

MASSACRE OF HEBREWS IN GERMANY

Horrible Crimes of Russian Mobs Outdone by the Kaiser's Subjects in the Town of Sasnovitch

FIFTY MURDERED MANY WOUNDED

Bodies Are Dismembered by the Frenzied Assassins and the Fragments Cast to the Dogs in the Streets

Special Dispatch to The Call.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The crusades against the Jews have penetrated to Germany, according to information obtained to-day, which details occurrences in Germany rivaling the deeds of the Jew haters in Russia.

There was a riot at Sasnovitch one week ago to-day, in which fifty Jews were murdered in the streets, the slaughter occurring coincidentally with the celebration of the Jewish New Year. More than 100 Jews were wounded, some of them mortally, and atrocities of the most bloody character were committed by the rioters. This news has been suppressed in Germany.

The riots began at sunrise on Sunday one week ago and continued until the rioters were exhausted. The bodies of the victims were dismembered. The rioters used axes and knives to chop off arms and legs, the severed members being tossed to the dogs in the streets. In one instance the arm of a sexton of a synagogue was twisted from his body by his assailants. Those of the wounded who were carried to the hospitals were maltreated on reaching the institutions.

The mob fell upon the Jewish quarter after sunrise, and wherever it encountered a Jew it pursued him and stabbed him in the back or shot him down, if he was making good his escape. The bodies of those who were riddled with bullets were left in the street until a second mob, carrying knives, would come along. With their sharp blades they severed hands, legs and feet.

A young Jewish woman, who was the mother of five children, fought desperately and pleaded, for her children's sake, that her life be spared. She was stabbed fifty-eight times and dismembered.

The massacre lasted all day. In the darkness of night the Jews gathered up the fragments of bodies and buried them, while the wounded were taken to the hospitals.

The first information of this massacre came to-day in a cable dispatch to the Jewish Post from its Berlin correspondent.

FREIGHT CAR CRASHES THROUGH BRICK BUILDING

After Throwing One Occupant Out of Bed and Scaring Others, It Lands in the Cellar.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A switch was left open on the Lackawanna Railroad to-day and a freight car, loaded with oats, plunged through a three-story brick dwelling and landed in the cellar. The contents of several rooms were demolished. A Mr. Snape was hurled out of bed in the front room on the second floor and badly bruised. Without knowing what had occurred, he rushed to his wife and children in adjoining rooms. Mrs. Snape and her two daughters were badly shaken and were hysterical from fright, but a 6-year-old boy slept soundly through it all. Neighbors for blocks around were awakened by the crash.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY MAY BENEFIT BY DEATH

Professor Fiske's Millions Are Expected to Revert to the Ithaca Institution.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Through his friendship for Andrew D. White, former United States Ambassador to Germany, which lasted a lifetime, the millions left by Professor Daniel Willard Fiske, who died at Frankfort-on-the-Main to-day, may revert to Cornell University.

The death of Fiske recalls the strange romance of Mrs. Jennie McGraw-Fiske's will and the bitter litigation which it engendered twenty-five years ago. The McGraw-Fiske will contest became famous in legal history.

Sends Woman to Asylum.

WILLOWS, Sept. 18.—Yesterday Judge Pirkey of the Superior Court committed to the insane asylum at Ukiah Mrs. Catherine Shepard, an aged woman of this place, whose mind has been feeble for some time.

WILL HOLD OUT FOR A MILLION

Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad Said to Have Refused $750,000 for Property

ORIGINAL COST $267,000

Western Pacific Is Trying to Acquire a Right of Way Into the Utah City

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 18.—The Western Pacific Railroad Company has offered the sum of $750,000 for the Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad and the Saltair Beach property, according to the Tribune. The offer was refused by the owners, who have determined to hold out for a million dollars. The railroad and beach pavilion are said to have cost about $267,000 ten years ago.

The property which the Western Pacific seeks to acquire consists chiefly of franchises and thirteen miles of railroad, extending from Salt Lake City to the shore of the Great Salt Lake. The franchises cover a right of way into the city to a connection with the Rio Grande Western tracks and a lease of trackage from the Oregon Short Line's old station to the beach and around the south shore of the lake.

The company recently reincorporated to cover about 200 miles of westerly extensions, which it is thought might prove valuable to the Western Pacific.

DECAPITATE THEIR FATHER

Two Little Texas Girls Prevent Parent Remarrying by Chopping Off His Head

MAKE FULL CONFESSION

Older of Juvenile Murderers Is Thirteen and Her Sister Is Eleven Years

Special Dispatch to The Call.

MARLIN, Tex., Sept. 18.—The mystery surrounding the murder of C. S. Stewart, a farmer living eight miles south of here, was cleared to-day by the confessions of his two little daughters, aged 11 and 13 years, that they committed the crime.

The body of Stewart was found yesterday afternoon, the alarm being given by his daughters. He was lying on a cot on the porch of his residence. The head had been severed from the body with a sharp ax. The girls claimed at first that they heard no noise during the night and that they did not know who killed their father. Their bloody clothing caused suspicion to be pointed at them and as a result of a sharp questioning they confessed.

According to the story of the little girls, their father was about to remarry, their mother being dead. They objected to him bringing a stepmother to their home.

Two days later a letter came from him during his absence. It was from the prospective stepmother and the children destroyed it. Their father learned of this and when he came home Friday night he told his two little girls that he was going to kill them and that they must say their prayers. He did not carry out the threat and when he got to sleep the two girls got the ax and chopped his head off.

The crime has caused great excitement, as the murdered man was prominent in the community in which he lived. The two little girls are pretty and intelligent.

MILLIONAIRE PUBLISHER WILL PROSECUTE GIRL

David C. Cook of Elgin Says Intents of Community Demand Attempt at Blackmail Be Punished.

ELGIN, Ill., Sept. 18.—David C. Cook, the millionaire publisher of religious pamphlets and periodicals, will vigorously prosecute 17-year-old Myrtle Randall, who is detained at the Elgin police station, charged with attempting to extort money through threats to blow up Cook's residence and plant and to injure his person.

"You may state positively that I will prosecute," said Cook to-day. "I have no malice toward the girl. She should not carry into execution her threats against either my life or property. But I am convinced that I subscribe the interests of the community when I insist that the prisoner be tried on the charge and if guilty sentenced to the proper institution."

Since the developments of yesterday numerous prominent citizens have reported cases of attempted extortion to the police. Their names will not be made public, although the authorities make no attempt to deny the fact that other arrests may follow.

Herbert Randall, father of the accused girl, was arrested late last night on a charge of intoxication. The police will hold him in the belief that he is implicated in the acts of his daughter.

STRIKE OF INDIANS AND COWBOYS AT THE FAIR

Rangemen Employed With Cummings' Wild West Show Will Leave for Home.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—Three hundred and fifty Indians, cowboys and men representing the troops of various nations employed with the Cummings Wild West show on the Pike at the World's Fair struck to-day and will leave for their homes.

Last Tuesday the show went into the hands of a receiver, who put Captain Visser, formerly with the "Boer War," another show on the Pike, in charge in place of Cummings. Today when the Indians, cowboys and soldiers drew their pay, they were asked to continue at work under the new management. This they declined to do.
