Flees With Package of Currency Given to Express Company for Shipment

NO TRACE OF FUGITIVE

Tells His Wife He Is Going Out to Spend the Evening and Escapes With Loot

PITTSBURG, Oct. 10.—The startling discovery was made late to-day that the Adams Express Company has been victimized to the extent of $100,000, supposedly through the peculations of an employe. The following is official statement of the affair is given for publication:

"At 4:30 p. m., Monday, October 9, a bank of Pittsburgh delivered to the Adams Express Company, at its office at 610 Wood street, a package, a package of currency, containing $100,000. Of this amount $80,000 was in $100 bills, $10,000 in $50 bills, and the remainder, $10,000, in $5, $10 and $20 bills. The package containing this large sum of money was consigned to a bank in Cincinnati.

"This package was received and accepted for by Edward George Cunliffe, who was then acting in the place of the regular money clerk, who was ill. "Cunliffe left the office at the usual time last evening, and this morning, when he failed to report for duty, a hurried examination was made of his department and it was learned that about $1000 of funds entrusted to his care was missing. General Agent Hiner of the Adams Express Company called in detectives and placed the matter in their hands. Later developments brought to light the fact that, in addition to the $1000 missing, the bank's package containing the $100,000 had not been received at the money forwarding office at the Union station in this city.

"Inquiries made at his residence, 214 Lucerne street, West End, Pittsburgh, showed that Cunliffe arrived home at the customary time last evening, and after changing his clothes bade his family good-by, saying to his wife that he was going out for the evening. Nothing further has been heard from him.

"Cunliffe has been employed by the Adams Express Company since March 1, 1904. Previous to that time he was employed in the Pittsburgh service of the American Express Company, the Electric Express Company and the United States Express Company of Hartford, Conn., and bore a good reputation. He was a good, accurate and an excellent clerk."

A warrant has been issued charging Cunliffe with larceny.

HUNGARY TO ENJOY TEN WEEKS' TRUCE

Diet Is Protracted and Negotiations With Crown Will Continue.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Oct. 10.—The Hungarian Diet was prorogued to-day until December 19, without any untoward incident. The displays of angry sentiment on the part of the united opposition in the Lower House. This gives a breathing space of ten weeks for further negotiations between the crown and the coalition, and the chances for an agreement are regarded as slim. The coalition appears to be willing to play a waiting game, in the conviction that the necessities of the Government with regard to money, revenues and commercial treaties will force the crown to consent to a settlement.

General Baron Fejervary will go to Vienna to-morrow or Thursday to submit reports to the King-Emperor and to await his Majesty's decision regarding his reappointment as Premier or the acceptance of his resignation.

To reassemble the Diet before the end of the year offers the possibility of the legal election of a Hungarian delegation, but as it is not likely that Parliament will make the necessary appointments, the crown probably will be obliged to provide for the common expenditures of the monarchy without delegations and without the sanction of the Hungarian Parliament.

ELECTION COMMISSIONER ROBERTS MEETS DEATH FROM THE BITE OF RATTLESNAKE

Election Commissioner Robert W. Roberts died Monday night at Calistoga as the result of an unusual accident. He was bitten by a rattlesnake which had been shot to pieces, while he was out hunting with a party of friends. The head of the snake, the only part of the reptile left, suddenly threw out its poisonous fangs, which fastened on Roberts' right forefinger, causing his death twenty-four hours later.

Reptile Fastens Its Fangs Upon Victim's Finger. Head of Monster Had Been Shot From Body

Poisonous Prong Finally Does Its Deadly Work.

Election Commissioner Robert W. Roberts died Monday night at Calistoga as the result of a bite from a rattlesnake he received near the Little Geysers last Sunday. Roberts, with a party that included Fred Muller and Otto tum Sude, an attorney, left this city on a pleasure trip last Thursday and was camping at Pine Flat, a few miles above Calistoga.

On Sunday at noon the party went for a stroll and soon encountered a large rattlesnake. Muller carried a gun and shot the reptile into pieces. The party stood about for several minutes discussing the immense size of the reptile's head, which was the only part not blown to pieces. Roberts reached forth to pick up the head and at that instant the rattlesnake's poisonous fangs darted forth and fastened on Roberts' right forefinger. With a gasp of horror Roberts cried out: "My God, boys, I'm bit!"

Roberts' hand began to swell up to a large size and remedies usual in such cases were applied at once. As no improvement was noticed in the sufferer's condition arrangements were made to take him to Calistoga. Arriving there, Dr. H. L. Parish was immediately summoned, but Roberts was beyond medical aid and he passed away at midnight Monday. The body was shipped to this city and now lies at Porter & White's undertaking parlors.

Roberts was 45 years of age and leaves a widow. He was appointed Election Commissioner by Mayor Schultz in January, 1904, and his term would have expired in 1907. Roberts was associated with the Eagle Laundry Company and was well liked by all who knew him.

FIRE CAUSING HEAVY LOSSES

SALINAS, Oct. 10.—Fierce fires are raging all around Salinas. Thick, heavy, black smoke hangs over the city. On the west the fire which started near Seaside has already swept over more than 2000 acres, and it is feared it may sweep over the entire country from the ocean to Salinas river, embracing over 35,000 acres. In San Miguel Canyon, on the east, fire has swept clean some 7000 acres including school houses, residences, barns and orchards. Near Gonzales flames laid waste over 6000 acres. In all cases are conflagrations beyond control, and the damage will reach high into the thousands. Reports to-night are very gloomy.

DAMAGE IS ENORMOUS.

Fires in Ventura County Sweep Over Many Acres. VENTURA, Oct. 10.—The night the great forest and brush fires that have been raging in the vicinity for the past three days are under control. North of Ventura are no longer in danger. The wind has subsided and there is a return of cool, foggy weather. The damage that has been wrought by the conflagration is enormous and considerable livestock has perished. In addition, miles of fencing has been burned, and hundreds of cords of wood were burned. It is impossible to estimate the extent of this damage. The greatest loss, however, is to the stockmen.

LOSS VERY HEAVY.

Fire Near Redding Does More Than $200,000 Damage. REDDING, Oct. 10.—Twenty thousand dollars will not cover the damage done to East Side farmers and orchardists by the fire that raged from noon yesterday until 5 o'clock this morning. The ten-acre orchard of W. J. B. Martin, including the drying sheds and racks were burned, as were also fences, trees, barns and 100 tons of hay on the Menzel place, 100 cords of wood on McNeely's and Parson's places and seven miles of fencing along Churn Creek. The flames licked up everything slick and clear to the Hamilton place and were only checked there by systematic back firing. Several of the fire lighters were overcome by the smoke and heat.

Johnson had just concluded a deal that will amount to $25,000 when taken into custody. Johnson to-day stated that he intends not only to contest the charge, but make his arrest the basis of a civil action.

SEYMOUR HEARS FROM JOHNSON

Attorney for Emmons Grills Lawyer Who Is Prosecuting the Disgraced Senator

THANKS FOR THE JUDGE

Counsel for Defense Scores Everybody Who Gave Evidence Against His Client

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 10.—Grove L. Johnson, the central figure in the Emmons trial to-day, He played upon the jury with the skill of an accomplished musician who touches a chord that enthralls. All day long he painted vivid word pictures for the jurors to look upon and punctuated his points with a withering invective that poured indiscriminately upon the heads of those who had taken the initiative in the prosecution of his client. District Attorney Seymour came in for his share; Charles T. Jones, who has assisted in the prosecution of the case, learned that the flaying he received at the hands of Lawyer Irwin was hardly a marker to what was in store for him. Clarence Grange was subjected to an analysis that did not sound well; the alleged methods employed by Gavin McNab in his "high souled" bribery was held up in remarkable colors and had all the changes in the book rung upon it; Fremont Older had his chance with the attorney; Jordan was held up as something less than a man, but a little more than Grange, and Hartling and Tichenor, the detectives, were shown up in colors that were anything but flattering.

Mr. Johnson went to his work as fresh, apparently, as if he had been resting for the past month instead of fighting for his client as only he knows how to fight. His points followed each other with a precision and sequence that made his story complete in every detail.

Mr. Johnson paid a high compliment to Judge Hart for his absolute fairness in the trial of the case. In this he voiced the sentiment of his client, Emmons, who, after the testimony was in, personally thanked the Judge for his fairness.

Attorney Johnson grilled Charles T. Jones for the point in his argument touching upon the domestic affairs of the defendant. Mr. Johnson said he had known Jones for forty years and in that time had worked beside him and with him many times, but never, until the present case, had he known him to stoop to petty-foggery like a police court shyster.

Johnson volunteered to tell the jury why Mr. Seymour had taken such animated interest in the case, which, he said, was not the People against Emmons, but the Continental Building and Loan Association against Emmons. Seymour's interest was, he said, because he whispers in one ear "Folk of Missouri," into the other "Jerome of New York, and into both he cries "Governor of California."

ACCORDION PLAYER KILLS MAN WHO DISLIKES MUSIC

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 10.—Pedro Alvarado was stabbed in the back of the neck and instantly killed this morning by Jesus Morillo near Delez. Alvarado was reading a book and the accordion playing of Morillo disturbed him. He asked that the music be stopped and the latter refusing, seized a hatchet and made for him. Morillo avoided the onslaught and struck his knife into the reader's neck.

WIFE BEATER GOES INSANE

William O'Dougherty, who threw his 7 months' old babe against the ceiling, breaking its right leg, and who beat his wife when she tried to interfere, became violently insane in his prison cell in the Central police station last evening. But for the presence of Officer John Maloney, O'Dougherty's cellmate might have been seriously hurt.

In the early part of the evening the police were attracted to the cell by a call for help. The door of the cell was opened by the automatic spring and Maloney, a well-built and trained athlete, went to the assistance of O'Dougherty's cellmate, who by this time was being choked by the enraged lunatic.

O'Dougherty immediately attacked the officer and a hard struggle followed. Maloney managed to drag O'Dougherty from the cell into the office part of the prison, where several of the other officers and some of the trustees came to his assistance. John Bolen, a trustee, was badly bitten on the hand and several of the policemen received minor scratches.

O'Dougherty was finally subdued and sent to the Emergency Hospital to await an examination before the Lunacy Commission.

O'Dougherty was arraigned in court yesterday afternoon, and after some damaging testimony by his little 13-year-old daughter the Judge raised the crime to a felony and set the case for hearing to-day. Owing to the later phases of the man's conduct the hearing will be postponed.

Detectives J. McGown, T. Conlon and A. Martine swore to a complaint late yesterday evening charging Thomas Fitzpatrick and Bernard Duffy with burglary. Fitzpatrick and Duffy are very important witnesses against O'Dougherty and after his arrest he charged them both with burglary.

JOHN I. SABIN DIES AT HOME IN CITY

THREE WOMEN VOTED FAMOUS

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Three women and five men were chosen to-day to receive tablets in the Hall of Fame at New York University. Maria Mitchell was the only American scientist to be elected at this time, though Louis Agassiz, with 82 votes, secured admission as a foreign-born American.

A curious commentary on Maria Mitchell's election is the fact that eight of the electors, chiefly scientists, refused to vote for any woman, thus reducing the number of votes necessary to elect a woman to 47, while 51 were required for a man.

Mary Lyon, founder of Mount Holyoke College, and Emma Willard, the author of "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" and a famous educator, were the other women honored.

Alexander Hamilton, with 57 votes, the highest number received by any candidate at this election, and John Paul Jones, with 53, share with Agassiz the honors of being the first American immortals of foreign birth.

Two American statesmen were chosen—John Quincy Adams, whose tablet will occupy a niche next to that of his father, John Adams, he having received 53 votes, and James Madison, who secured admission with 55 votes.

Patrick Henry, John C. Calhoun and Andrew Jackson fell far short of securing bronze tablets of record, and Samuel Adams was again defeated. James Monroe's votes numbered only 23. Seward, Sumner, DeWitt Clinton, Gardell, John Jay and Stanton were among the statesmen who failed of election.

Miss Roosevelt Soon to Sail. TOKIO, Oct. 10.—Miss Roosevelt passed through here to-day en route to Yokohama, whence she will sail for America on Friday next. She was accompanied by Master of Ceremonies Nagasaki Seigo, who was specially detailed from the Imperial Household Department as traveling escort for herself and companions.

Vallejo Man Uses Razor. VALLEJO, Oct. 10.—Late last night a sailor said a tough character named Edward Packard followed him. He asked the protection of Herbert Warren, a bartender in a saloon. As they walked down to the wharf Packard, who was waiting in a dark alley, darted out and made a slash with a razor at Warren's throat. Warren put up his right hand, receiving a bad cut. He knocked Packard down. The latter was later taken to jail by two officers.

GRAPE-NUTS.

Come Up Where You Belong

Perhaps you know why you fail in the plans for money, fame and position. Some don't. Just why the brain does not produce practical money making results is a puzzle to many men. Strong, healthy natural brains cannot be made from the food most men eat, and good brains can't work sharp when slugged to weakness by coffee. Unsuccessful brains come from improperly selected food and from coffee drinking. Coffee affects the stomach and nerves, thence the brain and prevents proper digestion of even good food. A distinct improvement in mental power will follow in a week or ten days after coffee is left off and Postum taken on. The results are multiplied when the brain-building food, Grape-Nuts, is used twice a day. There are well established and very clearly understood reasons for these sure results from the change in food and drink. You can make Money, Position, Fame if you have the kind of Brain that works that way. Postum well boiled produces a delicious beverage, satisfying and nourishing. Quit drugging and poor food and Come Up Where You Belong.
