

CAPTAIN GOING WILL DWELL HEREAFTER WITH HIS PRETTY JAPANESE WIFE.

Seafaring Man Settles Difficulties With American Spouse and Is to Make Home in Mikado's Realm.

MRS. BERTHA JANE GOING, WIFE OF MASTER OF STEAMSHIP AMERICA MARU, WHOSE SUIT FOR DIVORCE WILL NOT BE RESISTED BY HER HUSBAND. AN AGREEMENT WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY WHEREBY THE DEFENDANT IS TO ALLOW JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.

When Phillip Hastings Going, master of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner America Maru, returns to the land of the Rising Sun it will be to settle down with the pretty Japanese woman that bears his name, free from the entanglements of the alliance with the woman of his own blood who, under the law of California, is his only legal spouse. It was announced in Judge Murasky's court yesterday that Captain Going and Mrs. Bertha Jane Going, who recently sued him for divorce, have settled their property rights out of court and that the gallant mariner will make no contest to the action instituted by his wife for absolute separation, but will permit it to go by default.

GRAPE-NUTS.

When Used as Food is Bound to Make Trouble. The average cereal food, as frequently prepared, forms a pasty, gas-generating mass in the stomach, which gives the digestive apparatus considerable trouble and frequently puts it out of business. A young man writes from Trenton, N. J., to tell what it did for him. "I lived in a boarding-house for three years before I was married," he says, "and every blessed morning there was supplied me some sort of cereal breakfast food, which I ate simply because I had been trained to eat what was set before me—not because I particularly relished any of it. It used to lie heavy on my stomach and within an hour fill me full of gas, making me very uncomfortable. At last this sort of thing brought on a serious disturbance of my digestive apparatus, with loss of appetite, and in time I had to go under the doctor's care. "He put me on a diet of milk and toast, which in a week or two lost me thirteen pounds in weight. I had a package of Grape-Nuts food in my room, which I had bought as a matter of curiosity, but had never opened. When I finally tired of milk and toast I thought I would try the Grape-Nuts, without any expectation that I would like it, thinking that it was probably similar to all the rest of the prepared foods. "I liked it with cream from the start, however, finding it entirely different from anything else that I had ever eaten, and indulged in it freely. In one week (I say it on my honor) I regained nine pounds in weight and the Grape-Nuts gave me the power to digest other kinds of food. It put me on my feet in a few days and now is and always will be a regular food item in our house. My only trouble is to keep my wife from eating too much of it, she likes it so well." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

MINERS ADOPT A NEW METHOD

State Association Decides to Meet Hereafter Where the Mines Are Located

CONVENTION IS CALLED Sessions of 1905 Will Be Held at Nevada City in the Month of November

The California Miners' Association has determined upon a new course of action. President Benjamin said yesterday that instead of holding the conventions in San Francisco, as heretofore, it has appeared advisable to the executive committee of the association to meet in the mining sections of the State. The association came into existence when it was desired by the miners to rehabilitate hydraulic mining. Placer, Sierra, Amador, Nevada, Yuba, Tuolumne and other mining counties rallied with financial and moral support and the movement that resulted enabled the association to get the Caminetti law passed. It also enabled the association to secure large appropriations from the National Government and from the State of California to have dams established on the Yuba River to restrain mining debris. The Caminetti act helped smaller operators by the hydraulic process in certain localities, but never enabled the larger hydraulic mining enterprises to resume. When it became apparent in the mining counties where hydraulic mining and proved to be very profitable to individuals and sources of county wealth, the Caminetti act, which was accepted as a compromise in the first instance, did not work to the satisfaction of the financial support that certain mining counties had given dropped off and the principal source of support came from San Francisco. In course of time miners spoke unfavorably of this. To regain favor by showing the mining counties that an organization is for the benefit of the mining industry of the entire State it has been voted by the California Miners' Association to hold conventions at various points. The annual convention of 1905 will be held at Nevada City November 22, 23, 24 and 25. Committees of the California Miners' Association have been appointed at Nevada City and at Grass Valley to cooperate with the local committees to make the convention as much of a success as possible. Fred Seales, W. F. Englebright and Nat P. Brown are appointed by the association for the Nevada City committee and George Maitland, A. D. Foote and C. G. Church will serve as committees at Grass Valley.

The Greatest American Prima Donna shows her appreciation of Lablache—America's most perfect Face Powder. An exemplification of what science and skill can produce as a complexion beautifier and a toilet necessity to women of refinement. Mr. Ben. Levy, Boston: I find your Lablache Face Powder very refreshing and soothing. EMMA EAMES STORY. We have thousands of letters from all parts of the world testifying to the wonderful qualities and purity of Lablache Face Powder. Dear Sir—As I have used your Face Powder for a long time, I am firmly convinced that it has not its equal in this or any other country. Believe me, very truly yours, ZELIE DE LUSSAN. It is our aim to use only the highest-priced, purest and most efficient ingredients known to science in the manufacture of Lablache Face Powder, believing it better to give our patrons full value for their money than to expend it in large, illustrated and extravagant advertisements, as Lablache Face Powder sells on its own merits. Flesh, White, Pink or Cream, 50 cents a box. Sold everywhere or by mail. Send 10 cents for sample. BEN. LEVY & CO., French Perfumers, 125 KINGSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

Letter Number Two

In Which the Brother Touches on the Hysterical Adulation of Public Idols by Women

My Dear Kittens: You will be interested, I think, if not altogether pleased, at an experience I had, apropos of your last letter. You told me in that letter about the "time of your lives" that you girls had at Music Hall the other afternoon at a recital given by —; how his playing simply "carried you off your feet"; how it "enthralled" you and made you all feel that this pianist was "simply divine." All the girls had "creeps down their spines"; they were "hot and cold all over," etc. In short, you had one of those hysterical flings that seem to appeal to girls and women at these recitals.

You must read the brother's letter in full, in the
