Annals of Democracy. The prompt declaration of war on the part of Tarpey when Gavin McNab was in beautiful pose as the Angel of Peace, created surprise.

A conference between McNab and Tarpey took place at 3 o'clock to-day and each leader seemed inclined to make concessions for the sake of peace and harmony in the party. What happened in the Hearst camp to negotiations and what Tarpey is to do McNab that Jeter would be put forward to oppose Gould is not clearly explained.

Programme of College Girls' Convention in Session at Capitoia Is Announced

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SANTA CRUZ, May 15.—An interesting programme for the ensuing week has been prepared by the college girls who are holding a convention at Capitoia Monday.

May Page of the University of California is to conduct a class in the Acts and Epistles. At 11 a. m. a missionary conference will be conducted by Elizabeth Cole, state secretary of Illinois.

The foyer of the hotel is used as a missionary exhibit room, but the exhibits are only partially in place.

Miss Hope Jordan of Berkeley is in charge of the bookroom.

Among the delegates are several Indians from an Indian school in Washington.

The young ladies entered upon their duties of taking charge of the hotel to-day and college students to the number of about thirty were the waitresses at all the meals served.

The morning service was impressive and it was an intellectual congregation that filled nearly every chair in the ballroom where the public services are held.

Miss Bertha Conde of New York City, senior secretary of the American committee presiding at the service was opened with "Holy, Holy, Holy," sung by 200 girls.

Dr. Taylor presided again this evening.

He spoke of the thirst and longing in every heart that can be filled only by Jesus Christ to the utmost.

Miss Frenier of Berkeley gave a beautiful solo and Mrs. Worden led the music.

James O'Brien was one of the committee appointed to wait on Jeter. It is inferred that the "Horses and Carriage" influenced Tarpey to accept the gage of battle on the floor of the convention.

The contest presents peculiar features. For instance Jasper McDonald, an ardent supporter of Hearst for President, is in the fight, as is Gould. The sudden development of hostilities has played smash with the carefully prepared "delegates' slates."

CLUBS READY FOR CONVENTION

fare of the party and the State. In the evening the convention will close with another programme of rapid-fire speeches, the orators and their subjects being as follows:

L. C. Gates, Los Angeles—"The Republican Party and the Wage Earner."

George Knight, San Francisco—"The Coming Campaign."

J. O. Hayes, San Jose—"Mission of League of Southern States."

Abraham Ruef, San Francisco—"The Fight to Be Made."

J. C. Pierson, Oakland—"Republican Leadership."

John F. Davis, Amador—"Principles in Republican Party Organization."

W. M. McKinley, Los Angeles—"Men in Republican Party Organization."

Judge A. G. Burnett, Santa Rosa—"The Trust."

WISH TO ASSESS CLUBS. An important matter of business to come up for consideration during the club convention will be the report of the committee appointed at the San Jose convention two years ago to draft a plan for putting the league on a financial basis.

Hitherto the local clubs throughout the State have contributed nothing toward the expenses of the State League. These have been borne chiefly by the officers. It is understood that the committee, of which Senator G. R. Lukens of Alameda is chairman, will report in favor of an assessment to be paid into the league treasury by each of the constituent clubs.

This assessment may be put on a per capita basis or may be a fixed sum for all clubs alike, as the league shall decide when the report is acted upon.

The first meeting of the State League of Stockton was held on the ground during the next week. It was headed by the president of the club, J. H. Russell, and Railroad Commissioner Orin S. Henderson.

Henderson is one of the prominent candidates for the presidency of the league during the next two years. The forty Stockton delegates are working enthusiastically for him. Ferdinand K. Rule of Los Angeles is backed by the delegates from that city for the same office.

Thomas Ricker of Berkeley is also in the running and Senator M. L. Ward of San Diego is likely to make a strong fight. Ward is solid with the working Republicans in every section of the State.

Executive committee of the league, Lieutenant Governor Aiden Anderson, consents to the use of his name for reelection it will not be easy to beat him, but Anderson's first words on arrival here were "I will not be candidate for re-election."

Finally Senator G. R. Lukens of Alameda is said to be conducting a still hunt for the league presidency.

Los Angeles, Stockton and Fresno are all seeking the next convention, but no active canvassing is being done yet, and probably this question will not be settled until after the election of the president.

THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE. The efficient committees of Sacramento Republicans, in preparation for both the league convention and the State Republican Convention immediately following, are thus composed:

Executive committee—Aiden Anderson, W. S. Melick, Albert Elkus, W. H. Govan, R. M. Richardson, W. B. Thorpe and C. W. Hauch.

FACTS FOR MEN WHO GET THEIR CLOTHES MADE TO ORDER

We said last week: "In ten years we have grown from a small tailoring shop to the biggest outfitting store west of Chicago."

We further stated: "There is good reason for this growth. We have always backed up our statements with the proper merchandise."

That's it exactly. Our goods are worth every cent of the price we ask. And as a rule the prices are one-third less than are asked by other stores.

We don't tell you that our $10.00 or $13.50 suits will look as well and last as long as the $100 garments of very exclusive tailors. They are not as good as our $20 suits, but they are worth the price we ask for them.

Our statements are facts, made in good faith, and we want them believed, because they are true.

You can always get your money's worth here and you can have your money back if you are not satisfied.

We make suits to order from $10 to $35, and guarantee every garment. This is a safe store for you and it always will be, because we do just as we say.

All clothes made by us will be repaired, sponged and pressed free of charge. This privilege extends until the day you lay the clothes aside after having done their full duty.

Suits to Order $10 up to $35

Out-of-town customers can secure satisfactory fit by our self-measuring system.
