BELVEDERE TARS WILL PLAY HOSTS TO FAMILY CLUB

Corinthians to Entertain at Bullshead Breakfast in Paradise Cove on Sunday TUG TO CONVEY GUESTS Sausalito Yachts to Cruise to Napa and Californias to San Mateo Next Week

The fleet of the Corinthian Yacht Club will cruise from Tiburon this evening and will drop anchor in Paradise Cove. The members of the Family Club will be the guests of the Corinthians to-morrow at a bullshead breakfast, for which Port Captain John H. Keefe, caterer in chief and director general of entertainments, has made great preparations. The feast will be followed by a baseball game between the two clubs. The members of the Family Club will be conveyed to Paradise on a special tug, and Corinthian yacht owners are asked to be in readiness to take them ashore in small boats; also to root for the Corinthian baseball players and give the guests a rousing sendoff. The fleet of the San Francisco Yacht Club will cruise to McNears Landing this evening and will drop hooks there for the night. The tide serves well for a run up the bay, as low water is at 2:10 p. m. and high water at 9:33 p. m. at Fort Point. As Independence day falls on a Monday, it is possible to get two and a half days' cruise on July 2, 3 and 4. The San Francisco fleet has a cruise to Napa set down on its programme. The Corinthians will sail up to Army Point on Saturday, July 2, through Montezuma Slough, and to Vallejo on Sunday, returning to Tiburon on the Fourth. For the return trip, a handicap race, similar to those held two or three times each season by the San Francisco Yacht Club, will be sailed. Next Saturday the California Yacht Club will cruise to San Mateo Point, where a clambake will be held on the following day. The return to Oakland Creek will be made on the Fourth. The South Bay Yacht Club will start on an overnight cruise to Redwood City at 5:45 o'clock next Sunday next. A new craft will soon be added to the already large fleet of motor-boats of the San Francisco Yacht Club. The Rogers Engineering Company of this city, which has just completed a handsome motor-boat named Hazel for H. L. Ricks of Eureka, will launch at the foot of Howard street next Thursday a boat that is expected to show great speed. The motor-boat Rogenco is 40 feet long, 5 feet wide and draws 12 1/2 inches of water amidships. She is equipped with a 20-horsepower, four-cylinder Buffalo engine, which is said to be the lightest marine motor built. It drives a 34-inch propeller, with a 26-inch pitch, making 700 revolutions a minute and drawing about 40 inches of water. The hull is planked with a layer of Port Orford cedar, covered with a continuous piece of oiled Cape Ann duck; copper-fastened to this is an outer skin of mahogany. Hazel is 35 feet by 5 feet, the extra length of Rogenco being all in the bow section. Hazel is equipped with a 20-horsepower Buffalo engine, which is expected to make sixteen miles an hour. Hazel will be taken up to Eureka on the deck of a steamer and will race in the Fourth of July regatta there. Boat and engine together do not weigh more than 2500 pounds. On account of her greater length, higher horsepower and knife-like entrance into the water, the motor-boat Rogenco is expected to make twenty miles an hour. After being launched she will be taken over to her moorings at Sausalito, near the house of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

VISITOR FROM SOUTH HAS QUEER EXPERIENCE

Three Strangers Take Horse and Buggy From J. E. Perry on Ground That Animal Has Glanders. J. E. Perry of Los Angeles had an experience last Tuesday which is puzzling the Police Department, the Board of Health and the Humane Society. Mrs. Dutra of San Bruno Park is also particularly interested in the matter, for the incident resulted to her in the loss of a horse, its harness and a buggy. Perry, while on a visit to Mrs. Dutra, borrowed her team for a drive to San Francisco. When he had arrived at Twenty-fourth and Hampshire streets on his return a man stepped from the sidewalk and told him the horse had glanders. The stranger showed a badge and ordered Perry to alight. Meanwhile two other men appeared and expressed horror at the alleged terrible condition of the horse. Perry got down from the buggy and the three strangers drove off with his outfit. He told his hostess of the occurrence as soon as he could reach San Bruno Park and she commenced an investigation. The officers of the Humane Society did not seize a glandered horse Tuesday and the officers of the Health Department and the police have no knowledge of the matter. Perry is now of the opinion that he fell in with a gang of thieves and was victimized.

REMAINS OF MISSING MAN FOUND IN PICKLING VAT

Body Turned Over to Medical School Identified as That of Cincinnati Politician. INDIANAPOLIS, June 24.—The body of George K. SONOMA GIRL, DRIVEN BY HER OWNER, J. R. SPRINGER, THE MARE WHICH IS SHOWING FASTER TRIALS THAN DID LOU DILLON.

EASTERN EXPERTS MAY PLAY HERE

Tennis Enthusiasts Are Discussing Ways and Means of Bringing Out Players. Tennis enthusiasts are discussing the possibility of bringing a trio of the Eastern cracks to this coast for the tournament in September at San Rafael. This has been talked of for several years but nothing has come of it. Those who are making the arrangements claim that Beales Wright, Ward and Clothier are willing to come. These three players rank among the first five in the United States. The fourth annual tournament of the championship of the State will commence on the Hotel Rafael courts, San Rafael, on July 1. The championship match will be played on the afternoon of July 4. The winner of the tournament will play Grant M. Smith, the present champion, in the challenge match. As usual the women's State championship will be held at the same time. The championship match in this event will be played on the morning of July 4. On Sunday a consolation doubles tournament for men beaten in their first match will be played. It was thought a fortnight ago the State championship tournament would be lacking in class, but Percy Murdock, J. D. MacGavin and Harry Wiehe have signified their intention to enter and the event this year will probably be the most interesting of the kind ever held. The Southern Californians as usual will not compete, but all of the best players in this part of the State will be in the competition. In the San Francisco championship tournament Murdock, by playing a clever game, wrested the honors from MacGavin. The latter is practicing hard and is anxious to get a return match with Murdock. These two players are almost sure to meet. Harry Wiehe has always been a prominent player although he has never won championship honors. He played four years for Stanford and has always relied upon to put up a great fight. Wiehe has been practicing at Mill Valley for a month and will be at his best when the tournament starts. One of these three players is almost sure to win the tournament, but there is considerable doubt as to which one will meet Grant Smith on the 4th. The champion has been away for three weeks and has not touched a racket for almost a month. He expects to get into trim in the week remaining and can be counted upon to put up a strong game. Will Allen and George Baker have not decided whether they will play. Either would stand a fair chance to win. Besides these players there are many lesser lights who will be in the competition. Herbert Long, Clarence Griffin, George James and Tracy Crawford have entered and while they are not expected to win, will make the cracks work to beat them. Miss Miriam Edwards of Berkeley is the woman champion of the State. She won the tournament last year, which was the first for the State championship. She will meet the tournament

BOWLERS PREFER PRACTICE GAMES

Ancient Scottish Pastime Gains Recruits Steadily, but They Avoid Matches. Despite the fact that Scottish bowling is becoming more popular each week and the rinks are taxed to their utmost, the two tournaments in progress are not the success that was expected. Especially is this so in the singles, where the number of defaults recorded greatly outnumber the matches played. There are several reasons for this. In the first place the names of all the members of the club were drawn and many of them had no intention of competing. Some of the defaults in the preliminary and first rounds are unquestionably due to this fact. A better plan would be to have an entry list and let those subscribe their names who are desirous of playing. This plan was adopted in the doubles and defaults have been less numerous. The absence of many of the players from town has made it impossible for them to participate. Aside from this, however, the regular players seem to prefer practice games to tournament play. The biggest surprise in months was the defeat of Y. C. Lawson in the first round at the hands of John Reid. Mr. Lawson won the second club championship easily and was thought by his clubmates to be invincible. Mr. Reid has always bowled well, but it was not thought he would dispose of a man as skillful as his opponent. The match was a scientific one and closer than the score indicates. Several new members of the club seem to take naturally to the game, and they should not be overlooked. John T. Dare and David O'Brien are probably improving faster than any others at present. Mr. Dare has been playing less than a year, but occasionally takes a fall out of the cleverest bowlers. Mr. O'Brien has been winning practice matches every Saturday, and the cracks are finding him a hard man to beat. The doubles tournament has been completed down to the semi-finals, and the three remaining matches are being looked forward to with interest. M. L. Crowe and J. M. Duncan will meet J. S. Webster and G. C. Patterson. T. McNaught and James will meet Dr. Hamilton and W. R. Eaton.

CALIFORNIA DEVELOPS ANOTHER SPEED MARVEL OF WHICH MUCH IS EXPECTED.

Pleasanton Track Turns Out Two-Minute Trotter Again This Summer. Only a few short months ago the wisecracks among the trotting horse fanciers throughout the country were saying there would never be another trotter like Lou Dillon. California, the land of promise for the horsemen, has upset all these predictions while the laurel is still fresh on the proud neck of the trotting queen by giving to the world another two-minute trotter in J. R. Springer's Sonoma Girl. A year ago Mr. Springer came down from Idaho, broken in health, and bought the mare, which is by Lynwood W. (2:30)-Maud Fowler, partly as an incentive to keep him out of doors. At the time there were many sick winks, as the trainers at Pleasanton thought he had purchased a goldbrick. How far from the truth this is may be judged by the following extravagant praise accorded the unexpected rival to Lou Dillon by a writer in the Breeder and Sportsman: "That's Sonoma Girl. Ain't she a peach?" "She's a good looking mare, but they tell me she'll stop, do they? What makes them think she'll stop?" "Oh, because she is so pure gaited. Too machine-like; trots too easy to be game." "Oh, wouldn't that jar you? Trots too easy to be game. Well, she's the best I ever heard of, she's scoring with Rajah. She can keep him company pretty easy. I hope he'll stay on his feet, but they are not going any, only 1:13 to the mile. Now they are moving up a little. Oh, that pacer's broke. She's waiting for him; it's a pity he won't stay on his feet; you could see a merry hair. He is up to her again at the three-quarter pole. Green do the same distance in the same time. Ain't she a sweet going thing? She's only jogging. What did you get it?" "Half in 1:03! Say, how fast could she trot a half on this track if she was turned loose?" "Well, I'll tell you. Faster than it was ever trotted by any horse, and George G stepped it in 1:01. She can beat him going anything you can mention. I would like to see her trot the Memphis track next fall when it is in record breaking condition. I believe she would beat any trotter who has ever done, bar Lou Dillon, and she might give the queen a pretty close rub. She has more speed than any horse I have seen in the same time. She can stop a quarter in :29, just 'buggy riding.' Mr. Springer had no idea she was going faster than 31 or 31 1/2 till he looked at his watch. It was no mistake; other watches caught it the same. I saw Lou Dillon trot a quarter here last April a year ago in :29 1/2, when Millard Sanders thought her performance would sell her to Smathers, who was here at the time, and if he could have gone any faster he would have done so. I saw Judge Green do the same distance in the same time (no faster) and both he and his driver were making a supreme effort. I have seen George G beat 2:00, I have seen many pacers stop in :30 and better, but never saw any horse, trotter or pacer, do a quarter in :30 or better since you are going to beat her. She can stop any part of this track from an eighth to a mile out faster than it was ever done by any of the many champion trotters that we saw worked on it. If I owned Sonoma Girl I would not go bushwhacking her up through Oregon, Washington and Idaho, but would take her East, where the kings and queens of the trotting world will be assembled, and measure her speed with theirs and perchance win a crown for the daughter of Lynwood W. and Maud Fowler."

OCCIDENTALS TRY GAELIC FOOTBALL

Team of Picked Association Kickers Will Play Against Pacific Coast Champions. At the Presidio Athletic Grounds to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, there will be a match of Gaelic football between the Parnells and the Occidental Club. The Parnells hold the championship of the Pacific Coast in the Gaelic game, while the team of the Occidental Club is made up of the best players of the California Association Football League. The association players, captained by T. S. Lydon of the Thistle eleven, have been practicing the Gaelic game and expect to make their clever footwork and passing tell to great advantage in the contest. George W. Kelly, president of the Occidental Athletic Club, has presented a handsome loving-cup as a trophy for the winners. The match will be played with the sanction of the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, the California Association Football League and the Gaelic Association. The teams will line up in the following positions:

GAME LAWS ARE UPHOLD

J. Ferrari was arrested yesterday by Officer Kavanaugh of the park police squad for killing quail. Justice of the Peace McKamy of Glenview has fined James Wingfield $25 for killing mountain quail. Deputy Fish Commissioner Ovender has arrested T. B. Hamlin at Latonville, Mendocino County, for having deer meat in his possession. Justice of the Peace Goldner of Jackson, Mendocino County, has fined John Dondars $25 for killing doves during the close season. Justice of the Peace Rose of Sutter Creek has fined George Johnson $50 for killing doves. Justice of the Peace Glover of Los Angeles has fined P. Pero and C. Vecchi $25 each for shooting quail.

PACIFIC ELEVEN ENGAGES MARINES

Team of British Sailor Boys Gathered by Chaplain of Institute to Wield Willow. This afternoon, on the ground at Webster street, Alameda, an eleven of the Pacific Cricket Club will play a match against a team of apprentices from British vessels now in the ports of San Francisco and Oakland. The sailors' team will be made up and captained by the Rev. S. H. Wingfield Digby. The Pacific eleven will be chosen from H. N. Storrs, Dr. O. N. Taylor, J. J. Theobald, W. Balnave, H. C. Casidy, A. W. Wilding, D. B. Jamieson, B. M. Aitman, W. Petherick, E. H. M. Lannowe, H. D. Bowly and F. Lewin. The game will begin at 2:30 p. m. To-morrow will be the first Sunday since the season opened on May 8 on which a pennant match is not on the schedule. The game set down is Married vs. Single. Though it is not unlikely that some of the well known cricketers, who have played regularly for the past nine weeks, will devote the day to some other recreation, teams will be picked up on the ground from the players present. The batting and bowling averages for the present season have been prepared and include all the matches except that of last Sunday. H. B. Richardson, captain of the San Francisco County Club, stands far and away at the head of the batting list with the remarkable average of 357 runs. He has been at the bat five times in pennant matches and has lost his wicket only once. This was on May 8, the opening day of the season, in the match against the Alameda club, when he was caught by McCullough off a ball sent down by Harold Ward. His scores have included 100 not out and 103 not out, and his total of runs is 357. A. Jenkins of Santa Cruz is second with an average of 77 runs. The averages for players who have been at the bat at least three times are shown in the table:

HOLIDAY STAKES WILL INTEREST THE LEASHMEN

San Francisco Coursing Club Will Hold Its First Meeting on Independence Day CHALLENGE IS ISSUED Butte Owners Want to Match Grafton Against Any of the American Greyhounds. The members of the San Francisco Coursing Club will hold their first club event at Ingleside Park on July 4, this stake marking the close of a three-day meeting. On Sunday a feature will be a match, best three in five trials, between J. O'Shea's Doc Burns and Frank Jones' Little Plunger. On the same day a special holiday stake will be decided at Union Coursing Park. The draw will be held on July 3 at the park. Two stakes will be run that day, an open reserve and a reserve event. E. H. Mulcaster has sold Golden Light to E. H. Connolly. Knight & Kent of Butte believe they have in Grafton, which has beaten everything about Butte, the fastest greyhound in America. They have issued a challenge for a match at $500. Coast leashmen believe there are a number of greyhounds in California faster than Grafton and that a match would so prove. Grafton is by Spendthrift-Minnanne and was bred by Pascal Poe of Colorado. George Macdougall of Butte has a good young dog in Wild Turkey, which divided the class event last week with Tatieh. It was the former's first appearance and he showed his class by defeating Cloudburst and Quicksand. Oklahoma and Indian Territory coursing men have formed a club and will build an enclosed park at El Reno, Okla. They will apply to the American Coursing Board for a charter. The old-time rivals, Pocatelli, Rector, Palo Alto, and others will meet at Union Coursing Park to-morrow in a champion stake. A new candidate appears among the entries in Tom King, the Los Angeles flyer, by Rock Island King-Irma. He meets Rector in the first round and if he beats him he will be a dangerous factor in the running. The likely winners look to be: Champion stake—Richard Anton, Pocatelli, Rector Palo Alto. Open reserve—Haphazard, Lord Brazen, Orange, Ruby, Actor, Gold Fortune, Aggie W., Moseley, Silver Cloud, General Dewet, The Referee, Remedy, Leache, Liberator, Red Pepper, Acropolis, False Alarm, Texas Jill, Ragged Actor, Merry Go Round, High Born, Gambit, Sea Breeze, Princess, Boy, Nancy Free, Mosa, Mickey, Quita, Baby Aurora, Rose of Gold, Mickey Free, Rooker Arm, Lily Wright, Rapid Water, Tealich.
