

FOUR PEOPLE SHOT IN DRAWL

Italian and Mexican Fight an Exciting Duel in Front of a Broadway Theater

STRAY BALL HITS ACTOR

Herbert M. Herbert, a Vaudeville Artist, Is Seriously Wounded and May Not Live

Three men and a woman were shot last night shortly after 10 o'clock in front of the Broadway Theater during a duel between Frank Galbring, a Spaniard, and Salvatore Pierre, an Italian. The injured are Pierre, John Area, also a Mexican; Galbring and Miss Augustina Peters of 323 Filbert street. The trouble that led up to the fight began in the theater during the last performance of the evening. The belligerents took their quarrel into the street in front of the theater and it was there the shooting occurred. Area, who lives at Francisco and Powell streets, and his friend, Frank Galbring of 1316 Powell street, were attending the performance with Miss Sinfonia Peters and her sister, Augustina. While they sat watching the last act Miss Sinfonia complained to Galbring that a man behind her had cut her dress with a knife. It was Pierre, Galbring turned around and upbraided him in angry tones. Pierre got up from his seat and started on a run for the door. Galbring and Area followed him to the street. As soon as the two pursuers got outside Pierre began firing from a small .32-caliber four-barreled revolver. He fired all four shots and Galbring returned with one shot from his seat and started on a run for the door. Galbring and Area followed him to the street scattered. The Peters sisters, who had followed their escorts to the door, were in the thick of the fire. Miss Augustina was shot in the thigh, though not seriously. Galbring was shot in the left breast, but the bullet did not penetrate. Pierre was shot in the finger by the bullet from Galbring's revolver. Herbert M. Herbert, a vaudeville actor, was coming from the theater through an alleyway and was hit by a stray bullet from Pierre's pistol. Herbert's wound is the most serious of any. The bullet penetrated his groin and the wound may result fatally.

MANAGER CALVIN HURRIES TO DAUGHTER'S BEDSIDE

Special Train Is Carrying Him to Salt Lake City, Where Girl Is Seriously Ill.

The best motive power owned by the Southern Pacific Railway was used last night to carry its general manager, E. E. Calvin, of San Francisco, to the bedside of his daughter, Nellie, who was operated on for appendicitis at Salt Lake City yesterday. Mr. Calvin left San Francisco yesterday on a regular train, but it did not make the speed required, so instructions were sent out to run a special train from Sparks, Nevada.

At Sparks Mr. Calvin left the regular train and at every junction bulletins were regarding his daughter's condition. The special reaches Ogden early this morning and will be in Salt Lake City about noon.

COL. JEFFERSON DOOLITTLE HEARS DEATH'S CALL.

Brilliant Career Is Ended Suddenly at Club.

Neuralgia of Heart Reaches Fatal Termination.

Lieutenant Colonel Jefferson E. Doolittle, the prominent mining man, member of the prominent family in Belvedere for the summer, and his demise was so sudden that they were not notified of his condition in time to be at his bedside. In 1857 the colonel was born at the old Jefferson Flat mine in Placer County, and being raised among the successful mining men of the time he also attained distinction as a representative of the industry. During his active career he was a trustee of the State Mining Bureau and a member of the Miners' Association. Operations in the mining world were not the only ones to which the colonel confined himself. He was a man of great business ability, as well, and during his later life engaged in buying some real estate. A beautiful home for his family was being planned at the corner of Pine and Franklin streets. The contracts were let Monday. He leaves an extensive estate consisting of mining property. A little son, Harold, four years of age, is the only child of the deceased. Mrs. Doolittle and Harold came to San Francisco on the first steamer from Tiburon after hearing the sad news and will stay at the residence of J. H. Jennings at 3221 Clay street. The funeral will take place on Thursday from the Jennings residence.

NEGLECTED BY HUSBAND, ACTRESS DIES DESTITUTE

Victoria O'Neil, Whose Stage Name Was Welsh, Passes Away in a Cheap Lodging-House.

According to the statement of her neighbors to Chief Morgue Deputy McCormick, Mrs. Victoria O'Neil, a comely actress, who died of consumption yesterday morning in a lodging-house at 231 Second street, had been neglected by her husband, James O'Neil, who is an actor traveling from one small town to another in this State. He was last heard from several weeks ago at Cloverdale and later at Weaverville. Mrs. O'Neil, unable to do anything for herself, was in a state of destitution, and kind-hearted neighbors, themselves but poorly provided with the world's goods, assisted her as well as their slender means would allow.

Mrs. O'Neil went by the stage name of Welsh. She used to appear at the Thalia and other like places. The body was taken to the Morgue and will be buried by the city should no one claim it.

OLD MAN TURNS WRONG GAS VALVE AND DIES IN BED

Dead Body of Andrew Magison Discovered by His Horrified Son in Early Morning.

Andrew Magison, 65 years old, who roomed with his son's family at 314 Van Ness avenue, was suffocated by illuminating gas last Monday night. At half past 6 o'clock yesterday morning the odor of gas was detected proceeding from his room downstairs and Magison's son, Walter, who occupied with his family the upper flat, was notified. Hurrying downstairs he forced an entrance into the room and found his father lying dead in bed. Gas was escaping from a rubber tube that was hanging from one of the two burners in the room, the valve of the burner being open. The tube had been used formerly to convey cooking gas to a cooking stove. The family are of the opinion that death was the result of an accident. Mr. Magison was a native of Sweden.

BARGAINS—AND THE WOMAN.

The joke makers have pretty nearly abandoned the woman bargain hunter as a theme. Time was when about every paragraph, comic artist and joke-smith held her up to the smiling world—pictured her as a despoiler of her husband's purse, as a fierce Amazon on store shelves, wildly clamoring for anything whatever so long as the price had been reduced by a few pennies.

But the woman bargain hunter has slowly yet surely changed her part, and she deserves the rest which the humorists are giving her. It is not always with entire success to make her lone dollar do the work of two.

Is it comical—or isn't it a trifle pathetic—the woman, whose allowance for dress is pitifully small, searches the store ads, and the stores, and wanders about the city, in the problem of KEEPING UP APPEARANCES before her neighbors and the world?

And is it "mania," or just GOOD SENSE, in a woman to try to expend wisely and carefully the money which she has so hard-earned?

Even a good natured husband will sometimes twit his wife with her bargaining. She reads these first. Then, with the same allowance as her less prudent sister, the woman bargain hunter manages to dress better, to keep her children looking better, to keep the house better furnished, the table fuller, and to have many little "extra things" which the other woman is never "able to buy."

When the same allowance as her less prudent sister, the woman bargain hunter manages to dress better, to keep her children looking better, to keep the house better furnished, the table fuller, and to have many little "extra things" which the other woman is never "able to buy."

And in reading her newspaper she finds the really important news in the store ads. She reads these first. Then, if she have time, she reads the details of the war in the East or the latest divorce case.

RAILROADS TO PAY FOR ARROGANCE

Willfully Ignore a Federal Law and Government Will File Twelve Hundred Suits to Punish Them

MANAGERS ALREADY ASKING FOR MERCY

Department of Agriculture Collects Evidence Showing Violation of Regulations for Cattle Shipments

Special Dispatch to The Call.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—The Department of Agriculture has prepared papers in 1200 suits to be brought against the railroads of the country asking that in each case a fine of $500 be assessed for violation of the so-called twenty-eight hour law, providing for humane shipment of cattle. Nearly every railroad from Maine to California is involved.

The suits will be filed in the circuit courts of the United States and judgments will be asked for for the benefit of the Federal treasury.

Evidence against the railroads is so clear that the attorneys for many of the big companies have already begun negotiations with Secretary Wilson with a view to having him agree to compromises.

The law under which this wholesale suit is to be done has been in the books since 1874. But the railroads have never given it much thought, and still less observance. It requires railroad companies transporting cattle from one State to another to unload the animals after they have been in the cars twenty-eight hours, feed and water them and give them a rest of at least six hours. Failure to comply with the law is punishable by a fine of from $100 to $500.

For many years two inspectors were engaged to ride on cattle trains. They secured a few convictions, but did not improve conditions. The railroads paid the fines and thought no more about it. It was impossible for inspectors to ride on every train.

A year ago Secretary Wilson got a law adviser in George McCabe of Utah. He knows the "cow country" and he instituted a system of investigation into the shipment of cattle. The 1500 inspectors and taggers in the service of the Bureau of Animal Industry were told to take notes, at the point of origin of big shipments of cattle, of the name of the shipper and the number of each car. The inspectors and taggers at the feeding stations were to record the numbers of the cars unloaded at the stations and the men at the stock yards to take more notes, together with the time of the arrival of the various cars.

The notes were all sent here. The time of each cattle train was figured out. In a little more than six months evidence against 1200 violations was on file. When Secretary Wilson was ready for the railroad men he suggested that they come to see him. They came, and very soon many were ready to talk compromise. Most of the railroads have taken steps to prevent violations of the law in the future.

DESTROYS EYESIGHT IN PECULIAR WAY

HEALDSBURG, July 4.—Mrs. J. B. Sheppard, the wife of a farmer near Windsor, is the victim of an accident which has cost her the sight of one eye. Mrs. Sheppard had a pair of scissors in her hand when a fly alighted on her face. Not noticing that she had the scissors in her hand she struck at the fly and jabbed the point of the scissors into her left eye, piercing and destroying the pupil and iris.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE WHEN DENIED STANDARD WAGES

Employees of the San Pedro, Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad Walk Out.

LOS ANGELES, July 4.—Switchmen employed by the San Pedro, Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad in this city, San Pedro, Las Vegas, Nevada and Caliente, who are members of the Switchmen's Union of North America, went out on strike to-day. The railroad company declares that no more than a dozen men quit, but the strikers claim more than thirty switchmen walked out.

The men have been trying for some time to induce the road to pay the standard salary for switchmen. The company refused to grant the demands and the men quit.

General Manager Wells declares the road is not inconvenienced by the strike and that the strikers' places have been filled.

GAMES IN STATE LEAGUE.

Oakland Beats San Jose, While Fresno Defeats San Francisco.

SAN JOSE, July 4.—Oakland beat San Jose 3 to 1 to-day by a score of 3 to 1. The game was an interesting one. McGregor and Kent were the battery for San Jose. Tyson, who was affected by the heat, was relieved by Oeff in the fifth inning for Oakland and Heelan caught. The hitting of Schutte and Foy were the features of the game. The score:

R. H. E. Oakland ..... 3 8 2 San Jose ..... 1 0 0

FRESNO, July 4.—For the third time in the last three days Fresno's State League team defeated the San Francisco. The score:

R. H. E. Fresno ..... 3 8 4 San Francisco ..... 5 11 7

Mayor McClellan Declares the Nation Suffers From a Spirit of Unrest

CONTENT IS LACKING

Man Who Lives a Tranquil Life Is Sneered At as One Without Ambition

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 4.—Mayor George B. McClellan of New York City, at the National Educational Association convention to-day, spoke to an audience of 7000 persons on "The Standard of Living."

Mayor McClellan said, in part: "I take it that the subject which has been assigned to me means educational administration, and, therefore, education itself. It may be that old-fashioned. It may be that my ideas may be obsolete, but I assure you that I am sincere in saying that I believe that such education, and not man schools, is the one that is needed. The problem is serious, but by no means insoluble. Its solution depends entirely upon ourselves. The country needs men of thought and men of learning and needs them badly. The man who thinks may be a greater patriot than the man who does."

We suffer from the spirit of unrest, which frequently prompts us to ill-considered, unthought and thoughtless action for the sake of doing something. We are apt to applaud the man who does not so much as to accomplish anything, but because he accomplishes something, he is good, but not better."

This spirit of unrest permeates our whole national life—political, social, educational. Its content is a senseless, unproductive ambition, and yet ambition and hysteria are very different things. Contentment and happiness are synonymous terms, but unfortunately, we scarcely know what we are striving for. We have forgotten that deeds are merely a means to an end.

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mr. Pinkham:—About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor called to relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women. Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 53 Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, leucorrhoea, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian trouble. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DELEGATES POUR INTO BALTIMORE

Annual Christian Endeavor Convention Opens in Maryland Metropolis To-Day

THOUSANDS TO ATTEND

Los Angeles and Seattle in the Fight for the Next Session of the Society

BALTIMORE, July 4.—All the railway trains and coast steamships arriving here to-day brought delegations to the twenty-second annual Christian Endeavor Convention, which is to be formally opened in this city to-morrow. It is expected that to-morrow, 20,000 visitors will be here. All the evangelical churches and many residences and business houses have been decorated in honor of the convention, which will be in session five days. The sessions will be held in Armory Hall, which has a seating capacity of 16,000, while auxiliary meetings will be held in Lyric Hall with seats for 4000.

There will be little real routine business to transact during the convention, and the only actual business meeting will be held to-morrow morning in the Hotel Belvidere, when the annual session of the United Society of Christian Endeavor Corporations will take place. At this meeting officers and trustees for the ensuing year will be elected, annual reports of officers and business agents will be made and any other business that may legally come within the scope of the meeting will be transacted. This meeting will probably conclude the routine business of the convention.

The regular opening of the convention will take place in Armory Hall at 3 o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society, presiding. Addresses of welcome to the delegates will be made by Governor Warfield, representing the State of Maryland, and Mayor Timanus, representing Baltimore city.

At night there will be an international festival of praise with a chorus of 2500 voices.

There is already in progress here a lively contest for the next convention, the contestants being Los Angeles, Seattle, Minneapolis, Kansas City and Indianapolis, and literature and badges in behalf of these places are being freely distributed. The contest will not be decided until next Monday.
