

EPISCOPALIANS CALL ANNUAL MEETING.

FIFTY-FIFTH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE

The fifty-fifth convention of the Episcopal Diocese of California opened at Grace Church, California street, corner of Stockton, yesterday morning. At 10:30 there was celebration of the holy communion, the Right Rev. Bishop William Ford Nichols being the celebrant and preacher.

There was an exceptionally large attendance of clergy and laymen and women, who listened intently to an impassioned and deeply spiritual address by the Bishop dealing with the conduct of the convention and the liberal privileges which allowed any one to speak on the floor of the house.

He expressed his deep admiration of such an institution as the "convention," which, he said, was purely American. He believed that nothing more important was being done in the great Protestant Episcopal Convention in Boston, than the idea and openness and free expression of the convention. In England, he believed, there is now a movement for a freer expression of matters pertaining to the church.

Bishop Nichols asked that there be no disabilities, but that every parish might be fully represented, and he made it clear that no one must feel that he cannot have in that house a full and fair hearing.

He considered it "the power house" which sent pulsation through the diocese, and being a "free church" it looked "live questions in the face." He courted the consideration of the social as well as spiritual and material questions and hoped that they would have all views presented.

Sacred music was beautifully rendered by the splendid choir of Grace Church under the direction of William H. Holt, the organist.

BUSINESS IN EARNEST.
At the conclusion of the morning service the whole of the immense delegation, as has been the custom for years, took luncheon at the Occidental Hotel and on the assembly reforming in Grace Church the business of the convention began in earnest.

Bishop Nichols presided and the already large attendance increased with the arrival of delegates from other cities.

With expedition the convention began to propose officers. No sooner was the name of the Rev. Mardon D. Wilson submitted for secretary, a post of honor accorded him for many years than the whole convention voted in his favor. A similar honor was conferred upon George H. Hooke and the Rev. Clifton Macon, whose past services were remembered. Without opposition they were selected as assistant secretaries. The following regular committees were then appointed:

On credentials—Rev. M. D. Wilson, secretary; G. H. Hooke, assistant secretary, and A. S. Bacon.

On the incorporation and admission of parishes and missions—Rev. David J. B. Barne, and C. H. Habbs.

On finance—L. E. Rowlett, Dr. H. C. Davis, Bruce Haydn, D. H. Kane and W. A. M. Van Bokkelen.

PROMINENT MEMBERS OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF CALIFORNIA WHO ARE TAKING AN ACTIVE PART AS DELEGATES IN THE FIFTY-FIFTH CONVENTION, WHICH OPENED YESTERDAY.

Immediately after such meeting the name of the clergyman selected must be communicated to the Bishop. The Bishop, if he desires, is to designate a date for a conference, which date shall be within twenty days after receiving notification of the selection. By the amendment it will require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole number of vestrymen to elect a rector. The proposed amendment of section 326 of the Canons was carried, and read:

The duties of the archdeacon shall be those of a general missionary in the diocese, under the direction of the Bishop, and subject to the Bishop in the administration of the work of church extension in the diocese. He shall be, ex officio, a member of the convention. Section 420 was amended so that at each annual convention there shall be elected six persons who with the Bishop of the diocese, ex officio, shall constitute a board of directors of that corporation known as The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of California.

Section 420, (Canon 17), which was adopted, relates to a Sunday School commission of the diocese consisting of nine clergymen and three lay members to be appointed by the Bishop. The commission may adopt by-laws providing for president and other officers.

IMPORTANT DECISION.
By the adoption of an addition to section 561 all canons enacted, unless otherwise ordered, take effect after and on adjournment of the convention in which they are enacted.

The following important amendment to the constitution was approved to be finally acted upon at the next convention:

Trust funds—Section 94. The canonical provisions and regulations relating to the invested or trust funds of the diocese now existing or which may hereafter be created, as such provisions and regulations may stand at the time of any gift or bequest to such funds or at the time of any collection taken up in this diocese for any such funds, and such further conditions as may have been specified in any gift or bequest to such funds, shall constitute a specific contract between the diocese and the donors or contributors to such funds, and no such alterations thereof or amendments thereto shall in any way affect gifts, bequests or contributions which have been made prior to such alteration or amendment.

A recess was taken until 9:30 this morning, when the matter of "The House of Churchwomen" will be taken up, a proposal which has created the greatest interest.

SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S.
Choral Pieces Will Be Rendered by Quartet and Chorus.

The feast of the conversion of St. Paul will be celebrated in St. Paul's Church, California street, near Fillmore, at 10 o'clock this morning. There will be a celebration of holy communion. At 7:30 p. m. choral numbers will be sung by St. Paul's quartet and chorus choir.

At 8 p. m. the tenth anniversary of St. Paul's Guild will be celebrated, followed by a reception, at which the ladies of the guild will serve refreshments.

Arrangements are being made to place in the church a beautiful memorial marble font in memory of Mrs. William Mackay, a devoted communicant and chorister.

CEREMONY IS MEDICINE

Emma Shalich Revives After Marriage Ceremony Makes Her Mrs. Walter Bright

When Walter G. Bright went to the bedside of pretty Emma Shalich of 2814 Golden Gate avenue and asked her hand in marriage she was in the shadow of death. They had long been lovers, but a few days ago a malignant form of appendicitis struck her down. The potions of the physician failed to alleviate her intense pain and suffering. He feared the shock of the surgeon's knife, and to the assembled family and friends said there was no hope.

Bright was apprised of the critical condition of the girl who had plighted her troth to him. He sought her bedside and asked to be left alone with her. When he emerged he announced that a wedding ceremony was to be performed and then was quickly on his way to the City Hall. The patient was found with her sunken eyes lit up and her feeble words were spoken stronger. Shortly Bright returned with Rev. Mr. Liebe of the Richmond Lutheran Church. The young man stood at the side of the bed and lifted the hand of his bride a trifle as the marriage vows were spoken. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schalich, the parents, and a few friends in the household were in attendance. The only hope, if any, lay in an operation which the doctor, Mrs. Bright was an hour later conveyed to the French Hospital. The operation was performed yesterday, and last evening the surgeon gave almost positive assurance that his patient would recover.

"She had rallied to a remarkable degree before the operation was performed," was his explanation. "She was not the weak patient that one fears will succumb under the knife. She had revived wonderfully and was strong and brave after the operation."

Bright was formerly a car conductor, and a few months ago was employed as an extra man in the Registrar's office.

BAIRD'S WIFE AND SISTER DIFFER OVER ALLOWANCE

Controversy Not Ended in Matter of Application of Ruth Baird for Support From Husband.

The young wife of Miles T. Baird, who is now under the guardianship of his mother, and the sister of the young incompetent, were on the stand in Judge Coffey's court late yesterday afternoon to give evidence in the controversy over the claim Mrs. Baird's application for an allowance of $200 a month out of her husband's estate. Mr. Baird and his mother were in court and were represented by Attorney Partridge, while Attorney C. J. Hegerty appeared for the applicant. An attempt of Mr. Partridge to examine Baird's wife as to her own income was objected to, and the objection was sustained. The court held that a wife in entitled to support from her husband's estate, Mrs. Baird stated that she had received $200 a month from her husband and had never asked any questions as to where it came from. She did not know that it had been borrowed, but knew that he had borrowed money, including $25,000, from his mother. A question as to her knowledge of the trust of the young man was properly created by him was objected to by Mr. Hegerty, who insinuated that the proceedings were to be used in the case in another court now pending for dissolution of that trust.

Mrs. Baldwin, sister of Miles Baird, and secretary of the Baird estate company, told the court that his income from the estate was $300 a month. She also explained how the mother and sister had tried to pay his debts, and said, "Before we get through his debts around town will amount to $10,000. There is interest due, and people want the money," said Mrs. Baldwin. Mr. Hegerty asked the witness whether she had children, and receiving an answer in the affirmative, inquired whether she thought Mrs. Baird Jr. needed a nurse for her child. "I can only reply by saying that I look care of my own babies," said Mrs. Baldwin.

Further hearing went over until Saturday afternoon.

Girl Toilers

Gain Strength for Work

In office and factory, shop, store or kitchen girls are at work all over this land, and, alas! far beyond their strength. Young women who work are especially liable to female ills. Too often the girl is the bread winner of the family and she must toil unremittently, no matter if her back does ache, her limbs and abdomen throb with dull pain and dragging sensations, and dizzy spells make her utterly unfit for work. These are the sure signs of female irregularities which kill beauty and youth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

builds health and strength for all women who work and are weary. It creates the vitality that makes work easy. From the thousands of grateful letters written by working girls to Mrs. Pinkham we quote the following:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and monthlies were irregular. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good.

Your medicine has made me well and strong, I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

Mrs. ABY F. BARROWS, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio.

Oh, if American girls who work would only realize that they have but one life to live, and make the most of their precious health and strength!

Mrs. Pinkham extends to every working girl who is in ill health a cordial invitation to write her for advice. Such letters are always kept strictly confidential, and from her vast experience Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help you—and may save your life.
