ferguson, the men who were held up by Noone, each swore to a complaint against the young man. Had they only known last night why the detectives discovered to-day that Noone's pistol was unloaded Orbell and Ferguson declare there would have been no yielding to their assailant's demands.

Noone's weapon was found this morning in the rear of the lot at 1133 Filbert street, where he threw the revolver after being brought to bay by Deputy Sheriff A. B. Moffatt. In Noone's possession when he was arrested was found $2.00, the exact amount which was taken from Ferguson and Orbell. The victims figured closely and told the police this morning that Orbell parted with $1.10 and Ferguson with $1.50.

That Noone tried to involve a woman's name in the robbery is the statement of Deputy Sheriff Moffatt. The prisoner hinted that he had committed the crime to get money with which to purchase a new suit for a girl. A year or so ago Miss Julia Brasher, residing at 1317 Fourteenth street, was attacked at Poplar and Fourteenth streets by a man, supposed to be a footpad. Noone appeared on the scene as a gallant rescuer. The pair have been on intimate terms since and Miss Brasher was an almost all-day visitor at the Chief of Police's office to-day. Miss Brasher, however, declares that she has yet to be informed that Noone intended to buy her any jewelry and she puts the suggestion away as absurd.

Though Noone is registered at the City Prison as only 19 years old, the scene was a gallant rescue. The pair have been on intimate terms since and Miss Brasher was an almost all-day visitor at the Chief of Police's office to-day. Miss Brasher, however, declares that she has yet to be informed that Noone intended to buy her any jewelry and she puts the suggestion away as absurd.

GENERAL CUT IN WAGES. Ten Per Cent Reduction Goes Into Effect in South New England Mills.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The first of the numerous reductions in wages announced in the cotton mills of Southern New England and at half a dozen points outside of that territory, was effected in all but one Fall River factory and at a number of outside mills. Although about 32,000 operatives had their pay cut down, no general strike occurred in any mill. To-day's cut averages 10 per cent and places the pay schedules on a basis with those paid previous to the advance of March, 1902.

The reduction affected seventy-eight mills in Fall River, operating nearly 25,000 hands, and about a score of corporations elsewhere in New England, employing about 7000 operatives.

The Fall River Iron Works, operating for many years, will cut down wages next Monday and on that day also nearly all Rhode Island and Connecticut manufacturers will adopt the lower schedule. A cut in New Bedford will go into effect in two weeks.

TWO STRIKERS ARE SHOT. Non-Union Men Resist Attack by Use of Pistols.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Two non-union men who applied for work at the plant of the American Hide and Leather Company, where a strike is in progress, shot and seriously wounded two members of a crowd of strike sympathizers to-day. The men who did the shooting escaped. It is claimed that they were being attacked by the crowd.

Two men, Joseph Polachsky and Anton Ziminski, are suspected by the police of having done the shooting. They formerly belonged to the union and left it to go back in the tannery. They were turned away by the foreman and after they left the place were attacked by a crowd of rioters. The men opened fire and two of their assailants fell to the ground. The rest broke and ran, while the non-union men made their escape.

Zoo Attache Injures Painter. Howard Lombard, a painter, was engaged Sunday afternoon in feeding candy to the Hamadryas, an animal reared at the zoo, when he was struck at the Chutes. John Moody, an attendant of the zoo, escorted the kind-hearted painter from the grounds and an altercation followed, in which Lombard was struck on the head with a stick Moody used for prodding the animals. Lombard was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition and is said to be dangerously injured. Moody was taken into custody yesterday by Detective Mulcahy and will be held at the City Prison until the extent of his victim's injuries can be determined.
