

PLEASE IN "RAMONA" VIRGINIA CALHOUN

Grand Opera House
Presents Good
Production.
Parts of Play Show
Real Dramatic Strength.

There are features in the production of "Ramona," now being given at the Grand Opera-house, that make it inadvisable for the theater-going public to overlook it. True, the play as presented will not produce a dramatic furor, but it is well worth seeing, especially by those who have an affection for the memory of the missions. Portions of the play may be said to be slow, but there are parts that are full of dramatic strength and thrill the audience.

Of course, as in the book, sorrow piles up sorrow rapidly. The scenic effects are very good. In the first act the home of Ramona is shown as it stands to-day, with roses clambering up its sides and the semi-tropical foliage about it. To those who have never visited it it is recognizable at once from the pictures that are so well known. Alessandro's home at Pala is an attractive creation, and the interior of the San Carlos Plaza church at Monterey is well reproduced.

Among the effective scenes the two that lead are those where Senora Morana makes her final attempt to induce Ramona to renounce the Indian, Alessandro, and shows her the jewels left by her father as a temptation, and the weepy one where Alessandro and his bride are forced to leave their home after the burial of their child. Miss Virginia Calhoun as Ramona does some effective work in the scenes where she is tempted to leave her husband. Lawrence Griffith as Alessandro does some strong acting. He has a melodious voice that fits the part and he performed the mad scene cleverly, receiving applause. The comedy of the play is supplied by Mrs. Louis Belmont as Aunt Ri. She arouses hearty laughter. Lee Willard is a graceful Don Felipe and Miss Marie Baker a determined Senora Morana.

The costume dance at the anniversary of the wedding of Alessandro and Ramona is an extremely pretty bit of the production.

There is not an ordinary number on the programme at the Orpheum this week. It is hard to pick the headliner from the different acts, as they are some of the best that can be seen in vaudeville.

Louis A. Simon, Grace Gardner & Co., in a sketch "The New Coachman," was rightly named when it was called a "coachman" farce. Simon is comedian of the first water, and his part in this sketch fits him to a nicety. He had his audience laughing after the curtain fell.

Sydney Deane & Co., in a vocal novelty "Christmas on Blackwell's Island," brought out a trio of sweet singers that won the audience with their melodious voices.

Busch-Devere Trio illustrated musical novelty gave an original act, which had not been seen at this house before. During the rendering of selections with musical instruments descriptive pictures illustrate the music.

The Columbian are a talented family, and they entertain the audience with their delightful musical fantasy. Herbert Brooks, card manipulator and trick mystifier, keeps his audience guessing throughout his act. Paul Cochran in his daring feats, and the rest of the holdovers, serve to satisfy the most ardent crank.

Florodora still continues to draw crowds to the Tivoli. The sextet as sung by the Tivoli's people is just a bit better than anything of its sort ever heard here. Florodora will run another week.

At the Chutes Theater there began yesterday afternoon an eight-day season of musical burlesque, "Cleopatra Trip to Date," being the play. In this production are 150 pupils of Brown's school of dancing and stage culture. The opening performance was witnessed by a crowd that packed the Chutes playhouse, and there was much applause. Some very clever children are among the 150, and all are well drilled in the dances and ballets. There is a succession of pretty pictures and graceful evolutions, interspersed with specialties by child phenomena that keeps the audience busy.

The opening chorus, "Hail to the Glorious Sun," gives the hearers a feeling of satisfaction that they are there, and as the burlesque proceeds more pleasing features are revealed.

DR. PIERCE'S REMEDIES.
A CLEAN MAN.
Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and many, many other things that keep the body healthy.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood.

Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy.

It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure clean blood, and cleans healthy flesh. It doesn't make the flabby fat of corpulency, but the firm flesh of health. It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol to inebriate or create craving for injurious stimulants.

Mr. John L. Coughenour, of Glen Savage, Somerset Co., writes: "I was weak and nervous as though I had been starved for months. My heart kept thumping continually and I was short of breath. Finally I wrote to you for advice and you informed me that I had indigestion and a torpid liver. I did not think my diagnosis was right, but I ordered six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' from you and began its use. After using three bottles, I began to grow strong and soon went to work, and I have been working ever since."

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe.

PRINCESS SLAIN IN INDIAN FEUD

Special Dispatch to The Call.
DES MOINES, April 16.—The stolid silence which has prevailed among the Tama Indians until to-day gave way to an excited discussion of the murder of Princess Maas-Cho-Qua, the result of the arrest of George Soldier, her ex-husband and devoted admirer. Deputy United States Marshal Healy has thereby been enabled to develop a chain of evidence that seems to point conclusively to the commission of the murder for the purpose of preventing the girl from becoming the mother of an heir to the chieftainship as the descendant of Puhi Onoqua, who might displace the present dynasty.

An old feud between the Sac and Fox tribes, who jointly occupied the reservation, as to which is entitled to the chieftainship, is back of a long series of crimes. John Sepo, an active partisan, a relative of the prisoner, George Soldier, was murdered six months ago, presumably by a rival in love. Since then two squaws have been slain. Mas-Cho-Qua disappeared two months ago, having last been seen with her divorced husband, George Soldier. The discovery of her dead body on Friday followed by Soldier's arrest and the consequent discovery that he is probably innocent and that the cold-blooded crime was committed for the mere purpose of exterminating a rival dynasty.

SHOOT HIMSELF WITH HEARING OF CONGREGATION
Janitor Takes His Life in Room Next to One Where Services Were Being Held.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—Captain James A. Rider, 66 years of age, for four years the janitor of the St. James Memorial Episcopal Church, committed suicide by shooting to-day in a room adjoining the Auditorium where the rector of the church was conducting devotional services.

The sound of the shot was plainly heard by the congregation, but there was no excitement. One of the vestrymen investigated and reported to Dr. Duckworth, who announced from the pulpit what had occurred. He requested that the congregation leave the church at once.

Captain Rider won his title in the British merchant marine.

There is a Dutch octet that gives funny dances in wooden shoes, and among the principal ballets is "Love's Triumph," with Venus, Adonis and Cupids. A rag-time "The Way of the Cross" is sung afternoons by R. E. J. Kern and evenings by Dr. Ray Moore.

FRIENDS MURDER A YOUNG GIRL

Body Found in the Woods in Minnesota With the Marks of Violent Death

TWO BLACKS SUSPECTED

Woman Loses Her Life While on Way to Take Up Claim in Northern Part of State

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., April 16.—The dead body of Jeanie Kintop, a young girl, was found in the woods this morning about four miles from this city. The body was entirely stripped of clothing, a handkerchief was tightly twisted about her neck, the head was a mass of bruises, and there were evidences of an outrage. Two negroes were seen in the vicinity, and search is being made for them. If caught it is feared a lynching will follow.

The girl, who was about to leave for the northern part of the State to take up a homestead claim, had been in this city purchasing supplies. She left here on Monday evening for Darling, from which station she was to walk to her home, about two miles distant. After leaving Darling she was not seen again until her dead body was found to-day.

The place where the girl's body was found bore evidence of a terrific struggle. Her empty pocketbook and the parcels she was carrying were found nearby. Her watch was found near the body.

Charles Nelson, living near the scene of the murder, heard screams on Monday night and saw two unknown negroes near the spot. It is suspected that he committed the crime. A posse is searching the country.

WAR BETWEEN DIVINES ENDED

Special Dispatch to The Call.

VALLEJO, April 16.—It is stated on reliable authority that hereafter there will be but one Episcopal Church in this city, instead of two as has been the case ever since Rev. William Bollard, rector of the Church of the Ascension, incurred the displeasure of Bishop Moreland, head of the diocese of Sacramento. The long fight between Bishop and minister has been settled.

Several years ago Mr. Bollard and Bishop Moreland locked horns, the former preferring charges against his superior. The Bishop was sustained by the Episcopal Conference, but Bollard continued to insist on his right to turn over the church property in Vallejo to Rev. R. L. Macfarlane, who was sent to the navy ward to take charge of the parish. Bollard continued to lead those of his flock who remained faithful to him, and Macfarlane established the Mission of the Holy Spirit for those who were of the Bishop's side of the controversy.

It is understood that both Mr. Bollard and Mr. Macfarlane are to be given desirable parishes away from Vallejo, and that the worshippers at the Church of the Ascension and at the Mission of the Holy Spirit are to be once more brought under one pastor at the old church. Mr. Bollard, it is said, has been guaranteed the price of the property for a large sum he holds against the diocese.

BUSINESS INACTIVE ON LONDON EXCHANGE
Money Remains Easy, and It Is Believed Will Continue So for Some Time.

LONDON, April 16.—Business on the Stock Exchange has been inactive since the close of the settlement, operators being disinclined for fresh business in view of the holiday and pending the issue of the expected naval battle. Cheap money has failed to stimulate speculation, but quotations generally have been maintained. Prolonged ease of the money market is anticipated in view of the large bank reserve and the production of gold in Australia while arrivals from South Africa, it is thought, will suffice to meet the export demands.

Paris is still absorbing bar gold, and it is believed will continue to do so, while Russia withdraws money from here. American securities were the most active section, though still largely in the hands of Wall-street bulls. Northern Securities was the feature of the week. There were frequent spurts, but not much business, the close being at 186.

TROOPS CHECK RUSSIAN MOBS

Siege Conditions Prevail in the Narva District of the Czar's Capital

NO SABBATH DISORDERS

Dead Workmen Buried at Daybreak to Prevent a Threatened Demonstration

ST. PETERSBURG, April 17, 12:45 a. m.—Almost a state of siege exists in the Narva quarter, owing to the suspension of the Putiloff Iron Works. Soldiers are stationed inside the works and Cosacks and police swarm in the surrounding streets. The tension yesterday was great, especially when a policeman shot a drunken workman who had drawn a revolver on him, but there was no collision during the day.

The bodies of the two workmen who were accidentally killed at the iron works and whose funerals their fellows had planned to make a great political demonstration were interred at daybreak, in compliance with police orders, to avoid a demonstration. Several smaller demonstrations had been planned for other parts of the city, but there were no sabbath disorders.

Serious disturbances of anti-Semitic character, in which the garrison joined, are reported to have occurred at Chetyebinsk. In Orenburg a number of houses have been sacked. Troops have been sent thither to restore order.

The dismissal of Rimsky Korsakoff from his professorship in the St. Petersburg Conservatory continues to be an absorbing topic in Russian musical circles. Mme. Essipoff, the famous woman pianist, has notified the conservatory that she will resign unless Korsakoff be reinstated.

PUBLIC OPINION GAGGED.
Constitutional Press Denounces the Russian Bureaucracy.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 17.—The Son of the Fatherland, now the leading exponent of constitutionalism, fiercely denounces the manner in which, it alleges, the bureaucracy is trying to defeat the war which all Russia is waging against it. It charges the bureaucracy with having inaugurated a systematic campaign to gag public opinion, instancing the recent action of the Duma and the prohibition of meetings of other professional bodies in Moscow and elsewhere, all of which, it declares, is in direct contravention of the spirit of the imperial ukase of March 3, depriving individuals and societies the right to freely petition the throne on the subject of the general welfare. At the same time, the paper charges the bureaucracy with inspiring the local authorities everywhere to fight the reform movement by setting one class of the population against the other.

"All the efforts of the bureaucracy to still public opinion," the article says, "will be in vain; the other tricks will be unavailing. It has sown the wind and will reap the whirlwind."

ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—The Constitutional Conservative party, formed by a number of members of the Council of the Empire, Senators, Nobles, land owners and government officials and presided over by Count Eobrnsky, which has hitherto met privately, convened an important meeting for to-day to approve a circular embodying its views and proposals and arrange a great conference representing the whole of Russia to be held in St. Petersburg a few weeks hence. It is said that the proposals include an elected representative assembly.

AGITATORS VOTED DOWN.
Fail to Turn Waterworks Congress Into Political Meeting.

MOSCOW, April 13.—The waterworks congress, attended by 350 representatives from all parts of Russia, opened to-day with a stormy scene. Representatives of the engineering and other technical societies endeavored to divert the meeting to political purposes. Refutations were offered that the Congress refrain from discussing the objects for which it met, "because fruitful work is impossible until we can see free life in Russia." The resolutions were rejected, and when order was finally restored, the congress proceeded to the discussion of technical subjects under consideration.

Material Will Be Used at Bullfrog Mining Camp in Nevada.

LOS ANGELES, April 16.—Bullfrog, along with Tonopah and Goldfield, is making closer business connections with Los Angeles. Among the evidences of this is the fact that H. H. Clark, a mine owner, has just placed an order here for twelve miles of riveted steel water pipe for the Bullfrog mine. The first carload of pipe will go out to-morrow. This is the first order of this sort from the Bullfrog country.

"NAN" ATTENDS TOMBS CHAPEL

Miss Patterson Appears at Divine Services for First Time Since Her Arrest

WANTS PROMPT TRIAL

Young Woman Anxious to Learn Fate Third Jury Will Decree for Her

NEW YORK, April 16.—With her third trial on the charge that she murdered "Caesar" Young, the bookmaker, set for to-morrow, "Nan" Patterson to-day attended religious services in the Tombs for the first time, it is said, since she was placed in the prison following the tragedy in June last. With her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, who is in the Tombs under indictment for alleged conspiracy to extort money from Young, the Patterson girl went to the Catholic chapel and listened to the sermon preached by Rev. Father Luke Evers.

To friends who saw her to-day, "Nan" Patterson declared she was in excellent spirits and was anxious that the trial should go on to-morrow without further delay. The first trial of the girl was suspended after several days had been consumed in securing a jury, and after the taking of testimony had progressed to a critical point. One of the jurors became ill, the attack becoming so serious as to necessitate the declaration of a mistrial. The second trial went to a conclusion, but resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The foreman reported to the court that the jury was hopelessly divided, so a mistrial was finally ordered. It was said afterward that the jury stood six for acquittal and six for conviction.

The third trial was set for Monday, April 16, but was postponed until to-morrow because of the illness of the District Attorney, who desired to have the matter of the extradition of the Smiths from Cincinnati settled before the hearing should proceed.

It is said that Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker from whom it is alleged, the pistol with which Young was killed was bought, has been unable to identify Smith and a serious question has arisen as to whether the Smiths will be called as witnesses at the forthcoming trial. The law officers, however, decline to make an official statement on this point.

EXTRA JUDGE IS NOT WANTED
REDDING, April 16.—At a meeting of the lawyers of Redding to-night it was decided to urge Governor Pardee to appoint an additional Superior Judge for Shasta County. There is a bitter fight on between the people of Shasta and the lawyers. The people do not want another Judge. District Attorney Deagle left here to-night to interview the Governor and try to offset the effect of a mass meeting called by the citizens for to-morrow night. Messages are coming in from all parts of the county, protesting against the appointment of an additional Judge.

CHINA FAILS TO OBSERVE ITS TREATY WITH ENGLAND
Though Ratified Three Years Ago, Its Provisions Have Not Been Made Effective.

LONDON, April 17.—The correspondent at Shanghai of the Times writes at considerable length in protest against the fact that no single important clause of the commercial treaty negotiated by Sir James R. Mackay, Secretary of the Chinese Legation, which was ratified nearly three years ago, is yet effective and asserts that the Government encourages provincial officials in flagrant violations of its provisions.

The Mackay treaty, which was signed in September, 1902, provides among other things for the abolition of the likin and import duties. The likin is a tax levied at numerous stations throughout the provinces on all goods passing into the interior.

WILKSBARRE, Pa., April 16.—Because he had been ejected from a boarding-house at Luzerne, a suburb of this city, Andrew Bygash, a Hungarian, blew up the building early this morning with dynamite. He placed a stick of the explosive under one corner of the house and the entire rear portion of the structure was completely wrecked. The fifteen inmates escaped injury. Bygash is in jail.

POSSE SEARCHES FOR TORTURICI

May Have Hidden in Lumber Pile Near Place Where Vilardo's Head Was Found

DISOWNS HER HUSBAND

Wife of Man Charged With Brutal Murder Renounces Him for His Ill Treatment

Within two blocks of where the head and limbs of Biaggio Vilardo were found, a man resembling Pietro Torturici has been lurking for two days in a lumber pile. He was seen twice by Thomas O'Brien, who lives in the vicinity.

The police were notified last night and a patrol wagon filled with policemen was rushed to the lumber pile, which is at Dupont street, below Bay. The pile was surrounded and Detectives Reynolds and Bell proceeded to search through the lumber.

After stumbling about for some time they came upon a nook in the pile where some one had evidently been living. A pile of rags, an old coat that had apparently been used as a bed and a heap of cigarette butts were found.

The posse lingered in the vicinity of the lumber pile till an early hour this morning, but the man did not return. O'Brien says that he did not get a good look at the fellow the first time he encountered him, but last night he saw him by the light of a street lamp and was confident that it was Torturici.

Rosa Torturici told a Call reporter through an interpreter yesterday that even if her husband were acquitted she would not go back to him with fear.

"He treated myself and the baby shamefully," she declared. "I could never live with him again. I am happier here in the prison than I have been for a long time. When I think of my husband's murder with fear."

The woman has recovered from the state of terror she was in when first arrested. She does not want to leave the prison. She is afraid, she declares. A dispatch received last night from Gridley announces that a man answering the description of the fugitive in every particular is locked in the jail at that town, securely guarded.

The man was captured yesterday by Constable James Porter and John Garlick after a hard chase. The supposed Torturici has been hiding in the foothills of the Butte Mountains and was traced to his lair with difficulty.

He came to Butte County last Friday, leaving the jail at Gridley. The man did not tarry in the town, but struck out immediately for the mountains. He kept out of sight for a few days, but when almost starved for food at the ranch of John Richardson. Some Italian laborers, employed about the place, talked to the stranger. After he had left they told Richardson that the man was a Sicilian and was trying to hide from some one.

Richardson immediately notified the constables and they started after him. The man was overtaken on the road near Fennington. He tried to dart into the brush that grows along the highway, but the stern command, "Halt or I fire!" brought him to a standstill.

The man refused to give his name or account for himself. On the way to the jail he sobbed incessantly. When searched an ugly looking knife was found on him.

SCORES MEN WHO ACCEPTED THE ROCKEFELLER GIFT
NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 16.—Rev. Artemus Haynes, pastor of the United Congregational Church of this city, preached a sermon to-day on the Rockefeller gift, using as a text the words from St. Matthew relating to Christ casting out the money changers from a temple. With reference to the American's board's acceptance of the Rockefeller gift, Dr. Haynes criticized in the sharpest terms the action and words of the prudential committee as indicating, in his opinion, shameful evasion of Christian duty.

The finding of the committee, he characterized as "a document which might have been prepared by a corporation lawyer, filled with sophistry, evasions and excuses, and not one sentence from beginning to end ringing true."

GENERAL OF THE SULTAN IN PRECARIOUS POSITION
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 16.—News received here from Hodeida is to the effect that the situation at Sanaa is precarious, necessitating a new relief expedition, owing to General Rizapacha, aide camp to the Sultan, having lost all his guns and stores in recently fighting his way into Sanaa.

A dispatch from Constantinople April 1 said that Rizapacha, with a strong force of men, reached Sanaa, capital of the province of Yemen, Arabia, on March 29. On March 31 it was reported that Sanaa had fallen into the hands of the insurgents and on March 18 a dispatch stated that Sanaa had capitulated, but subsequently it was denied by the military authorities at Constantinople.
