

CZAR'S FINAL ANSWER TO THE MIKADO

Continued From Page 1, Column 7.

how it may be regarded by his imperial master and the latter's advisers. It is a mistake to suppose that, in considering such a proposition, the Emperor consults a regularly organized council. Throughout the conference he has been calling in counsel such advisers as he deemed wise—some of his relatives, the Grand Dukes, members of the court and certain chosen Ministers.

The Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholavitch, one of the most powerful of his relatives, is known to be absolutely opposed to yielding an iota beyond what Mr. de Witte has already conceded. As an alternative, he favors the continuation of the war.

The spirit of all the advice received has been such as to preclude hope of an eleventh-hour change. The general belief here is that President Roosevelt, who has the moral support of one of the neutral powers, has not received the active aid he expected. England's declination to offer advice to Japan is disappointing, though the motives that actuate her in refusing to do anything that might be construed as an attempt to extirpate the war are understood.

SAGHALIEN'S STRATEGIC VALUE

Russian Explains Why the Island Will Not Be Ceded to Japan.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 21.—The following statement from an authoritative source represents the Russian view of the military and strategic value of the island of Saghalien:

To appreciate its military value it must be borne in mind that the island, which is about 600 miles long, lies almost against the main line of the Japanese empire, the straits of Tartary, which in some places is only four miles wide. Physically it might almost be considered a part of the Asiatic continent.

There is no doubt that whoever controls Saghalien, besides being in a position to threaten the sea routes of the Asiatic continent, is in a position to absolutely prevent communication between the mainland and the Pacific, through the sea routes of the Asiatic continent.

VENETIAN SCHOLARS DIG OUT TWO ACCOUNTS OF A MAN SHAKESPEARE IMMORTALIZED

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 21.—The police have at last applied a check to the activity of the central bureau of the League and Confederation of Professional Reform Organizations by descending to-day upon a meeting of the central committee and arresting ten of the leaders present.

JEWES PRESENT MEMORIAL

Hope the Washington Conference Will Result in Peace.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 21.—A memorial was presented to Mr. de Witte and Baron Rosen from the Russian Jews of Lawrence, Mass., to-day by Walter E. Rusford. After extending greetings the document continues thus:

ADVERTISEMENTS

Chats

Climbing to the top of Mount Middle Ages? When you get there the footing is mighty poor. As you begin to go down the other side be sure to take the right trail.

ness, Nicholas, Emperor of all the Russias, to delegate his excellency, Baron Rosen to represent the fatherland at the peace conference with the imperial envoys of Japan, he stated that we, Jewish residents of Lawrence, extend to them a brotherly welcome and devoutly pray that the peace conference will be an effort leading to an honorable peace between the warring countries of Russia and Japan.

KANEKO VISITS OYSTER BAY.

BARON BELIEVED TO BE BEARER OF IMPORTANT MESSAGE.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 21.—President Roosevelt has not abandoned hope of a successful issue of the Washington peace conference. Neither has he relaxed his efforts to prevent a capitalistic representative in this country of the Japanese Government, arrived in Oyster Bay quite unexpectedly.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Beatrice C. Young, formerly of Winona, Minn., who shot Mrs. Katherine Morgan, a public stenographer, yesterday before a police magistrate she appeared to be fully possessed of her faculties.

WOMAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK STENOGRAPHER NOT INSANE

Prisoner is Discharged From Bellevue Hospital and is Arraigned for Attempt to Kill.

WASHINGTON HEIRESS UNDERGOES OPERATION AS RESULT OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

HER BROTHER BURIED

INJURED YOUNG WOMAN IS YET IN IGNORANCE OF THE FACT OF HIS DEATH

Special Dispatch to The Call.

NEWPORT, Aug. 21.—Miss Evelyn Walsh had to go through the painful ordeal of having her fractured right thigh set this afternoon. Fortunately the actual operation took only an instant, and Miss Walsh continued to display the bravery she has shown since the automobile accident on Saturday.

The principal witness for Mrs. Taggart to-day was Mrs. Irene Shields Voss, a niece of Mrs. Taggart. The damaging part of her testimony related to Major Taggart and Augusta de la Cruz, the Filipino woman who had described improper conduct on the part of Captain Bush and Mrs. Taggart.

"Twice I saw Major Taggart strike his wife," said Mrs. Voss, who described the two incidents in detail.

She said Taggart was very quarrelsome on the subject of Mrs. Taggart. One time he came home to go driving with his wife and discovered that she had gone out with Bush. He followed them, and on finding Mrs. Taggart with Bush, there was a quarrel.

Perhaps the most spectacular witness of the day was Mrs. Fannie Saffarons, wife of Major Saffarons of Denver. Mrs. Saffarons has been sort of a "child of the garrison."

The last words Vinson Walsh spoke after the accident was in inquiry about his sister's condition.

"How's Sis?" he asked, as he was raised up by Miss Sarah Gilbert, who held his head until he was put into a carriage and taken to the hospital.

The captain had the best-stocked sideboard at Fort Thomas, she admitted.

"I'll ask you, Mrs. Saffarons, if you are not now the heroine of a big scandal for Fort Logan?" remarked counsel.

This question was not answered.

"Is it not a fact that a young officer by the name of Lieutenant English was court-martialed and found guilty of a charge of inappropriate funds which he spent on you?"

The court refused to permit the answer to be made a part of the record.

The depositions of Captain Moore and Mrs. Taggart were taken on August 19 and 20, and said he went home with Mrs. Taggart on the night of June 30.

He had not got far away from the house when he heard the servant, Emma, cry "God's sake, she's killing her!"

The next day, when he went to see Mrs. Taggart, she had a bruise on her face. There was a raw mark on her shoulder and her hands were bruised.

DUKE OF SUTHERLAND FORCED TO CLOSE GATES OF TRENTHAM HALL IN STAFFORDSHIRE

Special Dispatch to The Call.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Trentham Hall, the Staffordshire seat of the Duke of Sutherland, which he is abandoning because of the pollution of the River Trent renders its occupancy no longer safe, is one of the most beautiful private residences in Great Britain.

The sewage from Stoke-on-Trent, the center of the great Staffordshire pottery industry, is allowed to flow into the Trent, which passes through the Duke's estate and close to the great house.

Like so many other grand lands of the British nobility, Trentham is one of the monasteries despoiled by King Henry VIII. He gave it to Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk, who had married his sister. Subsequently it passed to the Levesons, a Staffordshire family which became prominent through Nicholas Leveson, a London merchant who was Lord Mayor of London in 1539.

The estate, by marriage, passed into the possession of the Levesons, and their ancestors, the Duke of Sutherland, in those days they were simple Yorkshire squires.

By a series of lucky marriages, the family rose in rank, wealth and possessions. An early ancestor, the present Duke, in addition to his dukedom, has five baronies, four viscounties, five earldoms, a marquessate, and owns more property than any other man in the kingdom.

His estate comprises 100,000 acres, the larger portion of which are in Scotland. To reach the more distant portions of his Sutherland estates, in that country, the Duke makes use of a private railway, often driving the engine himself.

Some years ago, the late Shah of Persia, when staying at Trentham in a party which included the Prince of Wales (now King Edward) is said to have requested an account of the wealth of his host. After listening attentively to the story of the Duke's possessions, the Shah turned to the Prince and asked if, when he came to the throne, he would not behold this powerful man under whose roof they were staying.

"No," replied his royal Highness, "there are so many other nobles in the land that I am afraid I could not undertake such a clearance."

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT, DENVER, COLO.

A personally conducted excursion in charge of a Veteran will leave San Francisco on a special train for Denver, via the G. A. R. Encampment at Denver, special cars without extra charge. Tickets good returning any day desired. The very low rate of $55, first-class, round trip will be in effect. Write for details to G. A. R. Encampment, Denver, Colo., 313 Market street.

MISS ROOSEVELT WOULD MARRY SULTAN OF SULU OFFERS HIS HAND AND HEART TO PRESIDENT'S PRETTY DAUGHTER

TAFT PARTY AT JOLO

REPRESENTATIVE LONGWORTH OF OHIO RISKS LIFE TO SAVE DROWNING NEWSPAPER MAN

JOLO, Aug. 18, via Manila, Aug. 21.—Secretary Taft and party arrived here at noon and immediately proceeded to the parade ground to witness an elaborate programme arranged for their entertainment.

Thousands of Moros, residents of Jolo, and from the neighboring islands were present to take part in the festivities, which were wonderfully picturesque.

Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt were presented with many Moro gifts by the Sultan, who offered his hand in marriage to Miss Roosevelt, and would make her Sultana of the Sulu Archipelago, saying that his people desired her to remain among them.

While some members of the party were out-buffing in the afternoon, Frederick O'Brien, editor of the Cable News, was seized with cramps, and the undertow was rapidly carrying him out to sea.

Seeing his peril, started after him and rescued him at the risk of his own life.

CEBU, P. I., Aug. 22.—Secretary Taft and party arrived here at nine o'clock this morning on the transport Logan.

The Logan will sail for Taclovan at day-break to-morrow. The Logan will take to Hongkong Secretary Taft's entire party and a company of marines, which will relieve the legation guard at Peking.

First Lieutenant William A. Duncan, assistant surgeon, relieved of duty at Fort Leavenworth, will proceed to San Francisco and take of transport, which will sail for the Philippines Islands and there report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

Captain Schofield, first Snelling, is to proceed by first available transport sailing from San Francisco to the Philippines Islands and report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT TO BE RESTORED

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—Civil government, which has been suspended for more than a year by martial law in German Southwest Africa, will soon be restored.

The resignation of Colonel Leutwein, the Governor, who has functions were taken over by Lieutenant General von Trotha, commander in chief of the military forces, has been accepted and Herr von Lindquist, Consul General at Cape Town, has been appointed in his stead.

ARMY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Army orders—Sergeant (first class) Max Arend, Hospital Corps, Army General Office, Presidio, San Francisco, is to be sent to the Philippine Islands on the first available transport leaving San Francisco.

He will report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

First Lieutenant William A. Duncan, assistant surgeon, relieved of duty at Fort Leavenworth, will proceed to San Francisco and take of transport, which will sail for the Philippines Islands and there report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

Captain Schofield, first Snelling, is to proceed by first available transport sailing from San Francisco to the Philippines Islands and report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

PRODIGIOUS STOCK

METAL BED—Heavy uprights, gracefully curved filling, angle iron head and side rails; comes in a variety of colorings. Price... $3.85

3-PIECE PARLOR SUIT—Mahogany finished frame, best steel spring; upholstered in figured velour. Price $23.50

SIDEBOARD—Solid oak, golden finish; top has bevel French plate mirror, highly polished. Price... $16.75

This is economy's center. If you want furniture, carpets, draperies, stoves or ranges, trade at the "Store on the Square." You will find the largest selection at lowest prices. "Nuf ced."

MOTHER GOOSE

There was a little man And to get a pen he ran, And he kept the pen scratching All the time, time, time; And with "Cordes" for his theme He used paper by the room, Getting "we are on the Square" In the rhyme, rhyme, rhyme.

Get busy and win a prize. The contest is open to all our young friends, wherever situated. The closing date, as well as the prize winners, will be announced in the daily papers. No person allowed to win more than one prize.

Each rhyme should be carefully marked with the writer's name and address and sent to Mother Goose, care of CORDES FURNITURE CO.

CORDES FURNITURE CO.

245-259 GEARY ST. ON THE SQUARE

MISS ROOSEVELT WOULD MARRY SULTAN OF SULU OFFERS HIS HAND AND HEART TO PRESIDENT'S PRETTY DAUGHTER

TAFT PARTY AT JOLO

REPRESENTATIVE LONGWORTH OF OHIO RISKS LIFE TO SAVE DROWNING NEWSPAPER MAN

JOLO, Aug. 18, via Manila, Aug. 21.—Secretary Taft and party arrived here at noon and immediately proceeded to the parade ground to witness an elaborate programme arranged for their entertainment.

Thousands of Moros, residents of Jolo, and from the neighboring islands were present to take part in the festivities, which were wonderfully picturesque.

Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt were presented with many Moro gifts by the Sultan, who offered his hand in marriage to Miss Roosevelt, and would make her Sultana of the Sulu Archipelago, saying that his people desired her to remain among them.

While some members of the party were out-buffing in the afternoon, Frederick O'Brien, editor of the Cable News, was seized with cramps, and the undertow was rapidly carrying him out to sea.

Seeing his peril, started after him and rescued him at the risk of his own life.

CEBU, P. I., Aug. 22.—Secretary Taft and party arrived here at nine o'clock this morning on the transport Logan.

The Logan will sail for Taclovan at day-break to-morrow. The Logan will take to Hongkong Secretary Taft's entire party and a company of marines, which will relieve the legation guard at Peking.

First Lieutenant William A. Duncan, assistant surgeon, relieved of duty at Fort Leavenworth, will proceed to San Francisco and take of transport, which will sail for the Philippines Islands and there report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

Captain Schofield, first Snelling, is to proceed by first available transport sailing from San Francisco to the Philippines Islands and report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT TO BE RESTORED

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—Civil government, which has been suspended for more than a year by martial law in German Southwest Africa, will soon be restored.

The resignation of Colonel Leutwein, the Governor, who has functions were taken over by Lieutenant General von Trotha, commander in chief of the military forces, has been accepted and Herr von Lindquist, Consul General at Cape Town, has been appointed in his stead.

ARMY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Army orders—Sergeant (first class) Max Arend, Hospital Corps, Army General Office, Presidio, San Francisco, is to be sent to the Philippine Islands on the first available transport leaving San Francisco.

He will report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

First Lieutenant William A. Duncan, assistant surgeon, relieved of duty at Fort Leavenworth, will proceed to San Francisco and take of transport, which will sail for the Philippines Islands and there report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

Captain Schofield, first Snelling, is to proceed by first available transport sailing from San Francisco to the Philippines Islands and report to the commanding general of the Philippines Division for assignment to duty.

PRODIGIOUS STOCK

METAL BED—Heavy uprights, gracefully curved filling, angle iron head and side rails; comes in a variety of colorings. Price... $3.85

3-PIECE PARLOR SUIT—Mahogany finished frame, best steel spring; upholstered in figured velour. Price $23.50

SIDEBOARD—Solid oak, golden finish; top has bevel French plate mirror, highly polished. Price... $16.75

This is economy's center. If you want furniture, carpets, draperies, stoves or ranges, trade at the "Store on the Square." You will find the largest selection at lowest prices. "Nuf ced."

MOTHER GOOSE

There was a little man And to get a pen he ran, And he kept the pen scratching All the time, time, time; And with "Cordes" for his theme He used paper by the room, Getting "we are on the Square" In the rhyme, rhyme, rhyme.

Get busy and win a prize. The contest is open to all our young friends, wherever situated. The closing date, as well as the prize winners, will be announced in the daily papers. No person allowed to win more than one prize.

Each rhyme should be carefully marked with the writer's name and address and sent to Mother Goose, care of CORDES FURNITURE CO.

CORDES FURNITURE CO.

245-259 GEARY ST. ON THE SQUARE

EXPLOSION MADE IS ACCUSED OF NEGLIGENCE

come and attend to the leak when the explosion occurred. The explosion is described at considerable length. The court said:

SAFETY VALVES NOT TESTED.

"No one seems to have noticed any escape of steam from the safety valves of any of the boilers and no one can state that any of the safety valves blew off at any time that morning; that we can find no record of the safety valve of boiler 'B' being overhauled since July, 1904, nor any positive evidence of it having been done, though orders had been given for this to be done in March, 1906; that there is no record of the sentinel valves having been overhauled since July, 1904; that the safety valves were set at one hundred and forty-five pounds; but on route from Honolulu to this port orders were given to carry the steam pressure at from one hundred and thirty to one hundred and thirty-five pounds; that the safety valves were not changed; that this order had been clearly understood; that the hand gear for lifting the safety valves was not in working order and there is no record of any direct evidence that the safety valves had been tested in accordance with the navy regulation; that the discipline seems to have been excellent and everything that could be done by the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mortals could do to alleviate their sufferings and aid in their recovery, while the dead were taken to the various undertaking establishments where they were prepared for burial; that after an examination of the collapsed furnace flue and from physical tests that we have had made, the material was promptly removed to the regular and improvised hospitals where all was done that mort