

COMPLIES WITH CIVIL SERVICE

Health Board Restores Several Dismissed Employees to Places in Conformance With Rule

EX-INSPECTORS UNDER FIRE Investigation Is Ordered Into Charges That Drs. Hartley and Green Destroyed Records

The Board of Health met yesterday and evinced its desire to carry out the announced intention of Dr. James W. Ward, president of the board, to comply with the civil service provisions of the charter in all instances where it could be shown that the removals were not made in accordance with these provisions.

Chief Inspecting Physician Hassler filed grave charges against ex-Assistant Sanitary Inspectors Hartley and Green, which were referred to Drs. Stinson and Hughes for immediate investigation.

Edward P. O'Connor was appointed dairy inspector in place of E. C. Smith.

J. T. Durham was appointed food inspector in place of J. V. Clark.

O. S. Mish and J. T. Silveira were appointed milk inspectors.

D. Reardon was appointed food inspector in place of Silveira, transferred to milk inspector.

Dr. Ward stated that the four men had been restored to their positions because the investigation held by the supervisors had disclosed that the civil service rules had been disregarded and that the board was now prepared to correct any of its transgressions.

The position of district inspector of health by Lawrence Walsh, was abolished and the position of cemetery inspector was created and Walsh was re-appointed thereto.

ACCEPTS RESIGNATION.

The resignations of N. A. Kopp, baker at the City Hospital, and Martin L. Welch, ambulance driver, were accepted and Robert Burke was appointed to the latter vacancy.

Clara B. Lawton's resignation as nurse at the Almshouse was accepted. Miss Lawton was appointed by the new board.

The petition of the nurses at the City Hospital for the retention of Mary F. Strand as head nurse was filed.

The following internes were appointed at the City Hospital: Dr. F. F. Hart, homeopathic school; J. W. Schmitt, eclectic school.

NAMES VISITING STAFF.

The following were appointed on the staff of visiting physicians at the City Hospital: Hahnemann, Medical College—Drs. E.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

MAKE PEACE WITH YOUR STOMACH

You Are Certain to Lose if You Attempt the Use of Force and Violence.

You cannot force your stomach to do work that it is unable and unwilling to do. It has been tried time and again, with always the same result. The stomach is a good and faithful servant, but when pushed beyond the limit it rebels.

Some stomachs will stand much more abuse than others, but every stomach has its limit, and when that limit is reached it is a very dangerous and unwise proceeding to attempt to force it into doing further work.

The sensible and reasonable course is to employ a substitute to carry on the work of digestion and give the stomach an opportunity to recuperate and regain its lost strength.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only perfect substitute to take up and carry on the work of tired, worn-out stomachs. They are natural and easy in their work and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They contain all the essential elements that make up the gastric juice and other digestive fluids, and will digest any food that a strong, healthy stomach will, and do it in the same time and in the same way. They work independently of surrounding conditions, and the fact that the stomach is weak or diseased does not influence them at all in their useful and effective work. They will digest food just as well in a glass jar or bottle as they will in a stomach. You can see that for yourself by putting one of them into a jar with a square meat and some water to enable it to work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets by thus relieving the stomach of its work enable that organ to rest and recuperate and regain its health and strength. The process is perfectly natural and plain. Nature will heal the stomach just as she heals a wound or a broken limb if she is not interfered with and is permitted to do her work in her own way. All interference is prevented by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents a box, and if you are afflicted with dyspepsia one box will make you feel fifty times better. You will forget you have a stomach and rejoice in the forgetfulness. No druggist would be so short-sighted as to try to get along without Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are so popular and are so well known for the good they have done and the happiness they have caused that any druggist caught without them would lose the confidence of his customers and be regarded as below the standard. His business would suffer as a result and his patrons would go to other stores and buy their drugs there, as well as their Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

HEALTH BOARD MEMBERS ANSWER MORE QUESTIONS

Say One Man Can Fulfill Duties of Five Who Were Dismissed and That Service Demanded the Slaughter of Politicians

The joint committee of the Supervisors on Health and Finance met again last night to continue the investigation into the alleged violations of the civil service law by the Board of Health. The inquiry developed the fact that none of the members so far examined knew anything regarding either the old or new appointees until the board organized.

As no one wished to ask further questions of Dr. Ward he was excused and Dr. Hughes called to the stand.

In answer to questions by Supervisor D'Ancona, Dr. Hughes said the deputy health officer was to fill the positions of statistician, bookkeeper, stenographer and secretary. He knew nothing of any provisions of the charter requiring appointees to be selected from the civil service list and had never conferred with his colleague.

Abraham Ruef was present and when a pertinent question was asked regarding the difference between the duties of the district health officer and the sanitary inspectors, advised that no answer be given.

TAKES RUEF'S ADVICE.

Hughes promptly took the advice and said he was unable to answer. When pressed strongly, he said that were he to find that the duties of the sanitary inspector and district health officer were identical he would be willing to rescind the action taken at the last meeting of the Board of Health. He thought, however, that the range of duties of the health officer would be wider than that of sanitary inspector.

Questioned by Mr. Brandenstein, the witness admitted that he knew of no reason why the positions were abolished.

"Where did you first see the resolutions?" Brandenstein asked.

"In the Mayor's office," was the reply.

"Who gave them to you?"

The witness did not care to answer, but Mr. Ruef informed him that there was no objection to an answer, and he replied that Mr. Ruef had given him them. The answer was received with an outburst of laughter, in which even Mr. Ruef joined.

Further, Dr. Hughes stated that he knew nothing of the men deposed or to be appointed and had made no study of the needs of the department, but considered that the changes would be for the best.

VOTES FOR STRANGERS.

"On being asked why he voted for Mr. Levy to replace Mr. Emery he said it was for the best interests of the department."

"Do you know any of the men for whom you voted?" was asked.

"No," was the reply.

"Don't you think as a point of prudence you should have informed yourself?"

"Well, all doctors look alike to me," was the smiling retort.

The witness then tacitly admitted that he had voted blindly for the men and had never even looked at the charter. He had heard of such a thing as civil service, but had never read the codes of the commission. His first introduction to his appointees was when he read the resolution which he afterward introduced.

"Why is it that the same sanitary inspection which under civil service cost $6000 will now cost $10,200; is that so?"

R. Bryant, C. B. Potter, Joseph T. Brooks, James W. Ward, H. R. Arndt, D. G. Bennett, T. G. McConkey, Guy Manning, P. Rice and R. F. Tomlinson.

California Medical College—Drs. J. B. Mitchell, J. H. Mason, G. G. Gere, E. Mercer, W. A. Harvey, C. Clark, H. W. Hunsaker and A. B. Nelson.

The petition of the Funeral Directors' Association that Clerk Frank J. Stanton be reinstated was filed.

DR. B. F. McELROY RESIGNS.

Resident Physician of City and County Hospital Resigns Indignity.

Dr. B. F. McElroy, resident physician of the City and County Hospital, resigned his position yesterday. The resignation was filed with the Board of Health. McElroy resigns because his position is now distasteful to him owing to the appointment of a warden, John N. Eibert, who exceeds McElroy in authority.

Dr. McElroy's letter of resignation follows: "SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14, 1904.

"To the Honorable the Board of Health of the city and county of San Francisco—Gentlemen: I hereby resign the office of resident physician of the City and County Hospital, to take effect January 15, 1904.

"Having a little regard for my own professional reputation and feeling some resentment against what I believe to be an indignity to the medical profession, I can see no other course.

"The present organization of the City and County Hospital places the chief medical officer in a subservient and undignified position and under the domination of a man unfitted to appreciate the impulses of medical men.

"I hope that your honorable body will be as devoted and as successful in caring for the unfortunate sick as your predecessors, under whom I had the pleasure and the honor to serve for the last two years. Respectfully,

"B. F. McELROY, Resident Physician."

McElroy's position was abolished by the board, to take effect January 31 next.

LAYS DOWN THE RULES.

Civil Service Commission Notifies Board to Reinstates Employees.

The Civil Service Commission met yesterday morning and ordered a communication sent to the Health Board calling attention to the violation of its rules in dismissing certain food inspectors who were originally appointed previous to others who were retained.

The commission informed the board that the places of two milk inspectors must be filled by food inspectors. The Health Board met also and carried out the decree of the Civil Service Commission regarding the places mentioned before receiving the latter's communication.

The commission also inclosed copies

HOUSE UPHOLDS CIVIL SERVICE

Refuses to Sustain Action Rejecting Appropriations for Pay of Federal Commission

PASSES LEGISLATIVE BILL

Amendment Increasing the Pay of New Mexico and Arizona Officials Is Voted Down

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The House to-day passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, carrying an aggregate of $29,711,700, and then adjourned until Monday. This is the second big supply measure to pass the House.

The House to-day, by a vote of 172 to 88, refused to sustain the action of the committee of the whole, which yesterday adopted an amendment striking out the paragraph providing for the salaries and expenses of the Civil Service Commission, thus restoring the item to the bill. An amendment adopted in committee increasing the salaries of Territorial officers in New Mexico and Arizona was voted down, 96 to 71; and one reducing the salary of the director of the census was lost, 101 to 52.

An amendment to the bill was adopted restricting the use of Government horses and carriages to the President, his secretary and Cabinet officers.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

When the legislative, executive and judicial bill was reported by the committee to the House, separate votes were demanded on amendments which struck out provisions for the expenses of the Civil Service Commission and increasing the salary of the Governors and secretaries of New Mexico and Arizona, and reducing the salary of the director of the census. All other amendments were adopted without division. Delegates Rodey of New Mexico and Wilson of Arizona made appeals for the increase of salaries for the Territorial officials, while Hemenway said that the committee had brought in a bill free from increases and he hoped none would be made.

CITIZENS' ALLIANCE OF SAN FRANCISCO Room 217 Crossley Building Corner Mission and New Montgomery Streets OFFICE HOURS—9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Beauty is Within Your Reach BEAUTY depends so much upon what you do that it is practically within reach of every woman. In her really great series of papers, "The Fountain of Youth," Doctor Grace Peckham Murray shows plainly how beauty is the result of a woman's care of herself. She tells you just what is to be done to the hair, teeth, eyes, complexion and hands to make even a plain woman attractive. All of her suggestions are healthful and sensible. They not only make a woman look better, but they make her feel better. They show that health and attractiveness go together. They analyze a woman's charm and tell her how to obtain it. No such remarkable series of papers has ever been published. No woman can afford to ignore them. Every woman who wants to be attractive should get The Delineator and read these papers. MRS. OSBORN has become the smartest dressmaker of the best dressed set in the world. She is no mere dressmaker—she is a creator of styles. She knows how to tell what she knows, and she tells it in The Delineator. What she writes is in addition to seventy new designs by The Delineator's own staff. She tells this month, as it has never been told before, the real secret of the new skirt, just how long and how full it should be, and how it should hang. She also tells about the famous "trotter" skirt. The True Love of Music is so intense that it follows the great songsters into their intimate, daily home lives. The second of the prima donna series treats of CALVE, who of the world's great singers probably has the most interesting personality. No woman who knows of CALVE can fail to be interested in this story of her life. "Just get The Delineator" and see how many things there are in it which help to make a woman's entire life worth while. You will then know why it is the most necessary magazine for women. Of your newsdealer or any Butterick agent, or of the publishers, at 15 cents a copy; $1.00 a year. THE BUTTERICK PUBLISHING COMPANY,