Stern Says Woman Who Bought Pistol Made Companion Explain Workings

NEW YORK, June 10.—Interest in the mystery surrounding the death of Caesar Young, the bookmaker, last Saturday, centered to-day in the efforts of the police to find J. Morgan Smith, the brother-in-law of Mrs. Nan Patterson, in order to serve on him a body attachment requiring him to appear before the Grand Jury and tell what he may know of the case.

Stern, the pawnbroker who sold the revolver found in Young's pocket, in his testimony before the Grand Jury said he was positive he could identify the revolver and the man and woman to whom he sold it.

Dealers Show Confidence Despite Unusually Slow and Dull Trade Conditions

Many Complaints Are Being Made That Weather Is Not Favorable to Retailers

NEW YORK, June 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Current trade conditions are without change and collections continue slow as a rule, but there is growing confidence in the future, dealers exhibiting in inclination to prepare for fall and winter on a larger scale.

There is still much complaint that the weather is unfavorable for retail trade. Reports regarding the building trades are almost uniformly favorable, structural work increasing as the season advances.

NEVADA COUNTY MINES CHANGE THEIR OWNERS

The Properties Have Records for Yielding Good Returns and They May Yet Pay Well—Conclusions Relating to Dredging

Two transfers of mining properties in Nevada County are made public. The owners of the Blue Tent mine have bought from Gilbert Hall the Grizzly Hill gravel claim, which lies on the north side of the South Yuba River.

The Grand Vein mine, a ledge property, was worked for a time by a French company, and a tunnel was run 1200 feet and hoisting works were erected, but work was suspended on account of the heavy flow of water.
