

EAR ABANDONS EASTERN POLICY

Note to Germany in Regard to Morocco Causes Renewed Tension Between Powers

FRESH TALK OF WAR

Rouvier Does Not Yield to the Kaiser in His Desire for a General Conference

BERLIN, June 23.—The French note on the proposed Moroccan conference was handed to the Foreign Office this morning. Owing to its great length, the note had to be sent by mail to Berlin instead of by telegraph.

The Foreign Office while declining to discuss the points of the note in detail, admits that it leaves the situation where it was before. The points of disagreement between Germany and France have not been removed. It is expected that the negotiations will continue for a long time before a positive result is reached.

Germany's answer to Premier Rouvier has not yet been considered. It will require considerable time in order to meet all the points raised. While the delay is having for its object circumstances be of advantage in affording time for the excitement to subside, German Government circles note with some concern that powerful intrigues are going on having for their object war between Germany and France.

The evening newspapers frankly express their disappointment at the French note. Much had been staked upon Premier Rouvier's ostensible wish to come to an understanding with Germany, but the Vossische Zeitung, discussing the note, says M. Rouvier is continuing M. Delcasse's policy without a change.

The newspaper emphasizes the fact that the French note leaves the differences where they were before regarding their bearings upon the projected Moroccan conference. It is remarked that M. Rouvier has just succeeded in leaving room for an acceptance of the conference if this becomes absolutely necessary.

The Post remarks that the French Premier makes a result that looks strikingly like a polite but shaming refusal. The Vossische Zeitung agrees with the Post in saying that the answer comes nearer a refusal than an acceptance of the conference.

The National Zeitung, in an evidently inspired statement, calls attention to the warlike aspect which the British press attempts to give to the situation, whereas Germany does not believe that the present complications are likely to result in thoughts of war.

While the newspapers plainly show disappointment, they all maintain a calm tone. The situation is not threatening and nothing is said which is calculated to wound French sensibilities.

UNEASINESS IN FRANCE

PARIS, June 23.—An official communication issued after the meeting of the Council of Ministers to-day says Premier Rouvier has announced to the press the status of the negotiations with Germany. These follow the normal course without change since the delivery of the note of Prince Radolin, the German Ambassador, to the French Foreign Office.

Uneasiness continues to prevail in parliamentary circles and among the public generally concerning the outcome of the negotiations.

In spite of the reassuring tone of the official communication issued after the Cabinet council, public opinion remains unsettled over the strained relations between France and Germany.

A semi-official statement appeared this evening summarizing the main features of the French note. It said that instead of seeking to avoid a conference the note invites an exchange of views, thus distinctly showing that France does not reject the principle of a conference. The note further explains French policy in Morocco, thus meeting Germany's complaint that she had heretofore been deprived of information relative to the development of Morocco.

The statement seeks to show that the French Government has advanced a settlement of the difficulties. Notwithstanding this Government with a large element of the public is convinced that Germany will not accept the note as tending towards an adjustment.

This unofficial view is strengthened by an intimation from German diplomatic quarters that Germany is likely to decline to give details of the note at the conference, insisting that acceptance of any limitations of its scope. This firmness on the part of Germany is chiefly responsible for the renewed excitement on the Bourse and the widespread uneasiness among the public.

DEATH OF ONE OF PERRY'S MEN IN BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, June 23.—Thomas Nichol, one of the last survivors of Commodore Perry's expedition to Japan in 1850, died yesterday at his home in Brooklyn. He was born in England 79 years ago. In early life Nichol moved to America, and on October 1, 1812, he was assigned to the frigate St. George. This vessel, with six others, comprised the fleet which Perry took to Japan for the purpose of negotiating the treaty which resulted in opening the ports of that country to the trade of the world.

Death of German Actress

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 23.—Miss Johanna Ruge, a prominent German actress, who recently came to the United States from the Royal Theater in Berlin, died at the home of her mother in this city yesterday.

Death of Noted Jurist

LEBANON, Ind., June 23.—Judge Stephen Neale, author of the fourteenth amendment to the United States constitution, died at his home in this city to-day.

Celebrated Chessplayer Dead

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 23.—Arthur Ford MacKenzie, a celebrated chessplayer, probabilist and author, died here to-day, aged 45 years. He had been an invalid for many years.

Rids Himself of Exponents of Regime Which Has Been So Fruitful of Disaster

ALEXIEFF IN DISFAVOR

Report States That Hasty Withdrawal of Alexis Was Due to the Terrorists

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—The Viceroyalty of the Far East having been abolished by the Imperial ukase of June 21, Admiral Alexieff has been appointed a member of the council of the empire and will continue to hold his position as aide-camp general to the Emperor.

The Emperor's present attitude toward Alexieff's retirement was not accompanied by the usual receipt of praise, and it bears all the earmarks of imperial disfavor. The retirement of Grand Duke Alexis as High Admiral, and of Alexieff as Viceroy of the Far East and the suppression of the Far Eastern committee in quick succession are the best evidence that Japan could need that the Emperor has washed his hands of the whole Manchurian adventure.

After the labor disturbances of January 22, which resulted in much bloodshed in St. Petersburg, it was reported that Grand Duke Alexis had been condemned to death by the terrorists. It was further asserted that for a long time after the murder of Grand Duke Sergius on February 11, Alexis did not leave his palace, as he had again been notified that the terrorists had placed his name on the list of those who were to be executed.

A story is current in the city that the day before Grand Duke Alexis resigned the post of high admiral, he received a formal warning from the terrorists informing him that unless he retired within twenty-four hours a sentence on him would be passed and executed.

The Minister of the Interior has prohibited the publication of the Russ for a month. The Russ was suspended upon the recommendation of Assistant Minister of the Interior Treppoff. The Russ, which enjoys an immense circulation, has been the Government's most severe critic, waging unceasingly a war against the bureaucracy and printing exposure after exposure.

The Slovo, M. Witt's organ, attributes the origin of the war to the late Interior Minister von Plehve and concludes with a black page which preceded the bloody pages of the book of our Far Eastern affairs has at last been torn out by the Emperor and all Russia will rejoice.

ARMISTICE SUGGESTION

WAR ENDS HERE

Continued from Page 1, Column 5.

and General Okta's entire army has been newly clothed in khaki.

Will Cease Interfering With Shipping.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—In consequence of British representations, British warships will be dispatched to convey orders to the Russian auxiliary cruisers Dnieper and Rion to cease interfering with shipping and to return immediately.

Will Send Hospital Ship to Manila.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Russia has decided to send a hospital ship to Manila to take away the wounded of Admiral Togo's squadron.

Prices on Bourse Continue to Sag.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—Prices on the Bourse to-day continued to sag. Imperial loans were selling to 86 1/2.

WINS NEW FORTUNE IN COLORADO MINES

Special Dispatch to The Call.

DENVER, Colo., June 23.—Rasmus Hanson, who spent $12,000 giving a dinner to the Prince of Wales, now King Edward, before the death of the latter's mother and then met reverses which left him penniless, is wealthy once more.

A year ago, when he was commencing to get on his feet again, he married Miss Laura M. Leesburg, who had been in charge of a cigar stand in a Denver hotel. She was the wife of a millionaire and again sought wealth in the mines where he found it first. He has been successful and is in Denver once more on a pleasure trip. Six numerals are required to represent the value of property he has developed. It is more than ten years since Hanson created a sensation by inviting the Prince of Wales to one of the most luxurious dinners ever given in London by an American.

The Colorado miler enjoyed the distinction of being the first American to entertain the Prince of Wales. When Edward became King he sent Hanson a souvenir of the coronation.

LIGHT OIL IS STRUCK IN FIELDS OF KERN

Special Dispatch to The Call.

BAKERSFIELD, June 23.—The experimental deep well of the Santa Fe in the Kern River oil fields is down more than 2000 feet and the drill has penetrated a stratum of light oil of 30 degrees gravity. This is the most important discovery in the Kern fields since the first find of oil and it will revolutionize the industry, as the oil is so much lighter than that now being pumped.

The shallow wells now being developed give a much heavier oil and during the last few years the output has been gradually decreasing. The latest new discovery shows that the industry is only in its infancy here. The work of deepening the old wells will be begun at once. The output of lighter oil promises to be much greater than that of the heavy.

The new discovery of the Santa Fe people has created great excitement among the oil people in this part of the State.

AMERICANS PAY HIGH HONOR TO BELLA REID

American Ambassador Guest of Pilgrims in English Metropolis.

WORKS OF PEACE HIS THEME

Whiteley Reid, the new American Ambassador to Great Britain, was accorded an enthusiastic welcome last night at a dinner given in his honor by the Pilgrims' Society of London.

The usual custom is to propose the toast to the rulers of the two countries, King Edward and President Roosevelt. In the course of his speech, Ambassador Reid said: "Give us frequent meetings on each other's soil and you will find co-operation in works of civilization, the promotion of friendliness and co-operation in the pursuit of the peace of the world."

LONDON, June 23.—Whiteley Reid, the American Ambassador who has been officially received by King Edward and the members of the Cabinet and entertained socially by royalty and the leaders of English society, made his first public appearance at a dinner given in his honor by the Pilgrims' Society of London. The gathering included many of England's most famous men, with a sprinkling of American residents of London, all of whom gave the warmest welcome to the American representative.

The large banquet hall at Claridge's was crowded and presented a brilliant scene. The hall was plainly but daintily decorated with the twining American and British flags, blue bells of American beauty roses and clusters of other flowers, while the numerous round tables at which the company dined were decorated with red and pink roses and green chrysanthemums.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

SEEKING TO PROVE BELLA REID'S INTENT

Court Says Letters Showing Mitchell's Interest in Other Cases Are Proper Evidence

TANNER ON THE STAND

Many Epistles Revealing the Senator's Share in Alleged Frauds Read Before Jury

PORTLAND, June 23.—Judge Albert H. Tanner, chief witness for the prosecution in the case of the United States against United States Senator Mitchell, occupied the witness stand all day to-day. The direct examination was concluded late this afternoon, after which court was adjourned until to-morrow, when the defendant will begin his cross-examination.

Only once to-day did anything occur to break the monotonous piling-up of documentary evidence by the prosecution. This was when the court ruled that it was proper to introduce evidence tending to show that Senator Mitchell had knowingly accepted fees in other but similar cases to the one at issue, for the purpose of proving a lack of probability that an acceptance of a fee in the case at issue had been made by inadvertence or error. The disagreement arose over the offer of a letter and testimony from Judge Tanner, showing that Tanner and Mitchell had made an agreement with Kribbs to expedite certain claims in December, 1903.

The defense objects on the ground that the agreement came outside those alleged in the indictment. Attorney Heney contended that the rules of evidence admitted such testimony in certain cases as tending to prove knowledge and intent where its lack was set out as defense, as in this case. The court held with Heney, and as a result the testimony of Judge Tanner was admitted in relation to the work done for Benson and Hyde of California, W. E. Burke of Eastern Oregon, and Lee Sue, a Portland Chinese, as well as other transactions before the Department of Commerce and Labor, in all of which it was contended, Mitchell had received his share of the fees paid.

After all this talk about the benevolent effects of intercourse and international co-operation in causing whatever brings the two countries together, the two countries together clasp the whole English-speaking family on whatever continents or lands it may be scattered in the world. Does the strongest of the historic reverence of the race for conduct of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because of the peace and prosperity which they have brought to the world. When we reflect on the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign, we are reminded of the happy results of King Edward's reign, and the peace and prosperity which have been the result of his reign."

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, president and several hundred guests were present. Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast programme is one which cannot be passed to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I think that all this country assembled to do honor to a pilgrim in the person of the American Ambassador, who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James. It would be an honor to have the ruler of the respective countries