Harbor Board Orders Signers of Potato Compact to Cease Illegal Acts

WILL REVOKE PERMITS FORGETS HIS DANGER

Formal Charges Are Set for Hearing Wednesday—Santa Fe Obtains Site for Slip

Two important matters were considered by the Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday. One was the petition of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company for permission to move its ferry slip from the foot of Fourth street to the northeast corner of China basin; the other was the effort of small dealers to produce, to put an end to the operations on the city wharves of what is known as the "potato combine." In the first instance the railroad company won its point; in the second victory was with the small dealers.

NOTIFIED TO RESIGN. On investigation the board found the complaint well founded, and notified all the parties to the agreement that unless they forthwith filed with the board their resignations, the combine their permits to sell produce on the wharves would be revoked. The board also fixed the unit of sale at ten sacks of potatoes and five sacks of onions.

This action resulted in immediate activity in the combine. At once the small dealers, D. E. Allison & Co., the American Produce Company, A. Friant & Co.; Lercari, Pera & Co.; Macpherson & Cochrane, Minaker & Wellbanks, the Sacramento River Co-operators, L. Winters & Co., and the late J. W. Wood, Curtis & Co. and Wolf & Sons immediately resigned from the combine.

But others were more anxious that the combine should remain in power. Among these were H. Bloom, the English-Wallace Company, Giovannetti & Son; Hunt, Hatch & Co.; Jonas, Erlanger, Davis Co.; Marshall, Teggart & Co.; G. B. Olesse & Co.; Schultz, Hanes & Co.; Simon & Garbin, and Webster & Dunbar. They called Attorney Reinstein and yesterday he requested that the combine be allowed to pursue its course, saying that a change in the sale unit of potatoes and onions would result in great confusion.

He asked that the board at least agree to a test case; that it revoke the permit of one of the dealers, and that while the legality of such action was being tested, the other members of the combine be permitted to continue business under the old sale unit. Attorney Wise protested against such action, but his protest was unnecessary.

Charmian Kirtland, who presided before the board next Wednesday at 2 o'clock and show cause why their permits should not be revoked. If they do not resign from the combine immediately their right to sell produce on the wharves will terminate at the time set.

PETITION IS GRANTED. This controversy disposed of, the question of the petition of the Santa Fe was taken up. Captain A. H. Payson, vice president of the railroad company, said that up to date the corporation had expended $11,500 in order to construct a firm slip at the foot of Fourth street, but without success. He asked permission to construct a slip at the northeast corner of China Basin and the right to use the material again in the Fourth-street slip. His request was granted and bids for the reconstruction of the slip at the new location will be advertised for without delay.

Regarding the story that has been circulated that the Santa Fe might abandon the entire China Basin district, Captain Payson, after the adjournment of the meeting of the board, said:

"There is no truth in this rumor. We have spent $1,500,000 in filling in the basin and it is now sound and will meet our purpose admirably. If we had any intention of abandoning it we certainly would not petition the Harbor Board for permission to remove our freight slip from another location to the northeast corner of the basin."

SUPERINTENDENTS ARE HOLDING A CONFERENCE

Arranging for Handling of Westbound Traffic During the Knights Templar Conclave.

The various division superintendents of the Southern Pacific Company have been summoned to this city by General Manager Markham for a conference with himself and Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operations of the Harriman lines. The principal subject to be discussed is the handling of the overland traffic during the coming Knights Templar conclave in this city. B. A. Worthington, assistant director of maintenance and operations of the Harriman lines, left New Orleans on Sunday for this city and is expected to arrive here to-morrow night. In anticipation of heavy travel during the conclave the Southern Pacific Company has started the repair of all its locomotives, a large number of which are to be used in hauling special trains westward from Ogden.

FAILS TO DELIVER SHOES.—M. L. Hunt, a colored shoe dealer at 304 Howard street, obtained a warrant from Police Judge Conlan yesterday for the arrest of "Jack" O'Connor on a charge of felonious embezzlement. He alleged that he gave O'Connor a parcel containing fifty pairs of shoes valued at $150 to deliver to a storekeeper on Broadway. The dealer gave him 50 cents for his trouble. O'Connor failed to deliver the parcel and Hunt thinks the dealer sold the shoes to some second-hand dealer.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT IN SHAFT

Crocker Building Engineer Is Killed by Descending Elevator Counterweight

FORGETS HIS DANGER GIVES WORD TO GO AHEAD AND NEXT INSTANT NECK IS BROKEN AND SKULL FRACTURED

Through apparent forgetfulness of threatening danger, Frank Pope of 806 Polk street, a night engineer in the Crocker building, was crushed by a descending counterweight in the center elevator shaft, at 7:45 last night. Pope died before his body could be liberated from beneath the weight.

Just prior to the accident Pope was cleaning and oiling the center shaft. He stood on the iron crossbeam between the second and third floors. He had finished the part of the shaft within his reach and signaled J. J. Dwyer, the operator of the middle elevator, to take him a little higher. As Pope was about to step to the top of the car, a bell from the eighth floor rang and Dwyer told Pope to wait. Pope stepped back upon the crossbeam and Dwyer asked him if he was "all right" and Pope answered "all clear." After the operator received this answer the car shot upward and the counterweight started to descend.

As the elevator neared the eighth floor, Dwyer felt a sudden jar, the car bounded slightly and stopped. He opened the elevator door on the eighth floor and crawled out to the landing down the stairs to the second floor he saw Pope's body beneath the counterweight of the elevator. In response to Dwyer's cries the night-watcherman, Walter W. Meade, responded with the assistance of Special Policeman Kelly, after some difficulty they succeeded in extricating the body of the unfortunate man. An ambulance from the Central Emergency Hospital answered to their call, but the man was long past the help of a surgeon. A hasty examination showed that the weight had struck Pope across the back of the neck and in the base of the skull, while he was in a stooping position on the crossbeam, and apparently oblivious of the swift-moving weight above him. Before the man could utter the faintest cry the heavy weight had crushed him down on the beam, fracturing his skull and breaking his neck.

Pope was married and had been employed in the Crocker building for several months. He was a steady man and a member of the Engineers' Union No. 64. Before coming to the scene of his death he had been employed as engineer at the Lurline Baths on Bush street. The body was sent to the morgue.

YOSEMITE VALLEY.

2. Hotel bills and meals going and coming.

3. A ride through two groves of giant sequoia. These are the famous California big trees.

4. Staging through the Merced Canyon past McLean's Cliff and the beautiful Cascade Falls. This is one of the grandest rides in California.

5. Three days' board and tent at Camp Curry or Camp Yosemite in the Valley. These camps are well known for their excellent services.

6. Staging in the Yosemite National Park around the "Double Loop," past Point O'My, Gentry's, Tamarack Flat and Crane Flat, giving a complete and wonderful change of scenery on the return from the Valley to Hazel Green.

7. The privilege of a longer stay at the camps or hotel in the Valley, if desired upon payment of their usual rates for the extra time.

FOR FURTHER DETAILS CALL ON THE SANTA FE, AT 641 MARKET STREET.

Mary Lake's Will Filed.

The will of Mary Lake, the San Francisco missionary, who died on July 15 at Montclair, N. J., was filed for probate yesterday by Frederick B. Lake, her brother, who was named in the will as executor. She leaves $1000 to Helen Lake Hunter, $1000 to Annie Lake Townsend and the residue of a $5000 estate to Frederick B. Lake. To the latter's son is bequeathed a picture of his father.

DOCTOR'S WIFE HATES RIVALS

Accusations Against Medical Man Cause Him to Ask Court for Divorce

IS JEALOUS OF NURSES WIFE SAYS SHE HAD TAKEN POISON—MRS. DE ARCE GETS A DECREE AND ALIMONY

Dr. R. A. Buchanan, connected with the medical staff of the St. Helena Sanitarium and assistant at the San Francisco branch of the California Medical Missionary and Benevolent Society, has decided that his wife's frequent charges of infidelity are sufficiently cruel to warrant him in applying for a legal separation. In only one case, according to the complaint, filed yesterday, did she specify the person with whom he was supposed to have been guilty of improper conduct—Florence Morrison—but she not only asserted that women had been so associated with him, but declared that he had made a house of ill repute out of the institution employing him and had violated his marriage vows with several of the nurses there engaged.

On one occasion, says the doctor, his wife came into a room full of persons and declared that she had taken poison and was about to die. The statement was false. They were married at Battle Creek, Mich., March 5, 1889, and her jealousy first manifested itself a few weeks later. In the city there children are the issue of their union and the husband asks for their custody.

Other suits for divorce were filed yesterday by Clementine Kranz against John Kranz on the ground of desertion and neglect; Elizabeth John against William John, desertion and neglect; Frederick Ingle against Emily Ingle, desertion; Edmund P. Morrissey against Edward J. Morrissey, neglect and desertion.

Judge Kerrigan granted a divorce to Jessie Ponton de Arce from Stanley de Arce, a salesman employed by Sussman, Wormser & Co., on the ground of cruelty, the cruelty consisting in improper correspondence with other women and his possession of photographs of the objectionable females. Some of the photos were exhibited in court, and one of them was a likeness of a woman who posed before the camera in a costume little short of "the altogether." According to a stipulation filed the court awarded the wife $30 a month alimony.

Judge Kerrigan also granted a divorce to Erminia Daneri from Andrew Daneri on the ground of neglect.

Mellon Says He Was Robbed.

A man giving the name of J. S. Mellon and saying he was a member of the choir of Christ Church at Los Angeles presented himself at the Emergency Hospital yesterday for treatment for several contusions of the head. From his appearance it was evident that he required the assistance of a doctor. But for his broad English features, he might have passed for a native of Africa, so discolored were his features. In explanation of the injuries he declared he had met a "friend" and after "tipping glasses at a tavern" in the neighborhood of Clay and Kearny streets the "friend" had escorted him to Portsmouth Square, where he assaulted Mellon and relieved him of his last remittance from Canada. This amounted to $15. His "friend" had then deserted him. Mellon could not give the name of his "friend."

Lecture by Expert Photographer.

"The Application of Artistic Principles to Photography" was the subject of an interesting and instructive lecture by W. E. Dausonville before the California Camera Club last evening. The clubroom was filled with members and friends, who enjoyed, besides the lecture, the exhibit of E. N. Sewell, consisting entirely of bromide prints, comprising examples of genre, portraiture, marines and landscapes. The next lecture before the club will be on "Exposure" by Gilbert Hassell.

ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLEMENT.—R. K. Davis, vice president of the San Mateo County Dairy Company, 1812 Howard street, obtained a warrant from Police Judge Pritz yesterday for the arrest of John Keefe on a charge of misdemeanor embezzlement. The amount named in the complaint is $14.10 but it is alleged that the total of Keefe's defalcations will reach $118. He was a driver and collector for the company.

NATION'S CHIEF WILL SEE FAIR

President Roosevelt Prepares to Visit Exposition in Month of October

ELKS HAVE A BIG DAY

President Francis and Exalted Ruler O'Brien Head a Procession in Grounds

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Colonel Clarence R. Edwards of the Insular Department, who has arrived from Washington, announces that President Roosevelt probably will visit the World's Fair in October. Colonel Edwards says that the President is anxious to see the exposition, and the details of the trip will soon be completed.

Following the annual convention at Cincinnati, Elks from all parts of the country are visiting the World's Fair, and to-day was designated as Elks' day. President Francis of the exposition, Exalted Grand Ruler W. J. O'Brien of the Elks and other exposition officials and prominent Elks occupied seats in a wagon drawn by a twenty-man team which headed the grand procession of Elks through the grounds to the Temple of Fraternity, where the exercises of the day were held. Addresses were delivered by President Francis and Grand Exalted Ruler O'Brien.

The remarkably cool weather that has prevailed during the past week has done much to dispel the popular belief that St. Louis constantly sizzles throughout the summer, and from all parts of the country visitors are pouring in to enjoy the exposition during the period of lowered temperature.

The installation of the Russian exhibits in the Varied Industry and Liberal Arts and Art palaces will begin to-morrow. A telegram has been received by Louper Chech, in charge of the Russian exhibits, to the effect that Benkowitz Gedberg and his assistants, who have arrived in America, will reach the exposition to-morrow and begin the work of installation.

WALKS SIX THOUSAND MILES TO ATTEND FAIR

British Subject Competes for a Prize of $15,000 and Finds He Has Been Deceived.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Footsore, travel-stained and weary, Renaldo Walco, a British subject from San Jose, Costa Rica, has reached the World's Fair after a walk of 6000 miles only to find that he had been deceived by a mythical prize of $15,000, which he had heard had been offered by the exposition company to the person who walked the longest distance to attend the World's Fair.
