

JOHN A. SCOTT IS CALLED A FAVORITE OVER CORBETT AT A LEIGHTHY PRICE HE WILL WIN AGAIN.

Lorena M, Sporting De la Montanya Colors, Defeats a Shifty Field of Two-Year-Olds—Andrew Mack Takes Another Purse.

To those who plunged on Sacredus, the Jennings stable representative in the concluding Futurity course sprint on the card at Oakland yesterday, the reappearance of John A. Scott will always leave a deep, dark-brown flavor in the mouth. Not that the chestnut horse was not entitled to all he helped himself to, but it was not generally supposed that the James & Lusk flyer was ready, for his price bumped along from 5 until it hit 11, and of course he threw a natural. Sacredus, passed along from dozing to dozing, stepped as something that had aged in the wood since the spring of '74, was hammered down from 6 to 8 to 5. Seven minutes was consumed at the post before the barrier was released, and John A. Scott skinned away in the lead. He touched only the high spots and though limber at the end, Wright kept the unsuspected one going long enough to dispose of Squire Johnson by almost a length. Sacredus ran third, beaten a head for the place.

Lorena M, a 20 to 1 shot, owned by the wealthy turfman, J. de la Montanya, and trained by Jack Curry of harness horse fame, took the two-year-old heat in a hard drive beat Knapp on the card for the favorite Corbett. Lorena M, the Napa Stock Farm entry, ran third, nearly a length ahead of Iron Watson. Trainers must be a pound and several ounces better than Wright in the saddle if the improvement shown by My Order can be taken as any criterion. Last Friday, carrying less weight, Dr. Rowell's 3-year-old was beaten by Mogregor. Nevertheless My Order had first call in the betting on the second number yesterday and ran in big time from Golden Buck. Mogregor ran third, despite the best of handling.

Besides Toupee, the favorite, Shellmount and George Berry, but he finished behind Revolt, a 7 to 1 chance, in the third. Toupee wore blinkers, and whether it was the gelding's fault or Sammy Greenfield's in not getting away better, is open to speculation. At any rate Toupee ran fourth, carrying a good-sized stable commission. Things looked rosy for My Surprise early in the game, but he wilted. "Big Bill" Knapp then picked up the winning with Revolt, subduing Shellmount with a few dollars to blow on the side.

It was now in order for Harry Birkenruth to distinguish himself. The hoop-legged rider led the mount on Follow in the mile and twenty yards selling fixture, and lost no time showing out in the lead. At the close McBride led at him very strong on the second number yesterday, but he rode a powerful finish, earning a neck decision. Away all tangled up, Jack Little blew in from West Berkeley, securing the show.

The fifth act, over a mile and twenty yards, saw Andrew Mack shove the stage all to himself. Birkenruth was his support and lent able assistance. Andrew closed favorable. Turning into the stretch it looked as if Birkenruth had jammed his rider into the sugar bowl and couldn't withdraw it. While waiting to get through, Jackie Jones, astride the pacemaker, Budd Wade, pulled in close to the rail and Larsen on Mindano, the second choice, lay over fast enough to place the favorite in a pretty pocket. But Birkenruth got through at the paddock, and in a drive downed Mindano a head.

TRACK NOTES. Birkenruth, who is now riding in splendid form, piloted two winners. M. D. Miller, the bookmaker and owner, purchased the contract on McBride from Knebelkamp & Co., yesterday.

Remark a bay gelding by Cheviot, owned by A. Neal, is dead. My Surprise was claimed from the third race for $725 by Mrs. H. Merchant, owner of Salto.

Jackie Holtman dispatched the fields yesterday. Jake says he will do the starting at Memphis, Hawthorne, Kansas City, Latonia and on the Canadian circuit. He seems confident that the Western Jockey Club and the American Turf Association will reach an amicable understanding at their coming meeting.

Cigar Lighter and the balance of M. D. Miller's string, with the exception of Gold Enamel, were shipped from Los Angeles to Oakland, leaving the southern city last night. Gold Enamel, the stable coach, will be placed aboard a car next Thursday bound for Oakland.

Stakes of the Highland Park and Fort Erie associations close on March 20. Bob Smith lost Mindano from the fifth race. The gelding was claimed for $825 by the Baker City Stable.

The stewards at Oakland led the affair again yesterday and this time Charley McCaffrey, feeling his edging owing to the indifferent showing made by Major Mansir in a race last Saturday, the horse being palpably run short, it was decided to suspend and refuse the entry of the old long distance campaigner. The balance of the chances of the Major from being a factor in either the Waterhouse cup or Thornton stakes.

BERKELEY'S ROWING COACH TAKES CHARGE OF CREW. E. M. Garnett Arrives and Makes Ready to Get Oarsmen Into Shape. BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—E. M. Garnett, the new boating coach from Harvard, engaged by the executive committee of the Associated Students to direct the varsity crew in its preparations to meet Stanford, held his first conference with the candidates for places on the crew this afternoon. In response to a call nearly seventy-five men of the university gathered at the gymnasium to meet Garnett. The new coach made an address, informing the men that it would be impracticable to maintain a training table, but that all the candidates would be "on honor," and he would expect each man to abstain from dissipation or indulgence in food or drink that would not be for his best good as a rowing man.

Garnett will begin to-morrow to deal with the men on the estuary and in actual practice will explain the stroke which the varsity is to use against Stanford. He encouraged the men by declaring, in his belief, rowing might, soon be developed into a sport of such importance at the university that a crew might be made up to go East and compete in an annual regatta with the best varsity crews on Lake Champlain or elsewhere.

Farmers speak of the "off" and "near" horse. Do you know which is which?

RIVAL BOXERS READY TO EXCHANGE BLOWS TO-NIGHT

The eve of the great battle finds Young Corbett and Mattling Nelson ready and willing. Training practically came to an end at the camps of the rival boxers yesterday afternoon and now both of them are waiting for the moment of battle is at hand. The betting was brisk yesterday and the odds were 10 to 8 in favor of the doughty Dane.

Interest is rife as to the outcome of the mill. In fact, the whole town was talking fight last night. From all accounts there will be a full house at Woodward's Pavilion to-night when the husky featherweights clash. The advance sale of seats has been unusually large and Manager Morris Levy of the Hayes Valley Club figures on a $15,000 house at the lowest calculation.

Both boxers will leave the sunny shores of Marin County this afternoon and get in this city till the hour of weighing in arrives. This will take place at 6 o'clock at Harry Corbett's. The weight is not troubling either lad, as both are down to the required notch or within a fraction of a pound of it.

The fight promises to be one grueling affair. It does not look like a twenty-round mill, though no one can tell till the lads get to mixing it. Both are sure to go to the conflict in slambang style and Referee Jack Welch figures on having a merry old time of it in the ring when the pair get together.

Nelson will have his manager, Billy Nolan, and Larsen and some other hander of pugs in his corner when the going begins. Corbett will be looked after by Joe Gans, Frank McDonald and probably Tim McGrath.

Yesterday was a quiet one at the training camps at San Rafael and Larkspur compared with the strenuous work which both have indulged in during the past months. Corbett arose early in the morning and after a light breakfast he took his usual run with Joe Gans. He napped after lunch and then he and Gans took a short walk. After a rub down the little Denverite gave out his weight at 139½ pounds. To-morrow morning when he arises he will be a trifle underweight. A quiet day will be spent to-morrow, only a short walk being indulged in. Corbett will leave San Rafael on an afternoon train arriving at San Francisco in time to wash his face when he repairs to a hotel and wait until the time arrives for him to appear at the pavilion.

Greggains Obtains Permit and Puts Up Hart and Jack Johnson.

A mild surprise was sprung in the sporting world yesterday afternoon when the Police Committee of the Board of Supervisors awarded the March fight permit to Alex Greggains, manager of the San Francisco Athletic Club. Jimmy Coffroth, the Yosemite magnate, was not after the concession, but the forces against him proved too strong and he lost out.

As soon as Greggains secured the coveted permit, he announced that he had matched Jack Johnson, the champion colored heavyweight, with Newell Hart. Greggains figures that the winner of this bout will be pitted against Jeffries, but the sporting public in general is rather doubtful of this fact.

Greggains was a happy man when he learned that the permit was his. A bitter fight had been waging for the paper for several weeks and most of the knowing ones figured that Coffroth was due to receive it. Coffroth said last night that he felt neither sore nor disappointed at the outcome. He was almost certain up to a few days ago that the permit would be his, but an unlooked for hitch came in the programme at the last moment and the Yosemite manager was nosed out of the prize.

This means that Jimmy Britt will not meet the winner of the Nelson-Corbett mixup. Many of the sporting fraternity were looking forward to this contest, but now they will be doomed to bitter disappointment. Greggains did not figure on the featherweights for some reason, as he immediately began to talk business with Hart and Johnson.

Coffroth has the signed contracts of both Nelson and Corbett for a match with Britt. He also told their managers he would post a $1500 forfeit to pull the fight off in March. This money has not as yet been deposited by Coffroth, but he says he will pay it at all events. It is not likely that either manager will take the money.

It now looks as though the winner of the Nelson-Corbett battle will meet Jimmy Britt in April. If everything goes right, Corbett will get the permit for that month and he would like to see the rival featherweights mix it.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Gridstone, at 7 to 5, won the feature race on to-day's card at Ascot, beating Ralph Reese, McGrathiana Prince, Head Dance, Azellina and Buckster Hodi. Business men who came for an hour, only stayed three times that long, and the president's luncheon turned out to be a pleasant break in the routine of the severe business meetings and served a double purpose.

CHRONIC SORES. Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903. Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broken out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so significantly benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier. JOHN W. FUNDIS. Care Schmulback Brewing Co.

CHRONIC SORES START FROM A PIMPLE, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, moves all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral water but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise without charge. Book on diseases of the Blood free.
