General MacArthur and his staff were busy yesterday arranging their effects preparatory to the removal to-day to the new division headquarters in the Grant building.

Major J. P. Wisser reported at headquarters for duty yesterday. He will take the position of assistant to the inspector general, the place made vacant by the death of Major Thomas R. Adams, who was killed by a Powell-street car a short time ago.

ENGLERBERG WEEPS OVER FORMER WIFE'S BODY

Gazes Upon Her Corpse at the Morgue and Remarks Upon End of Strenuous Life.

Emil Englerberg, the divorced husband of Annie Englerberg, who was accidentally shot and killed on Thursday evening by Ernest N. Bales, visited the morgue. He was deeply affected when he gazed upon the features of the woman who had been his wife for many years.

"I lived with that woman eleven years," he said as he turned away from the slab on which the body was lying. Then, after a long pause, he added in a sorrowful tone, "That's the end of a strenuous life." Tears stood in his eyes as he left the place. He has taken charge of the body and will defray the funeral expenses.

Detectives T. B. Gibson and Coleman have decided that the statement made by Bales is correct and that the shooting was accidental. Captain Burnett will, however, detain Bales in the city prison until the inquest is held.

Will Play "Bossy" in Hoyt Comedy

CHARMING LITTLE ACTRESS WHO WILL BE SEEN HERE IN "A TEXAS STEER."

The coming to the California Theater on Sunday night of Hoyt's famous satire on American politics, "A Texas Steer," will mark the appearance here of May L. Stockton, a charming little actress who has been gaining much fame on the present tour of the "A Texas Steer" company for her splendid portrayal of "Bossy," the daughter of the bluff, old Texas cattleman, who is elected to Congress against his will and who is forced to go to Washington at the points of the six-shooters of his constituents.

The play will be presented here by the best cast the piece has had in many years, including the well known and sterling actor, Harry B. Emery, as "Brander," and Will H. Bray in his original role of the colored politician, "The Minister to Dahomey."

JILTED WOMAN WANTS MAN IN THE CASE ARRESTED

Miss Lizzie Morrison Swears to Complaint Charging Daniel Reen With Crime of Felony Embezzlement.

Miss Lizzie Morrison, who came from the country recently and is living at 456 Sixth street, got a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Daniel Reen, a section hand on the Southern Pacific, on a charge of felony embezzlement.

Miss Morrison alleges that she and Reen met at her home in the country and became engaged to be married. On August 5, 1903, she gave him $300 to deposit in a bank in this city, as it was arranged that when they got married they would take up their residence here.

After she came here she discovered that Reen had not deposited the $300 in the bank and that a supply of dishes and glassware that she had also sent him to be used in their home had disappeared. The worst discovery she made was the fact that Reen had transferred his affections to another woman. Miss Morrison is about 50 years of age.

SUPERVISORS TAKE NO ACTION ON AMENDMENTS

Decide They Are Powerless to Heed Protest of Merchants' Association Against Their Submission.

The Supervisors' Joint Committee on Judiciary, Public Utilities and Charter Amendments considered yesterday the protest of the Merchants' Association against the submission of charter amendments to the voters on November 8. The protest was made in view of the ambiguous language of the constitution requiring that proposed amendments be submitted at intervals of not less than two years.

Supervisor Braunhart explained that the matter was out of the Supervisors' hands and was to be taken to the Supreme Court as the result of the decision of the Election Commission not to put any of the proposed amendments on the official ballots. The committee therefore agreed to take no action on the protest of the Merchants' Association.

A Free School of Fancy Work.

Strass & Frohman, 105-107 Post street, have engaged the services of an expert teacher of fancy work embroidery and needlework of all description. A class has been inaugurated, where ladies interested may receive instruction free of charge. Lessons will be given Tuesdays and Fridays from 9 a. m. until noon.

Mee Ho's Case Still On.

The fifth continuance for a week of the hearing in the matter of the guardianship of Lee Mee Ho, a 16-year-old Chinese girl, was taken in Judge Coffey's court yesterday. The child still remains in the custody of Carrie G. Davis of the California Woman's Home Mission. A new feature in the controversy was the petition of Jan Kun, her alleged foster father, for the appointment of Kate B. Lake of the Japanese Woman's Home as the girl's guardian. The petition will be amended, as Mrs. Lake declined to accept the office, saying that she was under practically the same control as Miss Davis' mission. The Chinaman will name some other qualified person.

DR. CARL WILSON APOLOGIZES—Assistant Emergency Surgeon Carl Wilson was suspended for one month on a charge of using impertinent language to Chief Surgeon Stephen, who was restored to his position yesterday and will resume his duties to-day. As a condition to his reinstatement the Health Board required Wilson to make a public apology to Stephen. This he graciously did.

Governor Pardee Is Not Satisfied With Manner in Which the Money Is Distributed

OPPOSES PROPOSED TAX Executive Plainly Expresses His Views in Letter Read to Teachers at Woodland

WOODLAND, Oct. 14.—A letter written by Governor Pardee to Dr. J. C. Thompson of Alameda, former president of the Northern California Teachers' Association, in which the distribution of the State school funds to the various counties was discussed at length and unfavorably commented upon by the Governor, was read by Dr. Thompson at the ninth annual session of the association, held here last Thursday. The letter, which contains much that is important to the teachers of the State, is as follows:

SACRAMENTO, October 10, 1904. George C. Thompson, 2159 Clinton avenue, Alameda, Cal.—Dear Sir:—I have found it impracticable, on account of other engagements, to attend the Teachers' Institute at Woodland on the 13th, it has occurred to me that perhaps it might be of some interest to the ladies and gentlemen present at your meeting to hear of some of the reasons in the matter of the distribution of State school money. If so, the following is entirely at your disposal:

California, as you know, levied last year a tax upon all property in the State of a little over 1 cent per hundred dollars, the assessed valuation in order to comply with the law, which provides that there shall be raised, for every school census of $7.

We all feel that the present salaries paid schoolteachers in this State, more especially in the country districts, are not sufficient to induce men and women to take up teaching as a life-work and make a profession of it.

Before discussing this proposal let us see something about the present situation. Last year, for the purpose of raising the salary of the superintendent of Public Instruction, Hon. T. J. Kirk, the State alone raised, for the grammar and primary public schools, over $1,000,000. The total sum of $1,000,000 was divided among the counties as follows:

Alameda, $248; Amador, $388; Butte, $335; Calaveras, $371; Colusa, $342; Contra Costa, $490; Del Norte, $354; Fresno, $294; Humboldt, $492; Glenn, $271; Humboldt, $428; Inyo, $275; Lassen, $211; Lake, $254; Marin, $475; Mariposa, $310; Mendocino, $223; Modoc, $262; Mono, $307; Monterey, $382; Napa, $416; Nevada, $457; Placer, $350; Plumas, $228; Sacramento, $371; San Francisco, $223; San Benito, $275; San Joaquin, $433; San Mateo, $382; Santa Clara, $514; Santa Cruz, $448; Shasta, $328; Sierra, $314; Stanislaus, $390; Solano, $433; Sonoma, $429; Stanislaus, $319; Sutter, $301; Trinity, $308; Tuolumne, $423; Yolo, $381; Yuba, $413.

These counties, as I have said, are the northern counties of this State, and the figures quoted are computed from the report of the Superintendent Kirk's report, but the same inequalities occur in the southern counties. The figures given establish, I think, the fact that the State money is not equitably distributed to the teachers of the State.

It is proposed to increase the State census child per capita from $7 to $9, in order to raise enough State money to pay our teachers larger salaries.

Let us see what this proposed increase would do for the teachers in the counties quoted above. The figures are as follows: Alameda, from $370 to $700; Alameda, $248 to $390; Amador, $388 to $582; Calaveras, $371 to $565; Contra Costa, $490 to $734; Del Norte, $354 to $548; Fresno, $294 to $438; Humboldt, $492 to $736; Glenn, $271 to $415; Humboldt, $428 to $672; Inyo, $275 to $419; Lassen, $211 to $355; Lake, $254 to $398; Mariposa, $310 to $504; Mariposa, $310 to $504; Modoc, $262 to $406; Mono, $307 to $451; Monterey, $382 to $526; Nevada, $457 to $601; Placer, $350 to $494; Plumas, $228 to $372; Sacramento, $371 to $515; San Francisco, $223 to $367; San Benito, $275 to $419; San Joaquin, $433 to $577; San Mateo, $382 to $526; Santa Clara, $514 to $658; Santa Cruz, $448 to $592; Shasta, $328 to $472; Sierra, $314 to $458; Stanislaus, $390 to $534; Solano, $433 to $577; Sonoma, $429 to $573; Stanislaus, $319 to $463; Sutter, $301 to $445; Tehama, $339 to $483; Trinity, $308 to $452; Tuolumne, $423 to $567; Yolo, $381 to $525; Yuba, $413 to $557.

From these figures it will be seen that, under the present system of distribution, with a $7 State census child per capita, the State pays anywhere from $248, as in Alameda, per teacher per annum to $700, as in San Francisco, and still great, against teachers in the counties. But if the State per capita be increased from $7 to $9, the difference between the two extremes, San Francisco and Alameda, will be still greater, viz., the difference between $700, San Francisco, and $367, Alameda, or $333, while the difference, under the present $7 State per capita, as shown above, only $457, San Francisco, and $223, Alameda, or $234, less than one-half the difference.

And, of course, every other county would suffer by comparison in the same percentage. It is true that every teacher would get more money, but some teachers, especially in the city and thickly settled counties, would get a much greater raise in their salaries than others. Therefore, it is apparent that if the proposed increase of $2 per census-child be distributed by the present system, the consequent raise in teachers' salaries will be unequal and inequitable in its effect. For this reason, I think an increase in the State census child per capita of $2, or other sum, should be the first result to be achieved. For, if the present method of distribution of State school money be unjust to the teachers and I think that it is, a better, more equitable and more just method of distribution should be in my judgment, the first thing to be worked out. If that be done I think there will be no complaint anywhere near so much as there is at present.

What do you and your fellow-teachers think? Very truly yours, GEORGE C. PARDEE.

TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS.

WOODLAND, Oct. 14.—The Teachers' Association of Northern California will meet next year at Red Bluff. This was decided to-day during the afternoon session of the association. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: J. D. Sweeney of Red Bluff, president; Professor A. B. Anderson of Colusa, vice president; Miss E. A. Lynch of Red Bluff, incumbent, recording secretary; Glen Lallen of Woodland and G. W. Moore of Colusa, finance committee. Features of the day's session were addresses by Professors Snedden and Rolfe of Stanford University and Professor H. Morse Stephens of the University of California.

BOY IS FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

Murder in Second Degree Is Verdict of Marysville Citizens in the Hankins Case

MERCY IS RECOMMENDED Attorneys for Defense and Prosecution Enliven Proceedings by War of Words

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 14.—Claud F. Hankins, the boy murderer, was convicted of murder in the second degree and recommended to the mercy of the court to-day by a jury. The jury was out eight hours. It is understood that from the time the jury retired at noon until shortly before it announced its readiness to report that eleven of the twelve men wanted a verdict of murder in the first degree.

When the jury announced its verdict Attorney Carlin for the defense created a scene by accusing the foreman of the jury of unjurorlike conduct after the case had been submitted. Only the intervention of Judge McDaniel prevented a lively mixup.

The last few hours of the trial were enlivened by the bickering of the attorneys in the case. While making his closing address to the jury District Attorney Brittan accused Attorneys Carlin and Johnson, counsel for the defendant, of concealing the story told yesterday of the brutal action of Hankins' victim toward the boy before he was killed by the latter. An exciting scene followed. Attorney Carlin demanded the protection of the court from alleged insult and branded the accusation as a lie. When Brittan asked who made up the defense Carlin replied, "God Almighty."

The trial has been remarkable for the efforts of the attorneys on both sides. On account of the extreme youth of the boy defendant the District Attorney was required to make a great show of evidence to convince the jury of his guilt, while the crime was so cold-blooded and the admissions made so incriminating that the defendant's attorneys were required to put forth extra efforts to justify the deed.

Electrician Swims to Sinking Craft With Means to Bring Passengers Ashore.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 14.—A gasoline launch which piles the Russian River between Jenner and Duncans Mills struck a snag and began to sink. Neither of the occupants of the boat, J. J. Fraser and J. A. Beecham, could swim and they were in danger of going to the bottom with the craft when their predicament was discovered by Harry Brown and Robert Jordan, telephone hewners from this city. Jordan swam out to the launch, talking with him the end of a coil of wire. Brown attached the other end to a tree and on this wire the men managed to reach land.

MAN AND WOMAN KILLED BY DITCHING OF TRAIN

Fatal Disaster on Shasta County Short Line Caused by the Recent Rains.

REDDING, Oct. 14.—A logging train on the railroad connecting the lumber camp and mill of the Lamoine Lumber Trading Company left the rails last night several miles west of Lamoine, killing James Wright, the conductor, and Mrs. A. Chapman a passenger. The train left the woods last evening. Mrs. Chapman was given permission to ride, as she desired to reach the outer world. The recent storms had loosened the trackbed and when the outer rails sank into the soft earth the entire train rolled over the grade.

Santa Rosas Ambitious.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 14.—This city is fast assuming metropolitan airs. The latest addition to its equipment is an ambulance and police patrol. This vehicle, which has been provided by the citizens of the town through the energy and ambition of C. C. Dovovan, a local hop merchant, was received by the municipality this morning and at once put into commission. It is a covered vehicle, bearing the name of the city and the service it performs in neat script letters.

Delegates Finish Their Work.

SAN RAFAEL, Oct. 14.—The Supreme Council, U. P. E. O., finished its labors to-day. Resolutions were passed thanking the citizens of the city of San Rafael and the members of the local Portuguese council for their hospitable treatment of the members of the Supreme Council. The Supreme Council will convene at Stockton next year.

OLD DIVORCE RULE TO STAND

Episcopal Deputies Vote to Reject Proposed Change in the Existing Canon

DECISION IS CLOSE Bishops May Yet Act on the Matter, but This Session Will See No Amendments

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The House of Deputies of the Episcopal General Convention, at the close of a four days' debate, to-day rejected an amendment to the divorce canon. The amendment sought to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons by clergymen of the denomination. While the House of Bishops may yet act on the matter, it is certain that no change will be made by the present convention.

The present law of the church, which has been in operation since 1859, allows the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted for infidelity. At several conventions attempts have been made to repeal this law.

A vote was taken to-day by the House of Deputies, sitting as a committee of the whole, on the question of reporting the proposed amendment. The reformers were successful by a vote of 214 to 191, and this vote was regarded as representing the actual strength of the contending forces. The final vote, however, was taken by dioceses and orders, and where a diocese was evenly divided in sentiment its strength was counted in the negative. The vote by dioceses was: Clerical—For the amendment, 30; against, 21; divided, 10. Lay vote—For, 25; against, 24; divided, 6.

Practically the entire strength of the Middle Western States, the stronghold of the High Church party, declared for the proposed reform, but the Pacific States and a number of the Southern States voted against a change of the present canon. The diocese of New York opposed the amendment, while that of Pennsylvania favored it. Vermont, New Hampshire and Western Massachusetts voted for a change, as did the lay delegates from Rhode Island. The clerical deputies from Maine favored the amendment, but the votes of Connecticut and Massachusetts were cast in the negative.

The issue was not a party one, although the whole strength of the High Church forces was given to the reform movement. The president of the House of Deputies, Rev. Dr. W. H. McKim of Washington, voted for the old canon, although the clerical vote of his diocese supported the proposed change. The convention will hold no session to-morrow.
