

Yosemite Passed the Lower House of the Legislature By a Vote That Surprised Friends of the Measure

cheers subsided. The ovation brought the scarlet of modesty to Hartman's cheeks. "I would like to see the people of this valley given a chance to vote on the proposed recession of the valley," he said. "Keep it," was his peroration, and say it is the glorious spot of California.

ESTUDILLO IS APPLAUDED.

"Because the United States soldiers would preserve law and order and force the observance of proper rules and regulations, this bill is opposed. From the arguments heard one might think the United States was the biggest and most damnable rascal in the world. Are we prepared to say that and to stir the army that has shed its blood on many a battlefield for the good of this nation? Supposing you carried a gun in Golden Gate Park, wouldn't a policeman arrest you? Supposing you used firearms on the public streets of Sacramento contrary to the laws, wouldn't you be arrested?"

"In forty years the State of California has expended $485,000 on the Yosemite. The Federal Government in twenty-five years has spent a million and a half on the Yellowstone Park. How shall we judge the future, but by the past?"

VOLE ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Following is the roll call of the vote on final passage:
Ayes—Amerige, Anthony, Armerich, Atkinson, Barnes, Bates, Bliss, Boyle, Brantner, Burke, Burke, Chandler, Cleveland, Cooper, Coyne, Creighton, Cromwell, Drew, Ellis, Espey, Estudillo, Gans, Gates, Goodrich, Held, Houser, Johnson, Johnstone, Jones of San Francisco, King, Lamy, Lynch, McKenny, Mitchell, Olmsted, Perkins, Praefie, Pyle, Prescott, Strobel, Thompson, Treadwell, Wastie, Whiting, Wickersham—45.
Noes—Bardslee, Binkert, Busick, Challen, Hartman, Hawkins, Jarvis, John, Jones of Tuolumne, Jury, Lucy, Lynch, McNamara, Meineke, Mindham.

MEASURE IS AMENDED.

Senate Incorporates New Provisions in the Recession Bill.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—The Yosemite and Mariposa Grove recession bill came up on special order in the Senate this morning. After some discussion two important amendments to the measure were made. One relates to the protection of vested rights, in the event of recession, the other requires the Government to accept the parks within two years, failure to do which operates as nullifying the bill, in the event of its passage. The amendments are as follows:

NEW KINDS OF COTTON GROWN IN AUSTRALIA.

One Is a Tree Cotton for Orchard Cultivation and Yields Crop First Season.

At the recent show of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, at Melbourne, were two new varieties of cotton reported to be of exceptional quality, grown by Dr. Thomas at Cairns, in the State of Queensland, reports Consul General Brad Jones. One is a tree cotton, named Caravanica I, gave the large yield of 1200 pounds of ginned cotton per acre, and that it has been pronounced by American, English and continental experts to be of the value of 100 (cents) per pound, and should be classed as a wool cotton. The other variety, named Caravanica II, the yield of which is not stated, is a silky cotton valued at 18 (cents) per pound.

The estate consists of property on Stockton street, product—$112 50 a month; on Stockton street, product—$150 a month; and at all Montgomery street, $88 a month.

NORMAL SCHOOL BILL.

Measures Ready for Third Reading and Will Be Acted Upon Next Thursday.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—At the morning session of the Assembly Speaker Prescott announced the steering committee that is expected to frame a constitutional amendment changing the present law providing for session of the Legislature—establishing the period for which it shall sit, date of opening, salaries of members and expenses. Stanton's proposed measure, now before the House in a much amended form as returned by the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, will be used as the basis upon which the steering committee will build a measure satisfactory to the Assembly.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Assembleman McGowan was announced as chairman of this committee and the other members are Houser, Stanton, Burke and Gates.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

On motion of McGowan, Stanton's proposed amendment was made a special order for Friday, February 10. At that time the steering committee will probably have further amendments in shape.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Treadwell's bill granting the Board of Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco power to lease two blocks of land lying along the seawall on Jefferson street, between Market and Jones, was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Navigation and will now go on the second reading file. Treadwell still says he does not think the bill has any special significance, as it is simply the same measure as the one that has been passed at previous sessions, giving the board power to lease as the demand for water frontage extended, but there is still a persistent rumor that the Western Pacific has an interest in the same as there is property adjoining the frontage concerned that could be used for a terminal.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The strained relations that seem to exist between Atkinson and Treadwell of the San Francisco delegation affected another momentous piece of legislation. The resolution of the first named for the appointment of another assistant sergeant-at-arms was reported favorably by the committee. Had there been no objection from the San Francisco side it might have passed, but Treadwell protested and Anthony fell into line. Stanton made a motion to lay on the table, and Atkinson making no objection to bring the matter to a vote, the motion prevailed.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Chairman Duryea of the Judiciary Committee signed a minority report from that committee against the passage of Thompson's bill, similar to one which was made by the Judiciary Committee for the sale of realty binding. The minority report of the committee was in favor of the passage of the bill. The names on the minority report are those of Duryea, McGowan, King, Cleveland and Burke.

Assembleman Hartman Thinks Bill Introduced May Prove Dangerous.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—Chairman Hartman of the Assembly Committee on Commerce and Navigation has still in his keeping Assembleman Barnes' bill providing for the acquirement of water rights on the ocean for power purposes and has asked its author to withdraw it altogether. Hartman says that it may prove a very dangerous measure if passed and open way to the grabbing of valuable water frontage not controlled by harbor boards by the "mere erection of a water tower" as he puts it. The important sections of the measure, which is a novel one, follows:

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The waters along the sea coast, or of any strait, bay, inlet, estuary, or arm of the sea, which are not, except at extremely high tides or on unusually favorable occasions, a safe navigation of vessels of ten tons burden, shall be deemed to be navigable, with a strip of land not to exceed 1000 feet in width, commencing at the ordinary high-water mark on the shore of such waters, and extending therefrom out into said waters a sufficient distance to the shore of such waters, and the purposes hereinafter stated, may be used by any person, association of persons or corporation, for the purpose of generating, utilizing the power of, or operating or maintaining, or any person, association, partnership or corporation, to so use such waters and land, may construct, maintain upon said land, and out into said waters, any dam, dike, or other structure, or any other works, for the purpose aforesaid, such as the installation and maintenance of machinery and wheels to be propelled by the power generated by the action of the water.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Section 2. Any person, association of persons or corporation, their heirs or assigns, who shall be for record in the office of the County Recorder of the county where such lands and waters proposed to be so used are situated, shall be held to be bound to so use such lands and waters, containing a description of the location thereof, and shall pay in full the yearly charges, therefor accruing, for the use thereof, and as hereinafter fixed, shall have the right to the occupation and use of the lands and waters located as to use such lands and waters to the boundaries hereinafter defined.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

It is provided that no one shall acquire under the act any water frontage within the jurisdiction of the board of harbor commissions within the State.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Assembleman Barnes says the measure was handed to him and that his intention is to give control of the frontage to secure wave power to the same as the fall of rivers is now utilized.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Prevent the Grip. Laxative Bromo Quinine, world wide Cold and Grip remedy, removes cause. Call for the full name and look for signature E. W. Grove, 25c.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

LANDLORD AND TENANTS FIGHT.—M. Silvey obtained a warrant from Police Judge Conlan yesterday for the arrest of M. F. Seely on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Seely is the owner of a flat at 217 Franklin street, occupied by Silvey. It is alleged that during a dispute as to rent, Seely on January 8, attacked Silvey with a chair, and that he was severely injured. Seely was arrested by Seely at the same time. Seely's attorney says he will intend to do great bodily harm, but the case was dismissed by Police Judge Conlan on Wednesday. Daseking's attorney says he will lay the case before the Grand Jury.

SENATE PASSES SEVERAL BILLS. Acts Favorably on Measure to Transfer the Veterans' Home in Napa to Uncle Sam.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—Belshaw introduced a bill to-day relating to the disqualifications of Judges. It provides that no Justice or Judge may sit in any action in which he is a party interested; when he is related to either party or an officer, director, agent or agent of either party, by consanguinity or affinity, within the third degree. It is also provided that when either party files an affidavit that he believes he cannot get a fair and impartial trial before a certain court, he may record the said Judge must secure the service of some other Judge.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

McKee introduced a bill relating to co-operation by county boards of Supervisors in incorporating bodies known as "associated charities" and contributions to such societies. Under the provisions of the bill sums of money may be contributed to one such body in any county, but shall not exceed $1000 in any one year.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The object of the bill is to systematize the work of relief of dependent poor.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Senator Wolfe of San Francisco today introduced a bill which is designed to prevent the sale of or dealing in of warehouse receipts purporting to represent goods or merchandise contained in any other State. Senator Wolfe says the bill is favored by the wholesale liquor dealers in California. It is intended to prevent frauds upon retail dealers by having Eastern liquor agents come into California and procure money from them upon warehouse receipts for barrels of whiskey. The custom has been, it is alleged, for liquor agents to come from the East, display receipts to retail dealers, make sales for several barrels of whiskey upon the strength of the receipts and then take the notes of the saloon-keepers for payment. Later on the saloon-keepers, in most instances, would learn they could not get any of the liquor until their notes were paid in full.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The following bills were among those passed to-day:

ADVERTISEMENTS.

By Woodward—Senate bill No. 104, to authorize certain corporations to act as executor and in other capacities, and to provide for and regulate the administration of trusts by such corporations. Each corporation, before accepting any such appointment or deposit, shall deposit with the State Treasurer for the benefit of creditors a sum equal to 50 per cent of the capital of the corporation in bonds or other securities.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

By Rush—No. 269, to transfer the Veterans' Home at Yountville, Napa County, to the Federal Government, to be conducted as a national home for the aged, sailors and marines of the United States under the existing laws.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The bill of Senator Keane directed against trading stamps or coupon devices in the transaction of business was reported for third reading in the Senate to-day, but at the request of the author it was sent back to the Judiciary Committee. This was done to give the trading stamp people an opportunity to be heard.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

LOAN COMPANIES' INQUIRY. Senate Committee Will Treat All Corporations Alike.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—The special Senate committee, consisting of Woodward (chairman), Hahn, Curtin, Lynch and Anderson, appointed by the president of the upper house to carry on the investigation of building and loan associations in place of the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchment, four of the members of which are on trial on charges of bribery, met and organized to-night. It decided to hold its first meeting next Tuesday night and begin the investigation of the Continental Building and Loan Association.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Rules were formulated and it was announced that the meetings would be held in the Senate chamber if it could be obtained for the purpose, and the public will be admitted.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

"Following the investigation of the Continental, which under the turn of affairs here taken it is assumed should be put first on the list, we will look into the affairs of other companies, treating all exactly alike in the matter of examining into their condition and their methods of doing business," said a member of the committee. "We adhere rigidly to the resolution passed by the Senate.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

"Our sole purpose will be to determine whether the companies are adhering to the laws that exist and to frame new laws in case we find that that protection to investors and stockholders demands them."

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Assembly Committee on Building and Loan Associations intended to frame a law with some changes from the existing one to be before the Senate to-day, but it is understood that, under the advice of Speaker Prescott, it will leave the matter of taking the initiative to the Senate, in the hope that whatever bills go through the upper house may be satisfactory.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

OFF TO SAN DIEGO. Assemblymen Leave to Take Testimony Against Torrance.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—Four members of the assembly committee appointed to investigate the impeachment charges against Superior Judge Torrance of San Diego County left here for the city of San Diego to-night to begin the taking of testimony there. They also will visit Los Angeles, and probably San Bernardino. Those who went are Weyand, Devlin, McGowan and O'Brien. Barnes remaining here. Sergeant at Arms Stafford and a stenographer accompanied the committee. The leave of absence is indefinite. The members who took the trip are all lawyers.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Suffragists' Agents Invade Senate. SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—Agents of the California Equal Suffrage Association invaded the Senate chamber this morning with tracts and pamphlets setting forth the contentions of the proponents of the proposed amendment to the constitution that if passed would enfranchise the people will enfranchise the fair sex of the State.

aside the shadow of the pentagon. So next Monday night when the trial again goes on, witnesses will come for this purpose from Downville and San Diego and many points between and behind them will follow an army of the prosecution's witnesses to prove that what the witnesses for the defense say is not based on truth. And, it is estimated, this will cost the State about $15,000, this swearing of one force that the detectives are not to be believed, the other that they are. Questions of character come high, but the defense must have them and, as it must, the prosecution must fall in line.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

District Attorney A. H. Seymour of Sacramento says none of the Senators accused of accepting bribes will be arrested until after the investigation now on before the special committee looking into the charges against them has finished its labors.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

ARRESTS ARE TO FOLLOW. "Although I have the power to have warrants for the arrest of these men issued at any time, I will take no action toward their apprehension until after the investigation is ended," he said to-night, "as I do not want to be in a position where either side can say I prejudiced its case by instituting criminal proceedings before the Senate committee had concluded its work.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

"Specific action was taken in Jordan's case because he is not a Senator and his arrest could have no influence either way upon the case against the accused legislators. Furthermore, the Senate has no jurisdiction over Jordan other than to force his appearance as a witness."

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Sacramento District Attorney is a quiet, unobtrusive man, who has the appearance of wishing to know his ground well before he takes a radical step. His words leave little doubt that the accused Senators, or at least Bunkers and Emmons, will be arrested on charges of having accepted bribes as soon as their hearing is ended.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Joseph S. Jordan seems cheerful and declares that he is in no danger. He says he has a sufficient explanation to make at the proper time and that none of his friends need worry about him. He is about town as he was before his name was connected with the bribery scandal, the smile for which he is noted seeming to have been dimmed but little by the trouble that has come to him.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

TRYING TO TRACE BILLS. The prosecution in the bribery cases admits that its detectives are searching for some of the bills that it is alleged were given Emmons, Bunkers, French and Wright, but declares positively that it has none of them in its possession. It is said that any of these
