

GOLFERS FEAR LOSS OF LINKS

Space at Presidio Devoted to Drill Grounds by Cavalry

LOVERS OF GAME EXCITED

Army Officials Consider Well Trained Troops of More Service Than Expert Players

The members of the San Francisco Golf Club were thrown into a great state of excitement yesterday afternoon when the rumor reached them that the links at the Presidio were to be turned into a drill ground. This course would put an end to the sport in the immediate vicinity of San Francisco. The rumor originated from the fact that the squadron of the Ninth Cavalry now stationed at the Presidio has been ordered to go into daily drill. The present grounds on the flat are sufficient for drilling a single troop, but when it comes to having the whole squadron in the field they are entirely inadequate.

The new commanding officer, Major John Sigel, Jr., after witnessing the review yesterday saw that the grounds were not ample to fully meet with Uncle Sam's requirements and he at once decided that a much larger field was necessary. He looked about for more available property, the reservation and naturally his eyes fell on the spacious grounds now used by the golfers. They are in the finest condition, high and dry, and there is in the whole country in such proximity to any great city, no grounds of such magnitude or so fully adequate to meet all the present needs of the cavalry for a drilling ground.

When the San Francisco Golf Club was asked permission to be allowed to use that portion of Presidio for its links it was understood from General Graham, the post commander, and later from General MacArthur that they might be called upon at any time to give them up. The club members at the time had probably arrived they begin to feel that their many hundreds of dollars might have been invested in other channels to better advantage.

When they took the grounds seven years ago to convert them into links they were covered with a rough stubble of undergrowth with a mixture of grasses and lupins. This has all been cleared off and now in its place is a closely cropped lawn of purest Kentucky blue grass, over which the cavalry horses will in the near future make no end of golf hazards both desirable and undesirable. The clearing of the ground has cost the club about $900. The house improvements adjacent to the links and outside the post have cost nearly $10,000. Of course the house could be moved away; its arrangement could be so changed as to connect it into a living house. The improvements to the golf links, however, be taken away, so Uncle Sam will necessarily be the winner to the extent of the improvements thereon.

VISITOR FROM DENVER SAYS HE WAS ROBBED

H. Abbott, a Civil Engineer, Drinks With Boy and Young Man Loses His Coin.

H. Abbott, who says he is a civil engineer from Denver and lives at the Grand Hotel, told Policeman Williams about 5 o'clock yesterday morning that he had been knocked down by a young man on Third street, near Howard, and robbed of $70. Williams sent him to the Central Emergency Hospital and notified police headquarters.

Describes Cody and Braig went to the hospital, where Abbott had a wound in his scalp dressed, and interrogated him. He said he had been in the city several days and had been drinking heavily about midnight he met a boy of some 17 years of age and they had several drinks together. The boy introduced him to a young man about 24 years of age and they had more drinks. About half past 2 o'clock, when they were on Third street, near Howard, the young man struck him on the back of the head, knocked him down and relieved him of $70.

Abbott was in such a condition that he could not recollect what saloons he had visited. The detectives learned that he does not live at the Grand Hotel.

DR. PIERCE'S REMEDIES.

A woman worn-out, who never has to lift a hand for herself, who does not know the meaning of the word "worry!" How can it be possible? Bell, of Barabod, Kingston, Ont. "Life was simply misery to me and I did not know which way to turn for relief. Had tried doctors but found they did not help me. My druggist advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—entirely new in its composition. I decided to give it a trial and brought a bottle home. I am happy to say that after the use of one bottle I felt much improved. I decided to take another after that a third bottle. I have good reason to be pleased for I am to-day a well woman, work every day and the world looks bright. I have perfect health, thanks to your medicine. ## CONFERENCE IS FRUITLESS

Executive Committee of Labor Council Is Ready to Make an Advisory Report on Matter

The dispute between the members of the Stablemen's Union and the Carriage Owners' Association seems no nearer settlement than ever and a strike is still imminent. The executive committee of the Labor Council has the matter in hand and will make an advisory report at the meeting of the council to-morrow night. The members of the committee refuse to divulge the nature of the report, but it will have an important bearing on the matter. A conference was held last night between the men and the owners' association, but no action was taken, it being deemed more advisable to await the action of the Labor Council.

An increase of wages ranging from 2 to 3 cents an hour is asked by the machinists in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company. The demand will be probably be granted in some, if not all the shops.

STATE LABOR FEDERATION ADOPTS MANY RESOLUTIONS

Congress to Be Memorialized to Prohibit Unfair Competition by Army and Navy Bands.

FRESNO, Jan. 6.—There was every indication at the State Labor Federation meeting this morning that the differences on political and socialistic issues have been adjusted.

The striking out of the constitutional provision requiring the secretary-treasurer to daily deposit moneys received and demanding weekly deposits was concurred in.

A resolution condemning strike opposition methods in Colorado and protesting against employment of troops in settling labor differences was temporarily deferred.

A resolution opposing the system whereby raw material is shipped from this to foreign countries to be manufactured abroad into goods and returned under the bond system was referred to the incoming executive committee.

A resolution by Mayor Schmitz memorializing Congress and the President to prohibit unfair competition by army and navy bands was adopted.

Resolutions to unionize the sugar workers of the State and to indorse the blue label of the cigar-makers were adopted.

A report recommending a bill limiting drug clerks' hours to ten hours and endorsing various boycotts in San Francisco and Los Angeles was favorably acted upon.

A warm debate preceded the motion on the point of making a money donation to the cloakmakers, "hot air" "bulldozing" and "bullyragging" being some of the terms employed.

The following officers were elected at the evening session: President, Harry A. Knox, San Fran-

SAYS AIRSHIP IS A SUCCESS

Inventor of Flying Machine Gives Detailed Account of the First Few Trial Trips

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 6.—The Wright brothers, inventors of the flying machine which has attracted such widespread attention, have prepared the following, which they say is the first correct statement of the two successful trials made by them:

"On the morning of December 17, between 10:30 and noon, four flights were made, two by Orville Wright and two by Wilbur Wright. The starts were all made from a point on the level near our camp in Dare County, North Carolina. The wind at the time of the flights had a velocity of twenty-seven miles an hour. The flight was made directly against the wind. Each time the machine started from the level ground by its own power, with no assistance from gravity or other sources whatever. After a run of about eight inches on the ground it arose from the track, and under the direction of the operator climbed upward on an inclined course for a height of eight or ten feet from the ground was reached, after which the course was kept as near horizontal as the wind gusts and the limited skill of the operator would permit. The first flight was upward with a speed of ten miles an hour over the ground and of thirty to thirty-five miles an hour through the air. The flight was short. The succeeding flights rapidly increased in length, and at the fourth trial a flight of fifty-nine seconds was made, in which the machine flew a little more than a half mile through the air and a distance of more than 852 feet over the ground. All of the experiments have been conducted at our own expense, without assistance from any individual or institution."

Cold Weather in the Salinas Valley.

SALINAS, Jan. 6.—Reports from various portions of the Salinas Valley are to the effect that extreme cold weather is prevalent. In Salinas this morning the thermometers registered 27 degrees above zero and ice more than a quarter of an inch thick had formed during the night. Farmers are becoming anxious and alarmed over the continued dry weather and fear serious results if rain does not soon come.

CRY OF FAMINE UNWARRANTED

People of Fairbanks, Alaska, Make an Unnecessary Call on the Government for Relief

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Reports of great destitution and threatened starvation among the inhabitants of Fairbanks, Alaska, having reached the War Department through a communication of the Mayor of that place, addressed to Senator Nelson, General Funston, commanding the Department of the Columbia, was directed to make an investigation and to take such steps as would conserve the public peace while affording relief. The Mayor specially requested that staple supplies be not given, but sold, to these people from supplies on hand at Fort Gibbons.

While General Funston, stationed at Fort Egbert, Alaska, wired the department that he had received information from Lieutenant Lickard, who was at Fairbanks as late as December 23, that there was no heard of any famine, that there has been a shortage of supplies, occasioned by an early freeze, but that freighting had been going on steadily and that game seemed plentiful.

Under date of the 4th instant General Funston telegraphed the War Department that he had instituted inquiry as to how many rations could be spared, but suggested that able-bodied men who would sit down at Fairbanks and wait Government relief are entitled to little consideration, since within ten days they can reach Dawson, Rampart, Tanana or Eagle, where there are abundant supplies for sale.

He testified that he charged $2000 for attending Mrs. Dunsuir in May and June, 1901. He denied that Mrs. Alexander had suggested to him that Alexander Dunsuir's mind was impaired. Dr. E. R. Sill of Oakland testified to having attended Dunsuir when Dunsuir was suffering from drinking bouts. He said there was never anything wrong with Dunsuir's mind and Mrs. Dunsuir had never suggested there was.

Famous "Lime Kiln" Ranch Is Sold.

GRASS VALLEY, Jan. 6.—The largest real estate transaction in years in this county has just been recorded. The famous "Lime Kiln" Smith ranch has passed into the hands of Charles Mull of Pasadena. The new owner will turn the place into a stock ranch.

PRISON FUNDS GETTING SHORT

Warden Tompkins Informs Directors That It Will Become Necessary to Borrow Money

CONVICTS ARE PAROLED

D. J. Sullivan, Who Forged Name of Police Judge to Bond, Is to Be Given His Freedom

SAN RAFAEL, Jan. 6.—The State Board of Prison Directors met at San Quentin prison this afternoon and was surprised by a report presented by the Warden which showed the funds of the prison to be in a badly depleted condition. The general fund is nearly exhausted and the sale of jute bags will not be sufficient to tide over the difficulty. The expense of the prison has been greater than usual and the amount apportioned to it rapidly diminished. To meet the demands against the prison and pay the contracts awarded for goods during the coming year it will become necessary to borrow money.

The Directors decided to meet with the State Board of Examiners at Sacramento next Friday and ask them to borrow enough money to meet all demands until the meeting of the Legislature.

When the question of towels for the use of the prisoners came up Warden Tompkins said it would be too much of a luxury. The board looked at it differently and gave orders that the price of towels be ascertained and at the next meeting towels will be secured.

The charge by Convict Gardall to the effect that Captain McClure, who was the turkey warden, had received money from him and never gave him credit for the same, was dismissed by the board. Gardall's actions before the board convinced them that he is slightly demented.

D. J. Sullivan of San Francisco, who while acting as bond and warrant clerk forged the name of a Police Judge to a bond and was sentenced to six years imprisonment, was paroled.

Robert Wilson, serving a life sentence from Tulare; John Burk, serving twelve years from Los Angeles, and Walter O'Garraick, serving seven years from Alameda, were also paroled.

The Directors will meet at Folsom next Saturday.

KEVANE IS WILLING TO MEET GRAND JURY

Says It Will Afford Him Pleasure to Testify Concerning the Purchase of Riverside County Bonds.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 6.—Daniel Kevane, formerly secretary of the State Board of Examiners, has written to the foreman of the Grand Jury of Riverside County volunteering to appear before that body and testify concerning the purchase of Riverside County bonds by the State Board of Examiners. Kevane says it will give him pleasure to testify fully touching his knowledge of the transaction in question at such time as the authorities may designate, provided his expenses are paid.

FRESNO, Jan. 6.—No move has been made toward subpoenaing members of the former State Board of Examiners or others interested in the alleged swindle in connection with the sale of courthouse bonds. This matter probably will not be taken up until the investigation of alleged grafting on courthouse contracts has been concluded. J. W. Bowen, representative of the Federal Desk Company, that sold courthouse furniture to the county, was examined to-day and also Supervisors Dunbar, Craven, Shaver and Kimball, who were asked to explain their operations.

YOUNG COUPLE STEAL MARCH ON RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

Two Favorites in San Bernardino Society Quietly Marry at Los Angeles and Then Sail for Oregon.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 6.—Two of San Bernardino's most favored young people have made a match of their own and friends last evening and were united in marriage in Los Angeles. The bride was Miss Frances E. Perdue, a daughter of Mrs. Jeanette Perdue, and the groom is Francis E. Gazzolo, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Gazzolo. The bride's mother recently removed to Fresno and it was presumably for that city that Miss Perdue left yesterday afternoon. Gazzolo accompanied her as far as Los Angeles. She had been the guest of Miss Minnie Gazzolo for several weeks at the Gazzolo residence on C street and her mother was expecting her at her northern home to-day, but the young couple evidently could not bear the thought of separation and chose their own method of preventing it. The wedding took place last evening in the parsonage of the church of New Jerusalem at Los Angeles. The relatives of the young couple received telegrams this morning telling the news and letters are on the way. Gazzolo and his bride left this morning for Astoria, Ore., where they will make their home. The groom, who has been studying medicine, has secured the position of assistant surgeon in one of the Portland hospitals.

Students to Go Into Surveying Camp.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 6.—Edward N. Prouty, assistant professor of railroad engineering, and Conrad Loring, instructor in civil engineering in the University of California, have arrived from Berkeley to make preparations for the establishment of a camp for Berkeley students to study surveying. They spent the entire day yesterday along the coast interviewing ranchers and getting permission to run over their lands. They are desirous of getting all kinds of lands in order to better study the different angles, thus giving the students a chance to apply their learning to practical experience. There will be from one hundred to one hundred and fifty students in camp, which will be opened for the month of May.

Convict Moore Is Sent to Folsom.

SAN RAFAEL, Jan. 6.—Convict Charles Moore, who has been serving a sentence in San Quentin prison for a felony committed in Salinas, was today sentenced by Superior Judge Lennon to four years' imprisonment in Folsom. Moore was taken to Salinas a short time ago as a witness in a case pending there, and on his return was searched. In one of his shoes was found a quantity of opium. He was convicted of smuggling opium into the prison.
