DR. PIERCE'S REMEDIES.

"I lost courage and thought I would never regain my health."

"Three years of delicate health trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines without benefit might well sap the courage of any woman."

And yet Mrs. Bryant proved that the question of the cure of womanly disease is only a question of using the right remedy. A few doses of "Favorite Prescription" restored her courage and revived her hope, because she could see "a decided change from the first." Three months' use of the medicine restored her to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Sarah Bryant, President of Memphis Social Science Club, residing at 271 Atkinson Ave., Memphis, Tenn., writes: "I suffered with delicate health for three years, trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines until I lost courage and thought I would never regain my health; but a few doses of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me change my mind. Could see a decided change from the first, so I kept on taking it for three months faithfully and am now in perfect health."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DENEEN BREAKS DEADLOCK AND WINS NOMINATION

Long and Tedious Tie-Up in Illinois Republican State Convention Ended by Combination Which Forces Choice for Governor, and Result Is Accepted With Enthusiasm

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—By making a combination with Charles S. Deneen, L. Y. Sherman, Howland J. Hamlin and John H. Pierce, Governor Yates to-day broke the deadlock in the Republican State Convention and brought about the nomination of Deneen for Governor.

The combination was the result of a series of conferences which were held last night and this morning and which were participated in by Yates, Deneen, Hamlin, Sherman and Pierce. The agreement had not been consummated when the convention met at 10 o'clock this morning, and the Yates and Deneen people forced a recess until 2 p. m.

The convention then took up the nomination of a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, but the leaders of the new combination were not prepared for this, and a recess was taken until 3 p. m.

The ticket was completed at the night session as follows: Lieutenant Governor, L. I. Sherman, Secretary of State, James A. Rose (incumbent).

State Treasurer, Len Small. State Auditor, Joseph S. McCullough (incumbent).

Attorney General, W. H. Stead. University Trustees, Mrs. Mary T. Bussey, Charles Davidson and W. L. Abbott.

The ticket went through according to the state agreed upon at the executive mansion conference, except in the case of B. M. Chipperfield, whom W. H. Stead defeated for Attorney General.

At 11:40 o'clock the convention adjourned sine die.

GETS DIVORCE AND A FORTUNE

Wife of Coffee Merchant Secures Decree, $12,500 in Cash and Valuable Realty

REED DOES NOT APPEAR

Division of Property Result of Woman's Agreement to Waive Alimony

George W. Reed, a well-known and wealthy coffee merchant, is minus a wife, $12,500 in cash and four valuable pieces of realty on Washington and Jackson streets, between Locust and Spruce, as the result of a suit for a divorce filed against him by Nellie Reed.

Her suit was heard yesterday by Judge Trout and at the close of the hearing the court signed a decree giving her a divorce on the ground of desertion and also affixed his signature to findings containing a stipulation signed by Reed in which he agreed to give Mrs. Reed $12,500 in cash and four pieces of realty provided she would waive all other claims she might have against him for alimony and counsel fees.

Reed was not present in court, though he had answered his wife's suit with a general denial of her charge of desertion. He was represented, however, by Attorney A. Ruef, while Colonel Kowalsky appeared on behalf of the plaintiff.

Mrs. Reed's complaint charged that Reed deserted her in the latter part of 1902. They were married in this city in May, 1894. No children were born to them.

The suit for divorce of Jennie Clyde Harner against W. B. Harner, a railroad official, has brought forth an answer and cross-complaint from her spouse. Harner denies specifically all her charges of cruelty. He says he did not poison her dog, as she claims, but admits that he did say to her that if she showed him one fraction of the attention she showered upon the canine he would be a much happier man.

Harner says he wanted to get rid of the animal, and once suggested to his wife that she send it to a hospital or a sanitarium, agreeing at the same time to pay for its keep there. He says she refused to comply with his wishes and persisted in having the pet walked about her, and allowed it to run about the house and damage the furniture.

Harner also complains of his wife's temper. He says she loses it without provocation and that on more than one occasion she has attacked him. Once he would be a much happier man.

Reed's divorce was filed by Alice C. Lundberg against Charles R. Lundberg for neglect. Flora Mae Thomas against H. P. Thomas for cruelty and Merna M. Nathan against Arthur Nathan for cruelty. The Nathans resided at 519 Eddy street.

MAN AND BEAST FIGHT BATTLE

Police Corporal P. McGee Engages in an Arm to Leg Struggle With Big Coyote

ANIMAL IS ENORMOUS

Fierce Encounter Results in Maiming of Officer and the Death of Animal

The coyote, the coward of beasts, usually more willing to run than fight, fought a desperate battle with a man on hills of Point Reyes a few days ago. As a result Corporal P. McGee of the Central police station bears an ugly scar on one side of his face and head, the marks of the coyote's teeth.

McGee was at Point Reyes on a vacation. With Marin County's Deputy Sheriff, Thomas Irving, and George W. Phelan, McGee started a half-dozen hounds on a coyote hunt. Finally one of the foremost canines caught the scent of the "desert scavenger."

McGee took a short cut to head off the gray-haired beast, and remarked to his friends that he would catch the coyote in his arms. He was standing on the brink of a bluff. Suddenly the hunter felt something strike him on the left side. He clutched the object, lost his balance and fell to the bottom of the cliff, clutching a great shaggy coyote. McGee fought to disentangle himself from the unwelcome affinity. The coyote bit, clawed and fought with great viciousness. The animal cut a gash four inches long in the face and head of the unfortunate hunter and made its escape. McGee, though wounded, seized his rifle and shot the coyote before it got away. The dead animal was pronounced one of the biggest ever seen in Marin County. It was as large as a great St. Bernard and had tusks two and a half inches long. McGee was taken into Point Reyes station and his wounds were dressed. The injured corporal is now the hero of the Central station, being the only man there with the record of a wild beast fighter.

she deliberately lighted and smoked a cigarette in the presence of their guests. He says that she did it in the face of his opposition.

Divorces were granted yesterday to Delina Ivanovich from Stivan Ivanovich for cruelty, Minnie J. Brown from G. Oleott Brown for neglect, Helen C. Dixon from John S. Dixon for neglect, and Bertha E. Hannan from Michael Hannan for cruelty.

Suits for divorce were filed by Alice C. Lundberg against Charles R. Lundberg for neglect, Flora Mae Thomas against H. P. Thomas for cruelty and Merna M. Nathan against Arthur Nathan for cruelty. The Nathans resided at 519 Eddy street.
