

CHADWICK ESCAPES FROM FLOODING COACH

The gates and formed a line through which Mrs. Chadwick would have to pass. When the train finally rolled into the station there was a rush from the front end of the crowd that kept the crowd from the tracks. The mob had broken through the police, swarmed over the fence and through the gate upon the tracks.

NO FRIENDLY GREETING.

After the train had been emptied of its passengers United States Marshal Chandler of Ohio stepped aboard her car, where he was introduced to Mrs. Chadwick, who asked that she be taken out as speedily as possible. Precipitated by Emil Chadwick and Fred Swanson, the nurse, the party made its way to the platform and thence through the dense crowd to a carriage waiting.

Although in her own city, no friendly face greeted her at the car, and Mrs. Chadwick stepped into her carriage as if she had been an entire stranger to this community. As soon as she was recognized by the crowd there was a chorus of shouts and whistles and shouts of coarse epithets. Not until the police were called upon could the officers attempt to conduct their prisoner to the carriage in waiting.

MOB CONTINUES JEERING.

During all this time the crowd kept cheering and jeering. The shouts and cries were taken up and passed all along the way to the Federal building, through the busiest part of the city. As the carriages neared the building the crowds broke into the front and through the windows, and the police were forced to drive the car away with clubs while they encircled the carriages from the rear.

Anita La Ferno Tries Suicide.

Anita La Ferno, an actress and a former member of the "Silver Slipper" company, attempted to commit suicide last night by jumping into the bay from the narrow gauge ferry-boat on its 11 o'clock trip from Oakland to this city. Virgil Dimmick, an engineer on the Belt railway, grabbed her as she was about to make the fatal plunge. The cause of her action is supposed to have been occasioned by the unrequited love of a singer of Italian descent, now performing here on the vaudeville stage.

Mining Suit on Trial.

The suit of William Bravin, as assignee of J. J. Schmiedke, deceased, against the Libbre Mining Company of Calaveras County was tried before United States Circuit Judge Hunt and a jury yesterday in the United States Circuit Court. The suit was brought to recover $6000 alleged to be due for labor and material furnished. The case was submitted late in the afternoon.

APPEALS TO THE PUBLIC.

While being brought to this city from New York, Mrs. Chadwick prepared and gave to the press the following statement: Bearing on my side of the story all that has not been told the people of Ohio. It ought to be surprising to find that I have been paid back in Cleveland, and some things that I may have done which may not be considered good business, I do not think any one who knows me will attempt to accuse me of any wrong. I ask the people of Ohio to suspend judgment until I have had a full hearing.

THREE MEN TRAPPED ON THE FIFTH FLOOR OF BUILDING AND ONE DOES NOT ESCAPE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 14.—Two firemen lost their lives, several persons were injured and property valued at $800,000 was destroyed by fire, which started last night. It was not brought under control until this morning. The dead: JACOB P. MILLER, insurance salesman; JOHN FELLOWS, pipeman. Seriously injured: Fred Kircheff, substitute pipeman, burned about face; Tony Wilson, pipeman, burned about legs; Lieutenant J. P. Barrett, back injured.

CHADWICK AND FREDA, WHICH THEY SAW THROUGH THE CARriage DOORS.

IN NO HURRY TO PLEAD.

Mrs. Chadwick was taken at once to the office of Clerk Carleton of the United States court, and there, attended by Freda Swanson, who came in after her, awaited the arrival of her attorney, Kenneth Beckwith. Nothing was said by Beckwith, or Mrs. Chadwick concerning the indictment that she was pleading to the indictments that had just been filed against her. He went to the courtroom of Judge Wing on the sixth floor to arrange the matter, but she answered that she did not care to plead at that time, and preparations were at once made to take her to the jail.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT AT IRVING INSTITUTE.

The Christmas concert at Irving Institute last evening was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever given. The rooms were prettily decorated and filled with a large and appreciative audience. The numbers, many of them very difficult, were excellently rendered and the players received their just due of applause and congratulation. The programme was as follows:

OBSELETE ARTILLERY FOR BRITISH GUNNERS.

London Times Deplores the Delay in Providing Army With Modern Ordnance. LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Times today prints a special article in which complaint is made that there has been irreparable delay in rearming the artillery. The article declares that, with the exception of eighteen batteries of quick-fire guns hurriedly bought in Germany during the Boer war, the British army has no guns that would seriously count. In a modern war Great Britain's artillery would be hopelessly outclassed in range, accuracy and in rapidity of fire and would be knocked to pieces before it could inflict any serious damage upon the enemy.

EDITOR DAVIS PASSES AWAY IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—L. Clarke Davis, editor in chief of the Public Ledger of this city, died at his home here to-day of heart disease. He had reached the age of 70. He is survived by a wife, Rebecca Harding Davis, the author of a daughter and two sons, one of the latter being Richard Harding Davis.

DEATH OF A WAR VETERAN.

NAPA, Dec. 14.—C. M. Michelson, a well known resident of Napa, died Tuesday night after a prolonged illness. He was a native of Norway, having been born in the village of Hov, in the county of Nordland, in the north of Norway, and was one of the crew of the United States man of war Cumberland, which was sunk by the ironclad Merrimack in Hampton Roads.

WIRE CARRIES FLAME.

The fire started in the photographic supply house of the O. H. Peck Company, and quickly spread to the adjoining buildings, including the five-story furniture house of Boutell Brothers, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the Northwest. The losses include the following: O. H. Peck Company, photographic supplies, building and stock, $90,000; Boutell Brothers, furniture, building and stock, $375,000; Bintliff Manufacturing Company, picture frames and art goods, building and stock, $120,000; Mercantile Company, building and stock, $25,000; O. H. Peck Company, losses will bring the total loss up to $820,000. The total insurance is $605,000.

TWO FIREMEN MUST GO BACK TO STOCKADE.

Three of the military prisoners who broke through the stockade at the Rodeo rifle range on Monday were captured yesterday at Ignacio, near San Rafael. They were Richard Wells, Donald Thorne and Claude Paumapeer. Constable George Agnew and M. McNamara, who were on the look-out for the escaped prisoners, espied the three walking along the California Northwestern Railway, and arrested them. They made no resistance whatever. They all looked tired, worn out and hungry.

SAN BERNARDINO AUTHORITIES THINK THEY HAVE MURDERERS OF ROBERTS IN CUSTODY.

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 14.—Under Sheriff S. W. McNabb of this county returned this afternoon from San Francisco, having in charge Sidney Jarvis and Arthur Swindell, who are held on charges of robbing the express car on the Santa Fe westbound overland train on the night of December 4, and murdering Evan O. Roberts, the Wells-Fargo messenger. Deputy McNabb arrested Jarvis and Swindell at the Burlingame track near San Francisco.

EVIDENCE AGAINST PRISONERS, ALTHOUGH CIRCUMSTANTIAL, IS SAID TO BE VERY STRONG.

On the night of the robbery these two men, it is alleged, were in the horse car in front of the express car which was robbed. They were in the employ of F. J. Mackey, an English millionaire horse owner, whose hobby is polo ponies. The two men were employed at Chicago to come west with the horses and were both on the train at the time of the robbery. Jarvis was married on the night before he left Chicago.

HOTEL REPRESENTATIVES MEET AT SANTA BARBARA.

DISCUSS PLANS WHEREBY BUSINESS MIGHT BE CONDUCTED ON A MORE PROFITABLE SCALE.

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 14.—Representatives of twenty-one of the leading tourist hotels, covering the territory extending from San Francisco to San Diego, met in conference in the parlors of the Potter Hotel in this city this afternoon in response to a call of a few leading hotel managers, for the purpose of formulating plans whereby business might be conducted on a more extensive and profitable scale. All but four of the managers to whom the unofficial call had been addressed were present, and in several instances there were more than one representative from a single establishment. The object of the conference is to establish more cordial relations between the managers of big tourist hotels of the Pacific Coast and to adopt methods which will be of mutual benefit to all. The conference will continue to-morrow.
