

PLAN TO CAPTURE COMMTEE FAILS

Organization of the new Republican County Committee is deferred until after the municipal election. In a contest for chairman last night between Daniel A. Ryan and William H. Davis there was a tie, each candidate receiving 43 votes. Assertion was made that the candidacy of Davis represented an effort of Arthur G. Fisk to apply the governing body of the party to the use of the Southern Pacific Company in the next gubernatorial campaign.

DEMOCRATS READY FOR CAMPAIGN

County Committee at Meeting Elects Officers and Shapes Itself for Coming Struggle at Polls

Body of Twenty Will Be Appointed to Work in the Interest of the Ticket From Now Until Election

The Democratic County Committee met last night in Balboa Hall in the Native Sons' building and shaped itself for a vigorous campaign for the coming election. The session was a short one, but some important business was transacted.

The meeting was called to order by Thomas W. Hickey, chairman of the Democratic committee. Thomas W. Hickey was put in nomination for chairman by Daniel S. O'Brien and he was unanimously elected by the body. Mr. Hickey made a brief speech and called the attention of the members to the work that was before them. He said the time was here when every man should do his duty in behalf of his party. He declared that votes were not won by shouting, but by cool reason. He said that from now on every Democrat should go forth and make a personal campaign for his ticket and show the people of this city that the Democratic party was still alive.

D. W. McCarthy was placed in nomination for secretary of the committee and he was accepted without opposition.

Philip J. Fay made a motion to have a campaign committee of five appointed. William A. Kelly of the Thirty-fifth District proposed an amendment to Fay's motion. His amendment was to have the committee consist of twenty members, including the chairman and secretary, and the committee should be composed of a member from each Assembly District.

The campaign committee is to have the power to appoint sub-committees. The motion and amendment were unanimously carried.

Chairman Hickey said he would announce the names of the members on the campaign committee this morning. A meeting would be called during the afternoon of the campaign when the work for the coming election would be mapped.

A motion was made by Louis Mosser of the Forty-first District that a committee of eighteen be appointed to frame a new constitution and by-laws for the County Committee. It was unanimously carried when the vote was taken. The committee will meet again at the call of the chair.

Hope Is Abandoned of Getting Body of Youth From Rocky Mountain Chasm

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 4.—Abandoning hope of getting his body from a deep chasm in the heart of the Rockies to the family burying ground in Illinois, the relatives of Lewis G. Leving, an Armour Institute student, have determined to build a tomb where the body lies.

A speculator is being built around and over the remains, which lie in an almost impenetrable gulch at the base of Mount Ypslon, Estes Park, into which the young student fell to death August 2, while attempting to scale a cliff which never has been successfully ascended by man.

A thousand feet below the spot where Leving slipped, the body lies on the bank of a bottomless pool or lake, above which cliffs rise for hundreds of feet on each side.

The father, a millionaire of Canton, Ill., ordered that no expense be spared in recovering the body, and many attempts were made to bring it out.

Now at the father's order, men are at work building a tomb from the boulders and blocks of granite at the foot of the slide.

Men and sacks of cement are let down with ropes and masons are building the massive monument. The work is being done under the direction of Enos Mills, a noted Longs Peak guide.

BISHOP VAN DENVER SAID TO HAVE RESIGNED

Prelate Now in Richmond Diocese May Succeed Late Archbishop Chappelle at New Orleans.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4.—It is reported today that Bishop Van Devener of the Richmond diocese has resigned or is about to offer his resignation to the Congregation of the Propaganda at Rome.

In connection with the rumored resignation of Bishop Van Devener it is said he may be named as the successor of the late Archbishop Chappelle in the archdiocese of New Orleans.

Another prelate who is mentioned as a possible successor to Mgr. Chappelle is Bishop Henry Granjon of Tucson, A. T. Dr. Granjon lived at St. Mary's Seminary, this city, for several years prior to his consecration, and was at the head of the society for the propagation of the faith in the United States.

CANDIDATES FOR CHAIRMANSHIP OF REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE, WHO EACH RECEIVED FORTY-THREE VOTES. IN SPIRIT OF HARMONY IT WAS AGREED TO POSTPONE SELECTION OF A PRESIDING OFFICER UNTIL AFTER THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION, TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN RYAN TO SERVE MEANTIME.

Vote on Selection of County Chairman Ends in a Deadlock Over Ryan and Davis.

Ryan 43, Davis 43, was the outcome of the contest last night for chairman of the new Republican County Committee. When the tie vote was announced the committee deferred permanent organization until the third Tuesday in November. A scheme devised by Postmaster Arthur G. Fisk and Jere Burke to seize the governing body of the Republican party and transfer it to the Southern Pacific Railroad came dangerously near execution, owing to the fact that the leaders of the San Francisco Republican League had been devoting their energies to important work in behalf of John S. Partridge for Mayor.

The issue before the County Committee was clearly defined. It was the judgment of men who have in good faith and firm purpose enlisted in the battle to redeem San Francisco from the odium of graft that plain language should be spoken. Therefore the record of Postmaster Fisk as a railroad politician was reviewed by Ralph Hathorn. There was no mincing of phrases in the narrative of the campaign which resulted in the defeat of Henry J. Crocker two years ago when the railroad swerved to Schmitz. The purpose of Fisk to grasp the organization of the party and to apply it to railroad or personal use in the gubernatorial campaign one year hence was clearly exploited. There was no groping in the dark for the cause of the clash. The leaders of the league reviewed the cause of duty on the part of the citizens of San Francisco should know the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. If harm comes to Mr. Partridge's candidacy by reason of heroic devotion to the cause of duty on the part of his supporters, he will have the strength to meet it.

Fairfax H. Wheelan spoke earnestly in behalf of the candidacy of Daniel A. Ryan, holding that the candidate stood for the principles and policies of the San Francisco Republican League. Ryan was eulogized as the champion and advocate of John S. Partridge for Mayor.

Leon Samuels advocated the election of William H. Davis, placing special emphasis on the incident that Mr. Davis was once the executive secretary of Governor Gage.

Some novelties may be introduced as the battle progresses, and among them a photograph of Mr. Fisk at his desk in the Postoffice would surely excite attention.

The meeting of the committee was called to order by Daniel A. Ryan. R. L. Hathorn of the Thirty-fifth suggested calling the roll, which was done by Secretary Charles Morris. Hathorn then moved the adoption of the order of business, which was carried.

Leon Samuels of the Twenty-ninth placed in nomination William H. Davis of the Forty-third for the position of chairman of the County Committee. He spoke in glowing terms of the good qualities of Mr. Davis, especially as to his qualifications for executive work. He also spoke of Davis' good work as secretary to Governor Gage.

Fairfax H. Wheelan of the Thirty-ninth echoed the sentiments of Samuels, but placed in nomination Daniel A. Ryan of the Fortieth. He urged Ryan's claim to the chairmanship on the ground that his selection would be the best move on the part of the committee. Setting aside the gratitude due to Ryan, Wheelan said every ounce of strength will be called forth to gain a victory for fusion and a clean city and administration, and that Ryan was the better man at the present time. All interests, he declared, that have not the purpose of setting Hathorn aside and every legitimate expedient should be used to put John S. Partridge at the head of municipal affairs.

Edward F. Bryant of the Twenty-eighth seconded Ryan, and J. B. Reilly of the Forty-third seconded Davis. It then became apparent that the fight for the chairmanship would become tense, and in order to set the committee right Hathorn turned on a searching speech for Ryan. He said: It is now the time when it becomes necessary to ascertain how this committee will stand. At this time, our highest duty is to have a victory for fusion. In this committee will lose votes for our candidate and if the issue of harmony must come up, why do we have to have it arise now than to put it off. If the issue must be met, it must be met squarely now and be decided.

to as many distinctions as can many of you assembled here. He has no more right to the chairmanship than you that are here have. He has no more right to it than I have, and I do not say this egotistically, but from the point of length of service and amount of work for the party. At this time you need Mr. Ryan at the head of the committee. One thing alone should call for this, for I tell you frankly that it was Mr. Ryan's work that kept Ruf from controlling the delegates of the convention and the members of this County Committee.

PARTRIDGE UNSMIRCHED.
John S. Partridge is not the railroad candidate for Mayor. Not one dollar of railroad money has been contributed. We have forgotten the railroad interests' actions of the past. We have not forgotten what the railroad did to Crocker, and we know all about Mr. Davis' affiliations with Gage.

At the conclusion of Hathorn's speech the nominations were closed and the vote called by roll. As each delegate answered for Ryan or Davis the lead saw-sawed back and forth. When Ryan's name was called in the Fortieth he reserved the right as chairman to cast his vote for himself. The result was a deadlock, with four committeemen absent, three of whom are recognized Ryan men. —John D. Daly of the Thirty-fifth, W. H. Mitchell, Thirty-ninth, and G. Malpiede, Forty-fifth.

Mayor Schmitz Makes Demand for the Support by Hearers of All Aspirants on Union Labor Ticket

SEVERE COLD HAS AFFECT ON THROAT

Strain of a Frenzied Campaign Causes the Standard Bearer of Ruefism to Shorten His Talks

"Don't switch. Vote the straight ticket. This is the most critical year in the history of the Union Labor party. The least deviation from the straight party ticket will endanger the success of the cause you and I believe from the bottom of our hearts is the righteous cause of the plain people this year." This was the reiterated plea of Mayor Schmitz at all of the political meetings at which he spoke last night.

Mr. Schmitz suffered from a severe cold and for this reason cut all of his speeches short. Even with this disadvantage, he delivered three political addresses. Schmitz has been talking with great vigor during the past three nights and the strain on his voice has told severely upon him. Added to this, he caught a slight cold riding from hall to hall in an open buggy and this added to his discomfort. Last night he rode in the street cars, but the trips were made so slowly that he will be forced to return to the white horse in order to keep all of his appointments.

NOT INDICTED HE REPEATS.

From present indications Schmitz will rely on the failure of the recent Grand Jury to indict him for malfeasance of office.

ty-seventh—J. E. Greene, W. J. Young, Albert Loyd, Thirty-eighth—J. J. Conlon, Jesse Mayer, C. C. Morris, Portland—Jesse Marks, Henry Thompson, W. H. Cobb, W. Wilkinson; Forty-first—J. A. Bush, William Gerette, George Walker; Forty-second—W. H. Davis, H. Kent, J. B. Reilly, T. K. McCarthy, W. E. Galiszer; Forty-fourth—John Luckmann, G. Hillmark, A. L. Cowley.
Absent, not voting—J. C. Kirkpatrick, John Daly, W. H. Mitchell and G. Malpiede.
It was moved that the nominations for officers of the County Committee be deferred until the third Tuesday in November. The motion carried. Hathorn then moved that Ryan act as temporary chairman of the interests of John S. Partridge, the number of the committee and the persons serving to be at the discretion of the chairman.

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

Knight of the Thirty-fifth moved an amendment that Vice Chairman Davis and Secretary Morris of the convention serve on the committee, together with Chairman Ryan. Wheelan objected and moved as a substitute for the whole that Ryan confer with Partridge as to the latter's wishes and be given a free hand in naming the campaign committee. To this Samuels objected and moved the whole matter be laid on the table, but a general murmur of disapproval at the obstruction tactics caused him to withdraw his motion. Wheelan's substitute motion was put and carried, with the provision that the number be equal to that of the campaign committee of the Democratic County Committee.
